[Ron Isola Day – May 19, 2012]

Resolution declaring May 19, 2012, as Ron Isola Day in the City and County of San Francisco.

WHEREAS, Ron Isola has been an institution at Archbishop Riordan High School for more than five decades; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Isola graduated from the school in 1961, and six years later returned to his alma matter to begin a distinguished career as a teacher and coach; and

WHEREAS, During his tenure at Archbishop Riordan High School, Mr. Isola served as a coach, mentor, and exemplary role model to over 25,000 young men; and

WHEREAS, Under his leadership the Archbishop Riordan Athletic Program flourished, participating in many Western Catholic Athletic League (WCAL) and Central Coast Section (CCS)championships; and

WHEREAS, from 1978 through 1994, as varsity basketball coach Mr. Isola lead his teams to seven WCAL Championships and five CCS Championships; and

WHEREAS, The Riordan Crusaders won every home game from 1983 until 1989 and hold a league-record in WCAL play for their 44 game win streak; and

WHEREAS, Since 1973, Mr. Isola's Camp Crusader Summer Program has served the Bay Area by providing summer fun and exercise for more than 12,000 children; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Isola's career has been distinguished by numerous awards and accolades including the Archbishop Riordan Chaminade Award, as well as, induction into the San Francisco Prep Hall of Fame and the Archbishop Riordan and Epiphany School Hall of Fame; and

WHEREAS, He was a model instructor in the classroom and brought history to life for the thousands of young men who were fortunate to know him as their teacher; and

WHEREAS, Though he may be retiring from day-to-day involvement at the school, Ron Isola will always be known as a Crusader; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the members of the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco, do hereby proclaim Saturday, May 19, 2012, as RON ISOLA DAY in the City and County of San Francisco, and do convey the city's profound and sincere appreciation for all Mr. Isola's efforts to create a thriving parish and school that is beloved by many San Franciscans.
