9                   * * * *

10               (b)   (1) Every petition for redetermination shall be verified by the person against 11 whom the Tax Collector made the determination, stating under penalty of perjury the specific
12 grounds upon which the petition is founded, with specificity sufficient to enable the Tax
13 Collector to understand and evaluate the petition, and verifying the information and 14 authenticating the records upon which the petitioner relies in support of the petition. Any 15 ground for redetermination that is not specified in the petition for redetermination shall be 16 deemed waived by the petitioner in any later judicial proceeding.

17               (2) If the Tax Collector determines that the petition fails to state specific grounds

13 that made the overpayment may request such a refund from the Tax Collector on a return,
14 amended return, or request for refund form that is issued by the Tax Collector and that is filed
15 with the Tax Collector within the later of one year of the payment of such amount or the date

23 a denial and shall have no effect on the statute of limitations for filing a claim for refund under
24 subsections (a)-(f) of this Section 6.15-1. In lieu of requesting a refund on a return, amended

LEGISLATIVE DIGEST

[Business and Tax Regulations Code - Tax Penalties and Interest; Administration of Cannabis Business Tax]

Ordinance amending the Business and Tax Regulations Code to amend the penalties, and the provisions for waiver of penalties and interest, relating to taxes that are subject to the common administrative provisions of that Code, and to add provisions for administering the Cannabis Business Tax.

Existing Law

Existing law provides for the imposition of penalties for the failure to comply with the Business and Tax Regulations Code (“BTRC”) and authorizes the Tax Collector to waive certain penalties and interest in certain circumstances.

BTRC Section 6.17-1 imposes a penalty on persons who fail to pay, collect, or remit tax to the City of 5% of the tax, if the failure is for not more than one month after the tax became delinquent, plus an additional 5% for each following month during which such failure continues, up to 20% in the aggregate, until the date of payment. Any taxes remaining unpaid for 90 days after notification that the tax is delinquent are subject to an additional penalty of 20% of the amount of the tax. If the failure to pay is due to fraud or an intent to evade tax, an additional penalty of 50% of the amount due is imposed, in addition to any other penalties and interest. Unpaid taxes also accrue interest at the rate of 1% per month from the date the taxes become delinquent through the date the person pays the delinquent taxes, penalties, interest, and fees accrued to the date of payment in full.

BTRC Section 6.17-2 imposes a penalty on persons who underreport any amount of tax required to be reported on a return, if the Tax Collector determines that such underreporting was attributable to negligence. The penalty is 5% of the amount of the underreported tax, if the negligence is for not more than one month, with an additional 5% for each month during which such negligence continues, up to 20% in the aggregate. If the underreporting is due to fraud or an intent to evade tax, the Tax Collector may impose a penalty in the amount of 50% of the underreported tax. If the Tax Collector determines that a taxpayer has made a substantial underreporting of tax, the Tax Collector may impose an additional 50% penalty.

BTRC Section 6.17-3(a) imposes the penalty under BTRC Section 6.17-1 for persons who fail to register in a timely manner. BTRC Section 6.17-3 also imposes penalties for other failures, including with respect to registration, return filing, and the inspection and production of records.

BTRC Section 6.17-4 authorizes the Tax Collector to waive, in whole or in part, any penalty or interest assessed under BTRC Sections 6.17-1, 6.17-2, or 6.17-3, if certain conditions are satisfied.

If the Tax Collector determines that a person has failed to pay or has underpaid a tax, BTRC Section 6.11-1 authorizes the Tax Collector to determine the tax deficiency based upon the tax return or any other information in the Tax Collector's possession, and add thereto interest at the rate of 1% per month. If a person fails to make a timely return or remittance, the Tax Collector may make a determination based upon an estimate of the amount of the total tax liability of the person, and shall add to that determination a penalty equal to 20% thereof and interest at the rate of 1% per month.

BTRC Section 6.12-4 imposes the penalty under BTRC Section 6.17-1 if the amount specified in a jeopardy determination is not paid, and no petition for redetermination is filed, within 15 days after notice of that determination is served.

BTRC Section 6.9-3 imposes a penalty on every person or combined group who fails to timely pay any estimated tax payment. The penalty is 5% of the amount of the underpayment.

At the November 6, 2018 election, San Francisco voters approved Proposition D, which imposes the Cannabis Business Tax, effective January 1, 2021. Existing law provides for the administration of most of the City's taxes. These administrative provisions include definitions; the Tax Collector's audit and collection authority; filing and payment requirements; rules for refunds and lawsuits; penalty, interest, and citation provisions; and taxpayer confidentiality provisions, among others.

Amendments to Current Law

For tax periods ending on or after January 1, 2021 and, for fiscal years ending on or after July 1, 2021 in the case of the business registration fee and other charges imposed on a fiscal year basis, this ordinance would increase the penalty in BTRC Section 6.17-1 to a maximum of 25% of the unpaid tax. It would eliminate the additional 20% penalty in BTRC Section 6.17-1 for any taxes remaining unpaid for 90 days after notification, would eliminate the 50% substantial underreporting penalty in 6.17-2, and would eliminate the penalties in BTRC Section 6.9-3 for failure to make estimated tax payments. This ordinance would incorporate the penalties in BTRC Sections 6.11-3, 6.12-4, 6.17-2(a), and 6.17-3(a), and the interest provisions in BTRC Sections 6.11-1 and 6.11-3, into BTRC Section 6.17-1. It would consolidate the penalties for fraud or an intent to evade the tax into a new BTRC Section 6.17-2.

This ordinance would amend the waiver provisions in BTRC Section 6.17-4 by not making any interest waivable and tracking the property tax penalty waiver standard.

FILE NO. 200759

This ordinance would consolidate the tax deficiency determination provisions under BTRC Sections 6.11-1 and 6.11-3.

This ordinance would make other conforming and nonsubstantive changes, including the deletion of a redundant penalty provision in BTRC Section 906.2 relating to the clean technology business exclusion and the removal of the now expired Business Tax Penalty Amnesty Program in BTRC Article 17.

This ordinance would extend the existing administrative provisions, as amended by this ordinance, as applicable, to the Cannabis Business Tax.

MANDATE STATEMENT

City Charter Section 2.105 states that all legislative acts shall be by ordinance, approved by a majority of the members of the Board of Supervisors.

DETAILS OF PROPOSED LEGISLATION

The proposed ordinance amends the Business and Tax Regulations Code to (1) amend the penalties and the provisions for waiver of penalties and interest for the taxes subject to the common administrative provisions of the Code, and (2) apply the common administrative provisions to the Cannabis Business Tax.

Changes to Tax Penalties

Article 6 of the San Francisco Business and Tax Regulations Code (BTRC) defines the date by which payment of applicable taxes are due and sets the penalties that the Tax Collector may assess for the failure to pay the applicable tax in accordance with Code provisions.<sup>1</sup>

Estimated Taxes and Penalty

Currently, certain businesses are required to pay estimated taxes quarterly, which are credited against the final tax owed for the year. Businesses who do not make an estimated tax payment by the date defined in the Code must pay an “estimated tax penalty” equal to 5 percent of the underpayment of the estimated tax. Article 6 allows the Treasurer/Tax Collector to waive the estimated tax penalty under certain circumstances.

The proposed ordinance eliminates this provision upon the effective date of the ordinance.

Failure to Pay, Collect or Remit Taxes

Currently, businesses who fail to pay, collect or remit taxes are assessed a penalty of 5 percent of the unpaid taxes, plus an additional penalty of 5 percent for each month that the taxes are unpaid up to 20 percent. If the taxes are unpaid after 90 days, the penalty is increased by 20 percent of the unpaid tax. Unpaid taxes accrue interest of one percent per month.<sup>2</sup>

The proposed ordinance would eliminate the additional 20 percent penalty effective after 90 days. Businesses who fail to pay taxes would be assessed a penalty of 5 percent of the unpaid

<sup>1</sup> Article 6 provisions apply to the following taxes and fees, among others: Tax on Transient Occupancy of Hotel Rooms; Sugary Drinks Distributor Tax; Tax on the Occupancy of Parking Space in Parking Stations; Utility Users Tax; Access Line Tax; Stadium Operator Admission Tax; Business Registration Fees; Payroll Expense Tax; Gross Receipts Tax; Early Care and Education Commercial Rents Tax; Homelessness gross receipts tax; Traffic Congestion Mitigation Tax; and the Cigarette Litter Abatement Fee.

<sup>2</sup> The provisions in this paragraph do not apply to payroll expense tax, the gross receipts tax, the Early Care and Education Commercial Rents Tax, and the Homelessness Gross Receipts Tax if the sum of the payroll expense tax payments, gross receipts tax payments, Early Care and Education Commercial Rents Tax payments, and Homelessness Gross Receipts Tax payment is equal to or greater than the sum of the payroll expense tax, gross receipts tax, Early Care and Education Commercial Rents Tax, and the Homelessness Gross Receipts Tax liability for that tax year.

taxes, plus an additional penalty of 5 percent for each month that the taxes are unpaid up to 25 percent. Unpaid taxes accrue interest of one percent per month.<sup>3</sup>

These provisions would apply to tax periods ending on or after January 1, 2021 and for fiscal years ending on or after July 1, 2021 in the case of the business registration fee and other charges imposed on a fiscal year basis.

Underreporting of Taxes

Currently, if the Tax Collector determines a person underreported any amount of tax required to be reported on a return, and that such underreporting was attributable to negligence, the Tax Collector can impose a penalty of 5 percent of the unpaid taxes, plus an additional penalty of 5 percent for each month that the taxes are unpaid up to 20 percent. If the underreporting is substantial (defined by the Code as the tax finally determined by the Tax Collector exceeds the amount reported on a taxpayer's return for a taxable period by 25 percent or more, or if no return is filed, the tax liability determined by the Tax Collector exceeds $5,000), the Tax Collector may impose a penalty of 50 percent of the substantially-underreported tax. If the Tax Collector determines that the underreporting is due to fraud, the Tax Collector may impose a penalty of 50 percent of the unpaid or underpaid tax.

The proposed ordinance would amend this provision to delete the provision pertaining to "substantial underreporting" and would retain the provision that if the Tax Collector determines that the underreporting is due to fraud, the Tax Collector may impose a penalty of 50 percent of the unpaid or underpaid tax.

These provisions would apply to tax periods ending on or after January 1, 2021 and for fiscal years ending on or after July 1, 2021 in the case of the business registration fee and other charges imposed on a fiscal year basis.

Cannabis Tax

Currently, Article 6 of the Business and Tax Regulations Code does not reference the Cannabis Business Tax. The proposed ordinance amends the Code to include the Cannabis Business Tax in the Article 6 provisions, including defining estimated tax payments pertaining to the Cannabis Business Tax and other provisions to administer the Cannabis Business Tax.

Other Provisions

The proposed ordinance would delete obsolete text from the City's Business and Tax Regulations Code, including (1) Section 906.2(k)(1) regarding underreporting payroll expenses for Clean Technology Business Exclusion, which is redundant, and (2) deletion of Article 17 relating to the Business Tax Penalty Amnesty Program, which applied to tax liabilities ending on or before December 31, 1993.

<sup>3</sup> The provisions in this paragraph do not apply to estimated tax payments of payroll expense taxes, gross receipts taxes, Early Care and Education Commercial Rents Taxes, Homelessness Gross Receipts Taxes, or Cannabis Business Taxes.

FISCAL IMPACT

According to the Treasurer/Tax Collector's Office, the proposed ordinance would result in reduced penalties, estimated to be $290,000 in FY 2020-21, $485,000 in FY 2021-22, and $660,000 in FY 2023-24.

POLICY CONSIDERATION

According to Ms. Amanda Fried, Chief of Policy & Communications at the Treasurer-Tax Collector, the proposed changes to the Business and Tax Regulations Code are to improve compliance by streamlining penalties. According to Ms. Fried's presentation to the August 24, 2020 Small Business Commission meeting, Proposition F on the November 3, 2020 ballot will further reduce the impact of penalties on businesses by eliminating the payroll expense tax and increasing the small business exemption threshold. The Small Business Commission approved a motion supporting the proposed ordinance at the August 24, 2020 meeting.

RECOMMENDATION

Approval of the proposed ordinance is a policy matter for the Board of Supervisors.

RE: BOS File No. 200759 – Business and Tax Regulations Code - Tax Penalties and Interest; Administration of Cannabis Business Tax

Small Business Commission Recommendation to the Board of Supervisors: Support with modifications

Dear Ms. Calvillo,

On August 24, 2020 the Small Business Commission (SBC or Commission) heard BOS File No. 200759 – Business and Tax Regulations Code - Tax Penalties and Interest; Administration of Cannabis Business Tax. Amanda Fried, Chief of Policy and Communications, Office of the Treasurer and Tax Collector provided the SBC with an overview of the legislation. Marisa Rodriguez, Director of the Office of Cannabis, was also present to answer the Commission's questions. After discussion, the SBC voted (7-0) to recommend that the Board of Supervisors support the legislation with modification.

Ms. Fried provided a thorough review of the legislation and the legislative intent for the Commission. In particular, she cited that this legislation was written in order to streamline the City's existing complicated tax penalty structure. And more specifically, that penalties administered under existing law resulted in unnecessarily harmful outcomes. She also clarified that moving forward with this legislation before the November 2020 election will allow businesses to enjoy the benefits of a more streamlined and less punitive penalty structure in the current tax year.

The Commissioners then discussed the provision of the legislation which would revoke the Tax Collector's ability to waive interest accrued on unpaid taxes. They highlighted the importance of retaining this ability in light of the economic crisis facing small businesses triggered by COVID-19. Ms. Fried offered that she would contemplate the Commission's staff's recommendation to strike that provision.

Ultimately, the Commission voted unanimously to support the legislation with the following modification:

- Retain the existing Business and Tax Regulations Code provision outlined in Section 6.17, which allows the Tax Collector to, whole or in part, waive interest if the failure to make a payment or tax liability occurred notwithstanding the ordinary care of the taxpayer and in the absence of willful neglect; the taxpayer made an inadvertent error; or, if the waiver of the interest is ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

Thank you for considering the Commission's recommendation. Please feel free to contact me should you have any questions.

Sincerely,
