Please enter your qualifications:

In addition to being a long time resident of the District who is very familiar with the bicycle related issues in the District I am also a land use planner /policy analyst for the San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission (BCDC). In this role I have become very familiar with transportation planning and policy issues at the local and regional level. In the past, I have also attended MTC's Bicycle and Pedestrian Working Group meetings. I am also very familiar with the public process that is essential to effective planning and policy development. I feel well qualified to work with Supervisor Wiener and his staff to engage stakeholders such as the SF Bicycle Coalition, Walk SF, San Francisco Police Department and other relevant community groups within the District. Finally, I am excited at the prospect of engaging local residents and stakeholders, City Staff and elected officials to address bicycle issues, review policies and plans such as the SF Bicycle Plan and to make San Francisco a leader in providing residents with a safe and well planned bicycle network.

Business or Professional Experience:

I also have a wealth of experience with community engagement based on my role as a planner with BCDC. I also worked at the community level as a Peace Corps Volunteer in Honduras and understand how to work with local residents to inform the planning and community development process.
