A. Personal Statement

One purpose of the LGBT Seniors Task Force is to identify and mitigate barriers affecting LGBT seniors in accessing high-quality services in San Francisco related to their physical, emotional, social and spiritual health. Trained as a researcher and educator, and currently serving as the Director of Research and Program Development at Shanti Project in San Francisco (a non-profit organization serving people living with chronic illnesses, including breast cancer and HIV/AIDS), I am well-prepared to make a unique contribution to the LGBT Seniors Task Force.

My background in direct service includes assessing and addressing the needs of aging adults, many of whom belong to low-socio-economic status (SES) communities, who are homeless or marginally housed, and who depend upon safety-net hospitals, free clinics and community-based organizations for accessing social services and healthcare. Having provided direct care in the form of care navigation, psychosocial support, and therapeutic massage to women living with breast cancer at Shanti Project, 78% of whom are over the age of 50, I am shocked that only 2% of our clients currently identify as LGBT. Our data raises several questions: If being a woman and aging are the two leading factors that increase one's risk of developing breast cancer, irrespective of race, SES or sexual orientation, have social service agencies and healthcare providers that address women's issues adequately welcomed the LGBT community? Is enough outreach being done to educate LGBT women on practical and psychosocial support available to them when dealing with chronic illness, care-giving and end-of-life issues? As co-investigator of an on-going research collaboration between Shanti and UCSF on clinical trials education and access, my task is to help underserved women identify personal, social and systemic barriers that leave them feeling personally shut-down or systemically shut out from opportunities to participate in research concerning their own health and the health of their community. As such, I will be able to offer valuable insights concerning these barriers, as well as to help develop non-threatening, participant-centered investigative and educational tools to assess and address the needs of LGBT seniors in order to mitigate these barriers.

My current role at Shanti includes curriculum development, training and facilitation for our Shanti L.I.F.E. (Learning Immune Function Enhancement) Program®, an evidence-based, evidence-producing, and participant-centered self-management program currently designed for PLWHA. As such, I have facilitated self-management workshops and provided one-on-one health counseling to Shanti L.I.F.E. participants, 98% of whom identify as LGBT, and 50% of whom are over 50. Using my training in pastoral care and counseling, in the Shanti Model of Peer Support®, and as a Shanti L.I.F.E. Program® facilitator, I provide participants with non-directive, non-judgmental education and support, including crisis management and spiritual care. The Shanti L.I.F.E. Program® is implemented in 20 sites across the country, therefore my role also includes conducting needs assessments for diverse urban and rural populations, tailoring and adapting Shanti L.I.F.E. Program® materials to meet the needs of these populations, as well as gathering and disseminating best practices that continue to sharpen the efficacy of our programs. According to the CDC, 50% of PLWHA will be over 50 by 2015. As an active partner in assessing and addressing needs among agencies across the country who work with PLWHA, my perspective includes an understanding of stigmatization, isolation and marginalization that occurs within communities not as welcoming as San Francisco, from which many LGBT older adults have migrated. This said, we know that in San Francisco, facilities serving older adults still do not include an assessment of socio-cultural history of clients when developing programs. In a recent conversation with Michelle Alcedo, Director of Programs at Openhouse and co-chair of the LGBT Community Partnership, we noted the paucity of programming targeting not only senior-service providers, but also seniors themselves on the makeup of the community, crossing boundaries, and creating and sustaining shared spaces of mutual respect and communal support. As an important step in raising community awareness for these issues, Shanti and the LGBT Community Partnership will be co-presenting an HIV/Aging Symposium in May 2012. I will be managing Shanti's efforts in planning and presenting the symposium.

I came to understand the need for such intentional programming as an instructor in the Graduate Liberal Studies Program at St. Mary's College in Moraga, CA, which was geared toward people pursuing second careers, a majority of whom were older adults. Over six years, I taught courses on "The Creative Process," "Crossing Boundaries," "The Sacred," and "Ethics." I also facilitated the development and completion of graduate research as a graduate thesis advisor and the instructor of "The Integrative Colloquium," in which graduate students developed their questions and methods. Each course and project involved the identification of students' cultural beliefs, practices and behaviors, and how those particularities influenced their broader experience of the larger community and their response to issues of social justice. Although most non-LGBT students were open and welcoming of their LGBT colleagues, in-depth discussions of LGBT-specific concerns and experiences were often glossed over, watered down and conflated into issues concerning "the general population" when it came to issues concerning aging. Only when students were encouraged to suspend the assumption of a common experience of aging and to understand another as truly an other, were they able to develop strategies for addressing the needs of the LGBT community that were not immediately collapsed into a generic plan meant to serve seniors in general. My experiences helping students identify gaps in knowledge, motivation and tools necessary for sustained behavior change will be an invaluable asset to the LGBT Seniors Task Force, as we seek to further shape San Francisco's continuum of care into one that not only values diversity, but also acts boldly and innovatively in face of its complexity.

Ashley C. McCumber

CEO and Executive Director
Meals On Wheels of San Francisco

Ashley C. McCumber was appointed Executive Director of Meals on Wheels San Francisco (www.mowsf.org) effective August 1, 2007. As Executive Director, Mr. McCumber oversees the daily operations of the organization, spearheads fundraising and development initiatives of a $7.2 million operation serving more than 2800 San Francisco homebound seniors each year, and acts as the liaison to government and community agencies. MOWSF is the largest provider of nutrition and supportive services to homebound seniors in San Francisco and among the largest programs of its type in the country.

In addition to his position at MOWSF, Mr. McCumber is currently Vice President of the Board for CalNonprofits – (http://calnonprofits.org/.) Prior to joining MOWSF, Mr. McCumber was the President/Chief Executive Officer of United South End Settlements (USES - http://www.uses.org/) in Boston, Massachusetts, joining that Agency in 2002. Mr. McCumber was successful at increasing programming for families and children, and boosting the agency's offerings which improved cohesion and civic participation in the South End and Lower Roxbury neighborhoods. As President of USES, Mr. McCumber oversaw a $3.7 million annual operating budget, supporting four facilities. He was responsible for the delivery of a wide-range of community-based human service programs delivered in a traditional settlement house fashion. These programs were overlapping and intricately linked to reach people of all ages and backgrounds.

While at USES, Mr. McCumber was on the Board of Directors of Stonewall Communities (http://sites.stonewallcommunities.org/www/about-us,) an organization dedicated to addressing issues of LGBT Aging. In addition, as President of USES, he provided a home and support for the Boston Prime Timers (http://www.bostonprimetimers.org/about.htm,) which serves as a brotherhood of mature gay and bisexual men and their friends who join together for educational, support, and social activities.

Along with 20 years of non-profit and community leadership experience, Mr. McCumber has extensive expertise in fundraising, community relations, non-profit management, and arts and event administration. In 1999, he led the marketing and development effort to open the largest Latino cultural center in the country located in San Jose, CA, The Mexican Heritage Plaza (http://www.mhcviva.org/.)

Some of the executive and managerial positions formerly held by Mr. McCumber include his service as Executive Director, Springstep Center for Traditional Dance and Music, Medford, MA; Senior Director of Institutional Advancement, Unitarian Universalists Service Committee, Cambridge, MA; Director of Development, Marketing and Communications, Codman Square Health Center, Dorchester, MA; Associate Director of Development and Alumni Relations at Bridgewater State College; and Director of Tourism and Cultural Development for the City of New Bedford, MA.

Mr. McCumber resides in the Castro District of San Francisco with his husband of 15 years, Craig Davini.

- Beginning July 1997 directed the Continuing Education Division. In FY 97, the division provided 106 workshops to 2,156 professionals, including 1,750 psychologists. Scope and size of division and profitability were increased significantly.
- Oversaw and coordinated the grant and contract development strategy. Revenues grew from $300,000 in 1990 to over $2,000,000 in FY97.
- Oversaw and coordinated the alumni/ae development strategy. Alumni/ae participation increased to over 50%, the alumni/ae database achieved 90% addressability, and a national alumni/ae association involving all 4,200 alumni/ae was developed.

1981–1991 Provost

CALIFORNIA SCHOOL OF PROFESSIONAL PSYCHOLOGY

Responsible for the overall administration of the Los Angeles campus, including long-range academic planning, resource development and allocation, implementation of and accountability for a $6,000,000 annual budget, liaison with three other CSPP campuses and the President's Office, systemwide project development and coordination, and local Community Board development. Operating from two five-year plans, created a healthy and robust campus. Two signal achievements were:

- Creation of a nationally recognized multicultural training program, which led to increasing the student of color population from 3 % to 20 % and the faculty of color population from 5 % to 30 %, expanding the financial resources available for students, and modifying the curriculum to reflect multicultural perspectives, and
- Program and degree diversification and expansion, including the development of organizational psychology as a specialty, of health and multicultural community proficiencies within the clinical program, and of the Doctor of Psychology (PsyD) as a new degree program within CSPP.

1976–1981 Dean of Administrative Affairs

CALIFORNIA SCHOOL OF PROFESSIONAL PSYCHOLOGY

As second in command to two different campus heads, was responsible for the planning, implementation, monitoring, and evaluation of personnel, systems, and programs related to the administration of the campus. Accomplishments included:

- Reducing full-time faculty workload from 32 to 28 units, and the academic year from 46 to 42 weeks
- Institution of a sabbatical policy for faculty
- Development of CSPP's rolling contract structure
- Creation of the full-time faculty role
- Creation of a wage and salary program for staff
- Creation of a merit system for staff and faculty
- Creation of staff orientation, staff in-service, and staff development programs, and
- Initiation of the computer conversion process within the school.
- Attained APA approval of clinical psychology programs (first non-university programs in the US)

1975–1976 Dean of Student Affairs
CALIFORNIA SCHOOL OF PROFESSIONAL PSYCHOLOGY

As one of three affairs deans, was responsible for the development and implementation of student service systems for the campus. Accomplishments include:

- Creation of student government at CSPP, with a provision for academic credit for participation
- Establishment of five scholarship funds for students on the LA campus
- Development of the student handbook, registration system, and student evaluation of faculty system
- Initiation of student participation in campus governance
- Creation of student orientation and admissions open houses
- Conduction of the first quality of student life survey, and
- Expansion of the non-discrimination policy to include sexual orientation and development of a supportive environment for diverse people.

1971–1975 Director, Teacher Corps Program
SAN FRANCISCO STATE UNIVERSITY

Responsible for the training of over 150 teacher candidates from low income and/or minority backgrounds in a model addressed to meeting the needs of minority schools and communities. Over three different cycles of the program, achievements included:

- Development and operation of the only integrated elementary, secondary, administrative credential program in the state
- Selection, training, and placement of teacher candidates
- Development of proposals for, and negotiation of approval of, over $2.5 million in federal and private funds, and
- Creation of a management-by-objectives plan for the university, school district, and community components of the program.

1969–1971 Systems Analyst, Educational Policy Research Center
STANFORD RESEARCH INSTITUTE

As part of a team committed to the analysis of alternative futures for American education, served as a principal researcher on two projects: Forces for Societal Transformation in America, and an overview of education of the disadvantaged. Served as secondary researcher on two projects: alternative futures scenario development, and a major study of contemporary social problems.

1968-1968 Research Assistant
STANFORD UNIVERSITY

Research duties included analysis of trends in current literature on higher education.

1967-1968 Administrative Director, Center for Education Innovation
SAN FRANCISCO STATE COLLEGE

Coordinated administrative services for five institutes: Community Services, Black Studies, Youth Services, Creative Development, and Media Innovations (supported by a grant from the Carnegie Corporation).

Johns Hopkins University: B.A., with honors, International Studies, May 2003.

BUSINESS & PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

DLK LAW GROUP PC (San Francisco)
Associate Start date Oct 1, 2012

Will begin work on October 1, 2012 with DLK Law Group PC as an associate focusing on elder law.

NATIONAL CENTER FOR LESBIAN RIGHTS (San Francisco)
Del Martin Memorial LGBT Elder Advocacy Initiative May 2010 – Aug 2012

Fellowships:

- Awarded funding by both the Berkeley Law Foundation (2010-2011) and the Pride Law Fund—Tom Steel Fellowship (2010-2011; 2011-2012).

Litigation / Advocacy:

- Advocated and litigated in a variety of state courts and state and federal administrative agencies on behalf of LGBT elder clients who faced denial of state and federal benefits, abuse in long-term care settings, and refusal by service providers to respect life-planning documents.
- Sample cases: appeal of denial of In-Home Supportive Services to an elder transgender man; appeal of a denial of Medicare Part A benefits to an elder transgender woman; litigation on behalf of an elder gay man separated from his partner and denied visitation by county officials.

Legislative Advocacy:

- Drafted state legislation to better protect LGBT elders, provided comment to state and federal legislators and agencies on draft bills and regulations, worked in coalition to strategize around bill passage and implementation.
- Sample bills and regulations: helped to draft, testified in support, strategized around implementation, and publicized through news media AB641 (expanding Medicaid spousal impoverishment protections to same-sex couples); drafted language covering Certified Nurse Assistants for SB747 (mandating LGBT cultural competency training for medical providers); presented to state officials on the requirements and best practices for implementing AB2920 (mandating LGBT inclusion by Area Agencies on Aging).

Outreach and Public Education

- Made over two dozen presentations on LGBT elder issues to service providers, government officials, community groups, and universities; wrote articles for legal and elder-focused journals on LGBT elder topics
- Co-authored and edited "Navigating the System: A Know-Your-Rights Guide for Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Elders in California," the first guide of its kind, giving legal information on issues ranging from relationship recognition and LGBT veterans rights to advice on how to find nondiscriminatory services.
- Co-organized community meeting "Setting the Agenda: Issues Facing LGBTQ Seniors of Color" along with members of the Human Rights Commission; coordinated with Queer Women of Color Media Advancement Project to produce a video and drafted a report on the meeting's findings

COOLEY GODWARD KRONISH LLP (San Francisco)
Litigation Associate Sept 2008 – Nov 2009

Conducted legal research and drafted pleadings for a variety of cases in state and federal court, including: the state court lawsuit challenging Proposition 8 (Strauss v. Horton), an eviction defense case on behalf of a gay elder client, and a wide range of business litigation matters.

Legal Advice

Helene Wenzel

Q: I recently changed my health care provider and went to see my new doctor. On my first appointment she asked me if I had an Advance Health Care Directive. What is it; why should I have it; and how do I get it?

A: Without comment on your former doctor's practices, your new doctor is obviously more responsible and concerned about your well-being. Here's what you need to know. If you haven't time to read all, skip to the next-to-the-last paragraph for the practical information.

Prior to 2000, California had a Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care form which basically authorized a person ("agent") nominated by you to make health care decisions for you when you lost the capacity to do so. These DPAHCs were effective for a limited period of time after which they expired automatically. Any DPAHC executed in or before 1992 is now legally ineffective.

In 2000, California passed the Health Care Decisions Law which revised its Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care law and updated rules governing health care decision-making on behalf of persons lacking capacity to make decisions about their medical/health care, including incompetent adults, and persons receiving treatment in mental health care facilities. The form has been modified several times since 2000, but in a nutshell: The new law created a model form entitled an "Advance Health Care Directive" (AHCD) that can serve as both your health care instructions to doctors and family; and as a power of attorney nominating a person ("agent") you trust to take charge of your health care if and when you don't have the capacity to communicate with doctors.

With a properly filled out and executed Advance Health Care Directive, which must be executed while you have mental capacity (that means NOW!), you authorize this agent (and alternate agents if you so choose) to communicate with your medical providers, request and be entitled to see medical records, make decisions about your daily medical care; and represent your wishes regarding long-term and end-of-life care. Your named agent will also have the responsibility and authority to make anatomical gifts, authorize an autopsy and direct the disposition of your remains when you die. However, this agent will not have authority to pay for or direct payment for any of these or medical costs. If you lack capacity to handle your own finances, they will have to be managed by an agent (the same or another person) under a duly executed, notarized Durable Power of Attorney for Property and Financial Management, a separate document. (CA Probate Code 4400-4465).

Here's the good news! You do not need an attorney to complete this form. Many PPOs, HMOs and hospitals have the form; if they don't offer it, ask for it. The California Medical Association (www.cmanet.org) offers a very comprehensive, understandable descriptive booklet (in large print!) which includes the form for a nominal cost.

In order that the form be legally effective, you must either have it witnessed by two persons when you sign it, or sign it in the presence of a Notary Public. (If you are in a skilled nursing home, the Ombudsman must be present when you sign this document). And, finally, a COPY should go to your medical provide.

The D List

A Better Life

Linda Kay Silva

I get asked a lot about how to put the Law of Attraction into play in someone's life when they have so many people around them exuding negativity and pessimism. I think this question plagues many of us in our daily lives as we look around and see people who do not help us live our best life. Just the other day, as I was getting ready to play tennis, I was chatting with my opponent. While we were chatting, she said "I just find that most people will disappoint you." After the match, her words haunted me. I wondered about the kind of people she must have in her life in order to make that kind of a statement. Then I started thinking about how the people in our lives can either help us live our best life or hinder us from living our best life. They either support and encourage the creation of a wonderful place to be, or they are roadblocks. They either add or subtract.

Do you have people in your life who constantly disappoint you? Do you have people in your life who suck the light out of a room instead of adding it? Do you have people in your life who seldom contribute fully to your world? People who are Betty Buzzkill? People who not only don't encourage you, but plant seeds of doubt? I suppose the real question is, if you have people like this in your life... why is that? Why do you keep these people? What's in it for you?

As Lori and I were cleaning her closet in order to donate things we haven't worn or have outgrown, I thought about how interesting it is that we will get rid of those inanimate objects that no longer add to our world but we will continue to hold on to those individuals who not only do not add to our mental and emotional well-being, but often are a detriment to the joy and happiness we are seeking. And why is that? Is it because we don't like change? Or is it because we simply do not have the guts to cut people loose who no longer have a place in the world we are trying to create? Remember, we're trying to create and establish the very best life we can. This is the only one we get. As far as any of us know, this is a one show only performance...so we need to go for the gold. However, it is amazing to note how many people we know who are willing to settle for the bronze. How many people are willing to have detractors not only on the perimeter of their lives, but in their inner-circle. Ask yourself... are you one of those people? Are you settling? Are you willing to accept crumbs from people when you deserve so much more?

If you are truly committed to raising your life up to the highest degree possible, can you do that, realistically, without the right kind of support? And what does the right kind of support look like to you? Ask yourselves what is it you are willing to accept from your friends and family? Then ask yourself why? Are you not worthy of having the right kind of support, love, and nurturing that you need on this incredible journey you're taking? I think you are.

Something wonderful happened to me on my way to my 50th birthday. I woke up. I looked around me at the people who, more often than not, were dragging me under instead of lifting me up. I moved them to what Lori and I refer to as the D List. This list helped me determine who adds and who subtracts from my life. Those who do not add any positive, meaningful, or joyful way to my world don't get to be in it. I'm going to say that again because it is really important: they do not get to be in my life. Do you see attitude I'm sporting? I can be this way because I believe that being part of my life is a privilege, just as it is a privilege for me to be a part of my friends' and family's worlds. If someone does not add or help me live my best life, then they are like that jacket I no longer want to wear. It doesn't fit me anymore. They don't fit me or the direction I am heading, so why am I keeping them around? The truth is, by getting rid of people who bring darkness into my world allowed me to spend more quality time with those who brighten it, with those who fill my heart with joy and laughter. By doing so, I've been able to nurture and maintain my relationships far better than I ever had because the negativity is gone...relegated, as it were, to the D List.

Do you have people who need to land on that list? If you truly want to live your best life, you have to clean out your closet.

Professional Experience

Director of Government Relations Project Open Hand, San Francisco, CA 1994-2012

Developed and implemented a community and government relations program that positively impacted the finances, image and social mission of this community-based nonprofit organization for 18 years. Responsible for researching, proposing and negotiating public funding opportunities, assuring compliance with local, state and federal government contract obligations, and improving public sector support for an agency providing over 800,000 annual meals for people living with HIV/AIDS, for seniors, and for the homebound critically ill throughout San Francisco and Alameda counties. Served on the senior management team to guide agency administration, policies, resources, and board activities. Achievements include:

- Managed multiple, complex government contracts providing over one-third of the $10+ million annual operating revenue, totaling over $52 million in government support during my tenure.
- Proposed and implemented the expansion of the agency's original AIDS mission to include meal services for seniors and the homebound critically ill with new government and private support.
- Developed and fostered a strong government and community network, maintained key relationships with government funders, policymakers and politicians, and served two terms on the San Francisco Health Commission.
- Provided governmental, political, and public policy expertise to identify and clarify public issues that affected the organization, and technical assistance to other nonprofit service providers locally and throughout the nation.
- Built community support and developed public policy and advocacy through the creation and leadership of four associations of nonprofit contractors dedicated to improving safety-net services for low-income residents:

San Francisco HIV/AIDS Provider Network (HAPN) 1993-2012
Founder and past President (1993-2004) of this association of 40 HIV service providers.

San Francisco Human Services Network 1997-2012
One of the founders and Steering Committee members of this public policy and advocacy association of 100 nonprofit service contractors.

Coalition of Agencies Serving the Elderly (CASE) 1998-2012
President (2000-02) and Treasurer (2003-12) for this 35-year old association of 50 senior service providers.

Tenderloin Hunger Task Force 2006-2012
One of the founders and coordinator for this group of 7 of the city's largest nonprofit food providers for low-income central city residents, advocating for food justice and service funding.

Health Commissioner, City & County of San Francisco 2004-2012

Mayoral appointee serving two, 4-year terms on the governing body of the city's largest department, the $1.6 billion Dept. of Public Health, half of that time as an elected officer: Vice President (2006) and President (2008-11). As a leader of this Charter commission, I helped shape public health policy and provided direction and overall supervision to the Director of Health, San Francisco General Hospital, Laguna Honda Hospital, and the work of over 7,000 employees providing universal health access through "Healthy San Francisco" and a wide range of primary care, behavioral health, and public health/safety programs that are models for the nation. Developed, approved, and evaluated public health budgets and programs, including $200+ million in nonprofit contracts, and assured compliance with policies to achieve the Department's mission to protect and promote the health of all San Franciscans. Chaired the Commission's standing committees on Budget, Population Health & Prevention, Finance and Planning, and Laguna Honda, and served on the SFGH Joint Conference Committee. (Stipend employee of the City & County of San Francisco)
Also Commission representative to the In Home Support Services (IHSS) Public Authority Governing Board, a public body acting as employer-of-record for 20,000+ IHSS workers for 16,000+ disabled residents, serving as President (2005-08) and Vice President (2009-12).

Boards of Directors St. Mary's Medical Center, San Francisco 2001- present

Chaired the Community Advisory Board (1989-2001), then appointed to the hospital's Community Board of Directors by the CHW Board, providing governance leadership as Chair (2003-07) and Vice Chair (2007-11) for this founding 200-bed hospital of the Dignity Health (formerly CHW) system. Ongoing Chair of the Community Benefit Committee responsible for developing, evaluating and reporting SB697 community benefits and charity care programs. Simultaneous service on the SMMC Foundation Board of Directors as liaison to the hospital board, overseeing the recent Cancer Center capital campaign.

Executive Director Continuum HIV Day Services, San Francisco, CA 1990-1993

Developed a new model of AIDS health care while securing the community resources necessary to implement this national demonstration project. Hired and trained a multidisciplinary professional staff providing licensed adult day health care and psychosocial day treatment for hundreds of late-stage AIDS patients.

Executive Director Baker Places, Inc., San Francisco, CA 1983-1990

Led this pioneer community mental health agency to expand adult residential treatment services to include substance abusers and people with AIDS, and tripled the annual budget. Provided overall administrative and clinical supervision for 65 professional staff serving 600 persons each year through a network of 7 licensed halfway houses and over 35 satellite apartments. Secured capital funding to purchase and renovate two residential facilities, established the nation's first triple-diagnosis residential treatment program, founded and led mental health and substance abuse contractor associations, managed statewide research projects, and led lobbying efforts for local and state funding and regulatory relief.

Director of Rehabilitation Westside Lodge, Pacific Medical Center, SF 1975-1983

Developed and managed a range of adult psychiatric vocational rehabilitation services in the hospital's 5 contract community mental health programs. Simultaneously functioned as clinical and administrative supervisor of a multidisciplinary staff team in the psychiatric partial-hospital and day treatment programs at Westside Lodge.

Current Community Service

Deputy Marriage Commissioner, City & County of San Francisco 1993- present
Appointed officiant performing civil ceremony weddings at City Hall and throughout the city, marrying over 10,000 couples during my volunteer government service.

Board of Directors, Alice B. Toklas LGBT Democratic Club, San Francisco 2000- present
Served as the Board's AIDS Policy Advisor (2000-05) and continuing as a member of the Emeritus Board.

Education

B.S. Georgetown University (Washington, DC) – Psychology

M.A. Washington Theological Coalition and Psychiatric Institute Foundation (Washington, DC)

Ph.D. studies The Wright Institute (Berkeley, CA) – completed required coursework and internships during six years of part-time studies for a doctorate in social-clinical psychology while working at Westside Lodge.

Summary

Massage Therapist, highly motivated, focused on positive results and client satisfaction. I am reliable, consistent, creative, conscientious and capable of taking initiative. Sometimes we might concentrate so much on our spiritual lives that we overlook the wonders of being present in our physical form. When we are more aware of the fact that our bodies are also important in terms of our personal growth, we may find it easier to nurture them. One of the most powerful ways to do this is through human touch.

Attachment for Application for LGBT Seniors Task Force—Kathleen Hentges, CFP®

I became involved with LGBT senior issues fist on a personal level and then on a community level. My father was a gay senior, he was financially comfortable, but socially isolated. Before his death he lived in San Diego where some services existed for low income gay seniors, but nothing for seniors who were isolated because of lack of activities or a place to gather for gay men his age. After his death I lived on the east coast for about a year and a half and volunteered with SAGE (Services and Advocacy for GLBT Elders). SAGE is the oldest and largest gay seniors organization in the country with a full range of services from welfare issues, to social events, to the first LGBT senior center in the country. I was inspired by the range, breadth and depth of the work SAGE does and how it address all of the issues faced by LGBT seniors.

As a personal financial planner I work with pre retired couples and individuals helping them make decisions now that will make them more secure during retirement. A large percentage of my clients are from the LGBT community and one of the struggles I face as a planner and they face as individuals is systemic discrimination against their relationship status and sexual orientation. I use my expertise to address these issues on an individual level, but would like to lend a hand on a community/policy level as well. I feel my education and experience with the financial and tax issues faced by the gay community will be beneficial to the task force and as an aging member of the LGBT community I would like to shape the future of what will be available for myself, my friends and my clients when the time comes.

Supplemental Sheet/Application for Kaushik Roy for LGBT Seniors Task Force

As the Executive Director of Shanti, I have the privilege of leading a health and human services non-profit which supports between approximately 500-700 LGBT seniors annually. Combined with my previous roles as a former Shanti volunteer and Program Director, I would bring over nine years of experience with working with LGBT seniors to the task force. The intimate relationships Shanti creates with our LGBT senior clients foster a unique, holistic view into the many facets of their lives including health/mental health/long term care and in-home support/social/LGBTQ services. Some of my strengths include non-profit management, cultural competence and the ability to interact with the many diverse communities within the LGBT senior population. All of these skills will allow me to offer cogent input and analysis to the task force.

I bring a tremendous amount of enthusiasm to this opportunity and I can meet all the stated requirements for the task force. If offered a chance to serve, I will bring the same level of dedication to clients that has been a hallmark of my time at Shanti. Over the past several years, I have had the opportunity to work with many leaders of San Francisco, and the LGBT community in particular, and I have discussed my serving on the task force with several of them. They all whole-heartedly support my application and are happy to discuss my qualifications and are listed below:

- Barbara Garcia, Director of the San Francisco Department of Public Health (SFDPH) (415-554-2526)
- Bevan Dufty, former San Francisco District 8 Supervisor (bevan.dufty@gmail.com)
- Kate Kendell, Executive Director of National Center for Lesbian Rights (kkendell@nclrights.org)
- Mark Leno, CA State Senator (415-557-1300)
- Sandra Hernandez, M.D., CEO of the San Francisco Foundation and former Director of the SFDPH
- Tom Horn, Publisher of the Bay Area Reporter (415-665-5746)
- Tom Nolan, former Executive Director of Project Open Hand (tom.nolan@sfgov.org)

Please contact me at 415 ——— or kroy@shanti.org if you have questions or if I can provide any further information. Thank you in advance for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Kaushik Roy

SF LGBT Seniors Taskforce Application Supplement Sheet

Applicant: Laurence Michael Costa, M.P.P.

Experience and Qualifications

- Designed and helped implement healthcare pilot programs for low income individuals and families on the West Side of Manhattan (Greenwich Village, Chelsea, Hell's Kitchen, Upper West Side) – those with incomes above Medicaid qualification who were unable to afford private or Medicare Supplemental coverage. A significant number of this group was over 60 years of age and/or LGBT. Helped establish primary care and special provider networks, and negotiate provider payment rates.

- Undertook analytics supporting legislation minimizing discriminatory underwriting and providing for community rating (where risk is spread over large pools) making health coverage more affordable for individuals and small firms (<50 employees) in New York State. Worked with Gay Men's Health Crisis and Act Up to successfully pass legislation, which had a significant impact on the ability of LGBTs to access affordable health coverage and care.

- Served on Blue Cross/Blue Shield Association Small Firm Reform Taskforce to develop model health coverage products that would replicate New York efforts as much as possible for promulgation to BC/BS Plans across the country.

- Helped bring Sustiva, Crixivan, and a number of oncology products to market that helped LGBTs with HIV and other diagnoses gain access to new therapies. Worked to get public and private payers to cover and pay for those therapies quickly. Also supported/aided establishment of patient assistance programs providing free drug to those without adequate coverage.

- Currently engaged in analysis of multiple Aging LGBT Housing /Healthcare models for potential development. Have gained an extensive knowledgebase of the history of efforts in this area, success and failure factors, and the financial/political/market demand factors influencing successful implementation. This fund of knowledge should be helpful in Taskforce discussions, as would the policy analytic sensibility which I would bring to the Taskforce.

- Involved in the San Francisco LGBT community and in local politics extensively during the past ten years. Have established relationships with a wide range of people and groups across that community and the city, individuals and groups who can help inform Taskforce deliberations. I plan to actively reach out to solicit those opinions should I be appointed to the Taskforce.

- Involved in a great number of groups, projects, and collective efforts related to policy development and implementation over many years. I've come away with a strong commitment to producing results that address identified issues and which can be implemented within existing budgetary/political constraints. I will work to facilitate a productive, results oriented approach to Taskforce efforts, one which produces implementable recommendations addressing issues facing aging LGBTs in San Francisco.

- Selected Positions: Director, Marketing and Public Affairs, Empire Blue Cross/Blue Shield; Executive Director, Quintiles Transnational Corporation, Vice President, Lash Group HealthCare Consultants

Supplemental Sheet to Applicant Form for Michael S. Smith for LGBT Seniors Task Force

I believe I would add great value to this Task Force. I believe the my over 25 years of practicing law will provide tools and input that the Task Force would not have otherwise. I will be able to draft legal documents, determine if a course of action complies with all laws, and provide advice in an articulate and professional manner.

I also believe that my being a long-term resident of San Francisco also will bring added value to the Task Force as well as the fact that I will be retiring soon (but continue to live here) and also considered an LGBT Senior soon. I know quite well the services provided in this City, the needs of older people, especially those who are not necessarily taken into account when planning elder care services. I am able to command an audience when necessary, and influence decision-making, but I am also a consensus builder and have years of experience doing that. I believe I bring a perspective that the Task force might not otherwise have.

I am results oriented, disciplined, an informed risk taker and pay great attention to detail. I believe I am in a position now where if I were able to continue my current job in addition to this appointment, that I have sufficient funds so that I would not need any payments for any of my services or expenses. I am used to long hours and I have a background of finishing at the top of my classes (starting with high school where I finished 4th out of 275 graduates). I have always scored in the top 1% on standardized tests. I write this, because I believe I could analyze and understand very complicated issues. I have done that for the past 25+ years and for the past 15 at a Fortune 50 corporation with very sophisticated operations.

I have lived in Noe Valley for over 11 years and I believe I understand the issues aging GLBT individuals face because I am going through that process myself. I am friends with a number of executive directors of GLBT nonprofits, including Bill Hirsch, executive director of the AIDS Legal Referral Panel, who you are free to contact with regard to my application.

Thank you in advance for being willing to read my application. I firmly believe I would be an outstanding contributor to the LGBT Seniors Task Force.

Openhouse
A San Francisco-based nonprofit dedicated to building housing, services and community, for lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) older adults, Openhouse's programs serve the most vulnerable and socially isolated. Through its cultural competency training program Openhouse supports culture change within social, health and housing organizations to increase access to culturally-appropriate services for LGBT seniors.

DIRECTOR OF PROGRAMS — OCT. 2009-Present

- Administer delivery of social services, activities and training programs per San Francisco Dept. of Aging and Adult Services contracts. Work with executive director to ensure program activities comply with Community Services and Training and Technical Assistance grant deliverables.
- Develop and implement organization-wide policies, programs, and systems.
- Supervise program staff and contractors, interns and volunteers.
- Act as liaison with community partner agencies to increase visibility of, and supports and services for LGBT older adults in the aging network.
- As the principal trainer for Openhouse since 2007, I have trained over 2,000 aging network providers in CA, SF Bay Area and beyond. Educate health, social service and housing providers on best practices related to serving and reaching LGBT seniors in programs and services in San Francisco and throughout CA. As the West Coast Training/Community Partner of the National Resource Center on LGBT Aging (NRC), Openhouse leads training efforts throughout CA utilizing the NRC training curriculum, to which we were a primary contributor.
- Conduct intakes with LGBT seniors in search of housing and support services to identify specific needs and barriers to accessing services.
- Advocate on behalf of LGBT seniors with referral sources to ensure culturally sensitive and appropriate service provision.
- Facilitate LGBT senior discussion groups at senior centers in San Francisco.
- Develop and oversee outreach, community organizing and implementation strategies to identify and reach isolated seniors in the neighborhoods served by the Castro, Bernal Heights and 30th Street Senior Centers through community events and activities.
- Provide technical assistance to senior centers and housing providers to develop and sustain LGBT-inclusive programs and activities.
- Collaborate with aging network providers to offer senior resource information at community events, fairs, and conferences.
- Serve on the board of directors of the Coalition of Agencies Serving the Elderly (CASE) in San Francisco.
- Serve as co-chair of the Asian, Pacific-Islander (API) Community and LGBT Community Partnership workgroups, a program of the SF Department of Aging and Adult Services to reach API and LGBT seniors and adults with disabilities with culturally-appropriate services.
- Serve as board member of the LGBT Aging Issues Network of the American Society on Aging.
- Alumni New Ventures in Leadership Partner of American Society on Aging (2007).

EDUCATION AND OUTREACH COORDINATOR — OCT. 2007-2009

- Trained over 500 staff in agencies serving seniors in San Francisco on best practices for outreach and serving the needs of the LGBT senior population.
- Provided direct outreach to LGBT low-income seniors through community presentations and collaborations with senior service agencies.

- Cultivated relationships with LGBT seniors to promote self-advocacy skills through volunteer opportunities such as Openhouse's speaker's panel in cultural competency training program, neighborhood LGBT allies, and housing advocates at SF City hearings.
- Organized and coordinated volunteers to develop a comprehensive low-income housing directory that identifies existing LGBT-welcoming housing sites in San Francisco.
- Provided information and referral to senior service providers about LGBT-welcoming and inclusive resources such as residential care facilities, home care agencies, friendly visitor programs, and housing opportunities for LGBT older adults. Collaborated with existing services to improve service provision and coordination between different areas of service.

PROJECT MANAGER, BEST PRACTICES IN LGBT ELDER HEALTHCARE Oct. 2007-Jan. 2010

New Leaf Services For Our Community/Openhouse

- Oversaw all aspects of production, documentation/content development, outreach and roll-out of the Best Practices organizational assessment tool and manual.
- Recruited focus group participants in diverse ethnic communities to discuss the needs of older LGBT adults in communities of color.
- Managed content workflow between New Leaf staff and Best Practices writer contractor.
- Organized two Bay Area stakeholder convenings in San Francisco with 40+ aging network provider agencies and organizations to explore strategies for disseminating, utilizing and implementing the Best Practices recommendations.

Family Caregiver Alliance (FCA)

FCA provides support and services to families caring for someone with cognitive impairment and other chronic illnesses through information, education, research and advocacy.

EDUCATION COORDINATOR JULY 2006-OCT. 2007

- Facilitated educational classes and workshops for family caregivers on topics including: how to communicate with persons affected by dementia; caregiver wellness and how to access available community resources.
- Presented educational seminars at community events, conferences, roundtables, etc. regarding FCA programs and services to Bay Area providers.
- Managed outreach and education efforts to family caregivers in San Francisco Bay Area to provide educational workshops, classes and forums addressing array of caregiver issues.
- Moderated and maintained Link2Care, a program of the California Caregiver Resource Centers that includes website and online statewide support group for caregivers of persons with dementia.
- Collaborated with local and national organizations to organize community events for families and providers serving caregivers.
- Developed outreach and collateral print including online materials for educational events and programs.

The Respect for All Project (RFAP)

A program of Women's Educational Media (WEM), Academy Award®-winning non-profit film production and distribution organization that produces social issue documentary films including, "It's Elementary: Talking About Gay Issues in Schools," and "That's a Family!". The Respect for All Project seeks to create safe schools and communities by giving youth and the adults who guide their development the media resources, curriculum and training tools they need to talk openly about diversity in all its forms.

2000-2005

TRAINING MANAGER

- Managed trainer contracts and compensation.
- Implemented and managed outreach to administrators, teachers and social service staff nationwide to promote RFAP staff training program. Represented the organization and strengthened its reputation for excellence and professionalism by forming positive relationships with educators, community groups and diverse constituencies.

Grew the program's visibility as a valuable resource in the diversity education field reaching over 3,000 adults and 100,000 children in three years.

- Supervised over a dozen RFAP trainers and consultants for staff trainings, film screenings and conferences. Maintained strong and effective communications with trainers to ensure efficient delivery of over 200 professional development workshops and presentations. Cultivated outstanding working relationships with and among trainers, and paired trainers according to complementary strengths.
- Provided trainers with on-staff support and guidance and gracefully resolved various issues under pressure.
- Organized community-wide training events at children's museums in cities across the country for The RFAP National Education Coalition which comprises a partnership of The Child Welfare League, The Association of Children's Museums, The Afterschool Alliance, The National Education Association (NEA), and RFAP. Collaborated with local networks of the national partners to disseminate information about the RFAP training opportunities via newsletters, email and internet.
- Researched and outreached to local service organizations to jointly identify constituencies that would benefit from RFAP training and resources. Pitched the RFAP National Education Coalition's mission to target organizations and solicited local support to ensure well-attended events.

Project Manager California State and National Training Program Assessment

Thank you for the opportunity to apply for the LGBT Seniors Task Force.

I have been blessed to live in an era when being gay has become increasingly accepted in society. My first concept of being "homosexual" was when my parents discussed it at the dinner table in a manner that literally equated it with a disease such as having cancer. Over time, incidents occurred that simultaneously made me more comfortable with being gay and my parents more accepting of homosexuality. For example, we happened to be watching the television program "Dynasty" one night and a gay character appeared on screen. Not a word was spoken, but my parents and I knew that something of significance was being presented to us.

Of course, society has progressed since the 1980s and being "out" is much more accepted today than ever before. However, one thing has not changed since then: most of the LGBT community puts a premium on youth and youthfulness.

This is a potentially exciting time when new norms will be created as large numbers of LGBT community member age. Or, it could be a potentially difficult time as the aging LGBT population confronts its situation.

I would like to contribute to the process of determining and implementing approaches to enhancing the quality of life for LGBT seniors. I have only one qualification for a position on the LGBT Seniors Task Force: I am an aging LGBT person who will be 57 years old in September. I do not represent any special interest group or faction within the community. I am simply am an LGBT person who is approaching "senior" status.

In addition to this primary qualification, I have two secondary qualifications for the Task Force. First, I do not bring an agenda to the Task Force. I have not studied the dynamics of LGBT aging nor do I represent an established-point-of-view regarding LGBT aging. Thus, I bring an open mind to consider various courses of action. Second, my profession involves strategic planning, consensus building, change management, implementation and related skills that should contribute to the Task Force's effectiveness.

I hope you regard my lack of activism in this area as a strength rather than a weakness in my application. I want to help the community consider all options, generate a shared point-of-view and have an important and significant impact on the quality of life of LGBT seniors in San Francisco and, perhaps, around the globe.

My resume and biographical statement are attached. Please let me know if I may provide any additional information. Again, thank you for considering my interest in applying for membership on the LGBT Seniors Task Force.

qualifications

I am a 75-year old, low-income, openly gay senior, a native San Franciscan who has lived here continuously the last 40 years. I also lived in the Central Valley, Los Angeles, and New York. I've traveled extensively in the US, Canada, Mexico and parts of Europe.

While I'm not a professional in gerontology or LGBT studies, I read extensively and have a basic grasp of the issues. I'm able to work both independently and collaboratively. Someone who will ask the right questions and, perhaps more importantly, listen and observe.

experience

Persona Productions • San Francisco 1976-present • executive director

Aegean Friends • San Francisco 1997-2007 • executive director

The Antares Foundation • San Francisco 1976-1979 • coordinator

civic activities

I was involved as a media activist. This included encouraging the City and County of San Francisco to demand a community access and government channel during the renewal of its cable contract with Viacom. Also I spoke up to insure the inclusion of gays and lesbians when BAVAC was formed.

As part of the People's Bicentennial Art Committee I urged the inclusion of local artists. I opposed city funding of a concert hall until money was also allocated for community cultural centers. While several were opened, we failed to get one in the Castro.

I participated in the Community Congress, suggesting to Harvey Milk that he attend the arts group while I attended the health group so that both addressed GLBT issues.

I walked precincts for District Elections.

Our household was involved in a neighborhood food conspiracy and our flat on Castro Street was the drop-off and pick-up site for weekly food deliveries.

I founded Aegean Friends, a socio-cultural group to bring together Greeks and Turks at potlucks in private homes and other activities such as dance concerts and talks.

Each year I volunteer to serve lunch to the needy on Easter, Thanksgiving, Christmas Eve, and Christmas.

Employment History
Black Coalition on AIDS, San Francisco, CA
Beginning February 2011, was appointed Executive Director of the Black Coalition on AIDS for a second time, after establishing a public policy department within the agency and launching the creation of an Afro-centric wellness department for self-care and healing. From October 2003 to September 2008, served as Executive Director of the agency, responsible for oversight of a $2 million budget, an 11-bed housing facility, 30-person staff, five-person management team and community outreach-marketing services to an estimated 3500 people annually.

YouthBuild USA, Oakland, CA
March 1999 to April 2003, worked as the Western Regional Director, responsibilities included fund-raising, grant management, fiscal management, political advocacy and compliance support for a network of 40 regional programs. Highlights included a political advocacy campaign that resulted in $1.5 million in state allocation and the awarding of a $450,000 California AmeriCorps grant.

Robert C. Maynard Institute for Journalism Education, Oakland, CA
January 1993 to November 1998, served in several capacities, the final position as Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, responsibilities included the management of a 12-person staff and a 1.5 million budget. During my tenure, I also served as the Institute's Director of the Management Training Center based at Northwestern University and as Director of Communications. Highlights included the redesign of the infrastructure, creation of employee evaluation instruments, upgrading of computer technology and development of multi-media marketing materials and web site design.

San Francisco Chronicle, San Francisco, CA
From 1981 to 1992, worked as a staff writer for the San Francisco Chronicle on various beats, including coverage of the San Francisco Police Department, the California State Supreme Court and a popular ethnic trends beat.

Virginian Pilot, Norfolk, VA
From 1979 to 1981, worked as a staff writer for the Virginian Pilot, providing coverage of police and criminal courts in the greater Tidewater area. The beat included writing feature stories that humanized the faces behind crime statistics.

January 26, 2012 at 1:00 PM in Room 263 at City Hall, Supervisors Weiner, Campos, and Olague have called a important public hearing to open a dialogue about LGBT seniors and the particular challenges and needs of this population, and how the City of San Francisco can acknowledge and assist them. They have stated that attention to this is a priority for them in the coming year at City Hall.

Please join us to continue the dialogue on the needs of LGBT seniors and how we acknowledge this growing population within our community and our city, as the Commonwealth Club, in association with the LGBT Advisory Committee of the San Francisco Human Rights Commission, present a panel discussion on maximizing the voice of LGBT elders, specifically in the government and community organizing process.

Can You Hear Me? Giving Voice to LGBT Elders

Thursday, January 26, 2012

While much progress and advancement has been made in creating LGBT communities and identities and integrating them into larger political, social and cultural arenas, the inclusion of LGBT people has not always been given serious consideration. Senior- and LGBT-rights advocates stress that the progress and inroads made in establishing LGBT identities and communities, particularly in cities like San Francisco, now depend on how we acknowledge and administer to the specific needs of LGBT elders. Come hear leaders discuss what strides are being made and what challenges still lie ahead.

Panelists

Brian de Vries, Professor of Gerontology, San Francisco State University; Co-chair, Lesbian and Gay Aging Issues Network; Policy Advisor, AARP California
Gustavo Serina, Commission on Aging and Adult Services, City and County of San Francisco
Moli Steinert, Executive Director, SteppingStone
Marvin Burrows, founder, Lavender Seniors of the East Bay, and LGBT Lighthouse Community Center

Location: San Francisco Commonwealth Club, 595 Market Street.

Building strong LGBT elder communities

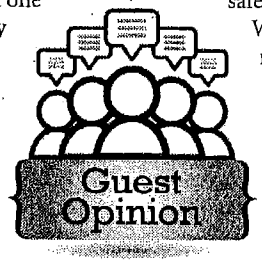
by Ray Rudolph

There may be scores of reasons why it is indeed time both to cultivate a regional as well as a global climate that is supportive and responsive to the very notion of meeting the housing and health care needs of LGBT elders and to move forward with practical grassroots plans and policies that can accomplish the task of designing and building LGBT senior living communities and service networks.

On the LGBT Advisory Committee to the San Francisco Human Rights Commission, we established an Elders Workgroup last year and are continuing to actively pursue addressing the needs of our aging community. For example, we hosted a panel on ageism, adultism, and intergenerational connections last fall. Another panel on LGBT elder issues is in the planning stages for January, to be held at the Commonwealth Club in San Francisco. We continue to work with other stakeholders, such as the San Francisco Commission on Aging and Adult Services, where we are seeking to establish a more permanent LGBT Advisory Committee specific to that group, and San Francisco-based Openhouse, that aggressively advocates for LGBT elders, because the dialogue must continue and we must all engage with it. The HRC LGBT Advisory Committee is currently preparing to begin recruitment for new members to continue on with the work next year, and all members of our community are encouraged to participate and learn more.

We all know that the general U.S. population is growing older, and many of the first boomers (1946-1964) are now in their 60s. LGBT baby boomers will soon reach a critical mass. The need for cost-effective building programs for LGBT elder housing communities and the need for affordable housing and health care will only grow more critical, too. If we set up the models for this now, we put in place a belief system that acknowledges LGBT elders, and from which we can only grow and learn and be enriched over time.

Focusing attention in the LGBT community on the needs of elders will help make the LGBT community at large more intergenerational, by reaching out to and involving younger members of our communities – and that is a good and necessary thing. The kitchen table wisdom of passing stories down from generation to generation has always been an invaluable tool for creating LGBT identities. Facilitating systems that keep LGBT elders visible, viable, and accessible will enable our stories to be passed down. This is not a little thing. Take away our stories and you take away our history and our hope. All LGBT baby boomers remember some feelings of isolation, confusion, even despair as youths, coming of age in a culture not nearly ready to acknowledge them. Coming out of the closet can be one of the most difficult, yet one of the most defining and positively affirming experiences, to many if not most LGBT people.



Aging LGBT men and women often fear discrimination and even abuse in mainstream health care facilities and may even have to go back into the closet; to hide and live in fear again. Why structure a community where you must return to the closet as an LGBT senior – where LGBT elders return to the shadows and are no longer fully integrated into the larger LGBT community? Everyone suffers if that happens.

The needs of LGBT elders are not being addressed or met by the general society or in the mainstream political arena. LGBT elders have specific housing and health care needs, and these could range from issues of trust with health care providers and landlords to lifestyle choices and accessing needed services. Many topics about aging, such as long-term care options, are still discussed in whispers or in private; the dialogue on ageism is not a favorite topic for anyone, LGBT or straight.

Even in these tight economic times, establishing models for building strong LGBT elder communities within our larger communities, and for acknowledging our elders, is critical. Just one example of how a model program can have positive and lasting ramifications is evidenced in how San Francisco initiated health care models for AIDS prevention and treatment 30 years ago – these models have been studied and adopted by other cities across the country.

Attention to meeting the needs of LGBT elders, especially housing and health care, is the next logical step in creating our collective identities. LGBT baby boomers have much experience in creating things. We boomers created as we went along, fashioning ideologies and communities here and there, post-Stonewall (1969), and connecting them over time and distances. LGBT baby boomers literally created neighborhoods that served as safety zones in virtually all U.S. cities. We conceptualized the LGBT press, newspapers and magazines. Circuit parties, LGBT cruises, LGBT businesses, fashion, music, movies and culture are all imagined efforts and products of the LGBT boomer generation. LGBT politics and literature were richly enhanced and highlighted by boomers too. Every LGBT generation has benefited from what baby boomers have planned for, hoped for, and devised.

All the progress and inroads made in establishing LGBT identities and communities, in essence, now ride on how we acknowledge and administer to the housing and healthcare needs of LGBT elders. It is the final imprint on a lasting LGBT participation and leadership in our society and our culture. If we don't do this, who will? We should do this because we can do it. It is our duty. It should be our legacy.▼

Ray Rudolph is chair of the Elder Issues Subcommittee of the LGBT Advisory Committee to the San Francisco Human Rights Commission. He is also a volunteer for Openhouse. He is retired from UCSF, where he was graduate program director in medical sociology, and is a resident of San Francisco for over 35 years.

To Whom It May Concern:

Thank you for allowing me to submit the enclosed application for the Senior LGBT Task Force. The development of this Task Force is an important step to assuring support and services for the LGBT senior community. I applaud the Board's efforts.

Please accept the following summary of my qualifications for the Task Force:

1) 6 years of participation and leadership in the LGBT Community Partnership, a grassroots collaboration of providers, advocates and citizens working on the issues of aging in the LGBT community. As co-chair I facilitated monthly educational meetings and major training events on topics such as disability, HIV/AIDS, and most recently Transgender and aging. The Partnership works to ensure senior service providers understand the needs of LGBT older adults.

2) I have also been happy to work with the Institute on Aging looking at our service provision to the LGBT senior community. We brought in Openhouse to train management staff, and we increased our participation in LGBT events such as the Pride Parade (collaborating with Openhouse, OnLok and others) and sponsoring aging relevant films at the LGBT Film Festival. IOA works closely with and supports Openhouse's activities and we continually strive to be more open and culturally sensitive to the concerns of older members of the LGBT community.

3) Along with this work I have been on committees, work groups and task forces throughout my career and have an understanding of the commitment, effort, collaboration and processes required. Recent examples include the Alzheimer's Association LGBT Caregivers brochure work group and my role on the Long Term Care Integration Communications Subcommittee.

4) Lastly I want to acknowledge my personal interest. As a 56 year old gay man with a physical disability living in San Francisco for 18 years, I am acutely aware of the pressing issues of medical care, housing, discrimination and social isolation. As well a professional advocate for LGBT seniors I feel I can speak from my personal experience to the topic of LGBT Aging.

Thank you again for considering me for the LGBT Seniors Task Force.

Sincerely,

Richard Appleby

LBGT Senior Task Force

Nominee: Robert Connors
Red Rock Way
San Francisco, CA. 94131

Relevant Experience and Interest:

I am currently the Programs Manager at Little Brothers Friends of the Elderly here in San Francisco. I deal with elder issues around isolation, transportation, and care management on a daily basis. I am also getting my master's in gerontology (study of aging) in the evening with a graduation date expected of December, 2012. I am extremely interested in joining the LBGT Task Force from Supervisor Scott Weiner's district 8. I would bring a unique mix of relevant field experience dealing with the current issues as a service provider in San Francisco dealing with the elderly as well as an academic education of current best practices associated with the aged.

Servicing older LBGT clients has it unique circumstances and challenges. Even in this day and age many care providers are not culturally sensitive to LBGT clients. Many gay elders are in fear of being discriminated against if they identifying themselves as gay. Also gay seniors are less likely to have traditional family members around to rely on to help with their care in later years. Elders that are experiencing the onset of taking multiple medications for high blood pressure or diabetes in conjunction with HIV medications suffer additional care requirements for ADL's, nutrition and exercise. Long term care facilities typically are not step up to service same sex couples and they may incur additional isolation in these institutions.
The largest issue that I deal with everyday regardless of sexual identification is transportation and accompaniment to a doctor's appointment. Para transit in its current state isn't structured for accompaniment and long delays in picking up an elder patient at a doctor's appointment are the norm rather than the exception. Frail elders waiting in an office lobby or curbside for transportation is unacceptable and borders on neglect.

I would appreciate the opportunity to serve on this committee and bring my skill set to resolve some of critical issues that our LBGT seniors face.

Sincerely,

Bob Connors.

San Francisco Board of Supervisors Rules Committee
Supervisor Jane Kim, Chair of the Rules Committee
1 Dr. Carlton B. Goodlett Place, Room 244
San Francisco, CA 94102

To the Selection Committee for San Francisco's LGBT Seniors Task Force,

I am writing to apply for a seat on San Francisco's lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) Seniors Task Force, which I learned about at the Community Meeting about Issues facing LGBT Seniors of Color on July 26, 2012. As a long-time resident and active member in the community, I have the personal experience of aging in San Francisco, and a demonstrated commitment to serving San Francisco's LGBT older adult community. As a social worker, I will bring my expertise and knowledge, including my professional experiences and understanding of the complexity of issues facing our LGBT older adult community to San Francisco's LGBT Senior Task Force.

Arriving in San Francisco in 1985, I saw the first onslaught and devastating effects of AIDS, and witnessed the pain and suffering of friends, families, and the community. During this period I found solace as an emotional support volunteer with Shanti Project. This is also where I met a fellow volunteer and my future partner. As the battle raged on and with little support from our federal government, we soon found ourselves participating in numerous protests targeting our government's failure to respond to the growing epidemic. For several years our cries fell on deaf ears, but were soon heard as research and the approval process for new medications shifted gears and the healing process slowly begun. In the years that followed my commitment to the health and wellbeing of the community continued through various volunteer positions with the AIDS Foundation and Pets Are Wonderful Support, and later through employment opportunities with New Leaf Services and the LGBT Community Center. All of this was about to take a sudden and drastic change as my long-time partner's health began to decline with the later stages of HIV.

My partner's battle with AIDS lasted five long years – wrought with both debilitating physical conditions and the accompanying emotional pain manifesting itself in the form of depression, anxiety and isolation. This was one of the most difficult and challenging periods of my life, but one that would ultimately guide me on a new path and journey. A year after his passing, I began a deep and personal search within and decided to return back to school and advance my commitment to the health and wellbeing of San Francisco's LGBTQ community, and specifically its LGBT older adult community.

My first year internship with Openhouse was a rich and rewarding experience, in which I began to understand that my partner was not alone in his fight against AIDS. Many long-term survivors now in 50s and 60s are still coping with the traumatic effects of HIV. This includes the long-term side effects of medications, physical conditions typically associated with advanced aging, and mental health conditions related to loss and trauma. Furthermore, I feel that the degree of loss and trauma that LGBT older adults experienced, especially long-term survivors of HIV, is a mental health issue that has not received adequate attention. Working directly with LGBT older adults also provided me insight into the complexity of issues they face such as limited access to housing, proper healthcare, and discrimination. It is important to note that many LGBT older adults are forced back into the closet due to systemic discrimination in long-term care facilities. In order to inform social service providers of the unique challenges facing LGBT older adults Openhouse created its' LGBT Older Adult Cultural Humility Curriculum, which I was given the opportunity to co-facilitate numerous social services provider trainings. These trainings were in conjunction with the passage of AB 2920 the Older Californians Equality and Protection Act. Furthermore, the curriculum also includes Best Practices, which calls for the inclusion of sexual orientation and the expansion of gender identity category on intake forms. If appointed, I would highly recommend that San Francisco's Department of Aging and Adult Services mandate a policy to collect this vital information from all social service providers. I also participated in the LGBT and Asian & Pacific Islander Partnerships, and in 2011, I was an invited attendee to the First National People of Color LGBT Aging Convening in Washington, D.C. My internship at Openhouse was critical in my understanding the array of issues confronting LGBT older adults. Understanding innovative ways to address individuals living with mental health conditions led me to my second year internship.

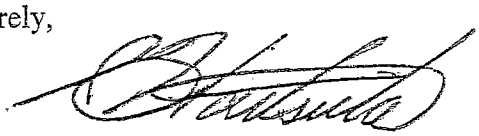
The Student Success Program (SSP) at San Francisco State University provides individual support to students in the College of Health and Social Sciences. The program adheres to the mental health recovery model which recognizes the critical role peer support plays in the recovery process. The SSP was instrumental in my decision to create a peer-based mental health support program for LGBT older adults as part of my culminating project, which also included a grant proposal for future funding. During this time I was also invited to serve on San Francisco's Community Behavioral Health Services Older Adult Peer Services Planning Board, which is responsible for developing recommendations for expanded programs for older adult behavioral health services in San Francisco.

As a long-time resident and active member in the community, I am committed to the health and wellbeing of San Francisco's LGBTQ community, and specifically its LGBT older adult community. Moreover, I have the professional experience, knowledge and understanding of the complexity of issues facing LGBT older adults. As a social worker, I will bring my skills as a researcher, community organizer, and negotiator to the LGBT Senior Task Force.

I am available to appear before the Rules Committee hearing tentatively scheduled for September 6, 2012. If you have any questions regarding my qualifications prior to this date please do not hesitate to contact me. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,



Scott Haitsuka

San Francisco Board of Supervisors Rules Committee
Supervisors David Campos, Mark Farrell, and Jane Kim
1 Dr. Carlton B. Goodlett Place, Room 244
San Francisco, CA 94102

To the Selection Committee for the LGBT Seniors Task Force,

It is with great pleasure that I write this letter of recommendation for Mr. Scott Hiatsuka. I was Scott's internship supervisor at San Francisco State University's Student Success Program (SSP) from August, 2011, to May, 2012. The SSP is an innovative program funded by the Mental Health Services Act that supports students who are preparing for careers in the human services and who have experienced behavioral health issues or who come from communities that are underserved and underrepresented in the public health system. Our goals are to increase access and enrollment, enhance retention, and maximize graduation rates. The SSP employs a wrap-around and multidisciplinary approach, assisting students in building a healthy and stable lifestyle while in school. Consideration is given to the needs and preferences of S.F. State's ethnically and culturally diverse populations including its large and active LGBTQQI community. The SSP also mounts public information campaigns to raise awareness and educate the campus and community about behavioral health and recovery.

I believe that Scott is highly qualified to serve on the LGBT Seniors Task Force as he has a long and proven history in providing services to both older adults and people living with mental health issues. He made use of his previous experiences as an intern at Openhouse, providing housing and support services to LGBT seniors, and at the Canon Kip Senior Center, as well as his employment at New Leaf Services, the Progress Foundation, and the LGBT Community Center to inform and enrich his work at the SSP. During his time at the SSP, Scott was involved in the community stakeholder process that has been furnishing evaluation and guidance to S.F. City and County's MHSA projects. Based on his participation in these advisory endeavors, he was invited to serve on a S.F.'s CBHS Older Adult Peer Services Planning Board developing recommendations for expanded programs for older adults in San Francisco.

Scott has a particular interest in enhancing peer support for aging adults and is firmly grounded in wellness and recovery policies and practices. While serving at the Student Success Program, Scott developed a well considered proposal to utilize the peer provided support that is central to services at the SSP with LGBT older adults in the Bay Area. During his time at the SSP, Scott assisted in co-facilitating our weekly peer mentorship training and in providing supervision to the participants. In addition, he played a central role in initiating a monthly support group for older and returning students.

Scott is a truly gifted individual - highly intelligent, conscientious, creative, and self-motivated. He has shown a great capacity to help people find common ground and reach consensus when they hold opposing viewpoints. Throughout his time at the Student Success Program, Scott provided the bedrock on which our services are built. He exhibited a remarkable understanding of both the mission and daily operations of our program as well as the nature of the communities that we serve and he consistently found ways of contributing to the advancement of our organizational goals. The majority of students that we serve at the SSP report a multiplicity of stressors and challenges including poverty, oppression, social injustice, stressors related to immigration, community and domestic violence, war, incarceration, substance misuse, physical and sexual abuse and other forms of trauma, variations in ability, serious or chronic health issues, and learning differences. Three-quarters of the students we serve are people of color. Scott was consistently sensitive to cultural factors with a potential impact on the assessment and intervention process.

Scott offered individual counseling and care management and engaged in intake, biopsychosocial assessment, the development of an educational and wellness service plan, resource coordination, and aid in transitioning to employment or graduate school. His interpersonal skills are exceptional, which was indispensable to the program as one of our goals is to attract students who might otherwise be reluctant to seek out services. He has the ability to put people at their ease and to support them in feeling welcomed and comfortable. He possesses profoundly penetrative observational capacities as well as excellent listening and communication skills. Scott invariably engendered a high level of trust in the students he served, who were subsequently able to experience new facets of themselves and reach desired goals. He exhibited a wonderful enthusiasm for his work and a heartfelt respect for the dignity and right to self-determination of his clients. Through the variety of SSP activities and interventions, Scott unfailingly communicated that he truly cares about the needs and interests of those with whom he is interacting, be they students, staff, or community partners. He is able to work independently as well as part of a team and his problem solving and critical thinking skills are exemplary.

We at the Student Success Program have been intensively engaged in outreach activities as it is critical to our mission to engage students who might otherwise be reluctant to seek support. Scott is an articulate public speaker and exhibits an authentic warmth and caring. He has cultivated productive relationships with providers and our partners across campus including Pride@SFSU, an organization of faculty, staff, and students who identify as LGBTQQI. The positive connections that Scott has made have had a beneficial impact in terms of referrals to our program and engagement in collaborative efforts throughout the university.

It is always a gift to have an individual like Scott Hiatsuka involved in a community effort. I cannot think of a more worthy candidate for the LGBT Seniors Task Force than Scott. He would be a great asset and make an extraordinary contribution to the process. I give him my highest recommendation. Please feel free to contact me if you have any further questions at (415) 405-2458.

Sincerely yours,

Dina Redman

QUALIFICATIONS

I am a queer senior (61 years old) who has been active in LGBT issues for the past 42 years. I was chairperson of the Gay Liberation Front/Temple (during which time I helped organize a campaign that successfully stopped aversion therapy on gay men at a psychiatric unit funded by Temple University), served as president of Philadelphia Gay Activists Alliance in 1975-76, and worked for the Philadelphia Gay News for 10 years in the 80s (7 of which I served as editor). After moving to San Francisco in 1991, I helped establish three emergency shelters for homeless queer youth in the Castro as well as a food program at MCC church and a place to take a shower at Mission High, and have worked at the Housing Rights Committee (HRCSF) as a tenant and affordable housing advocate for 12 years. My work at HRCSF has been mostly with low-income people, including seniors, immigrant Latinos and others. I and Brian Basinger of the AIDS Housing Alliance helped pass legislation ("No Fast Pass to Eviction") at the Board of Supervisors several years ago to protect seniors and people with AIDS and other disabilities from Ellis Act evictions. I am part of the community advisory group that has been working with the Mayor's Office on Housing to ensure that LGBT senior housing and 50 BMR units are built at 55 Laguna.

Dear Clerk of the Board of Supervisors:

Enclosed you will find my resume, references. both character and professional, for consideration placement on the Senior Citizen Task Force. I received notification from Supervisor Scott Weiner's office that the positions were opening.

Also, there is a listing of my volunteer achievements and awards received. I served as the Commissioner of Veteran's Affairs for the City and County for over fourteen years that included service under the Board of Supervisors, and three Mayors, including the current Mayor.

I was in the initial panel of LGBT seniors discussing the housing situation for elders with the group who is providing the housing, and made vital suggestions. As a nurse of thirty years, and a senior citizen, I feel that I can ad a different and vital perspective to any such task force.

If there are additional forms that must be filled out, please let me know. Also, please keep me informed when the Rules Committee begins to hear the motion for appointments. I can be reached at: 415/524-9880, or by email at: vfdiva@gmail.com.

Also, please note that all awards other than the one received recently for Volunteering at the Veteran's Administration are in my former surname of Cauley, including the position of Commissioner.

I thank you and the Board of Supervisors for your appointment consideration.

Respectfully Submitted,

Veronika Fimbres

Investigative study for MSM-IVDU participants, and MTF transgenders under thirty. Draw blood from IVDU clients. Culture, vaccinate, and educate clients regarding Harm Reduction Strategies. Refer clients to appropriate programs.

Outreach/Survey Worker, UC, San Francisco, San Francisco, CA 1/200-6/2000

Outreach/Survey Worker. Established protocols and methods used in surveying MTF transgenders sexual behaviors, and how to help them in making life changes, but giving them the tools to do so. Collected data via street interviews with transgender sex workers, for which they were paid a stipend. Interviewed the CEO's and Executive Directors of programs that provide services of varying degrees to transgenders. Disseminated information, and wrote reports for the process of inclusion in the final report of the program.

Outreach/Survey Worker, Harder + Company, San Francisco, CA 1999 & 2000

Private contractor. Collected data according to protocol for interviewing clients with HIV/AIDS, their health status, and the delivery of services to them. Conducted surveys and interviews at different locations around the city, and gave clients incentives for their participation. Confidentiality and respect of the clients was paramount. The San Francisco AIDS Office, and the Mayor's Ryan White Care Council disseminated the information for use to provide appropriate services. I contracted with them on two occasions.

Community Associate, New York City Department of Health, New York, NY 1989-1989

Performed AIDS education and outreach in the streets of New York, and Riker's Island. Went to sex clubs, adult bookstores, Port Authority, hustler, transgender, and ho "strolls." Dispensed condoms and pamphlets about the disease to the citizens. Referred clients to the proper agencies for HIV testing, and further education regarding condom use, and harm reduction techniques. Taught HIV/AIDS prevention to the inmates of Riker's Island. Showed inmates how to apply condoms properly, and answered questions that inmates had regarding contraction of the disease, how to prevent the spread of the disease, and harm reduction trends.

Qualifications

I believe I am qualified to serve on the Task Force based on my 25 years of experience in law, government, public policy, nonprofit management and community activism. As a Deputy County Counsel for San Mateo County and as a legislative aide to San Francisco Supervisor Susan Leal, I have developed an excellent understanding of government and how it works. In particular, through my many civic activities over the years, I have learned how things get done in San Francisco, and how things don't get done too. I have experience not only with the inner workings of San Francisco government and politics, but I also have extensive experience working in the community with diverse populations and complex issues. In particular, I have devoted much time over the years to public policy development in the areas of healthcare, mental healthcare, HIV/AIDS, senior services, housing, the LGBT community, communities of color, civil rights.

As a nonprofit development manager for twelve years, I also developed a thorough understanding of nonprofit management and the relationship between the nonprofit community and local, state and federal government agencies and programs. Working in nonprofit development and marketing, I learned quite a bit about project budgeting and funding, and helped plan for new and expanded programs in the agencies I worked at. In 2009, I graduated from a fifteen month Fellowship in Nonprofit Management sponsored by Jewish Family and Children's Services of San Francisco and taught by a member of the Boston University Business School faculty. This course greatly added to my understanding of best practices in the nonprofit industry and of the San Francisco nonprofit community specifically.

I have also led the effort over the past two years to increase the visibility of issues affecting LGBT seniors at City Hall, and to establish the LGBT Seniors Task Force. I began the effort almost two years ago when I joined the Human Rights Commission's LGBT Advisory Committee and first suggested the addition of an LGBT seniors advisory committee to the city's governmental structure as a way of creating momentum for change. During 2011, I worked with other members of the HRC's Advisory Committee and systematically began reaching out to all the stakeholders working with LGBT seniors in San Francisco. We reached a consensus proposal and took the recommendations to Supervisors Wiener and Campos who enthusiastically agreed to move the issues forward at the Board of Supervisors. After a very successful hearing on the issues in January 2012, the Supervisors proposed the establishment of the LGBT Seniors Task Force, and I have worked with their offices to help lay the groundwork for a very successful process once the Task Force gets underway.

I would very much like to serve on the Task Force so that I can see this through to the end. I believe that I have the vision necessary to help lead the Task Force in its complicated yet crucial task of reviewing past recommendations and putting forth feasible and realistic proposals to improve services for LGBT seniors. In addition to my past work in city government, law and public policy, I now work as an estate planning and trust administration attorney and my practice almost exclusively deals with LGBT clients. Most all of my estate planning clients are either seniors already or are in the aging category, and they are all in the process of planning for their senior years. Consequently, I am keenly aware of the issues and challenges facing LGBT people as we age and I believe this insight will be very helpful in my work on the Task Force, should I have the privilege to be appointed.

Finally, I would like to say that I will make the LGBT Seniors Task Force my top priority for the time I am on the Task Force. I will attend all meetings and will gladly volunteer additional time to actively participate in the work groups and do whatever it takes to make the Task Force successful in all respects. I will give the community every opportunity for input, and I will be patient and respectful with all who appear before or work with the Task Force. In particular, I will do everything I can to give LGBT seniors the opportunity to participate and to make their voices heard during the process.

Qualifications

I have been involved with LGBT aging issues as a volunteer, an advocate, a service provider and lately as a consumer for 16 years. Starting as a Friendly Visitor volunteer when I was 44 in 1996 for what was then, GLOE (Gay and Lesbian Outreach to Elders) I have had intimate direct contact with LGBT seniors. Visiting in their homes, listening to their concerns, driving them to appointments, I have learned first hand how isolated, shamed, economically challenged, distrusting of mainstream services and marginalized this community is.

I was 44. By then I had been living and almost dying with AIDS for 14 years. I saw the direct, multiple impact of the isolation of aging in the LGBT community, with the loss, grief and trauma of the AIDS epidemic. Elders not only lost their partners of many years, but also the loss of the next generation (my generation) which would have been their caregivers.

From 1996 on, my involvement with aging in this community became more and more extensive, as did my understanding of the distinct issues involved. I became the Friendly Visitor coordinator of GLOE, then the assistant program director. As my own health got better with the first wave of AIDS cocktails, I went back to school, to New College graduate school, and received a degree in socio-clinical psychology (MA) and became a Marriage and Family Therapist intern.

I stayed with my passion and continued full-time employment with the newly named New Leaf Outreach to Elders as the Social Services worker in 2000. From 1998 to 2008 I was involved with many ground-breaking advocacy and cultural competency trainings concerning the aging issues of the LGBT community.

For brevity's sake and with the understanding that many of these dates are 'guesstimates', some of the highlights were:

- In 1997 assisting Dana Van Gorder with the Department of Public Health, conducted cultural competency trainings for 900 nurses, nurses aides and assistants at Laguna Honda Hospital.

  As a baseline, we found that 30% of these health workers were supportive of the LGBT population, 30% had negative views, and 30% were indifferent (10% no reply). I mention this anecdotal finding and the % because throughout a decade later of trainings I personally conducted with at least 19 city agencies serving elders, I found the same percentage breakdown.
- In 1998, Nancy Flaxman (I gladly give her the most credit) developed a senior speaker's bureau under the auspices of the LGBT Senior Collaborative (San Francisco, Marin, East Bay). It was awarded the "Best Practices" award in 1999 by the American Society on Aging.
- In 2002 I was invited to participate in the first nation-wide "Senior Roundtable" on LGBT senior issues by the NGLTF (National Gay and Lesbian Task Force) held in Washington, D.C.
- In 2003 I was the liason between the LGBT senior community and the LGBT advisory council of the Human Rights Commission to hold a hearing on senior issues. It was the first government sponsored event of its kind. The report, findings and recommendations remain the most extensive to this date.

Qualifications (cont'd)

There were so many conferences and trainings throughout these years, I'll list some of the chronology in my 'work' and 'civic experience.' One highlight I was privileged to be a part of in 2006 was the first "Sit-Down" discussion of LGBT senior issues with the CEO of AARP, Bill Roselli (?). Marcy Adelman, Moli Steinhart, Brian deVries and myself were the participants in this historic moment with mainstream aging and LGBT aging experts.

I was also a part of many groundbreaking social programs dedicated to assuage isolation in the LGBT elder community. Some highlights are:

- "Lunch Bunch", a collaboration with Curry Senior Center and New Leaf Outreach to Elders, 1998-2008.
- Laguna Honda "Rainbow Senior Social Group", awarded the San Francisco mayoral Certificate of Merit, 1998-2008.
- "Geezer's Ball", awarded by Mark Leno, state assemblyman, the Certificate of Appreciation, 2000-2005.
- NLOE "HIV Senior Men's Support Group", 2000-2008.

My transferable skill is perhaps my respect and authenticity that has earned me the trust I continue to receive by the elders of the community, in particular the women of the community.

Not having been born and raised in the non-profit world, I have the ability to humanize the issues and cut through the 'agency-speak' in meetings, groups, presentations and trainings. I'm outcome-oriented and have a knowledge of history in this area to avoid re-inventing the wheel, but rather seek goals and actions that would serve the issues. I bring levity and seriousness to the table. I'm a good listener and a good speaker.

My particular interests of late are outreach and true advocacy of bisexual elder issues; HIV and aging; appropriate outreach to people of color and low-income seniors; and distinguishing of not only the older generation of seniors, but the new emerging socio-economics of the baby boomer LGBT "new" seniors.

Currently, living with non-HIV disabilities, I am also interested in advocacy for people with disabilities in the LGBT community.

Civic Activities

Volunteered with the "Friendly Visitor" program, GLOE/NLOE, 1996-2000.
Advisory board member, GLOE/NLOE, 1996-2000.

FILE NO. 120378 Amended in Committee 5/24/2012 ORDINANCE NO. 107-12

[Administrative Code - Establishing a Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Seniors Task Force]

Ordinance amending the San Francisco Administrative Code, Chapter 5, Article XII, by adding Sections 5.110 through 5.115, to establish a Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Seniors Task Force and establish its powers and duties.

NOTE: Additions are single-underline italics Times New Roman; deletions are ~~strike-through italics Times New Roman~~. Board amendment additions are double-underlined; Board amendment deletions are ~~strikethrough normal~~.

Be it ordained by the People of the City and County of San Francisco:

Section 1. Findings.

(a) Demographics and research on the numbers, conditions and needs of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender ("LGBT") aging adults and seniors is minimal and therefore little is actually known about this segment of the San Francisco population.

(b) The research that is available shows alarming areas of disparity in housing, government and social support, medical and mental health, and other factors compared to heterosexual counterparts; in particular, studies have shown an almost universal fear of being out in senior facilities due to perceived intolerance and ignorance on the part of staff and other seniors.

(c) Various advisory bodies in San Francisco have studied issues relating to LGBT seniors and have recommended systemic policies to implement city-wide change in the specific areas of housing, health and social services, legal status and equity, research and demographics, and community within community.

(d) While some of the recommendations have been implemented, many of them have not.

Section 2. The San Francisco Administrative Code is hereby amended by adding Article XII of Chapter 5, Sections 5.110 through 5.115, to read as follows:

SEC. 5.110. CREATION OF TASK FORCE.

The Board of Supervisors hereby establishes a Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender ("LGBT") Seniors Task Force ("the Task Force") for the City and County of San Francisco.

SEC. 5.111. PURPOSE.

The Task Force shall advise the Board of Supervisors on matters relating to the needs and concerns of senior members of the LGBT community.

SEC. 5.112. MEMBERSHIP.

(a) The Task Force shall consist of ~~11~~15 members, appointed by the Board of Supervisors. Members shall include LGBT seniors and aging adults, and people with expertise or experience working on issues affecting LGBT seniors. Appointments shall reflect the diversity of the seniors LGBT community, including race, ethnicity, religion, gender identity, socio economic status, disability (including HIV/AIDS status), and other relevant characteristics.

(b) All members of the Task Force shall be residents of the City and County, in accordance with Section 4.101 of the Charter. The Board of Supervisors may waive the residency requirement if it finds that a resident of the City and County with specific experience, skills or qualifications willing to serve could not be located within the City and County.

SEC. 5.113. ORGANIZATION AND TERMS OF OFFICE.

(a) Members of the Task Force shall serve for the life of the Task Force; provided, however, that the Board of Supervisors may remove any member of the Task Force at any time.

(b) In the event a vacancy occurs during the term of office of any member, the Board of Supervisors shall appoint a successor for the unexpired term of the office vacated.

(c) The Task Force shall elect its own officers and shall establish rules for its own organization and procedures. The Task Force shall meet when necessary as determined by the Task Force; provided, however, that the Task Force shall hold a regular meeting not less than once every month. Except as provided by law, all meetings of the Task Force shall be open to the public.

(d) Services of the members of the Task Force shall be voluntary and members will serve without compensation. Any member who misses two regularly-scheduled meetings of the Task Force within a six-month period without the express approval of the Task Force at a regularly-scheduled meeting will be deemed to have resigned from the Task Force.

(e) The Department of Aging and Adult Services shall provide administrative support to the Task Force. All City departments, commissions, boards and agencies shall cooperate with the Task Force in conducting its business.

SEC. 5.114. POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE TASK FORCE.

(a) The Task Force may hold hearings and take testimony regarding LGBT senior issues and related matters.

(b) The Task Force may create subcommittees as necessary; provided, however that the Task Force shall establish working groups on: housing; health and social services; legal status and equity; research and demographics; and community-within-community. The working groups shall reach out to and invite other members of the community and experts who can help with the work of the Task Force to participate with the working groups in an advisory role, including the special committee of the Advisory Council on Human Rights for LGBT issues established under Administrative Code Section 12A.6(c).

(c) The Task Force shall review, update and create implementation plans for recommendations in existing reports including, without limitation, the 2003 HRC Report on LGBT Seniors, the 2010 Ryan White HIV Care Council Report on HIV and Aging, and the 2011 Report of the SRO Task Force.

(d) No later than 15 months after its first meeting, the Task Force shall create a written report and transmit that report to the Board of Supervisors. The report shall include action plans for implementation of recommendations, timelines for implementation, estimated costs, and potential funding sources plus additional information to facilitate implementation.

SEC. 5.115. SUNSET PROVISION.

This Article shall expire by operation of law, and the LGBT Senior Task Force shall terminate, eighteen months after the first meeting of the Task Force. After that date, the City Attorney shall cause this Article to be removed from the Administrative Code.

Section 3. Effective Date. This ordinance shall become effective 30 days from the date of passage.
