Clerk of the Board
San Francisco Board of Supervisors
1 Dr. Carlton B. Goodlett Place, Room 244
San Francisco, California 94118

Received via email

Re: Request for "PCN"

To the Clerk of the Board:

I am the legal representative for the Roxie Theater, and am writing to you on its behalf to request a public convenience and necessity resolution from the San Francisco Board of Supervisors regarding the Roxie's request for an alcohol license.

An alcohol license for the Roxie Theater will serve the public convenience and necessity in the Mission neighborhood as well as citywide for the following reasons:

The Roxie is a California non-profit corporation and has 501(c)(3) status. Over the past year, the Roxie has used its non-profit status to obtain day-use permits for on-site alcohol sales. The response from the community was so positive that the Roxie would like to make alcohol sales on its premises permanent. During this time, neither the Roxie's neighbors nor anybody else within the subdistrict has complained about loitering, public drunkenness, or any other problems related to the consumption of alcohol on the Roxie's premises. Furthermore, the sale of beer has brought in much needed funds to the non-profit theater, which has been serving the city of San Francisco for over a century.

It is a growing concern in San Francisco that single-screen theaters are dying. San Francisco is one of the few American cities that still has neighborhood movie theaters. Theaters like the Roxie live on as focal points of community discourse and assembly. The Roxie seeks to provide a venue for the little picture, the films and documentaries that help educate the public about important issues large-studio films rarely address. Without a place like the Roxie Theater, these films will not have a chance in the current market. An alcohol license for the Roxie will help the theater stay financially afloat and allow it to continue to provide a venue where the community can see the important small films, which are rarely, if ever, showcased at the Megaplex.

The subdistrict legislation already allows Non-Profit Theaters under Section 781.8(c)(2) to obtain alcohol licenses. These non-profit theaters are provided with such licenses because they require the extra income from alcohol sales to remain operational. While the Roxie Theater is also a non-profit theater, the legislation requires that the non-profit theater show "any act, play, revue, pantomime, scene, song, dance act." The Roxie, however, only presents movies. This distinction is the only portion of the legislation that prevents the Roxie from obtaining a liquor license.

The Roxie has been around for 102 years and loves serving its local community and the larger community of San Francisco. Neighborhood theaters like the Red Vic in Haight-Ashbury have already had to close their doors because they were not profitable. An alcohol license for the Roxie would help prevent this historic San Francisco landmark from having to shut down as well.

For the reasons stated above, the Roxie respectfully requests that the Clerk of the Board permit a public convenience and necessity resolution.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any further questions or concerns. Thank you in advance for your consideration.

Best Regards,

George Rush

Hi, Linda.

I wanted to follow up on the status of a scheduling request for the CONS calendar. We have a District 6 non-profit that has applied for a beer license and my understanding is that they submitted their request to the Clerk's office last week, and I wanted to see what the projected calendaring might look like.
