LEGISLATIVE DIGEST

[Energy Efficiency Steering Committee.]

Ordinance amending the San Francisco Administrative Code by adding Article II to Chapter 5, Sections 5.2-1 through 5.2-8, to: create an Energy Efficiency Steering Committee to advise the Board of Supervisors on planning and decision-making regarding energy efficiency projects; provide for the Committee's membership, organization, and duties; and set a sunset date for the Committee.

Existing Law

The City does not have an advisory body responsible for working with the Board of Supervisors on planning and decision-making regarding energy efficiency projects.

Amendments to Current Law

The proposal would amend the Administrative Code to create an Energy Efficiency Steering Committee ("the Committee"). The Committee would be charged with advising the Board of Supervisors on planning and decision-making regarding energy efficiency projects, and the spending and allocation of new monies for such purposes. The Committee would be directed to follow four policies in making its recommendations:

- The City should give priority in connection with energy efficiency spending to low income communities and communities that are disproportionately impacted by localized health and economic threats of toxic pollution;
- The City should create or adjust specific programs and policies to that ensure jobs and other economic benefits in energy efficiency and green sector industries specifically benefit low income San Francisco residents in targeted environmental justice communities;
- The City should have a model of interdepartmental collaboration and action and a targeted set of metrics upon which energy efficiency programs will be evaluated;
- The City should design and implement energy efficiency policies and programs to achieve health benefits in targeted environmental justice communities.

The Committee would have seven voting members, appointed by the Board of Supervisors and drawn from individuals and organizations with an understanding of the needs of low income communities, as well as technical expertise in the areas of economic and workforce development, environmental health, employer contracting, small business, green jobs, and energy efficiency. The ordinance would set qualifications for each of the seven seats. Representatives from various City departments would sit as non-voting members of the Committee.

Voting members would serve one-year terms, and hold their positions at the pleasure of the Board of Supervisors. The Committee would be staffed by the Department of the Environment, and would be required to meet at least once a month.

The Committee would be authorized to hold hearings and submit recommendations to the Board of Supervisors, the Mayor, and other City officers and departments on the spending and allocation of energy efficiency funds. It would submit quarterly reports on its activities to the Board of Supervisors, and, within one year, it would submit to the Board a set of policy standards for how the City will equitably spend energy efficiency monies.

The legislation creating the Committee would expire at the end of one year, unless the Board of Supervisors by resolution extended the term of the Committee for an additional year.
