8 WHEREAS, The City of San Francisco and the State of California are under a State of 9 Emergency requiring a shelter-in-place order that has severely impacted businesses and 10 workers; and

11 WHEREAS, According to the San Francisco City Controller and the Mayor’s Budget
12 Office, nearly 14,000 businesses are fully or partially impacted that generate monthly 13 revenues of $3 billion a month with 166,000 employees; and

14 WHEREAS, Businesses and companies have been furloughing or laying off workers in 15 order to maintain solvency; and

16 WHEREAS, California saw over 2.3 million unemployment claims in April of 2020 and 17 by May of 2020 unemployment rates have risen to a level not seen since the Great 18 Depression; and

19 WHEREAS, Corner stores and markets are an essential part of our neighborhoods, 20 especially in the city’s food deserts, where larger grocers and supermarkets are largely 21 absent; and

22 WHEREAS, Under California’s beverage container recycling law, beverage dealers that 23 operate within convenience zones that do not have a certified recycler are required to redeem
24 California Redemption Value (CRV) beverage containers in store in exchange for the refund 25 value or pay a $100 daily fee; and

1           WHEREAS, Beverage dealers may include supermarkets, community markets, gas 2 stations, liquor stores, membership bulk stores, and health food stores; and

3           WHEREAS, A convenience zone is typically a half-mile radius circle with the center 4 point originating at a supermarket; and

5           WHEREAS, Convenience zones are areas within a half-mile of a supermarket and a 6 supermarket is defined as a full line retail store with gross receipts of $2 million dollars or 7 more; and

8           WHEREAS, San Francisco only has 4 certified recycling centers located primarily in 9 the Bayview District; and

10          WHEREAS, There are 57 unserved convenience zones in San Francisco. Meaning 11 that, all beverage dealers within a 1/2 mile radius of those zones must accept beverage 12 containers for recycling or, pay the $100 a day fee; and

13          WHEREAS, Many beverage dealers operating in unserved convenience zones do not 14 have the resources or the capacity to accept beverage containers for recycling and store and 15 transport the containers to the recycling center available in San Francisco; and

16          WHEREAS, Most of these family owned corner stores and markets cannot afford to 17 pay the $100 a day fee ($36.5k/year); and

18          WHEREAS, Some particularly vulnerable corner stores have accrued $1000s of dollars 19 in unpaid fees; now therefore, be it

20          RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors urges the Office of the Governor issue an 21 Executive Order to waive the collection of the $100 per day fine in lieu of accepting 22 recyclables in-store for small businesses, as defined in the California Code; and, be it

23          FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors urges the Office of the 24 Governor to forgive the outstanding balances of fines issued to small businesses in lieu of 25 accepting recyclables in-store; and, be it

1           FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, no later than 30
2 days after the passage of this Resolution, shall transmit copies of this Resolution to the
