[COMMENDING THE INTERFAITH COUNCIL AND THE UNITED EDUCATORS]

WHEREAS, The City and County of San Francisco was named after Saint Francis of Assisi; and,

WHEREAS, Cities across the United States of America have been plagued by violence, crime and despair in schools and in the wider community; and,

WHEREAS, The Interfaith Council and the United Educators have suggested that one way cities like San Francisco can address issues of violence, crime and despair would be for the City to adopt words that would be prominently displayed and function as a goal and inspiration for the City's citizens; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors commends the Interfaith Council and the United Educators for their commendable efforts to reduce violence, crime and despair.
