Behested Payment Solicitation Exception Form

Name of Grant/Gift: FQHC 2024

Amount: $77,000

Term: 2024

Epic Systems Corporation may be an interested party for Department of Public Health officials, as identified in San Francisco Campaign and Governmental Conduct Code (SF C&GCC 3.620). Because Epic Systems Corporation is also the source of the grant or gift listed above, the City and County of San Francisco (City) can only accept the funds if the grant or gift qualifies for a solicitation of behested payment exception under SF C&GCC or Ethics Commission Regulations.

Please indicate which of the following are accurate:

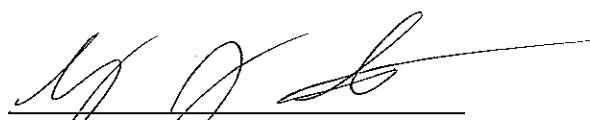

- ☐ The award listed above is being made pursuant to a competitively awarded grant for which the Department of Public Health applied, as described in Ethics Commission Regulation 3.620-8(a).
- ☒ The award listed above is being made pursuant to a grant agreement between Epic Systems Corporation and the City, which was initiated by Epic Systems Corporation, as described in Ethics Commission Regulation 3.620-8(b).
- ☐ The award listed above is a gift or other payment from Epic Systems Corporation to the City, which was initiated by Epic Systems Corporation, as described in Ethics Commission Regulation 3.620-8(c). This gift or payment is not to be used to confer a personal benefit on any City official. Gifts or payments that confer a personal benefit include, but are not limited to food, drinks, holiday parties, and items intended for employee appreciation or recognition.

I Greg Strodtman, as an authorized representative of Epic Systems Corporation affirm that the above is accurate, on pain of penalty. Upon request, Epic Systems Corporation will provide any documentation that it is legally permitted to, which demonstrates the accuracy of the statements above.
