RE: Request for Resolution of Public Convenience of Necessity
Save Mart Supermarkets LLC
3801 3rd Street, San Francisco, CA 94124

Dear Board of Supervisors:

Bayview Merchants Association (BMA) supports the new Lucky Bayview store and the Save Mart Supermarkets LLC's application for a Type 20 Beer and Wine license from the Department of Alcoholic and Beverage Control in Bayview Plaza at 3801 Third Street scheduled to open later this Fall.

A strong and vibrant business sector is an essential component of a healthy neighborhood. Since its founding in 1925 BMA has been a leading advocate for bringing businesses to the Bayview Hunters Point community that provide the goods and services residents of the community want, need and deserve. A full-service supermarket is always high on the list. The proposed Lucky Bayview would meet that need.

In addition, Lucky Bayview will contribute to the success of existing businesses on the corridor and hopefully attract other desired neighborhood-serving and family-friendly businesses that will contribute to the overall economic wellbeing of the community. The success of these businesses will help mitigate quality of life issues on the corridor and increase the circulation of dollars in Bayview that are currently being leaked and spent in other neighborhoods.

We believe Lucky Bayview is committed to the safe and proper sale of alcoholic beverages and has put several measures in place to ensure secure and appropriate sales.

BMA looks forward to partnering with Lucky Bayview and the Bayview business to community to ensure to continued positive growth of the Bayview community.

Sincerely

Al Williams, President
Bayview Merchants Association
