[Commendation]

Resolution commending the services of the City and County of San Francisco's

Department of Elections, the staff of various city departments, and all of the volunteers for the due diligence and dedication in processing the November 7, 2000, General

Municipal Election ballots.

WHEREAS, Patricia Fado, Director of Elections, was charged with the enormous task of implementing a new $3.2 million computerized voting system nicknamed "The Eagle," in the City and County of San Francisco for the November 7, 2000, General Municipal Election; and,

WHEREAS, The Department of Elections was also faced with 486,636 registered voters being divided into 11 districts for the first time in 20 years for the election of candidates for the Board of Supervisors; and,

WHEREAS, There were 29 different ballots representing the voting precincts across the City; and,

WHEREAS, Volunteers from the City Attorney's Office, Controllers Office, City Administrator, Department of Administrative Services, as well as from other City departments, and the community worked diligently to count the ballots; and,

WHEREAS, Ninety percent of the 647 precincts, minus the absentee and provisions ballots were counted by 10 p.m. on election night; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the San Francisco Board of Supervisors commends the Department of Elections and the many volunteers who dedicated their time and effort to counting the ballots during the elections of the City and County; and, be it FURTHER RESOLVED, That the San Francisco Board of Supervisors wishes the Department of Elections equal success in processing the December 12, 2000, Runoff Election.
