LEGISLATIVE DIGEST

(Substituted, 1/14/2025)

[Business and Tax Regulations Code - Voluntary Disclosure Program; Fee for Advance Determinations]

Ordinance amending the Business and Tax Regulations Code to authorize the Tax Collector to waive taxes, penalties, and/or interest under a program ending December 31, 2027, that allows unregistered taxpayers to voluntarily disclose and pay back taxes; and to authorize the Tax Collector to collect fees through December 31, 2027, for reviewing applications for and providing advance determinations to taxpayers.

Existing Law

The Tax Collector is responsible for collecting and receiving taxes imposed by the Business and Tax Regulations Code. The Tax Collector generally does not have the authority to waive taxes or accrued interest but may waive certain penalties under Article 6 of the Business and Tax Regulations Code. The Tax Collector may issue rules and regulations, determinations, and interpretations consistent with the Business and Tax Regulations Code as may be necessary or appropriate in enforcing the payment, collection, and remittance of taxes.

Amendments to Current Law

This ordinance would authorize the Tax Collector to waive taxes, penalties, and/or interest under any program offered by the Tax Collector permitting taxpayers to voluntarily disclose and pay unpaid back taxes and interest for the previous six years in exchange for a waiver of penalties for the six-year lookback period and a waiver of taxes, penalties, and interest for tax years and periods prior to that lookback period. Taxpayers would be eligible only if they do not have a business registration certificate and had not been previously contacted by the Tax Collector about unreported taxes or the failure to register. The Tax Collector's waiver authority would apply to applications for voluntary disclosure filed by taxpayers from the effective date of this ordinance through December 31, 2027.

This ordinance also would authorize the Tax Collector to charge and collect fees from taxpayers for reviewing applications and/or providing advance determinations of a taxpayer's liability for, or issues regarding, the taxes subject to Article 6 of the Business and Tax Regulations Code, as follows: (1) $250 for applications filed with the Tax Collector on or before December 31, 2025, and (2) an amount, if any, that is no more than all of the Tax Collector's costs of providing such determinations, for applications filed after December 31, 2025. The Tax Collector's authority to charge and collect fees for advance determinations would apply to applications filed through December 31, 2027.

THE ASURE PARTIES OF THE PARTIES OF

- On November 5, 2024, San Francisco voters approved Proposition M, a comprehensive restructuring of the city's business tax system.
- Our Office is implementing key components of reform in 2025.

 Two components for approval today are a direct response to taxpayer feedback seeking more guidance and certainty.

- This ordinance establishes the following:
  - Voluntary Disclosure Agreement (VDA) Program
  - Advance Written Determination (AWD) Fee Authorization

Voluntary Disclosure Agreement (VDA)

Overview

• This ordinance authorizes the Tax Collector to waive taxes, penalties, and/or interest for businesses who come forward and pay unpaid back taxes and interest.

Businesses must disclose and pay unpaid taxes and interest for the previous six years.

Eligibility Requirements

- Businesses must not have a business registration certificate.
- Businesses must not have been previously contacted by the Office of the Treasurer & Tax Collector regarding unreported taxes or failure to register.

Program Timeline

- Applications for voluntary disclosure will be accepted this Spring to align with the effective date of this ordinance.
- Authorized through December 31, 2027.

VDA Revenue Projections

• Since 2019, an informal VDA program has generated $2.9 million in back taxes and $1.6 million in ongoing tax revenue.

 Based on this data, we project the following revenue over three years that the program is authorized:

• $1.5 million in prior year tax revenue collected

• $1 million in ongoing tax revenue.

Advance Written Determination (AWD)

Overview

- Proposition M requires that our Office establish the AWD program.
- This ordinance authorizes the Tax Collector to charge fees for reviewing applications and providing advance determinations of tax liability.

Fee Schedule

- $250 for application filed on or before December 31, 2025.
- For applications filed after December 31, 2025, the fee will be no more than the Tax Collector's cost of providing the determination.

PERFORMING ARTS

SF Ballet's adaptation of 'Raymonda' will be a rarity

Tamara Rojo choreographs for company for first time by revisiting lesser-known classic

By James Ambroff-Tahan

Special to The Examiner

or San Francisco Ballet Artistic Director Tamara Rojo, choosing a frequently performed warhorse such as "Swan Lake" as the first work she would choreograph for the company was never in the cards.

Instead, Rojo chose Marius Petipa's rarely performed "Raymonda" to reimagine while she was the artistic director of the English National Ballet. Her version - which resets the work from the time of the Crusades to the Crimean War in the 19th century and redefines the role of women in wartime and society — will be the first opus she has choreographed to be presented by San Francisco Ballet when it opens March 1.

"I was looking to revisit a classic that wasn't constantly being performed, something unusual — I didn't want to do yet another 'Swan Lake' or 'Sleeping Beauty' - and 'Raymonda' is a ballet that, according to Tchaikovsky, has the best score (by Alexander Glazunov) ever written for ballet," Rojo said.

"It's rarely been performed outside of Russia because the theme is complex and at times offensive, and so I felt it was worth trying to preserve what was good about the ballet — the music and choreography - but put it in a different historical context in the manner that theatrical canon does all the time to see if the piece had enough value to sustain that," she said. Rojo's "Raymonda" premiered in London in 2022, but Petipa's original ballet dePHOTOS BY LINDSEY RALLO/SAN FRANCISCO BALLET buted at the Imperial Mariinsky Theatre in St. Petersburg, Russia, in 1898. That production's portrayal of the relationship between Christians and Muslims in the 12th century was among the issues in the story that Rojo found problematic. Another was the passive characterization of the ballet's lead, Countess Raymonda, as a woman waiting for her beloved fiancé and noble knight, Jean de Brienne – a man she hasn't even met — to return from war.

"It felt like a very non-story," Rojo said.

"We watch this woman perform for over three hours but know nothing about her, what motivates her, her interests or her feelings toward the man she's supposed to love or the man she's not supposed to love."

In Rojo's adaptation of "Raymonda," which the San Francisco company will unveil during Women's History Month, the female lead is a more resolute character full of feelings who is evocative of the social activist and founder of modern nursing, Florence Nightingale.

Through her narrative of "Raymonda," Rojo said she wanted to highlight how her heroine faced societal pressures and the expectations of her family and friends to marry and live the life of an upper-class British woman, but instead followed her own aspirations to have a profession that at the time wasn't even considered dignified until she made it so.

"I tried to put forward throughout the ballet both aspects of Florence Nightingale and the constant contradiction I think
