The primary bit of diversity that I bring to the committee is that, aside from our youth representative, I am the youngest person on the committee. Unfortunately, most people in San Francisco in their twenties or early thirties don't feel a responsibility to be civically involved. I help to inspire more younger people to get involved.

Business and/or professional experience:

I have run the Wigg Party, a community organization that works to make the area around the San Francisco bicycle route the Wiggle a leader in the transformation to sustainability and resilience, since 2010.

I also teach about transportation issues among other topics at the University of San Francisco in the Environmental Studies department.

Civic Activities:

I'm also a member of the Bicycle Advisory Committee as the D5 rep and so I'm a crucial link between the BAC and PSAC.

In addition, I spearheaded the "Daylighting Resolution" in both PSAC and the BAC which calls for the city to prohibit parking motor vehicles within 10-20 feet of marked or unmarked crosswalks. Studies show that we would instantly reduce our collisions by around 30% if we implemented this law.

As a black woman with multiple sclerosis who walks, takes public transportation and drives a car, I am definitely familiar with the needs of pedestrians in San Francisco. As a resident of and as someone who works in the South of Market neighborhood, I represent the ideal candidate for representation of fastest changing and growing neighborhood in San Francisco.

Business and/or professional experience:

As a Community Advocate, I represent senior residents in the Yerba Buena neighborhood. Seniors walk the streets of San Francisco and their safety is of the utmost importance to me. Also as the Chair of the Pedestrian Safety Advisory Committee in an At-Large seat, it is my obligation to represent the concerns and needs of all of San Francisco pedestrians into consideration.
