Dear Rules Committee,

I am writing to you today in support of non-profit rep candidate Courtney Brown for Seat 4, and tenant rep candidates Christopher Mika for Seat 1, and Jordan Davis for seat 9 of the SRO Task Force.

Over the past year, Jordan has help me campaign for housing rights of low income residents in San Francisco, campaigning for Prop C last year, and political candidates who are support. She is an incredibly committed organizer. I campaigned with the SF Bike Coalition for a political candidate on a Sunday last year, and Jordan, despite not using a bicycle in San Francisco, showed up to join the campaign work in solidarity. She thinks empathetically and interjectionally, builds effective alliances, and takes action to get things done.

Courtney is a former co-worker at the Tenderloin Housing Clinic, and someone whose compassion, experience, and expertise around responding programmatically to complicated mental health issues makes her a stunningly well qualified candidate for this task force.

At the Tenderloin Housing Clinic, Courtney quickly became a leader in the organization after joining as a Supportive Housing Manager, and was tapped as Deputy Director of Supportive Housing shortly thereafter. Courtney immediately brought her unique skill set for training others to respond to crisis to THC, by leading the first all staff trainings on suicidal ideation that THC had offered in its almost 40 year history. It is this insight and depth of knowledge that she is uniquely qualified to bring to the SRO Task Force.

I have also worked closely with both Christopher and Jordan on housing and homelessness issues in San Francisco. I know them both to be passionate about the project of improving the quality of life for residents living in SRO hotels.

Both Christopher and Jordan have direct experience working with nonprofits (such as the Q Foundation) and city officials, which will greatly aid them in their work of impactfully advising policymakers on behalf of stakeholders. They know the issues, and have established relationships with the important stakeholders involved. I think Christopher would make an excellent new addition to the task force, and that Jordan will do excellent work as a continuing member.

Thank you,

Dear Supervisors Ronen, Walton, and Mar,

I am writing to urge you to support the SRO Housing Justice Slate for the SRO Task Force.

For seat 1 (Tenant) I recommend Christopher Mika, a queer tenant leader who is the only applicant living in the Mission, which gives him a personal insight into the gentrification issues near 16th and Mission, and how that would negatively impact tenants. In addition, he does a lot of work around homelessness and housing equity, and is a volunteer for the Q Foundation.

For seat 9 (Tenant), I recommend the reappointment of Jordan Davis, a disabled and transgender SRO tenant in the Tenderloin, and the only woman who is applying for any of the two tenant seats, and who has done a lot of work around making sure units don't get flipped to tourist use, pushed for gender neutral common restrooms in SROs, is involved in many social and economic justice causes, and is committed to affordability, dignity, and making life better for SRO tenants.

I know both Jordan and Christopher personally and have witnessed first hand their passion about making San Francisco affordable for our neighbors who are struggling to live here and especially those who are homeless.

For seat 4 (non-profit) Courtney Brown, is a young woman who works for a non-profit housing provider, and whose background in palliative care, suicide prevention, and client centered healthcare would be an asset to the Task Force.

All these individuals are people who have a common goal of making SROs more liveable, and who believe in empathy towards those who have the least. We believe that it is essential the entire SRO Housing Justice slate be appointed, as Courtney, Christopher, and Jordan bring a depth and range of experience, are trusted, empathic leaders for the most vulnerable, and with the housing crisis at it's worst, they are the best choices and the Task Force needs to be able to make good recommendations.

Please appoint the SRO Housing Justice Slate (Courtney Brown, Christopher Mika, and reappoint Jordan Davis) to the SRO Task Force.

Sincerely,
Spencer Hudson

Members of the Rules Committee:

I am writing to you today in support of appointing the following candidates to the SRO Task Force: Courtney Brown for Seat 4, Christopher Mika for Seat 1, and Jordan Davis for Seat 9. I know them to be passionate about the project of improving the quality of life for residents living in San Francisco's SROs. All three of these candidates have put a great deal of time and effort into improving the lives of the SRO residents and all poor San Franciscans, and they have shown that they are knowledgeable about the organizations and city agencies involved in SRO issues.

Courtney Brown's compassion, experience, and expertise around responding programmatically to complicated mental health issues makes her a stunningly well qualified candidate for this task force. As a former director of programs at San Francisco Suicide Prevention, Courtney wrote the book (i.e. the training manual). This manual, which was written in collaboration with several other former staff, is well-written, pragmatic, and oriented towards giving amateur volunteers precisely the tools they need to respond to the unpredictable and traumatic circumstances faced by those marginalized by society.

Her wisdom and compassion were put into action at the Tenderloin Housing Clinic, where she quickly became a leader in the organization after joining as a Supportive Housing Manager, and was tapped as Deputy Director of Supportive Housing shortly thereafter. Courtney immediately brought her unique skill set for training others to respond to crisis to THC, by leading the first all staff trainings on suicidal ideation that THC had offered in its almost 40 year history. Mary Elizabeth Inn (MEI) is a nonprofit organization in San Francisco with a 100+ year history of providing housing and supportive services to homeless women with special needs, who are low income, and many of whom are survivors of domestic violence. In my capacity as executive director, I oversee the administration of our housing programs in two historic SRO's: The Mary Elizabeth Inn (The Inn), a 92-unit facility in district 3; and the Hotel Verona, a 65-unit facility in district 6. The Inn opened its doors in 1914, providing a safe and affordable, home-away-from home for women seeking new beginnings in San Francisco. MEI recognized the growing need for affordable and safe housing for San Francisco's female homeless population and we began developing and implementing programs targeting this growing population. In 1996, MEI secured funding from the Department on the Status of Women (DOSW) to implement the INNroads housing program, which provides permanent

Dear Rules Committee Members,

On behalf of the Board of Directors of Mary Elizabeth Inn, it is with much enthusiasm that I recommend Dion Roberts to the Single Room Occupancy (SRO) Task Force, seat 4. Mary Elizabeth Inn is a nonprofit organization with a more than 100-year history of operating housing programs for San Francisco's vulnerable female population in two historic SRO's.

In her capacity as Executive Director, Ms. Roberts has shown that she has the technical, organizational, and interpersonal skills to maintain the properties in safe and habitable condition through compliance with city agency codes and ordinances, and contractual agreements. Ms. Roberts has demonstrated ability in establishing and maintaining valuable partnerships in the community to ensure the properties provide viable housing opportunities for homeless women coming from the streets and shelters.

Her voice is needed on the SRO Task Force to collaborate with other providers, tenants, city agencies, and community stakeholders to inform and promote sound policy to ensure SRO's remain safe and affordable for people to call home.

I am happy to answer to answer any additional questions you may have. I can be reached at melanievlong@gmail.com.

Sincerely,

Melanie Long

Dear Ms. Somera,

I am writing as the executive director of the San Francisco Domestic Violence Consortium (SF DVC) to strongly support Dion Robert's candidacy for the San Francisco Single Room Occupancy (SRO) Task Force.

Dion is so well informed regarding the challenges of survivors of domestic violence and their struggles regarding staying housed in San Francisco.

In her role as the executive director of the Mary Elizabeth Inn she is also responsible for the operation of the Hotel Verona. Both hotels work incredibly hard to house single women that have experienced abuse and trauma.

Dion is an excellent partner in the work to end domestic violence in San Francisco. I had the honor to work with her on the Justice & Courage workgroup through the Department on the Status of Women. She was so knowledgeable about the issues facing the city's most vulnerable residents and the resources that stand ready to serve them.

In closing, I would like to say that Dion recognizes the importance of multi-sector / community-based approaches to serving domestic violence survivors and is able to convey the long term investments needed to positively influence systems' change and cultural shifts towards ending the cycles of violence against women and building equity.

I wholeheartedly support Dion Roberts' membership on the San Francisco Single Room Occupancy (SRO) Task Force.

Sincerely,

Beverly Upton

Dear Ms. Somera,

On behalf of the San Francisco Department on the Status of Women, I wish to express my support for the application of Dion Roberts to the SRO (Single Room Occupancy) Task Force – Seat 4. Ms. Roberts serves as the executive director of the Mary Elizabeth Inn and the Hotel Verona.

The Mary Elizabeth Inn is an instrumental partner in the Department on the Status of Women's effort to ensure a robust safety net of services for survivors of domestic violence, sexual assault and trafficking. The Inn Roads Housing Program provides safe and permanent housing options to single adult women and is instrumental in keeping women, many of whom have a history of violence, housed and off of the streets.

Ms. Roberts previously held a seat on the Department's Justice and Courage Oversight Committee – Housing Subcommittee, where she was involved with the development of policies that helped to expand safe housing options for survivors of domestic violence, including

1. Advocacy on improving emergency transfer policy for domestic violence survivors in public housing; and
2. Advocacy on domestic violence advocates located at the Housing Authority.

Mary Elizabeth Inn is a strong partner in the Department's Violence Against Women Prevention and Intervention Grants Program, and has a consistent record of excellent performance against their contracted goals and outcomes. I wholeheartedly endorse Ms. Roberts' application to the SRO Task Force. Please contact me should you require any further information. I can be reached directly at 415-252-2571 or emily.murase@sfgov.org.

Dear Rules Committee,

I am writing to you today in support of tenant rep candidates Courtney Brown for Seat 4, Christopher Mika for Seat 1 and Jordan Davis for seat 9 of the SRO Task Force.

Courtney is a former co-worker at the Tenderloin Housing Clinic, and a close friend whose compassion, experience, and expertise around responding programmatically to complicated mental health issues makes her a stunningly well qualified candidate for this task force. As a former director of programs at San Francisco Suicide Prevention, Courtney wrote the book (i.e. the training manual!) that I am now using as a volunteer crisis operator in training. This manual, which was written in collaboration with several other former staff, is well written, pragmatic, and oriented towards giving amateur volunteers precisely the tools they need to respond to the unpredictable and traumatic circumstances faced by those marginalized by society.

I also had the opportunity see her wisdom and compassion in action at the Tenderloin Housing Clinic, where she quickly became a leader in the organization after joining as a Supportive Housing Manager, and was tapped as Deputy Director of Supportive Housing shortly thereafter. Courtney immediately brought her unique skill set for training others to respond to crisis to THC, by leading the first all staff trainings on suicidal ideation that THC had offered in its almost 40 year history. It is this insight and depth of knowledge that she is uniquely qualified to bring to the SRO Task Force.

For seat 1 (Tenant) I recommend Christopher Mika, a queer tenant leader who is the only applicant living in the Mission, which gives him a personal insight into the gentrification issues near 16th and Mission, and how that would negatively impact tenants. In addition, he does a lot of work around homelessness and housing equity, and is a volunteer for the Q Foundation.

And finally, for Seat 9 (Tenant), I recommend the reappointment of Jordan Davis, a disabled and transgender SRO tenant in the Tenderloin, and the only woman who is applying for any of the two tenant seats, and who has done a lot of work around making sure units don't get flipped to tourist use, pushed for gender neutral common restrooms in SROs, is involved in many social and economic justice causes, and is committed to affordability, dignity, and making life better for SRO tenants.

All these individuals are people who have a common goal of making SROs more liveable, and who believe in empathy towards those who have the least. We believe that it is essential the entire SRO Housing Justice slate be appointed, as Courtney, Christopher, and Jordan bring a depth and range of experience, are trusted, empathic leaders for the most vulnerable, and with the housing crisis at its worst, they are the best choices and the Task Force needs to be able to make good recommendations.

Please appoint the SRO Housing Justice Slate (Courtney Brown, Christopher Mika, and reappoint Jordan Davis) to the SRO Task Force.

Thank you,

Robert Rogers

Dear Rules Committee,

I am writing to you today in support of non-profit rep candidate Courtney Brown for Seat 4, and tenant rep candidates Christopher Mika for Seat 1, and Jordan Davis for seat 9 of the SRO Task Force.

Over the past year, Jordan has help me campaign for housing rights of low income residents in San Francisco, campaigning for Prop C last year, and political candidates who are support. She is an incredibly committed organizer. I campaigned with the SF Bike Coalition for a political candidate on a Sunday last year, and Jordan, despite not using a bicycle in San Francisco, showed up to join the campaign work in solidarity. She thinks empathetically and interjectionally, builds effective alliances, and takes action to get things done.

Courtney is a former co-worker at the Tenderloin Housing Clinic, and someone whose compassion, experience, and expertise around responding programmatically to complicated mental health issues makes her a stunningly well qualified candidate for this task force.

At the Tenderloin Housing Clinic, Courtney quickly became a leader in the organization after joining as a Supportive Housing Manager, and was tapped as Deputy Director of Supportive Housing shortly thereafter. I have also worked closely with both Christopher and Jordan on housing and homelessness issues in San Francisco. I know them both to be passionate about the project of improving the quality of life for residents living in SRO hotels.

Both Christopher and Jordan have direct experience working with nonprofits (such as the Q Foundation) and city officials, which will greatly aid them in their work of impactfully advising policymakers on behalf of stakeholders. They know the issues, and have established relationships with the important stakeholders involved. I think Christopher would make an excellent new addition to the task force, and that Jordan will do excellent work as a continuing member.

Dear Rules Committee,

I am writing to you to support Courtney Brown for Seat 4 of the SRO Task Force. Usually, I do not support people with ties to the Tenderloin Housing Clinic, but I really believe that Courtney is somebody who would be a great asset to the Task Force.

She is somebody who understands her privilege, and listens to others, and is someone whose expertise in palliative care and suicide prevention (I have dealt with many mental health issues myself) is something that can be beneficial to the Task Force. Many of my fellow SRO tenants are seniors and disabled/neurodivergent, and somebody who centers those with lived experience and practices allyship is necessary.

When I found out Chirag Bhakta was not reapplying for the SRO Task Force, I worried that someone who does not respect tenants would get that seat, and I, and so many other tenants, can rest easy if Courtney is appointed. In addition, Courtney, myself (applying for Seat 9), and Christopher Mika (applying for Seat 1) are forming an SRO Housing Justice slate and we will be advocating for each other as a team.

The SRO Task Force's prime objective is to make recommendations to the Board of Supervisors, but it has not been easy. Courtney, as well as Christopher, will be able to apply an equity lens to the pressing issues facing SRO tenants today and we would be a team in advancing justice for some of our most vulnerable people.

I urge the appointment of Courtney Brown to the SRO Task Force.

Regards
-Jordan

Dear Supervisors Ronen, Walton, and Mar,

I am writing to you to urge you to support the SRO Housing Justice Slate for the SRO Task Force.

For seat 1 (Tenant) I recommend Christopher Mika, a queer tenant leader who is the only applicant living in the Mission, which gives him a personal insight into the gentrification issues near 16th and Mission, and how that would negatively impact tenants. In addition, he does a lot of work around homelessness and housing equity, and is a volunteer for the Q Foundation.

For seat 9 (Tenant), I recommend the reappointment of Jordan Davis, a disabled and transgender SRO tenant in the Tenderloin, and the only woman who is applying for any of the two tenant seats, and who has done a lot of work around making sure units don't get flipped to tourist use, pushed for gender neutral common restrooms in SROs, is involved in many social and economic justice causes, and is committed to affordability, dignity, and making life better for SRO tenants.

I know both Jordan and Christopher personally and have witnessed first hand their passion about making San Francisco affordable for our neighbors who are struggling to live here and especially those who are homeless.

For seat 4 (non-profit) Courtney Brown, is a young woman who works for a non-profit housing provider, and whose background in palliative care, suicide prevention, and client centered healthcare would be an asset to the Task Force.

All these individuals are people who have a common goal of making SROs more liveable, and who believe in empathy towards those who have the least. We believe that it is essential the entire SRO Housing Justice slate be appointed, as Courtney, Christopher, and Jordan bring a depth and range of experience, are trusted, empathic leaders for the most vulnerable, and with the housing crisis at it's worst, they are the best choices and the Task Force needs to be able to make good recommendations.

Please appoint the SRO Housing Justice Slate (Courtney Brown, Christopher Mika, and reappoint Jordan Davis) to the SRO Task Force.

Sincerely,
Spencer Hudson

Dear Rules Committee,

I am writing to you today in support of non-profit rep candidate Courtney Brown for Seat 4, and tenant rep candidates Christopher Mika for Seat 1, and Jordan Davis for seat 9 of the SRO Task Force.

Over the past year, Jordan has help me campaign for housing rights of low income residents in San Francisco, campaigning for Prop C last year, and political candidates who are support. She is an incredibly committed organizer. I campaigned with the SF Bike Coalition for a political candidate on a Sunday last year, and Jordan, despite not using a bicycle in San Francisco, showed up to join the campaign work in solidarity. She thinks empathetically and interjectionally, builds effective alliances, and takes action to get things done.

Courtney is a former co-worker at the Tenderloin Housing Clinic, and someone whose compassion, experience, and expertise around responding programmatically to complicated mental health issues makes her a stunningly well qualified candidate for this task force.

At the Tenderloin Housing Clinic, Courtney quickly became a leader in the organization after joining as a Supportive Housing Manager, and was tapped as Deputy Director of Supportive Housing shortly thereafter. Courtney immediately brought her unique skill set for training others to respond to crisis to THC, by leading the first all staff trainings on suicidal ideation that THC had offered in its almost 40 year history. It is this insight and depth of knowledge that she is uniquely qualified to bring to the SRO Task Force.

I have also worked closely with both Christopher and Jordan on housing and homelessness issues in San Francisco. I know them both to be passionate about the project of improving the quality of life for residents living in SRO hotels.

Both Christopher and Jordan have direct experience working with nonprofits (such as the Q Foundation) and city officials, which will greatly aid them in their work of impactfully advising policymakers on behalf of stakeholders. They know the issues, and have established relationships with the important stakeholders involved. I think Christopher would make an excellent new addition to the task force, and that Jordan will do excellent work as a continuing member.

Thank you,

RE: Letter of Support for Jordan Davis

To Whom It May Concern:

The Compton's Transgender Cultural District is pleased to provide a letter of support for Jordan Davis, as a candidate for reappointment to the SRO Task Force.

Ms. Davis has demonstrated a truly deep commitment to raising awareness and visibility to social problems faced by San Franciscans while also being a siren for action and change. It is our belief that Ms. Davis' efforts have consistently represented the unique needs and voices of transgender people, poor and economically marginalized communities, and people living with disabilities. In addition, Ms. Davis has a direct connection- lived experiences that have made her efforts of the greatest impact, and we are thrilled to support her leadership in future endeavors.

Ms. Davis currently serves on the task force with a commitment to introducing discussions on equity- ranging from immigrant access to gender affirming restroom access. She has been vocal on the education of tenant rights for SRO residents, and has collaborated in producing resource materials to achieve that aim. In addition to her public service commitments, she is also an advocate that leads from her own lived experiences as a disabled, formerly homeless, low-income transgender woman. She currently serves as the only openly- transgender/queer woman on the Task Force itself.

If reappointed, Ms. Davis is committed to expanding conversations on equity and recommending solutions towards improve cultural humility of providers, staffers, and case managers of SROs. She is committed to uplifting the needs and experiences of the city's most marginalized residents, and has given her life to raising awareness and educating others on what fair, humane, and healthy housing looks like, feels like, and should be like for San Franciscans.

The Compton's Transgender Cultural District is in full support of Ms. Jordan Davis and her advocacy, as a candidate for reappointment to the SRO Task Force.

Dear San Francisco Board of Supervisors,

My name is Olivia Glowacki and I am a current resident of District 1 and work at the Coalition on Homelessness. I am asking that you reappoint Jordan Davis for Seat 9, the tenant representative of the SRO Task Force.

Jordan has been on the task force for over a year already and has given insight into the lived experiences of SRO tenants and people who have experienced homelessness. As we know, people with these experiences are the experts and policy makers, legislators, and other public servants should elevate their voices and ensure they have a seat at the table with policy measures which influence them.

Furthermore, she has more to accomplish on this task force. She views her work with the task force through an intersectional lens which allows for a varied perspective of trans, queer, disabled, and other marginalized communities which are disproportionately SRO tenants.

Jordan has helped put together an SRO resource list as well as spearhead policy change which paved the way for getting gender neutral bathrooms in SROs. It is clear Jordan's work is not over and she's passionate to expand her influence to include projects surrounding rent relief for non profit hotels and cultural competency trainings for these staff members. One of Jordan's guiding values is dignity and respect for all people, and this is evident in her advocacy for SRO tenants.

Thank you for your consideration and I hope you will reappoint Jordan Davis.

Kindly,

Dear Re-Appointment Committee for the SRO Task Force the SF Board of Supervisors,

It is with great enthusiasm that I request your re-appointment of Jordan Davis to the SRO Task Force. I write as an independent 23-year resident of San Francisco and passionate advocate of maintaining San Francisco as a place of welcome and nurturance to queer and trans people, people of color, immigrants, artists and working-class people. I have known Jordan for 3 years in the community. In my role as Field Organizer of San Francisco Rising, a local electoral alliance, I run into her in various and plentiful public hearings at City Hall and the School Board in support of education, City College, Budget Justice, immigration rights, housing justice, worker rights and homelessness solutions. From our conversations, I understand that she is passionate about intersectional justice that works at the roots of the issues, while also fully grasping the governing and legislative processes that achieve those projects of justice. She is articulate, critical and a team player - all qualities necessary of our democratic leadership. It is essential that we continue to bring in trans leaders into elevated levels of our government who live in and can advocate for the experience of themselves, their peers and their community. I hope this is an easy decision for you to re-appoint her!
