Seeking a Type 90 Liquor License. This will be a new license.

Our Business hours will be:
Monday - Sunday 11:00 am - 2:00 am

We filed for our liquor license on May 7th, 2024. We filed at the ABC office and posted our flier May 8th 2024.

We posted our flier May 8th, 2024, and sent out letters to nearly 1,000 neighbors on May 15th, 2024.

This license will enable us to better serve our mission to be a platform for local artists. Currently our artist collective is supporting over 50 local artists every week with our retail store. Our event space gives local talent an accessibly priced space to perform their shows. We do regular Open Mics, Jazz nights, album releases, comedy shows, and more. Having a liquor license will enable us to stay in business longer, hire more staff, and pay our artists even better. The Faight exists to help local artists succeed and give the local community the ability to find and enjoy all our city has to offer in a very intimate way. This license will help us financially be able to support more local artists and better be a part of the revitalization of San Francisco arts and culture. In our neighborhood we have received large support from our immediate neighbors and have worked closely with the Lower Haight Merchants and Neighbors Association.

Dear Neighbor,

We hope this letter finds you well. We're reaching out to introduce ourselves and share some exciting news about The Faight Collective.

Over a year ago, we signed a lease with the dream of creating a vibrant music and art venue right here in our neighborhood of Lower Haight. Our goal was to spread joy through creativity and give artists and musicians in San Francisco a platform to grow. Thanks to hard work and incredible community support, we've made it happen.

Our downstairs space/venue has become a hub for creativity, hosting a wide variety of events such as music performances, markets, birthday parties, yoga sessions, sound baths, and dating & comedy shows. The amazingly positive response from the community has been overwhelming. Thank you for that.

Our storefront supports over 50 local artists, featuring original artwork, prints, ceramics, crochet work, vintage clothing, and more. These are all 100% handmade or sourced by local bay area artists. It's been a joy to support such a wide range of talents and bring these artists to our neighborhood. Our goal is to stay in business for them and bring music, art, and community to the streets of Lower Haight.

Our venue has been a labor of love for us, our community, artists, musicians. The Faight Collective is 100% self-funded, and we've built much of the venue ourselves sourcing materials from Facebook, garage sales, and freebies from the sidewalks of SF. Despite the challenges of starting this endeavor, we love being a part of the commercial community in Lower Haight and growing with the neighborhood.

We are sending this letter to let you know that we are applying for our full liquor license. By obtaining this license, it will help us reach financial stability and allow the Faight Collective to support many more local artists for years to come. Through this addition to our business we are committed to maintaining a safe and respectful environment for all. This license does not change our hours of operation nor will it increase our noise. We are planning to use the extra financial support to invest more in our noise suppression and create a safe space in our neighborhood.

If you have any questions or concerns, please reach out directly to our team. Your feedback is important to us, and we are here to listen and address any issues you might have. Feel free to email us directly at Andrew@thefaight.com.

We're so grateful for your support and look forward to many more successful events and initiatives at The Faight Collective. Thank you for being a part of this journey.

Warm regards,

Daniel Bondi
