

Presented in Committee - May 23, 2018

Zero Waste Progress

San Francisco Department of the Environment

Debbie Raphael, Director

SF Environment

Our home. Our city. Our planet.

A Department of the City and County of San Francisco

Zero Waste Goal

Goal Has Driven Progress

2020 goal set by Commission on the Environment

Mandatory Recycling
and Composting
Ordinance passes,
requiring source separation

Extended ban on polystyrene foam foodware and packaging

2003

2006

2009

2012

2016

2017

Requirements for Construction
& Demolition debris recovery

Ban on single-use plastic bags expanded

Recycling expansion
roll out

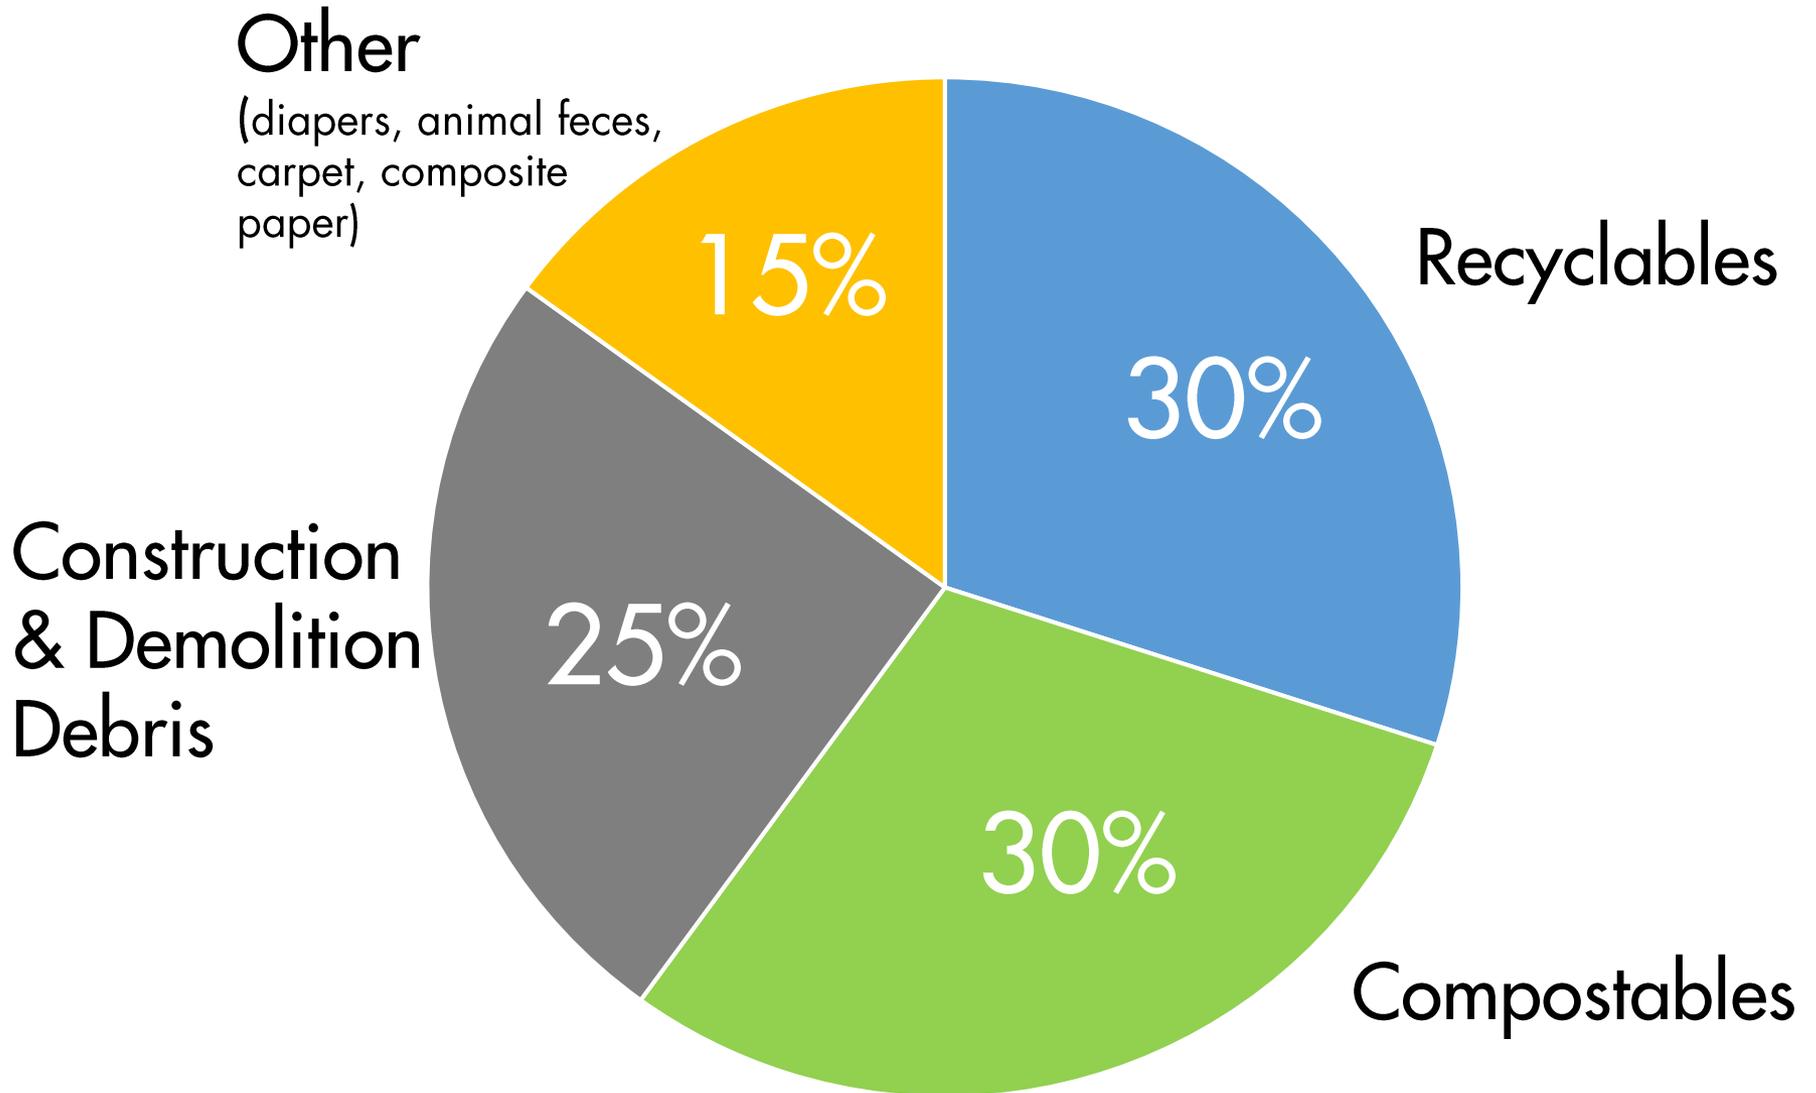

Total Tons Disposed

What's Being Landfilled

Challenges

C&D Debris

Large Generators

Changing Consumption

Addressing The Challenges

New Regulations (C&D Debris Recovery)

Citywide Recycling Roll-Out

Expanded Outreach and Technical Assistance

Increased Compliance

Roadmap to Zero

Improve How Products Are Made

Reduce Generation

Maximize Material Recovery

Next Steps

1. Leverage Public Policies

- Current and future
- Mayor's Office & Board of Supervisors

2. Commission on the Environment

- Review progress
- Update zero waste goal
- Methodology for measuring progress

Partnership

SF Environment

Our home. Our city. Our planet.

A Department of the City and County of San Francisco

