Resolution urging the California Department of Industrial Relations to enforce state employment law in the messenger industry to protect rights of messengers.

WHEREAS, Hundreds of couriers work in San Francisco as bicycle and vehicle messengers delivering packages throughout the City and the greater Bay Area, providing a necessary and valued service to the operation of commerce in the region; and

WHEREAS, San Francisco couriers face many dangers daily while traversing the streets and highways of San Francisco, including, among others, road hazards, inclement weather, and reckless drivers; and,

WHEREAS, San Francisco couriers struggle to survive on jobs offering low pay, few benefits, and frequently lacking worker's compensation or unemployment insurance; and,

WHEREAS, It is in the public's interest that laws establishing and protecting workers' minimum rights, wages and benefits are enforced to encourage quality service and to decrease dependence on county social services; and,

WHEREAS, Several messenger companies have already been found to commit rampant violations of state wage and hour laws by failing to pay legal overtime, failing to provide legal breaks, failing to reimburse employees for expenses, charging illegal fees and deposits, and mis-classifying employees as independent contractors; and,

WHEREAS, The San Francisco Bike Messenger Association and the International Longshore & Warehouse Union have led the fight to improve working conditions in the messenger industry and protect the legal rights of couriers; now therefore be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors urges California Department of Industrial Relations to take decisive action through the Bureau of Field Enforcement to enforce state employment law in the messenger industry, and to protect the rights of messengers; and, be it

FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors direct the Clerk of the Board to transmit this document to the Office of the Director, Department of Industrial Relations, 455 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, CA 94102, and, be it

FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors urges all messenger companies, and particularly expects those doing business with the City, to bring their employment practices into compliance with state and federal wage and hour laws.
