In The Courts

We fiercely defend our clients in the courtroom.

In 2023, our defense teams litigated 60 felony jury trials.

- 40% resulted in acquittals and hung juries
- 33% resulted in mixed verdicts
- Our attorneys also fought for and secured 2715 dismissals in felony and misdemeanor cases.

Currently, we anticipate having more trials than last year with our defense teams litigating 40 felony jury trials thus far.

In addition to advocating for justice for our clients in the courtroom, we also:

- Connect clients to mental health, substance use, and other services to prevent recidivism
- Provide support and advocacy for clients in diversion programs
- Support youth and their families with matters in the Juvenile Court System
- Advocate for immigrants and combat deportation
- Hold law enforcement accountable and track police officer misconduct

Hundreds of San Francisco criminal cases dismissed after years of delays

Neither the District Attorney's office nor the Public Defender is happy about the dismissals, and they point the finger at the courts, who say ending the backlog is a group effort.

Following recent reforms allowing more people to seal past convictions, California is figuring out how to assist formerly incarcerated residents who say a criminal record stands between them and starting over.

Advancing Community Safety & Empowerment

In addition to fiercely defending low-income youth and adults in the courtroom, we advance community safety and empower communities through:

- Magic Programs empower youth and families in the Bayview and Western Addition/Filmore through summer literacy programs, backpack giveaways, holiday events, and regular community convenor meetings.
- Legal Education Advocacy Program (LEAP) advocates for marginalized youth to get their educational and safety needs met by visiting and advocating for youth in SFUSD schools every week.

Advancing Community Safety & Empowerment

- End the Cycle Program reduces recidivism through social workers connecting community members with services upon their first contact with the system.
- Clean Slate Program ensures second chances by assisting community members with obtaining expungements through daily walk-ins and monthly community clinics across the city.
- College Pathway Project connects our clients with opportunities to obtain a higher education at SF State and City College.

Rising Crisis

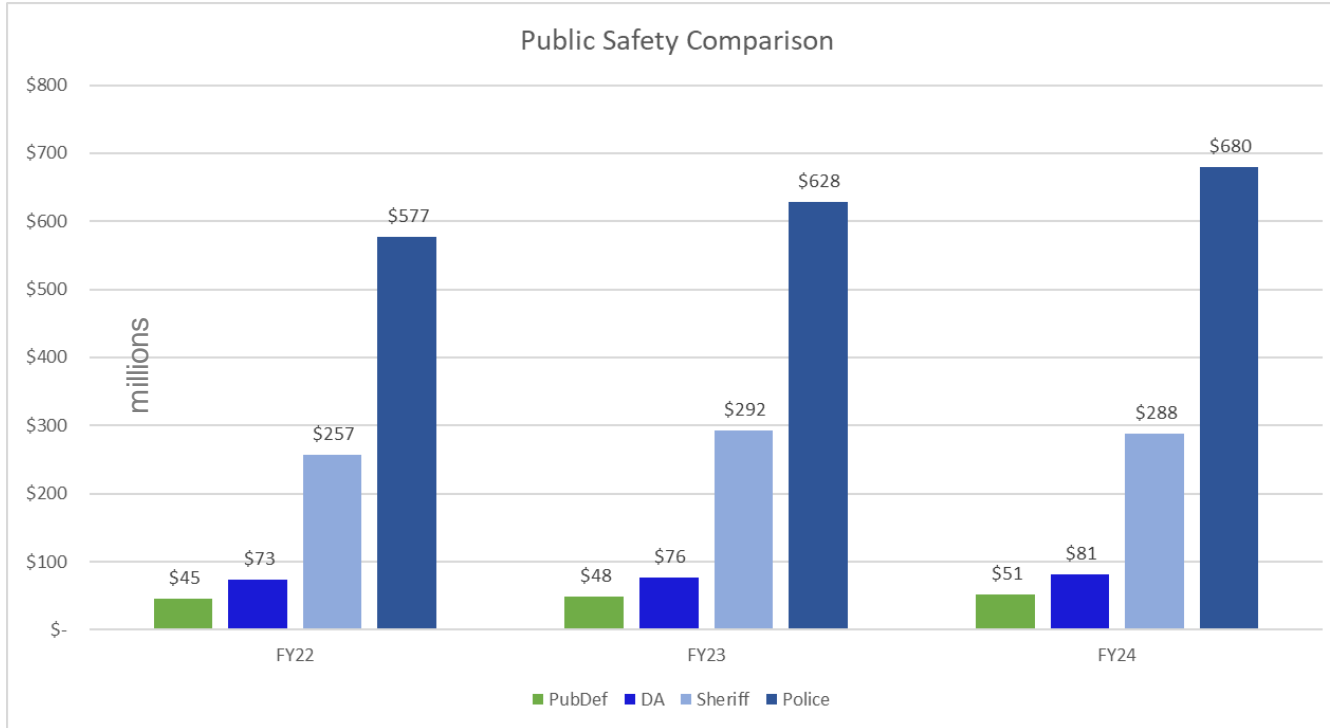

Average caseloads for line attorneys

Causes:

- 1) Ongoing Trial Delays
- 2) Increase in felony and misdemeanor filings by the DA's Office
- 3) Drastic reduction in referrals to diversion programs and specialty courts
- 4) Increase workloads due to changes in the state law (e.g. Racial Justice Act and Mental Health Diversion) AND body-worn camera, video surveillance footage and cell phone technology.
