Good morning,

After viewing the Mayor's office presentation on the ask for the Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation - Behested Payment Waiver it is clear that this motion is a clear motion to incorporate Corporate money into San Francisco politics.

The Mayor's office says the conference is an opportunity to show off our city and change the narrative on our city, but if the conference is to raise so much money, why do we need direct donations from Corporations.

The money donated is stolen from the backs of laborers in these representative countries, and will be used for parties and catering for the leaders who are stealing from their countries.

San Francisco voters have rejected corporate donations in our Politics, and will continue to!

Sincerely,
Zach Langley
Resident of District 11

Hello Supervisor Safai,

I believe your comments regarding opposition to APEC are dangerous. Due to the influx of money into the Police, and the private securities brought by APEC leaders it will not be safe for San Francisco residents to express their free speech.
