I'm a person of color who happens to be Muslim and one of seven children of immigrants from Egypt. My late Father and Mother immigrated to the US with the goal of providing us a better life and achieving the American dream.

As a first generation United States Citizen, I witnessed first hand the issues and realities my parents dealt with to provide us with a better life. From religious to racial discrimination as well as the many language barriers proved to be very challenging.

Being first generation made me sensitive to struggles that not only my family faced, but other immigrant families as well from different cultures.

Throughout my experiences and learning of other people around me, I've come to realize that there are many complex issues facing immigrant communities. Some of these issues are related to language, race, sex, religion or other social categorizations. The oppression and privilege associated to those are intersectionality.

My awareness of intersectionality has driven me always to ask questions and find solutions to issues that affect our most vulnerable communities.

I've dedicated the last 14 years of my life helping nonprofit organizations who serve marginalized communities leverage technology for good.

-----STATEMENT-----

Dear Members of the Board of Supervisors,

My name is Amro Radwan and I've applied to sit on the Immigrant Rights Commission.

I'm a person of color, who's Muslim and one of seven children of immigrants of Egypt. My wife is also an immigrant who was just recently naturalized. Like many of you, I also have extended family members, friends and colleagues who are immigrants.

As you all know we are at a crossroads both nationally and locally. Immigrants, documented and undocumented are often portrayed as "villains and criminals". I plan on working with the Office of Civic Engagement and Immigrant Affairs to reframe our stories and to shed light on the many contributions immigrants make everyday.

I am a big believer of the importance of family. It breaks my heart that there are communities here in San Francisco and nationally who are fearful of some of the rhetoric and tactics being used against them. I will stand up and fight against the breaking up of families. I will help amplify the voices of those who want to be part of our nation.

I believe in values like compassion, love and inclusion and I will fight against discrimination, bans and walls.

It would be an honor and a challenge, I'm willing to take head on, to advise the Mayor and Board of Supervisors of the great city of San Francisco on issue and policies related to our immigrant communities.

Ms. Angela Calvillo
Office of the Clerk of the Board
1 Dr. Carlton B. Goodlett Place
City Hall, Room 244, San Francisco, CA 94102-4689

April 19, 2017

Dear Ms. Calvillo,

Please accept this letter as my application for appointment as Commissioner to the San Francisco Immigrant Rights Commission (seat 7 - to be held by an immigrant to the United States who is appointed in accordance with Section 4.101 of the Charter).

Born and raised in Ireland, I moved to San Francisco in 1999 and have worked in the nonprofit immigrant rights and community service sector since that time.

As part of my role as Executive Director of the San Francisco Irish Immigration Pastoral Center, I have designed, implemented and developed health, human service, education and employment programs for an immigrant community 30,000 strong. I have effectively built strong partnerships with City and private agencies including Healthy San Francisco, St. Mary's Hospital and Catholic Charities.

As part of the IIPC, we regularly partner with fellow San Francisco organizations on immigrant rights issues including San Francisco Organizing Project (SFOP) and San Francisco Interfaith Coalition for Immigrant Rights. On a national level, we collaborate with the United States Catholic Conference of Bishops' Justice for Immigrants Campaign, America's Voice and the National Immigration Forum. These collaborations have included both local grass roots organizing and advocacy on Capitol Hill.

Over the years my work in this regard has been recognized by local and state government leaders. In 2010, I was recognized by former San Francisco Supervisor Sean Elsbernd, for contributions to the greater San Francisco immigrant community and in 2011 was awarded Woman of the Year for the 12th Assembly District by California Assemblywoman Fiona Ma.

In 2012 I was appointed to Seat 7 of the Immigrant Rights Commission by the Rules Committee, elected to the position of Vice Chair by the IRC Executive Committee in October 2012 and to the position of Chair in January 2015, which I continue to hold.

In 2015 and 2016, the Commission has held comprehensive community hearings gathering testimony from the diverse San Francisco immigrant population on Quality of Life issues which are the basis of our soon to be published Annual report, as well as two roundtables with Consular staff to understand the issues that present to their offices. We recently held a broad based community hearing on Impacts of Federal Policies and Immigration Executive Orders on Immigrants and Communities which provided much valuable data, testimony and concrete suggestions of how we at the IRC and the City and County can better serve and protect our immigrant population.

I believe I bring a diverse and valuable perspective to my role as Commissioner: as an immigrant, an executive director responsible for the day to day business operations and a community activist and organizer.

Thank you for your consideration. I look forward to the opportunity to serve San Francisco in this capacity.

Yours sincerely,

Celine Kennelly

STATEMENT OF CELINE KENNELLY

Chair Asha Safai
Supervisor Sandra Fewer
Supervisor Norman Yee,

I apologize for not being there in person today, but our Executive Director did inform the staff of the Rules Committee several weeks ago that I would be out of the country at this time.

I have faithfully served on the Immigrant Rights Commission since 2012 and as Chair since 2015, and humbly request your consideration of my reappointment to the Immigrant Rights Commission.

Born and raised in Ireland, I immigrated to San Francisco in 1999 and have worked in the nonprofit immigrant rights and community service sector since that time.

In my role as Executive Director of the San Francisco Irish Immigration Pastoral Center (IIPC), I coordinate with numerous immigrant assistance networks across the City and nation. I have designed, implemented and developed health, human service, education and employment programs for an immigrant community 30,000 strong and have effectively build strong partnerships across City agencies and community networks, as well as agencies such as Healthy San Francisco, St. Mary's Hospital and Catholic Charities.

The IIPC partners regularly on immigrant rights issues with fellow San Francisco organizations, including the San Francisco Organizing Project (SFOP) and San Francisco Interfaith Coalition for Immigrant Rights. On a national level, we collaborate with the United States Catholic Conference of Bishops' Justice for Immigrants Campaign, America's Voice, and the National Immigration Forum. These collaborations have included both local grassroots organizing and advocacy on Capitol Hill.

Over the past several years, my work on immigrant rights has been recognized at the local and state levels by government leaders. In 2010, I was recognized by former San Francisco Supervisor Sean Elsbernd for contributions to the broader San Francisco Immigrant Community and 2011 was awarded Woman of the Year for the 12th Assembly District by former California State Assemblymember Fiona Ma.

In 2012, I was appointed to Seat 7 of the Immigrant Rights Commission by the Board of Supervisors and elected to the position of Vice Chair, then Chair in 2015. In the past year, the Commission has held several neighborhood and citywide hearings, gathering testimony from the diverse San Francisco immigrant population on Quality of Life issues and impacts of federal immigration policy and executive actions. We have also held roundtables with members of the Consular Corps to coordinate efforts.

As an immigrant, a service provider, and a community activist and organizer, I believe I bring a diverse, broad and valuable perspective and strong, inclusive leadership skills to the Immigrant Rights Commission. It would be an honor to continue serving the people of San Francisco, particularly our most underserved and invisible.

Thank you for your consideration.

Statement for reappointment hearing: Michelle Wong

I was first appointed by the Board of Supervisors in January, 2017 to fill an unexpired term. Since then I've attended and participated in every Commission meeting and, most recently, served on the Planning Committee for the Commission's 20th Anniversary celebration.

If re-appointed to a full term, I hope to be part of some bigger ideas for the Commission to accomplish as an advisory body for immigration policy to the Board of Supervisors.

First, I believe we can make a huge impact by serving as a clearinghouse for information to immigrant rights advocacy groups by developing a database. This endeavor would have a prominent national impact.

Next, I would like to propose that the Commission considers taking on the role of serving as a facilitator for collaboration between the business community, particularly the high tech industry but also the restaurant industry and other industries affected by immigration policy to match their resources with the efforts of immigrant advocacy groups.

In closing, let me just say that such initiatives meet the values of our City and will enhance our leadership role nationwide.
