This balance has generated significant interest income. The original percentage allocations in Section 2810 are based on the total Fund balance and did not anticipate this interest, and as it accrues, thousands are still on the streets without adequate shelter. In April 2023, the City published a new citywide Strategic Plan that concludes it is necessary to urgently fund shelter, prevention, and housing resources to significantly reduce homelessness in the next five years. The Board of Supervisors finds that to achieve the purposes of November 2018 Proposition C, the City must meet the crisis where it is currently most acute, and hereby approves, for the next two fiscal years only, a lifting of the cap on short-term rental subsidies of five years or less, and a reallocation of certain unappropriated and future interest revenues so it can spend these interest revenues during the next two fiscal years on shelter and, homelessness prevention, as generally set forth in the Strategic Plan.'; on Page 3, Line 12-13 by replacing 'funds' with 'interest earnings and lifting of certain spending caps', on Page 3, Line 18, through Page 4, Line 6, to read 'Section 3. Under the authority in Business and Tax Regulations Code Section 2811, for fiscal years 2023-2024 and 2024-2025, the expenditures under Section 2810 shall remain unchanged except as follows: (a) Expenditures on short-term rental subsidies may exceed the percentage specified in Section 2810(b)(3)(A)(i); and, (b) Up to $16,360,000 of interest earned in the Fund during Fiscal Years 2023-24, 2024-25, and prior Fiscal years, which would otherwise have accrued to affordable housing for transitional age youth ($3,444,000), affordable housing for families ($4,305,000), and mental health programs ($8,610,000), shall instead be allocated to the shelter and prevention categories as follows: (i) $1,340,000 to shelter in fiscal year 2023-24; (ii) $6,482,000 to shelter in fiscal year 2024-25; (iii) $4,643,000 to prevention in fiscal year 2023-24; and (iv) $3,894,000 to prevention in fiscal year 2024-25.', and by making other clarifying and conforming amendments.
