23 charitable trust assets and oversees the development and administration of the Museum
24 and controlling and managing the City's Asian art collection (S.F. Charter Sections 5.100 - 25 5.101, 5.104); and,

1 WHEREAS, The City owns the Museum building and the Museum's collection; and,
2 WHEREAS, The Asian Art Museum Foundation of San Francisco ("Borrower") is a 3 private 501(c)(3) charitable organization that exists for the sole purpose of supporting the 4 Museum; and,

5 WHEREAS, On March 20, 2003, the Museum relocated from Golden Gate Park to its 6 present location in Civic Center, after having completed a rehabilitation and adaptive reuse of 7 San Francisco's former main library building; and,

8 WHEREAS, The rehabilitation of the Museum building was financed through a
9 combination of public and private financing, consisting of $41,730,000 in City General
10 Obligation Bonds, and $107,445,000 of Revenue Bonds, Series 2000 (Asian Art Museum 11 Foundation of San Francisco) (the "2000 Bonds") that the Borrower caused to be issued; and,

12 WHEREAS, In 2005, the Borrower refinanced the 2000 Bonds by issuing $120,400,000
13 aggregate principal amount of Variable Rate Revenue Bonds, Series 2005 (Asian Art Museum 14 Foundation of San Francisco) (the "2005 Bonds") through the California Infrastructure and 15 Economic Development Bank (the "Issuer"), which bond obligations were insured by MBIA 16 Insurance Corporation ("MBIA") (as further described below); and,

17 WHEREAS, In 2009, the Borrower further caused a restructuring of the 2005 Bonds
18 under the terms of that certain Amended and Restated Indenture dated as of December 1, 19 2009 (the "Indenture"), between the Issuer and The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company 20 N.A. ("Trustee") due to, among other factors, the rating downgrade of MBIA (the "Existing 21 Bonds"); and,

22 WHEREAS, In connection with a restructuring of the Existing Bonds, the Borrower and 23 JP Morgan Chase Bank (the "Bank") entered into a Reimbursement Agreement dated as of 24 December 1, 2009 (the "Reimbursement Agreement"), under which the Bank issued its

1 irrevocable transferrable direct pay letter of credit (the "Letter of Credit") to support the 2 payment of the Existing Bonds; and,

3 WHEREAS, MBIA issued its Financial Guaranty Insurance Policy No. 45667(1) on 4 February 3, 2005, to guarantee the scheduled payment of principal of and interest on the 5 Bonds as and when due under the terms of the Indenture, as endorsed and supplemented 6 (collectively, the "Policy"), and under the Amended and Restated Quota Share Reinsurance 7 Agreement, effective January 1, 2009 (the "Reinsurance Agreement"), between MBIA and 8 National Public Finance Guarantee Corporation ("National"), National agreed to reinsure the 9 obligations of MBIA under the Policy; and,

11 Counterparty, as further set forth in that certain International Swaps and Derivatives 12 Association ("ISDA") Master Agreement dated as of January 27, 2005, together with the 13 Schedule of ISDA Master Agreement and Credit Support Annex and Confirmation, each dated 14 as of January 27, 2005, as amended by the Amendment Agreement dated as of December 15 22, 2009 (collectively, the "Swap"); and,

16 WHEREAS, Events of Default have occurred and are continuing on the part of the 17 Borrower under the Reimbursement Agreement, the Amended and Restated Loan Agreement 18 dated as of December 1, 2009, between the Borrower and the Issuer, and the Insurance and 19 Reimbursement Agreement dated as of February 1, 2005, as amended, between the 20 Borrower and the Bond Insurer; and,

21 WHEREAS, The Letter of Credit expired by its terms on December 21, 2010, and as 22 such on December 20, 2010, the Bonds were subject to mandatory tender for purchase under 23 the Indenture, and the Bank became the owner of the Bonds due to a Trustee draw on the 24 Letter of Credit to pay the purchase price of the Existing Bonds; and,

1 WHEREAS, The Borrower, the Bank, the Swap Counterparty, the Trustee and the 2 Bond Insurer entered into a Forbearance Agreement and Reservation of Rights dated as of 3 December 20, 2010 (the "Forbearance Agreement"), under which the Parties agreed to 4 forbear from executing certain rights, including, without limitation, the Bank's agreement to 5 forbear exercising any rights or remedies under the Reimbursement Agreement and the 6 Indenture, during the period ending on January 21, 2011 (the "Forbearance Period), to afford 7 the parties the opportunity to explore possible work out and restructuring of the Existing 8 Bonds; and,

9 WHEREAS, The City has a vital interest in safeguarding for the public's benefit the 10 continued operation of the Museum, including its public display of art and cultural artifacts;
11 and,

13 National and The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A., as trustee, involving the 14 Existing Bonds, the Swap, the Policy, the Letter of Credit and the rights and obligations of the 15 parties under those agreements and instruments; and,

16 WHEREAS, The parties now wish to fully and finally resolve their current disputes and 17 potential claims, lawsuits, rights and remedies involving the Existing Bonds (collectively, the 18 "Disputes"), by providing for a work-out solution to address the Borrower's current financial 19 situation that in accordance with that certain Term Sheet attached as Exhibit B to the 20 Settlement Agreement (as described below), which requires that: (i) the Bank, the Borrower,
21 the Trustee, MBIA and National execute and deliver a Policy Termination and Release
22 Agreement; (ii) the Bank and the Trustee agree to terminate the Policy (the "Bond Insurer 23 Termination"); (iii) subject to the terms of the Policy Termination and Release Agreement, the 24 principal amount of the Reimbursement Obligations and the 2005 Bonds will be reduced to 25 $98,400,000; (iv) the Swap between the Swap Counterparty and the Borrower terminate at

1 the time of closing of the Loan Facility (as further described below, and herein the "Closing"),
2 and upon Closing all Swap collateral be returned to the Borrower and the Borrower will not be 3 liable for any costs associated with terminating the Swap; (v) the City commits to consider 4 providing financial support to assure the payment by the Borrower of the principal of and 5 interest under the terms of the Assurance Agreement (attached as Exhibit A to the Settlement 6 Agreement); (vi) the Bank agrees to extend credit to or for the benefit of the Borrower in the 7 form of the Loan Facility (the "Loan Facility") as described in and subject to the terms and 8 conditions of the Term Sheet, including the satisfaction of the Bond Insurer's payment
9 obligations under the Policy Termination and Release Agreement; and (vii) the parties agree
10 to mutual releases of liability, all as more particularly described in the Settlement Agreement, 11 a copy of which is on file with the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors in File No.¹¹⁰⁰²⁷ (the 12 "Settlement Agreement"); and,

13 WHEREAS, The Settlement Agreement includes a form of Assurance Agreement
14 under which the City agrees that, upon a failure or prospective failure by the Borrower to pay 15 the principal of or interest on the Loan Facility as and when due, the Controller shall have the 16 non-discretionary ministerial obligation to take all necessary and appropriate actions to 17 prepare and, to the fullest extent possible, to request a budgetary appropriation or 18 supplemental appropriation from the Board of Supervisors to satisfy the Borrower's obligation
19 to make payments of the principal of and interest on the Loan Facility as and when due, 20 provided that the Board of Supervisors and Mayor shall have the sole discretion to approve or 21 disapprove any such appropriation or supplemental appropriation. In addition, the Bank shall 22 have certain rights to cause or recommend increases to general admission prices to the 23 Museum if the Board fails to appropriate sums under the Assurance Agreement, all as more 24 particularly set forth in the form of Assurance Agreement on file with the Clerk of the Board;
