Re: Type 64 Application, EXIT Theatre, 156 Eddy Street, San Francisco, CA 94102
Attn: California Alcoholic Beverage Control, San Francisco Police Department ALU and San Francisco Board of Supervisors

Dear Angela Calvillo,

EXIT Theatre is writing to request support for our application with the California Alcoholic Beverage Control for a Type 64 Special On-Sale General Theatre license for our theater at 156 Eddy Street.

EXIT Theatre is a 34-year-old award winning nonprofit Tenderloin theater, founded in 1983, that presents 500 performances each year by a large number of ethnic, gender, and age diverse theater artists. Since 1994 we have been serving food and beverages, including beer and wine, to our patrons without incident under our existing Type 41 On Sale Beer & Wine license. We are now seeking to replace our existing Type 41 license with a Type 64 Special On-Sale General Theatre license.

The sale of alcoholic beverages would only be available to audiences at our theatrical performances starting no earlier than two hours before the performance and ending no later than one hour after the performance. Food and beverages are a small part of our theatrical operation but the concessions provide an important and expected amenity to our patrons. Whether it be large cultural institutions like the opera or the American Conservatory Theatre, or smaller community theatres, concessions, including alcohol in moderation, are expected. The Type 64 license would allow EXIT Theatre to come more in line with the rest of the theaters in our community.

We respectfully request that the Board of Supervisors make a finding that issuance of a Type 64 license at this location will serve public convenience or necessity. If you have any questions about this application or EXIT Theatre's operations, please contact me at mail@theexit.org or at 415- 931-1094.

Sincerely,

Christina Augello, Artistic Director
