	In 1997, the Board of Supervisors added a 3 rd aide through a Charter provision that allows temporary positions for up to 3 years. That provision has now expired, meaning that when residents elect district supervisors, each office will have only two legislative assistants to handle constituent requests, answer phones, and review legislation and the City's budget.	13 13 10 11 9
	Now it's up to the voters to decide. The opponent of this measure, who is merely using the voter's pamphlet to publicize his campaign for elective office, doesn't understand the overwhelming volume of information and requests that each supervisor must handle.	13 12 10 7
	Supervisors' 3 rd aides make approximately $37,000 per year, but they work very long hours on behalf of the public. If you want your new district supervisors to be as responsive as possible to your district's needs, please vote yes on B.	10 15 12 4
