3 FURTHER MOVED, That the Board of Supervisors makes the following findings:

4 1. The membership of the Municipal Fines and Fees Task Force has a goal to be
5 representative of the diversity of the City and County of San Francisco.

6 2. Applicant Elisa Della-Piana, who is not a resident of San Francisco, is a person
7 with experience that uniquely qualifies them to serve on the Municipal Fines and Fees Task
8 Force.

9 3. The Municipal Fines and Fees Task Force has attempted to fill the position, for 10 which Elisa Della-Piana was nominated, with an individual who is a City resident and who has 11 the specific experience, skills, and qualifications, but has been unable to do so at this time.
12 The Rules Committee has certified that Elisa Della-Piana is qualified to serve on the Municipal 13 Fines and Fees Task Force.

14 4. After exercising due diligence, the Board of Supervisors concludes that there is 15 no other possible representative, who is a resident of San Francisco, and who has the specific 16 experience, skills, or qualifications possessed by this applicant, and who is willing to serve on 17 the Municipal Fines and Fees Task Force at this time; and, be it

18 FURTHER MOVED, That the Board of Supervisors waives the residency requirement
19 for Elisa Della-Piana, as allowed in cases where no qualified City resident, willing to serve,
20 can be found, pursuant to Charter, Section 4.101(a)(2), that requires person(s) appointed to 21 boards, commissions, and advisory bodies established by legislative act of the Board of 22 Supervisors to be resident(s) of the City and County of San Francisco.

To Whom It May Concern,

This letter is submitted in application for a seat on the Municipal Fines and Fees Task Force. As someone with lived experience as a moderately low-income individual – one who relies heavily on municipal services – and as someone who frequently assists low-income individuals in finding employment and working toward self-sufficiency in the face of barriers such as homelessness and indigence, I'm certain I could offer a valuable perspective to the task force.

As a program assistant in Community Housing Partnership's workforce services department, I was tasked with facilitating our clients' movement through our Employment Pathway, a job training-to-employment program. During this time I developed valued relationships with our participants (who eventually became employees) and began to learn about the challenges to employment that face low-income residents of San Francisco.

When I took on the position of outreach coordinator in the same department, I was afforded the opportunity to meet with many more community members and truly excellent community organizations working equally hard to overcome issues relating to poverty and homelessness. During this time, I've learned much more about what it means to be homeless or indigent in the city of San Francisco.

I've seen how small infractions like Muni tickets, parking violations, and sit/lie violations can become much larger problems for people, and even become a detriment to peoples' livelihoods. I've seen how the effects of such violations – a rescinded driver's license, arrest warrants, referral to collections agencies – can then become a further obstacle to gainful employment, self-sufficiency, or even a comfortable existence.

Having been so close to such issues for much of my professional career, I've developed a strong desire to be involved in the mechanisms by which these issues might be assuaged. As a member of the Fines and Fees Task Force I would hope to help make the lives of our low-income and homeless neighbors easier, and to work toward more equitable solutions to problems of municipal violations.

Please find attached my task force application, statement of economic interests, and professional resume. Feel free to contact me via phone or e-mail if you have any further questions.

Regards,

Dion Libutti

Pursuant to Charter, Section 4.101(a)(1), please state how your qualifications represent the communities of interest, neighborhoods, and the diversity in ethnicity, race, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, types of disabilities, and any other relevant demographic qualities of the City and County of San Francisco:

I would hope to represent communities of interest relating to municipal fines and fees as someone who understands what it means to be of moderately low-income and rely on public transportation and other municipal services (e.g. public parks, libraries) on a daily basis.

Business and/or professional experience:

For nearly 2 years I have worked at Community Housing Partnership, a non-profit organization dedicated to providing supportive housing as well as job training and transitional employment. In my capacities within our workforce development team, I have been fortunate to develop ties with our residents, employees, and community members, and to learn much about the various issues they face daily. Particularly, I've seen how homelessness, criminal backgrounds, and reliance on government benefits can become huge barriers to employment and therefore to one's self-sufficiency.

My involvement with our community organizing department has also given me insight into the obstacles facing low-income San Francisco residents, in particular municipal fines which can spiral into large debts, revoked licenses, arrest warrants, and more. It's been very eye-opening to see how these barriers also intersect with and are compounded by barriers to employment mentioned above.

Civic Activities:

As a non-native of San Francisco, I've done my best to be involved in the community here: to learn about the history of the city, stay abreast of political issues (housing availability and displacement have of course been at the forefront lately), and attend community gatherings.

More specifically, I've attended Police Commission hearings at City Hall, and rallied in support of affordable housing availability. I've volunteered at events like last year's Howard Zinn Book Fair, and in support of ballot measures during last year's election. Finally, I took a community organizing class last winter in the hopes of strengthening my skills as both a community organizer and community member.

Re: Board of Supervisors Appointment to Task Force

To the Clerk of the Board,

This is in reference to Scott Nelson, one of the applicants for a seat on the newly formed Municipal Fines and Fees Task Force. Scott currently works at the Coalition on Homelessness on Turk Street, in an office directly adjacent to the Shelter Client Advocates office.

While assisting the Coalition with homeless issues, I have worked alongside Mr. Nelson on many occasions and have found him to be a tireless advocate not only for the homeless, but also for low-income and other persons seeking assistance with current or overdue traffic tickets at the Coalition's Citation Defense Clinic.

The work Scott performs with the Citation Defense Clinic and the knowledge he has gained working with their clients during the past year will greatly assist the Task Force in their duty to advise the Board and others in formulating policies to reduce fines or fees for low-income City residents.

Scott also works as the Coalition's Street Sheet Vendor Coordinator, and is responsible for coordinating the distribution of up to 16,000 issues every two weeks to the Coalition's network of approximately 140 street vendors.

I feel Scott will be an invaluable asset to the Task Force and am confident he will bring fresh ideas concerning the mitigation of fines and fees for low-income and homeless residents of the City.

Please feel free to contact me at the below number or email with any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Re: Board of Supervisors Appointment to Task Force

Clerk Calvillo,

I write to express my support for Scott Nelson, who is applying for a seat on the recently established Municipal Fines and Fees Task Force.

Scott currently volunteers for the Coalition on Homelessness, and is our lead advocate with the Coalition's Citation Defense project.

The Citation Defense project assists homeless and low-income persons in addressing their outstanding citations whether current, overdue, or in warrant or collection status. On a day-to-day basis, Scott screens the tickets and citations to determine whether they meet our criteria and/or we can otherwise offer additional assistance.

Scott then assists our clients with the proper course of action to address the citation, including dismissal in conjunction with the District Attorney's office, or referral to the Lawyer's Committee on Civil Rights concerning older citations requiring assistance of counsel.

Overall, I believe Scott's intimate knowledge of the current situation surrounding fines and fees imposed on low-income persons will make him a valuable addition to the Task Force.

Please feel free to contact me at the below number with any questions or concerns.

Subject: apologies; stand-in for today's hearing

Dear Supervisors Tang, Mar, and Cohen:

I am an applicant for the Municipal Fines and Fees Task Force, and I was planning to attend today's hearing on appointments, but I cannot make it at the last minute, due to a sick child and a work emergency. I am disappointed and very sorry not to be there in person; I am sending my colleague Kristina Harootun in my stead.

I hope my appointment will be possible in my absence. I laud the City's decision to create this task force; the crushing burden of court debt and municipal fines and fees is being considered across the country, and San Francisco has the opportunity to be a leader. I have been working on these issues since I started assisting low-income San Franciscans in traffic court in 2000, and have been part of some of the seminal research on infraction fines and fees in California. If appointed to the task force, I would work to ensure that San Francisco both implements and establishes best practices, as I am part of state and national teams of advocates, courts, legislators, and City staff working on these issues.

Again, many apologies that I cannot be there in person! I hope to work with you, and on the task force, in the future.

Elisa
