[Resolution declaring August 28, 2002 as Sail San Francisco Day in the City and County of San Francisco.]

Resolution declaring August 28, 2002 as Sail San Francisco Day in the City and County of San Francisco, in support of an organization that advances San Francisco's rich maritime legacy and provides a public forum for international cultural exchange and unique educational experiences.

WHEREAS, Sail San Francisco, a local non-profit organization lead by Alison Healy, creates major sailing-oriented events that foster international friendship and goodwill through sail training, and teaches leadership, self-reliance and teamwork to young mariners; and,

WHEREAS, Sail San Francisco successfully orchestrated the 1999 Gold Rush Sail in San Francisco, a citywide public celebration which hosted scores of historic ships and over 1,500 crew members from six foreign countries; and,

WHEREAS, Sail San Francisco will welcome many historic vessels for the Tall Ships Challenge 2002 between August 28 and September 2, 2002, and organize the complex range of logistics associated with such a large and high-profile public event; and,

WHEREAS, Sail San Francisco represents the very best of San Francisco by enthusiastically welcoming sailing crews from across the globe and hosting unforgettable educational and cultural events that celebrate our city's rich maritime legacy; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the San Francisco Board of Supervisors declare August 28, 2002 Sail San Francisco Day in support of this organization that advances San Francisco's rich maritime legacy and provides a public forum for international cultural exchange and unique educational experiences.
