LEGISLATIVE DIGEST
(12/3/2014, Amended in Committee)

[Administrative Code - Establishing the Duties of the Office of Early Care and Education and Creating the Office of Early Care and Education Citizens' Advisory Committee]

Ordinance amending the Administrative Code to establish the duties of the Office of Early Care and Education and to create the Office of Early Care and Education Citizens' Advisory Committee.

Existing Law

City law does not address the duties of the Office of Early Care and Education ("OECE"). The OECE does not have a citizens' advisory committee to support its mission and operations.

Amendments to Current Law

The proposal would add Chapter 2A, Article XIII to the Administrative Code to specify the duties of the OECE. The OECE would be responsible for aligning and coordinating the City's efforts to provide early education for children ages zero to five in San Francisco. The Mayor's Office would oversee the OECE and its Director.

The proposal would also add Chapter 5, Article XIII to the Administrative Code to create a citizens' advisory committee for the OECE. The advisory committee would consist of nine members with specific qualification requirements.

Background Information

Proposition C on the November 4, 2014 ballot calls for the creation of a citizens' advisory committee for the OECE. Under that Charter amendment, the advisory committee would be required to develop a set of equity metrics to be used in comparing early education services in the City's low-income and disadvantaged communities with those available in the City as a whole.

RE: Four Youth Commission actions at the November 17, 2014 meeting: Support on BOS file no. 141123 [Administrative Code - Establishing the Duties of the Office of Early Care and Education and Creating the Office of Early Care and Education Citizens' Advisory Committee]; Support on BOS file no. 141098 [Health, Business and Tax Regulations Codes - Tobacco Sales Permits and Associated Fees]; Motion supporting and co-sponsoring Vision Zero; Motion supporting and co-sponsoring Youth Advocacy Day 2015

At our regular meeting on Monday, November 17, 2014, the Youth Commission voted to support Board of Supervisors file no. 141123 [Administrative Code - Establishing the Duties of the Office of Early Care and Education and Creating the Office of Early Care and Education Citizens' Advisory Committee]. The Youth Commission also proposed and approved a recommendation that the Board of Supervisors include guidelines for considering a diverse range of parental experiences when making appointments of parent representatives to the OECE Citizens' Advisory Committee. These could include consideration of the diverse perspectives of parents who are young, single, low-income, or formerly-incarcerated, as well as those from differing San Francisco neighborhoods. The record of our response is contained in 1415-RBM-05.

Additionally, the Youth Commission voted to support Board of Supervisors file no. 141098 [Health, Business and Tax Regulations Codes - Tobacco Sales Permits and Associated Fees]. The Youth Commission's support for the ordinance is based in our respect for the impressive youth- and community-led effort to reduce tobacco use in our city's neighborhoods. Youth Commissioners look forward to supporting the Board of Supervisors' future efforts to assess the decline of the overall number of tobacco sales permits in circulation due to attrition, if the ordinance takes effect. The record of our response is contained in 1415-RBM-06.

Moreover, the Youth Commission adopted motion 1415-M-01 [The Youth Commission supports and co-sponsors the Vision Zero Campaign in promoting safety for the city's youth]. This motion affirms the Youth Commission's commitment to, and participation in, the City's efforts to eliminate pedestrian fatalities and improve pedestrian safety.

Finally, the Youth Commission adopted motion 1415-M-02 [The Youth Commission supports and co-sponsors the 6th annual Youth Advocacy Day on March 18, 2015]. This motion affirms Youth Commissioners' participation in an annual Spring event hosted by the Department of Children, Youth, and Their Families that brings hundreds of high school students to practice civic engagement and youth advocacy.

Please do not hesitate to contact Youth Commissioners or Youth Commission staff (415) 554-6446 with any questions. Thank you.
