Public Works has completed its investigation to rename Phelan Avenue between Ocean Avenue and Flood Avenue to Frida Kahlo Way.

sfpublicworks.org
facebook.com/sfpublicworks
twitter.com/sfpublicworks

There were no objections from City Agencies. We have also verified that the proposed name does not exist in our currently list of official street names.

The fronting property owners along Phelan Ave were contacted and given the opportunity to comment on the proposed name change. Out of the 23 fronting property owners 7 responded to our inquiry. All 7 responses were against the street name change. The objections to the name change were less than 50% of the fronting property owners, which allows Public Works to recommend moving forward with the proposed name change.

Dear Ms. Major,

I have reviewed your correspondence from April 18, 2018 regarding the resolution proposing to change the Phelan Avenue to "Frida Kahlo Way".

The San Francisco Fire Department has no objections to the proposal and is in support of the resolution.

When the resolution is passed, my recommendation is that the Department of Emergency Management be contacted in order for the street name change to be entered into the Computer Assisted Dispatch (CAD) system.
