FAMILY ZONING PLAN LANDMARKING

D3

Landmark Initiation
Land Use & Transportation Committee
April 20, 2026

Danny SAUTER 李爾德
DISTRICT 3 SUPERVISOR

Office of District 3 Supervisor
Danny Sauter

San Francisco Planning

Existing D3 Article 10 Landmarks

San Francisco Landmark plaque example, Swedish American Hall
Image source: SF Planning

(2) Landmark No. 86
S.F. Art Institute
Image source: SF Planning

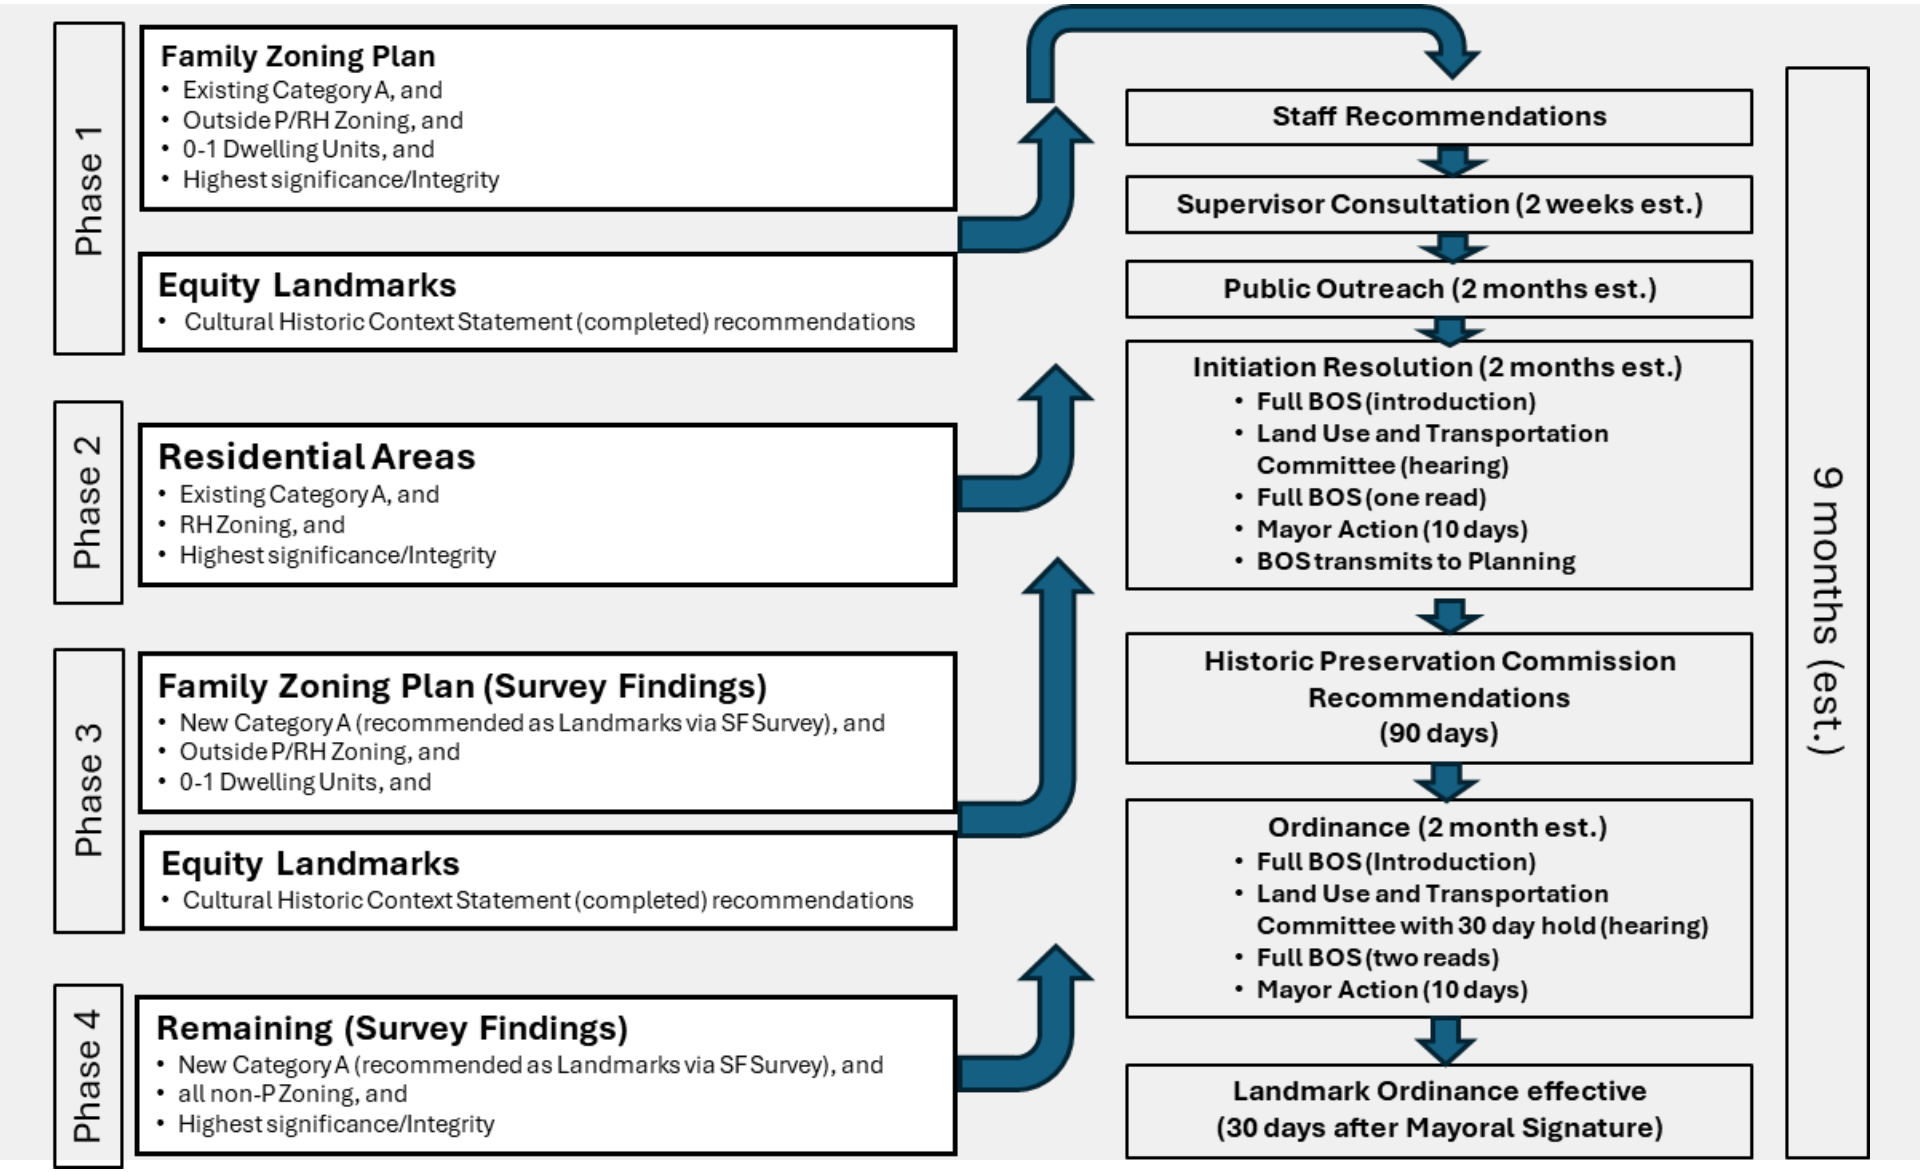
(22) Landmark No. 7
St. Francis of Assisi Church
Image source: noehill.com

(24) Landmark No. 228
City Lights Bookstore
Image source: noehill.com

(26) Landmark No. 235
Chinatown Branch Carnegie Library
Image source: Google Street View

(59) Landmark No. 188
Crown Zellerbach Building
Image source: noehill.com

Family Zoning Plan Landmarks Process



Phase 1: District 3 Proposed Landmarks

1 University Club

800 Powell Street

Year Built: 1908

Significant for its Roman Renaissance Revival architecture designed by San Francisco architects of merit Bliss & Faville originally for Stanford University

2 Saints Peter & Paul Church

660-660 Filbert Street

Year Built: 1922-1924

Significant for its association with Italian American cultural heritage and for its Gothic Romanesque architecture

3 California Masonic Church

1111-1171 California Street

Year Built: 1958

Significant for its Midcentury Modern architecture designed by architect of merit Albert F. Roller

4 Great China Theater

626 Jackson Street

Year Built: 1924

Significant for its association with Chinese cultural heritage originally occupied by the Ying Wee Lun Hop Theatrical Co., a Chinese Opera company, and later as The Great Star Theater showing Chinese-language movies

5 Sing Chong Building

615 Grant Avenue

Year Built: 1907-1908

Significant for its association with Chinese cultural heritage as originally built as Chinese Bazaar with tenants Look Tin Eli, a successful Chinese American businessman

6 Transamerica Pyramid

600 Montgomery Street

Year Built: 1976

Significant for its Brutalist architecture designed by architect of merit William Pereira & Associates

7 Chinese Telephone Exchange

743 Washington Street

Year Built: 1909

Significant for its association with Chinese cultural heritage as the only Chinese telephone exchange in the United States

8 Central Chinese High School

827-829 Stockton Street

Year Built: 1914

Significant for its association with Chinese cultural heritage as a school that promoted Chinese culture and study

9 Telegraph Hill Neighborhood Association

1736 Stockton Street

Year Built: 1907

Significant for its First Bay Tradition architecture designed by architect of merit Bernard Maybeck

10 Chinese Consolidated Benevolent Association

843 Stockton Street

Year Built: 1908

Significant for its association with Chinese cultural heritage as the former HQ of the six hui-kuan, an alliance of rival Chinese factions, which represented the interests of all Chinese in S.F. and the West

11 Bimbo's 365 Club

1001-1025 Columbus Avenue

Year Built: 1931

Significant for its association with Italian American cultural heritage, its Midcentury Modern architecture designed by architect of merit Timothy Pflueger, and as a popular nightclub

12 George Perine House

535 Powell Street

Year Built: 1910

Significant as a rare and very late example of a second empire style house and as the only structure left downtown built as a single-family residence

13 Nam Kue School

765 Sacramento Street

Year Built: 1925

Significant for its association with Chinese cultural heritage as the original headquarters of the Fook Yam Benevolent Society and later as the earliest and longest surviving school preserving Chinese culture and language in America

14 Old First Presbyterian Church

1751 Sacramento Street

Year Built: 1911

Significant for Romanesque Revival architecture by U.C. Berkeley architecture professor William Charles Hays

15 Mona's Candlelight Lounge

468-478 Broadway

Year Built: 1907

Significant for its association with LGBTQ history in San Francisco as a queer nightclub

16 Finocchio's

506-508 Broadway

Year Built: 1916

Significant for its association with LGBTQ history in San Francisco as a nightclub featuring cross-gender entertainment popular with both the queer community and tourists

17 A. Cavalli Bookstore / Vesuvio Cafe

253 Columbus Avenue

Year Built: 1913

Significant for its association with the Counterculture movement in San Francisco

18 Fugazi Building

678 Green Street

Year Built: 1912

Significant for its association with the Italian American cultural heritage, LGBTQ history in San Francisco, and architect of merit Italo Zanolini

19 Italian Athletic Club

1630 Stockton Street

Year Built: 1936

Significant for its association with Italian American cultural heritage and for its Art Deco style architecture

San Francisco Supervisorial Districts

more info: sfculturalheritage.org

THANK YOU

San Francisco Planning
www.sfplanning.org

Landmark Designation Program
sfplanning.org/landmark-designation-program

District 3 Supervisor Danny Sauter

1 Dr Carlton B. Goodlett Place
City Hall, Room 244
San Francisco, CA 94102

(415) 554-7450
SauterStaff@sfgov.org

SF Planning

Shannon Ferguson
49 South Van Ness Ave
Suite 1400
San Francisco, CA 94103

(628) 652-7354
shannon.ferguson@sfgov.org