

LEGISLATIVE DIGEST

[Administrative Code – Repealing provisions extending the expiration date of the 2003 MBE/WBE/LBE Ordinance.]

Ordinance amending the San Francisco Administrative Code by 1) repealing Section 12D.A.22 and amending Section 14B.18, to repeal provisions extending expiration of Chapter 12D.A in the event the injunction in Coral Construction, Inc. v. City and County of San Francisco (S.F. Sup. Ct. No. 421249) is lifted or stayed, and 2) amending a cross-reference to Section 14B.18 in Section 14B.13(D)(5).

Existing Law

Existing law provides that, in the event the injunction in Coral Construction, Inc. v. City and County of San Francisco (S.F. Sup. Ct. No. 421249) is lifted or stayed, Administrative Code Chapter 12D.A will become effective 120 days later and will remain in effect for at least one year and may be extended for additional three-year periods.

Amendments to Current Law

The current law is amended to delete sections that extend the expiration date of Chapter 12D.A and allow it to take effect if the injunction in Coral Construction, Inc. v. City and County of San Francisco (S.F. Sup. Ct. No. 421249) is lifted or stayed.
