Pursuant to Charter Section 4.101 (a)2, Boards and Commissions established by the Charter must consist of electors (registered voters) of the City and County of San Francisco. For certain other bodies, the Board of Supervisors can waive the residency requirement.

Check All That Apply:

Registered voter in San Francisco: Yes [] No [x] If No, where registered: Santa Clara County

Resident of San Francisco [] Yes [x] No If No, place of residence: Los Altos Hills

Pursuant to Charter section 4.101 (a)1, please state how your qualifications represent the communities of interest, neighborhoods, and the diversity in ethnicity, race, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, types of disabilities, and any other relevant demographic qualities of the City and County of San Francisco:

If selected, I will be filling the task force seat reserved for a journalist from ethnic media. I am from and belong to ethnic media. I was the previous editor of India Currents, a 33-year-old publication, in the Bay Area, curating the Indian American story. I currently work as a consultant for a San Francisco-based non-profit Ethnic Media Services, helping with ethnic media briefings and training sessions, as well as writing and editing for ethnic media distribution.

Business and/or professional experience:

For the last five years, I've been writing a column for The San Francisco Examiner commenting on issues relating to communities of color in San Francisco. Some of my recent columns have focused on increasing the census count in hard-to-count districts; highlighting the experiences of black children growing up in the city; commenting on the backlash against Asian Americans; profiling the Mongolian community; chronicling the influence of immigrants working in health care and calling attention to the Nigerian success story. Additionally, since early 2018, I've worked on ethnic media projects, including developing a peer-to-peer student messaging model on depression on California college campuses, leading a reporting project on California water management, and briefing ethnic media on immigrant rights.

Civic Activities:

Since January 2020, I've been an active volunteer with Ethnic Media Services and the Office of Civic Engagement and Immigrant Affairs to increase the Census 2020 participation in San Francisco. (I waived my remuneration for the work I did from January 2020 to October 2020). I've conducted youth workshops across San Francisco, engaging students with the idea of the census and what it means for communities of color.

As part of the Writer's Grotto, a San Francisco-based consortium of professional writers, I conduct free journalism workshops for writers of color. The most recent one was held on October 18th with 22 local participants.

Have you attended any meetings of the Board/Commission to which you wish appointment? Yes No

Dear Supervisors,

The Society of Professional Journalists, Northern California Chapter (“SPJ NorCal”) is pleased to nominate Jaya Padmanabhan for appointment to Seat 4 on the City’s Sunshine Ordinance Task Force.

Section 67.30(a) of the Sunshine Ordinance reserves a voting seat on the SOTF for a journalist nominated by SPJ NorCal whose work serves ethnic communities. The law stipulates that all SOTF members must “have experience and/or demonstrated interest in the issues of citizen access and participation in local government.”

Ms. Padmanabhan writes the biweekly “In Brown Type” column in the San Francisco Examiner, opining on issues affecting San Francisco’s ethnic, immigrant and refugee communities. She is Director of Programs at Ethnic Media Services, a new San Francisco-based nonprofit led by former New America Media founder Sandy Close, which seeks to invigorate the ethnic media sector with editorial expertise and business advice. Through this role, Ms. Padmanabhan coordinated with the City of San Francisco to increase ethnic and youth participation in the U.S. census, and recently led a group of journalists from ethnic media to report on California’s water management. Ms. Padmanabhan is the former editor-in-chief of India Currents, a Bay Area-based media outlet covering the Indian diaspora in the United States; she emigrated from India to California more than 30 years ago.

Ms. Padmanabhan’s diligence for detail and passion for government transparency and civic life makes her an excellent candidate for the Sunshine Ordinance Task Force. We strongly urge you to consider her candidacy and to forward her nomination to the full Board as expeditiously as possible.

Thank you for your time and attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Christine Peek, SPJ NorCal Freedom of Information Committee co-chair
Lauren Smiley, SPJ NorCal Freedom of Information Committee co-chair

Dear Chairperson Hillary Ronen, Supervisors Catherine Stefani and Gordon Mar,

Please accept this as an addendum to my application for reappointment to the SOTF.

I have served for 8 years on this Task Force. This would be my fifth term on the task force, making me (if selected) the longest consecutively serving member. In the absence of a "best practices" database it is incumbent on the longer serving members to be the repository of the institutional knowledge that has kept us balanced and consistent. More about that database later!

I have been the Vice Chair of the SOTF for the past 4 years out of 6. In addition to Vice Chair I also serve on the Compliance & Amendments as well as our version of the Rules sub-committees. As Vice Chair I have also chaired many meetings of the Full Task Force and consider myself an accomplished parliamentarian.

I wanted to highlight a few things which i believe continue to make me a valuable member of this team:

- I wanted to underscore my diverse background. I am from a mixed race and mixed nationality background - my mother is Turkish, i speak several languages, and i live in the heart of the Mission. I promise not to "speak in tongues" as I did a few years ago (I introduced myself in 4 languages).
- My father (American) was an Ambassador for the United Nations and we lived in many different countries growing up including Turkey, Sudan, Bangladesh, Oman and Yemen. This exposure to different cultures early on has allowed me to interact well with people from all backgrounds and walks of life and has proved directly useful at the SOTF.
- My Information Technology background will continue to be an asset, as will my background as a paralegal.
- My 8 years of parliamentary experience be will be instrumental in continuing to run well managed meetings and staying on agenda.

In summary I am proud of the institutional capital I have helped to build over the past 8 years, and would appreciate your vote to continue doing this important work for our city.

I appreciate your continued consideration,
Sincerely,

Chris Hyland
(previous) Vice Chair, SOTF

Pursuant to Charter, Section 4.101(a)(1), please state how your qualifications represent the communities of interest, neighborhoods, and the diversity in ethnicity, race, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, types of disabilities, and any other relevant demographic qualities of the City and County of San Francisco:

I am proud of the hard work and accomplishments of the Sunshine Ordinance Task Force, and I am seeking reappointment to it. I have devoted nearly 15 years to a career in public service with county and municipal governments, specifically in offices specializing in creating and maintaining public records, as well as election related services. As an individual committed to government transparency and accessibility, I was honored to be among those recognized by the Ann Arbor Chronicle (local media) for my work in making local government more accessible to the community -- specifically, they noted my "steadfast competence and professionalism ... symbolic of the many staff who work on the front lines of our local governments, who help citizens navigate the bureaucracy of our public sector, and whose capable, often thankless work on a daily basis makes our community a better place." I am a member of the LGBT community and have lived on the west side of San Francisco since 2011. I currently reside in the Sunset/Parkside neighborhood with my husband.

Business and/or professional experience:

I am currently the Chief of the County Clerk-Recorder's Office in Alameda County, a division of the County's Auditor-Controller Agency. The Office I lead acts as the official custodian for over 25 million public records, serves over 100,000 customers each year, and collects and distributes approximately $175 million annually in revenue. I manage operations responsible for recording/archiving approximately 250,000 official public records per year, collecting documentary transfer tax, providing certified copies of vital records, issuing marriage licenses, registering notaries, and all other County Clerk duties. I am also responsible for responding to numerous Public Records Act requests and subpoenas timely and accurately. I am proud to have been instrumental in expanding our office hours, opening a satellite office, and upgrading our software system so that the public has more convenient access to our records and services. Furthermore, I understand the trust that the public places in government safeguarding their records -- and to that end, I have worked closely with the District Attorney's Office to identify instances of fraudulent recorded documents in order to protect our most vulnerable residents. Prior to my work with Alameda County, I served as the Director of Elections for Washtenaw County -- Michigan's sixth largest county, and home to the City of Ann Arbor -- where I oversaw all elections within the County as well as managed the administration of the County Clerk/Register of Deeds Office, which included supporting the County's various Boards and Commissions. I provided leadership to the County's 28 local municipalities for election related issues; managed the retention of numerous official documents; published legally required notices; assured various public meetings complied with the State's Open Meetings Act; and responded to Freedom of Information Act requests. In addition, I oversaw the County's enforcement of Michigan's Campaign Finance Act and performed related compliance audits.

Civic Activities:

I have been a member of San Francisco's Sunshine Ordinance Task Force since my appointment to Seat 10 in November 2018. I serve as Chair of the Information Technology Committee, and I also serve as a member of the Rules Committee and the Education, Outreach, & Training Committee. Furthermore, I am a member of both the California Association of Clerks and Election Officials (CACEO) and the County Recorders' Association of California (CRAC), and I have been a member of the latter's Legislative Committee and Documentary Transfer Tax Committee. In addition, I am active in the Northern California Local Chapter of the Property Records Industry Association (PRIA), an organization that fosters collaborative relationships between government offices that maintain public records and the industries that rely upon those records. I have attended meetings of local organizations to speak about government records, am passionate about local history, and am a member of the Western Neighborhoods Project.

Have you attended any meetings of the Board/Commission to which you wish appointment? Yes No

Appointments confirmed by the Board of Supervisors require an appearance before the Rules Committee. Once your application is received, the Rules Committee Clerk will contact you when a hearing is scheduled. (Please submit your application 10 days before the scheduled hearing.)

Instructions – Schedules A-1 and A-2 Investments

“Investment” means a financial interest in any business entity (including a consulting business or other independent contracting business) that is located in, doing business in, planning to do business in, or that has done business during the previous two years in your agency’s jurisdiction in which you, your spouse or registered domestic partner, or your dependent children had a direct, indirect, or beneficial interest totaling $2,000 or more at any time during the reporting period. See Reference Pamphlet, page 13.

Reportable investments include:

- Stocks, bonds, warrants, and options, including those held in margin or brokerage accounts and managed investment funds (See Reference Pamphlet, page 13.)
- Sole proprietorships
- Your own business or your spouse’s or registered domestic partner’s business (See Reference Pamphlet, page 8, for the definition of “business entity.”)
- Your spouse’s or registered domestic partner’s investments even if they are legally separate property
- Partnerships (e.g., a law firm or family farm)
- Investments in reportable business entities held in a retirement account (See Reference Pamphlet, page 15.)
- If you, your spouse or registered domestic partner, and dependent children together have a 10% or greater ownership interest in a business entity or trust (including a living trust), you must disclose investments held by the business entity or trust. See Reference Pamphlet, page 15, for more information on disclosing trusts.
- Business trusts

You are not required to disclose:

- Government bonds, diversified mutual funds, certain funds similar to diversified mutual funds (such as exchange traded funds) and investments held in certain retirement accounts. See Reference Pamphlet, page 13, for detailed information. (Regulation 18237)
- Bank accounts, savings accounts, money market accounts and certificates of deposits
- Insurance policies
- Annuities
- Commodities
- Shares in a credit union
- Government bonds (including municipal bonds)
- Retirement accounts invested in non-reportable interests (e.g., insurance policies, mutual funds, or government bonds) (See Reference Pamphlet, page 15.)

- Government defined-benefit pension plans (such as CalPERS and CalSTRS plans)
- Certain interests held in a blind trust (See Reference Pamphlet, page 16.)

Use Schedule A-1 to report ownership of less than 10% (e.g., stock). Schedule C (Income) may also be required if the investment is not a stock or corporate bond. See second example below.

Use Schedule A-2 to report ownership of 10% or greater (e.g., a sole proprietorship).

To Complete Schedule A-1:

Do not attach brokerage or financial statements.

- Disclose the name of the business entity.
- Provide a general description of the business activity of the entity (e.g., pharmaceuticals, computers, automobile manufacturing, or communications).
- Check the box indicating the highest fair market value of your investment during the reporting period. If you are filing a candidate or an assuming office statement, indicate the fair market value on the filing date or the date you took office, respectively. (See page 21 for more information.)
- Identify the nature of your investment (e.g., stocks, warrants, options, or bonds).
- An acquired or disposed of date is only required if you initially acquired or entirely disposed of the investment interest during the reporting period. The date of a stock dividend reinvestment or partial disposal is not required. Generally, these dates will not apply if you are filing a candidate or an assuming office statement.

Examples:

Frank Byrd holds a state agency position. His conflict of interest code requires full disclosure of investments. Frank must disclose his stock holdings of $2,000 or more in any company that is located in or does business in California, as well as those stocks held by his spouse or registered domestic partner and dependent children.

Alice Lance is a city council member. She has a 4% interest, worth $5,000, in a limited partnership located in the city. Alice must disclose the partnership on Schedule A-1 and income of $500 or more received from the partnership on Schedule C.

Reminders

- Do you know your agency’s jurisdiction?
- Did you hold investments at any time during the period covered by this statement?
- Code filers – your disclosure categories may only require disclosure of specific investments.

Instructions – Schedule A-2 Investments, Income, and Assets of Business Entities/Trusts

Use Schedule A-2 to report investments in a business entity (including a consulting business or other independent contracting business) or trust (including a living trust) in which you, your spouse or registered domestic partner, and your dependent children, together or separately, had a 10% or greater interest, totaling $2,000 or more, during the reporting period and which is located in, doing business in, planning to do business in, or which has done business during the previous two years in your agency's jurisdiction. See Reference Pamphlet, page 13. A trust located outside your agency's jurisdiction is reportable if it holds assets that are located in or doing business in the jurisdiction. Do not report a trust that contains non-reportable interests. For example, a trust containing only your personal residence not used in whole or in part as a business, your savings account, and some municipal bonds, is not reportable.

Also report on Schedule A-2 investments and real property held by that entity or trust if your pro rata share of the investment or real property interest was $2,000 or more during the reporting period.

To Complete Schedule A-2:

Part 1. Disclose the name and address of the business entity or trust. If you are reporting an interest in a business entity, check "Business Entity" and complete the box as follows:

- Provide a general description of the business activity of the entity.
- Check the box indicating the highest fair market value of your investment during the reporting period.
- If you initially acquired or entirely disposed of this interest during the reporting period, enter the date acquired or disposed.
- Identify the nature of your investment.
- Disclose the job title or business position you held with the entity, if any (i.e., if you were a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or held any position of management). A business position held by your spouse is not reportable.

Part 2. Check the box indicating your pro rata share of the gross income received by the business entity or trust. This amount includes your pro rata share of the gross income from the business entity or trust, as well as your community property interest in your spouse's or registered domestic partner's share. Gross income is the total amount of income before deducting expenses, losses, or taxes.

Part 3. Disclose the name of each source of income that is located in, doing business in, planning to do business in, or that has done business during the previous two years in your agency's jurisdiction, as follows:

- Disclose each source of income and outstanding loan to the business entity or trust identified in Part 1 if your pro rata share of the gross income (including your community property interest in your spouse's or registered domestic partner's share) to the business entity or trust from that source was $10,000 or more during the reporting period. See Reference Pamphlet, page 11, for examples. Income from governmental sources may be reportable if not considered salary. See Regulation 18232. Loans from commercial lending institutions made in the lender's regular course of business on terms available to members of the public without regard to your official status are not reportable.

- Disclose each individual or entity that was a source of commission income of $10,000 or more during the reporting period through the business entity identified in Part 1. See Reference Pamphlet, page 8, for an explanation of commission income.

You may be required to disclose sources of income located outside your jurisdiction. For example, you may have a client who resides outside your jurisdiction who does business on a regular basis with you. Such a client, if a reportable source of $10,000 or more, must be disclosed.

Mark "None" if you do not have any reportable $10,000 sources of income to disclose. Phrases such as "various clients" or "not disclosing sources pursuant to attorney-client privilege" are not adequate disclosure. See Reference Pamphlet, page 14, for information on procedures to request an exemption from disclosing privileged information.

Part 4. Report any investments or interests in real property held or leased by the entity or trust identified in Part 1 if your pro rata share of the interest held was $2,000 or more during the reporting period. Attach additional schedules or use FPPC's Form 700 Excel spreadsheet if needed.

- Check the applicable box identifying the interest held as real property or an investment.
- If investment, provide the name and description of the business entity.
- If real property, report the precise location (e.g., an assessor's parcel number or address).
- Check the box indicating the highest fair market value of your interest in the real property or investment during the reporting period. (Report the fair market value of the portion of your residence claimed as a tax deduction if you are utilizing your residence for business purposes.)
- Identify the nature of your interest.
- Enter the date acquired or disposed only if you initially acquired or entirely disposed of your interest in the property or investment during the reporting period.

Instructions – Schedule B Interests in Real Property

Report interests in real property located in your agency's jurisdiction in which you, your spouse or registered domestic partner, or your dependent children had a direct, indirect, or beneficial interest totaling $2,000 or more any time during the reporting period. Real property is also considered to be "within the jurisdiction" of a local government agency if the property or any part of it is located within two miles outside the boundaries of the jurisdiction or within two miles of any land owned or used by the local government agency. See Reference Pamphlet, page 13.

Interests in real property include:

- An ownership interest (including a beneficial ownership interest)
- A deed of trust, easement, or option to acquire property
- A leasehold interest (See Reference Pamphlet, page 14.)
- A mining lease
- An interest in real property held in a retirement account (See Reference Pamphlet, page 15.)
- An interest in real property held by a business entity or trust in which you, your spouse or registered domestic partner, and your dependent children together had a 10% or greater ownership interest (Report on Schedule A-2.)
- Your spouse's or registered domestic partner's interests in real property that are legally held separately by him or her

You are not required to report:

- A residence, such as a home or vacation cabin, used exclusively as a personal residence (However, a residence in which you rent out a room or for which you claim a business deduction may be reportable. If reportable, report the fair market value of the portion claimed as a tax deduction.)
- Some interests in real property held through a blind trust (See Reference Pamphlet, page 16, for exceptions.)
 - Please note: A non-reportable property can still be grounds for a conflict of interest and may be disqualifying.

To Complete Schedule B:

- Report the precise location (e.g., an assessor's parcel number or address) of the real property.
- Check the box indicating the fair market value of your interest in the property (regardless of what you owe on the property).
- Enter the date acquired or disposed only if you initially acquired or entirely disposed of your interest in the property during the reporting period.
- Identify the nature of your interest. If it is a leasehold,

Reminders

- Income and loans already reported on Schedule B are not also required to be reported on Schedule C.
- Real property already reported on Schedule A-2, Part 4 is not also required to be reported on Schedule B.
- Code filers – do your disclosure categories require disclosure of real property?

disclose the number of years remaining on the lease.

- If you received rental income, check the box indicating the gross amount you received.
- If you had a 10% or greater interest in real property and received rental income, list the name of the source(s) if your pro rata share of the gross income from any single tenant was $10,000 or more during the reporting period. If you received a total of $10,000 or more from two or more tenants acting in concert (in most cases, this will apply to married couples), disclose the name of each tenant. Otherwise, mark "None."
- Loans from a private lender that total $500 or more and are secured by real property may be reportable. Loans from commercial lending institutions made in the lender's regular course of business on terms available to members of the public without regard to your official status are not reportable.

When reporting a loan:

- Provide the name and address of the lender.
- Describe the lender's business activity.
- Disclose the interest rate and term of the loan. For variable interest rate loans, disclose the conditions of the loan (e.g., Prime + 2) or the average interest rate paid during the reporting period. The term of a loan is the total number of months or years given for repayment of the loan at the time the loan was established.
- Check the box indicating the highest balance of the loan during the reporting period.
- Identify a guarantor, if applicable.

If you have more than one reportable loan on a single piece of real property, report the additional loan(s) on Schedule C.

Example:

Allison Gande is a city planning commissioner. During the reporting period, she received rental income of $12,000, from a single tenant who rented property she owned in the city's jurisdiction. If Allison received $6,000 each from two tenants, the tenants' names would not be required because no single tenant paid her $10,000 or more. A married couple is considered a single tenant.

Instructions – Schedule C

Income, Loans, & Business Positions

(Income Other Than Gifts and Travel Payments)

Reporting Income:

Report the source and amount of gross income of $500 or more you received during the reporting period. Gross income is the total amount of income before deducting expenses, losses, or taxes and includes loans other than loans from a commercial lending institution. See Reference Pamphlet, page 11. You must also report the source of income to your spouse or registered domestic partner if your community property share was $500 or more during the reporting period.

The source and income must be reported only if the source is located in, doing business in, planning to do business in, or has done business during the previous two years in your agency's jurisdiction. See Reference Pamphlet, page 13, for more information about doing business in the jurisdiction. Reportable sources of income may be further limited by your disclosure category located in your agency's conflict of interest code.

Reporting Business Positions:

You must report your job title with each reportable business entity even if you received no income during the reporting period. Use the comments section to indicate that no income was received.

Commonly reportable income and loans include:

- Salary/wages, per diem, and reimbursement for expenses including travel payments provided by your employer
- Community property interest (50%) in your spouse's or registered domestic partner's income - report the employer's name and all other required information
- Income from investment interests, such as partnerships, reported on Schedule A-1
- Commission income not required to be reported on Schedule A-2 (See Reference Pamphlet, page 8.)
- Gross income from any sale, including the sale of a house or car (Report your pro rata share of the total sale price.)
- Rental income not required to be reported on Schedule B
- Prizes or awards not disclosed as gifts
- Payments received on loans you made to others
- An honorarium received prior to becoming a public official (See Reference Pamphlet, page 10, concerning your ability to receive future honoraria.)
- Incentive compensation (See Reference Pamphlet, page 12.)

Reminders

- Code filers – your disclosure categories may not require disclosure of all sources of income.
- If you or your spouse or registered domestic partner are self-employed, report the business entity on Schedule A-2.
- Do not disclose on Schedule C income, loans, or business positions already reported on Schedules A-2 or B.

You are not required to report:

- Salary, reimbursement for expenses or per diem, or social security, disability, or other similar benefit payments received by you or your spouse or registered domestic partner from a federal, state, or local government agency.
- Stock dividends and income from the sale of stock unless the source can be identified.
- Income from a PERS retirement account.

See Reference Pamphlet, page 11, for more exceptions to income reporting.

To Complete Schedule C:

Part 1. Income Received/Business Position Disclosure

- Disclose the name and address of each source of income or each business entity with which you held a business position.
- Provide a general description of the business activity if the source is a business entity.
- Check the box indicating the amount of gross income received.
- Identify the consideration for which the income was received.
- For income from commission sales, check the box indicating the gross income received and list the name of each source of commission income of $10,000 or more. See Reference Pamphlet, page 8. Note: If you receive commission income on a regular basis or have an ownership interest of 10% or more, you must disclose the business entity and the income on Schedule A-2.
- Disclose the job title or business position, if any, that you held with the business entity, even if you did not receive income during the reporting period.

Part 2. Loans Received or Outstanding During the Reporting Period

- Provide the name and address of the lender.
- Provide a general description of the business activity if the lender is a business entity.
- Check the box indicating the highest balance of the loan during the reporting period.
- Disclose the interest rate and the term of the loan.
 - For variable interest rate loans, disclose the conditions of the loan (e.g., Prime + 2) or the average interest rate paid during the reporting period.
 - The term of the loan is the total number of months or years given for repayment of the loan at the time the loan was entered into.
- Identify the security, if any, for the loan.

Instructions – Schedule D Income – Gifts

A gift is anything of value for which you have not provided equal or greater consideration to the donor. A gift is reportable if its fair market value is $50 or more. In addition, multiple gifts totaling $50 or more received during the reporting period from a single source must be reported.

It is the acceptance of a gift, not the ultimate use to which it is put, that imposes your reporting obligation. Except as noted below, you must report a gift even if you never used it or if you gave it away to another person.

If the exact amount of a gift is unknown, you must make a good faith estimate of the item's fair market value. Listing the value of a gift as "over $50" or "value unknown" is not adequate disclosure. In addition, if you received a gift through an intermediary, you must disclose the name, address, and business activity of both the donor and the intermediary. You may indicate an intermediary either in the "source" field after the name or in the "comments" section at the bottom of Schedule D.

Commonly reportable gifts include:

- Tickets/passes to sporting or entertainment events
- Tickets/passes to amusement parks
- Parking passes not used for official agency business
- Food, beverages, and accommodations, including those provided in direct connection with your attendance at a convention, conference, meeting, social event, meal, or like gathering
- Rebates/discounts not made in the regular course of business to members of the public without regard to official status
- Wedding gifts (See Reference Pamphlet, page 16)
- An honorarium received prior to assuming office (You may report an honorarium as income on Schedule C, rather than as a gift on Schedule D, if you provided services of equal or greater value than the payment received. See Reference Pamphlet, page 10, regarding your ability to receive future honoraria.)
- Transportation and lodging (See Schedule E.)
- Forgiveness of a loan received by you

Reminders

- Gifts from a single source are subject to a $500 limit in 2019. See Reference Pamphlet, page 10.
- Code filers – you only need to report gifts from reportable sources.

Gift Tracking Mobile Application

- FPPC has created a gift tracking app for mobile devices that helps filers track gifts and provides a quick and easy way to upload the information to the Form 700. Visit FPPC's website to download the app.

You are not required to disclose:

- Gifts that were not used and that, within 30 days after receipt, were returned to the donor or delivered to a charitable organization or government agency without being claimed by you as a charitable contribution for tax purposes
- Gifts from your spouse or registered domestic partner, child, parent, grandparent, grandchild, brother, sister, and certain other family members (See Regulation 18942 for a complete list.). The exception does not apply if the donor was acting as an agent or intermediary for a reportable source who was the true donor.
- Gifts of similar value exchanged between you and an individual, other than a lobbyist registered to lobby your state agency, on holidays, birthdays, or similar occasions
- Gifts of informational material provided to assist you in the performance of your official duties (e.g., books, pamphlets, reports, calendars, periodicals, or educational seminars)
- A monetary bequest or inheritance (However, inherited investments or real property may be reportable on other schedules.)
- Personalized plaques or trophies with an individual value of less than $250
- Campaign contributions
- Up to two tickets, for your own use, to attend a fundraiser for a campaign committee or candidate, or to a fundraiser for an organization exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The ticket must be received from the organization or committee holding the fundraiser.
- Gifts given to members of your immediate family if the source has an established relationship with the family member and there is no evidence to suggest the donor had a purpose to influence you. (See Regulation 18943.)
- Free admission, food, and nominal items (such as a pen, pencil, mouse pad, note pad or similar item) available to all attendees, at the event at which the official makes a speech (as defined in Regulation 18950(b)(2)), so long as the admission is provided by the person who organizes the event.
- Any other payment not identified above, that would otherwise meet the definition of gift, where the payment is made by an individual who is not a lobbyist registered to lobby the official's state agency, where it is clear that the gift was made because of an existing personal or business relationship unrelated to the official's position and there is no evidence whatsoever at the time the gift is made to suggest the donor had a purpose to influence you.

To Complete Schedule D:

- Disclose the full name (not an acronym), address, and, if a business entity, the business activity of the source.
- Provide the date (month, day, and year) of receipt, and disclose the fair market value and description of the gift.

Instructions – Schedule E Travel Payments, Advances, and Reimbursements

Travel payments reportable on Schedule E include advances and reimbursements for travel and related expenses, including lodging and meals.

Gifts of travel may be subject to the gift limit. In addition, certain travel payments are reportable gifts, but are not subject to the gift limit. To avoid possible misinterpretation or the perception that you have received a gift in excess of the gift limit, you may wish to provide a specific description of the purpose of your travel. See the FPPC fact sheet entitled “Limitations and Restrictions on Gifts, Honoraria, Travel, and Loans” to read about travel payments under section 89506(a).

You are not required to disclose:

- Travel payments received from any state, local, or federal government agency for which you provided services equal or greater in value than the payments received, such as reimbursement for travel on agency business from your government agency employer.
- A payment for travel from another local, state, or federal government agency and related per diem expenses when the travel is for education, training or other inter-agency programs or purposes.
- Travel payments received from your employer in the normal course of your employment that are included in the income reported on Schedule C.
- A travel payment that was received from a non-profit entity exempt from taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) for which you provided equal or greater consideration, such as reimbursement for travel on business for a 501(c)(3) organization for which you are a board member.

Note: Certain travel payments may not be reportable if reported via email on Form 801 by your agency.

To Complete Schedule E:

- Disclose the full name (not an acronym) and address of the source of the travel payment.
- Identify the business activity if the source is a business entity.
- Check the box to identify the payment as a gift or income, report the amount, and disclose the date(s).
 - Travel payments are gifts if you did not provide services that were equal to or greater in value than the payments received. You must disclose gifts totaling $50 or more from a single source during the period covered by the statement.

When reporting travel payments that are gifts, you must provide a description of the gift and the date(s) received. If the travel occurred on or after January 1, 2017, you must also disclose the travel destination

- Travel payments are income if you provided services that were equal to or greater in value than the payments received. You must disclose income totaling $500 or more from a single source during the period covered by the statement. You have the burden of proving the payments are income rather than gifts. When reporting travel payments as income, you must describe the services you provided in exchange for the payment. You are not required to disclose the date(s) for travel payments that are income.

Example:

City council member MaryClaire Chandler is the chair of a 501 (c)(6) trade association, and the association pays for her travel to attend its meetings. Because MaryClaire is deemed to be providing equal or greater consideration for the travel payment by virtue of serving on the board, this payment may be reported as income. Payments for MaryClaire to attend other events for which she is not providing services are likely considered gifts. Note that the same payment from a 501(c)3 would NOT be reportable.

Example:

Mayor Kim travels to China on a trip organized by China Silicon Valley Business Development, a California nonprofit, 501(c)(6) organization. The Chengdu Municipal People’s Government pays for Mayor Kim’s airfare and travel costs, as well as his meals and lodging during the trip. The trip’s agenda shows that the trip’s purpose is to promote job creation and economic activity in China and in Silicon Valley, so the trip is reasonably related to a governmental purpose. Thus, Mayor Kim must report the gift of travel, but the gift is exempt from the gift limit. In this case, the travel payments are not subject to the gift limit because the source is a foreign government and because the travel is reasonably related to a governmental purpose. (Section 89506(a)(2).) Note that Mayor Kim could be disqualified from participating in or making decisions about The Chengdu Municipal People’s Government for 12 months. Also note that if China Silicon Valley Business Development (a 501(c)(6) organization) paid for the travel costs rather than the governmental organization, the payments would be subject to the gift limits. For example, I have experience in Multnomah County working to reduce the use of terms such as "citizen" to be more inclusive of all residents, a language change that would benefit SF as well.

Subject: Rules Committee Hearing Information from Kevin Frazier

Hello Mr. Young,

I hope your end of the year is going well. Regrettably, due to a personal appointment that I cannot move, I will not be able to attend the hearing on 1/11/2021. Given the difficulty of scheduling such appointments during these trying times, I hope the Committee members will understand.

For the record, please make sure it is noted that I attempted to converse with Supervisors Mar and Stefani. I did not hear back from either office but am more than happy to talk with them to further discuss the merits of my application beyond what is expressed in the testimony below.

Dear Chair Ronen and members of the Rules Committee,

I am humbled to have individuals ranging from Donna Hillard, Executive Director of Code Tenderloin, to Andrew Broderick, of the SF Tech Council supporting my application to the Sunshine Ordinance Task Force. As conveyed by the letters sent in by these leaders and others, I am confident that my background will allow me to contribute to the important mission of the Task Force. As a graduate student that has suffered with mental illness, I am also confident that I will bring a diverse perspective that is needed on the Task Force.

Before discussing my qualifications, I want to share the origin of my personal interest in this position. My first job--as the Executive Assistant to Governor Kate Brown of Oregon--exposed me to the importance of transparency, accountability, and meaningful public participation. Governor Brown assumed her current office, in part, because those aforementioned traits were absent during the creation of Cover Oregon, the state's response to the Affordable Care Act. Consequently, I was on the frontlines of restoring the faith of Oregonians in their government.

This required thinking about all the ways in which we could connect with community members. In my capacity, it meant assisting with the Governor's social media and updating her website to be more Oregonian-friendly. Those efforts required working closely with the Governor's legal counsel to understand what was permissible to share. Oftentimes, I found myself pushing back, trying to make sure that my friends and family members knew that their elected officials were working hard on their behalf and how to push back when they questioned if those officials were misguided.

My own tangles with Public Records Laws inspired my efforts to bridge the gap between community awareness and government action. I have channeled those efforts in manifold ways since arriving in San Francisco more than three years ago. First and foremost, I have done my part to inform the public of local government action and ways they can get involved. In more than thirty articles in local newspapers, I have brought San Franciscans closer to their government.

Additionally, I have studied these issues through my graduate education in law at UC Berkeley, where I have studied constitutional law and privacy law, courses that pertain directly to the obligations of the Task Force. I have also professionally dealt with transparency related laws in my capacity as a Legal Assistant on Google's Legal Investigations Support team.

My desire to keep San Franciscans informed has also manifested itself through two projects of mine: first, Neighborhood News Network, and, second, No One Left Offline (NOLO). NOLO got started during the pandemic with one goal: make sure San Franciscans had the Internet required to thrive. Since that time, NOLO has helped distribute more than 100 hotspots, each with a year of Internet. These devices are now essential to residents staying up to date on what their government is up to. I am thankful for the opportunity to make sure San Franciscans have that chance and hope to further that work as a member on the Task Force.

I cannot speak for all Millennials, but I know that many of my friends and fellow students have come to expect transparency. They rely on entities like the Task Force to make sure that expectation is being met. If fortunate enough to join this Task Force, I will work tirelessly to make sure that the Sunshine Ordinance is enforced, that the Task Force has the institutional resources and support it requires, and that agencies with numerous violations are held accountable. Young people in this city, as well as all residents, deserve as much, especially when there is so much on the line.

I appreciate your review of my application and supplemental materials. Please feel free to direct any additional questions to me.

To a better San Francisco,

Kevin Frazier

Hello Victor,

My name is Andrew Broderick, and I serve as a project director of the SF Tech Council, which is a multi-sector collaborative whose member organizations share the mission to advance digital inclusion for older adults and people with disabilities so all can participate in the City's connected community. I am writing to recommend Kevin Frazier for an appointment to the Sunshine Ordinance Task Force. Through my collaboration with Kevin and our jointly working in partnership with organizations across sectors to close the digital divide in the San Francisco community, I have seen first-hand Kevin's commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusion in action.

Given our community's approach to working in partnership across sectors as the most effective means for closing the digital divide, Kevin has consistently demonstrated his commitment and determination to ensure the well-being of San Franciscans of all backgrounds. The coalition he quickly assembled in the wake of the pandemic to advance digital inclusion comprises a broad coalition of organizations and their representatives from across the City and its diverse communities. From Dev/Mission to the SF Tech Council, Kevin has intentionally connected his initiative's singular efforts with the broader coalition of stakeholders in the City to bring greater awareness and resolve to advancing digital inclusion.

I highly recommend Kevin for this role. I have found Kevin to be personable, dependable and resourceful, and his focus on bringing people into the fold so to speak will drive him and serve him well as a member of the Task Force. This, combined with his legal and policy background, will allow him, if selected, to develop not only a strong understanding of the key issues but also potential actions that promote equity, inclusion, and collaboration. Given his educational background, I am confident that Kevin will also be able to study the Task Force's agenda items closely while ensuring the community's interests, needs, and goals are considered first and foremost.

I am happy to answer any questions or discuss in more detail my support for Kevin and his qualifications for becoming a member of the Sunshine Ordinance Task Force.

Regards,

Andrew

Hello Mr. Victor Young.

I am writing on behalf of Kevin Frazier who has applied for the Sunshine Ordinance Task Force open position that is available.

I would like to recommend Kevin Frazier for this open position as he has demonstrated a commitment to our community in volunteering his time in the San Francisco Neighborhood Court as a Community Member, and as community leader in leading conversations around digital equity and inclusion. Kevin demonstrates experience and a vision of what inclusion and equity is for the residents of San Francisco.

These are not just ideas or a causes for Kevin, they are his values of how people have a right to live with dignity, equity, and respect. He has a belief that people should equitably access services, information, conversations, and be at the table to create community policy, programs, and initiatives.

Kevin Frazier is an exceptional person in the community of San Francisco. I speak to this as a native born San Franciscan, resident, and worker. Kevin has demonstrated in his position as Founder for No One Left Behind, that he is a leader in the community, and his ability to listen to the needs and impediments of San Franciscans to connect digitally to San Francisco city services, and public meetings. He has committed his time and efforts to make sure San Franciscans and the multitude of individuals who are unable to access online services is communicated to policy makers and stakeholders, and to ensure that this gap in digital equity is addressed.

I fully recommend Kevin Frazier for the open position for the Sunshine Ordinance Task Force without hesitation.

Best

Hello Victor,

I would like to share my experiences with Kevin Frazier and why I feel he would be an excellent addition to the Sunshine Ordinance Task Force. In the time that I have known Kevin he has proven to be an amazing, talented and ambitious gentleman.

I was first introduced to Kevin by a merchant/member of the Clement Street Merchants Association. He voluntarily came to us with an amazing idea, which was Community Action Nights. The idea was to bring together individuals who would like to help out the community and have the funds to do so, but aren't sure how to go about assisting directly. And these nights would be conducted at the Plough and Stars, one of our local legacy businesses. I was very excited to participate in this effort and we began planning. Unfortunately, this idea was forced to a halt due to the pandemic.

Even though it appeared we likely wouldn't be proceeding with Community Action Nights, Kevin generously reached out to see what support he could provide for the CSMA during the first week of the pandemic. Kevin started a GoFund me for our neighborhood, "Support in Place: Save our Community & Small Biz". Through this, we were able to raise funds to buy gift cards and donate them to three Non-profit organizations: Richmond District Neighborhood Center, YMCA and RAM's.

He then created a Zoom event to start a conversation about the state of The Richmond. We had a few of the merchants from Clement street on the call, along with myself, "Post-COVID in The Richmond: creating a better normal". This proved to be a valuable conversation as there was a considerable amount of concern and uncertainty at this time and I think we all benefited from coming together to share our thoughts, feelings and information.

Throughout this unprecedented time Kevin has continually reached out to share what he's been working on and to ask me to connect him with different merchants in our association to conduct interviews and to give help where he can. His assistance has been appreciated by many.

It's been great working with Kevin and it's always fun hearing about what he is working on. I believe that Kevin would be a great addition to the Sunshine Ordinance Task Force, as he pays a great deal of attention to what is best for our communities and when he has an idea he moves with it. Any group would be very fortunate to have someone of Kevin's abilities on their team.

Please let me know if you have any questions or asks.

Take care,

Ixchel Acosta

Hello Ms. Beinart:

My name is Sheryl Lane and I'm writing to you to share my support for Laurie Jones Neighbor's appointment to the Sunshine Ordinance Task Force. Laurie would be an excellent addition to SOTF because of her demonstrated commitment to transparency, her active participation in attending SOTF meetings, and most importantly to me, she continues to actively create programs and content that promotes that boards, commissions, and committees throughout California are equipped with leaders of color and low-income residents.

More than 10 years ago, I was a participant of Urban Habitat's Boards and Commissions Leadership Institute (BCLI) which Laurie facilitated and developed the program's content. I went on to serve eight years as a Planning Commissioner in Richmond, Ca., and as its chair for more than 5 years. In addition, I collaborated with Laurie to create policy advocacy content for clients at EARN, now SaverLife, a nonprofit organization based in San Francisco. Many of these clients were San Francisco residents who had never directly engaged in the policy process but learned that not only do they have the right to engage in civic matters but increased their confidence to do so when meeting with San Francisco's elected officials.

In conclusion, Laurie's leadership, her commitment, and her dedication to public service are evident and she will be a great addition to the Task Force.

Sincerely,

Sheryl Lane

Dear Rules Committee Members,

This written comment is in support of the appointment of Laurie Jones Neighbors for a seat on the Sunshine Ordinance Task Force. The SOTF's creation to protect the public's interest in open government is in direct alignment with Laurie's commitment and work over the years to pull aside the curtain and make the invisible visible and the opaque transparent, for the people.

I met Laurie in 2019 at the Liberty Hill Foundation Leadership Institute for Change Commissions Training program. She led my cohort through an extensive and intensive training to prepare and bring grassroots and community leaders into positions of appointed office. These leaders would ensure that appointed commissioners and board members are actually from and can speak to the needs of the communities they work with. This is just one example of Laurie's dedication to ensuring good governance for people in all communities, but especially for communities that have been overlooked and marginalized by government for decades.

If appointed to the SOTF, you can be assured that Laurie will support the Task Force in fulfilling its goals to keep the deliberations of governing bodies open to the people and available for the people's review. In addition to her deep knowledge of the interiors of government processes and procedures, she is also incredibly thoughtful, really fun to work with, and would be such an asset to the Task Force.

Please don't hesitate to contact me should I be able to provide additional testimony to support Laurie's appointment.

My best,
Helen

Pursuant to Charter section 4.101 (a)1, please state how your qualifications represent the communities of interest, neighborhoods, and the diversity in ethnicity, race, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, types of disabilities, and any other relevant demographic qualities of the City and County of San Francisco:

As a Black man in my early 20s, the only world I've ever known has been one of heightened mistrust between my community and the institutions ostensibly designed to serve us. However, as an optimist and strong believer in the potential of these institutions to do good, I know it doesn't have to be this way. Still, we can't tackle any of the big issues without first building trust — and we can't build trust unless we can guarantee transparency and accountability for those in charge. A government that operates in the open can't easily neglect its duty to serve all of its constituents. However, the ability to effortlessly access this information is just as important — especially for members of communities that've been unequally harmed. To that end, I believe that my background and identity as a young, proud, and unapologetically Black man — coupled with my communications skills outlined below — qualify me to sit on this Task Force as an advocate for San Franciscans who may be finding it tough to trust government at any level.

Business and/or professional experience:

As mentioned above, I strongly believe that my professional experiences, alongside my personal ones, qualify me for this seat. In May 2019, I graduated with high distinction from the University of Michigan, where I majored in Organizational Studies and minored in writing. At Michigan and beyond, I've had a variety of professional experiences — from working with think tanks, to trying out university development, to aiding research projects. In those capacities, I've analyzed and published reports and presentations covering trends in global think tank development; I've piloted different social media platforms with key donors to improve fundraising; and I've broken down complex white papers into easily understandable one-pagers and videos. The common thread between all of these experiences is that I was focused on simplifying complicated and jargony information and getting it to those who needed it most. Currently, I work in communications strategy at Google. Through this role, which involves disseminating information about process or technology changes to folks across the organization, I'm continuing to foster the necessary skills that will be required to help ensure important information reaches all communities.

Civic Activities:

For three years, I was heavily involved with The Michigan Daily — the only daily print publication in Washtenaw County (population: 367,000). For two of those years, I was the managing editor of Michigan in Color: a section on the paper dedicated to telling the narratives of people of color. In this position, I worked tirelessly to advocate for fellow POC on campus and across the county. Furthermore, as a managing editor, I regularly met with leaders in an effort to hold those in power accountable and uplift narratives that have traditionally been ignored. Additionally, I served on the Michigan Union Board of Representatives: a body appointed by the university to represent the desires of students to the university administration (regarding the renovation of the historic Michigan Union). Since moving to San Francisco, most of my involvement has been more grassroots based, such as participating in anti-racism protests across the city and attending Juneteenth and Pride demonstrations earlier this month. However, I see participation on the Sunshine Ordinance Task Force as a great opportunity to get further involved in our community.

To Whom It May Concern:

I met Jason Rowland volunteering together for the Future Business Leaders of America, a 501(c)3 organization dedicated to teaching high school students entrepreneurship and career skills. I have worked with Jason for many years since then on several community projects and can attest to his exemplary character, professionalism, and commitment to actively participating in his community and working collaboratively to address local issues equitably and effectively.

In late 2015 I asked Jason to serve as the Chairman of my non-partisan, grassroots campaign for a seat on the North Penn School District's Board of Directors in Pennsylvania serving 12,000 students. As a highly engaged member of the community, Jason had long noticed a lack of diversity among school administration at all levels which failed to represent the vibrant economic, social, and ethnic diversity of our community. Jason's keen observation and commitment to empowering all members of the district heavily influenced our campaign's messaging around community inclusion and made him an ideal fit for the role.

Over the following months, Jason planned several outreach events to connect directly with constituents face-to-face. Despite our initial momentum, running as an Independent candidate meant that my candidacy was a longshot. That did not stop Jason, whose passion for addressing the issues and helping others rallied our team to continue fighting in the face of our odds. We knew that for Jason the fight wasn't about how many votes we collected, but rather how many voices we elevated to speak on behalf of students from all backgrounds.

While I ultimately did not win, Jason's outreach and communication using in person and digital channels left a lasting impact on our community. Jason's dedication inspired a new generation to become active members in their communities. Several of the volunteers that worked directly with Jason have gone on to successful careers in Social Work and International Diplomacy, continuing his work to empower and serve marginalized groups within our communities and beyond.

I am confident that Jason has the character, experience, and qualifications to serve on the Sunrise Ordinance Task Force.

Emma Kinery
National Political Correspondent, Bloomberg News
1101 New York Ave NW
Washington, DC, 20005

To whom it may concern,

My name is Emma Kinery, and I'm a national political correspondent for Bloomberg News in Washington, DC covering the upcoming presidential election and White House politics.

Before joining Bloomberg, I was the Editor-in-Chief (EIC) of The Michigan Daily. Through that role, I worked closely with Jason and can speak to his commitment and experience with affecting change at a local level. During my tenure as EIC, he was the managing section editor of Michigan in Color: a section on the paper dedicated to showcasing the voices of minority students and residents of Ann Arbor. Jason was in the newsroom five nights a week and worked tirelessly to elevate the demands and experiences of people of color within the University community and city writ large. The Daily is the only newspaper serving the Ann Arbor community, making this section essential.

During that time, Jason wrote, edited, and published countless articles and interviews. From a letter of support to marginalized students on campus after the 2016 election, to an editorial urging young people to vote for local candidates, to personal op-eds in response to police officers killing unarmed Black folks, all of these articles (and the hours of required research and interviews) were focused on creating a positive change in the greater Ann Arbor community.

In addition to advocating on behalf of community members through writing, Jason also worked actively with community leaders to create spaces for learning. For example, Jason partnered with the local Museum of Art to organize an open mic night for members of the community to speak and listen to the voices of POC. In this effort, Jason coordinated with the museum to rent the space, and then publicized this event to the larger community.

Outside of his activism at the Daily, Jason was a pleasure to work with. He's incredibly dedicated to the role and driven by a passion for social justice issues and to make sure every voice is heard. Jason listens to the concerns of others and leads by making every person feel valued. For that reason, perhaps it's no surprise that Jason became the paper's Access & Inclusion chair after his term as managing editor ended. In that role, he partnered with the university to host accessibility workshops, created a committee dedicated to listening to the needs of organizations on campus, and worked with each of The Daily's managing editors to achieve their section's accessibility goals. All of this with the goal of ensuring The Daily was providing accessible information for all.

I strongly believe that Jason will bring this same attitude to the Sunshine Ordinance Task Force. If you need more information from me, please don't hesitate to contact me at kineryem@gmail.com or ekinery@bloomberg.net.

Rules Committee - SF Board of Supervisors

1 Dr. Carlton B. Goodlett Place
San Francisco, CA 94102-4689

Dear Chair Hillary Ronen and Supervisors

Thank you for the opportunity, once again, of your consideration for re-appointment to the Sunshine Ordinance Task Force. I desire reappointment to Seat #6 which I am applying for unless you see fit to appoint me to another such as #7, 8, 9 or 10 of which I am eligible, too.

My history here is well known and my complete resume is attached to the application. I enjoy the work and service to the citizens and residents of San Francisco in this way of helping to ensure open government. While fully employed, I am able to fulfill my duties on the SOTF due to flexibility in my schedule. As our world is ever changing there is still much to do, much to streamline, much to build on. I am committed to SOTF's efficacy and continued success as I know you are, too.

There is a lot I bring to this body in experience, expertise and history to add to the collective brain trust. For instance, as an IT professional, with the changing environment of technology comes new and innovative ways to deliver services that I have been participant in for some time. As the city's new technology systems come online, more efficiency of compliance of Sunshine will be apparent thus reducing time in fulfilling the public's requests. This is for certain. As a social worker, martial arts instructor, governance advisor and computing trainer, I bring ample methods of instructional delivery to help bolster training in Sunshine where it's needed.

There is much to be done in increasing the efficiency of the Sunshine Ordinance Task Force process and its charge. Over the past two years, much progress has been made to bring inefficiencies into order and, if it be your pleasure, I plan on continuing this work in conjunction with various connected city offices to continue that trend towards fruition. For instance, the advent of the Digital Services Team allows SOTF to collaborate to ensure that all city/county departments and agencies have as much public information available on their website to the public as possible reducing staff time. In addition, the excitement of the adoption of the NextRequest platform. Some other areas of ongoing work are increased training to struggling departments; streamlined the hearing process to reduce time spent by all parties; resolving concerns about compliance at the administrative level before becoming official complaints; ensuring administration of the SOTF functions are adequately supported so that it can perform efficiently. These are all just a smattering of areas that I continue to be helpful with along with your support.

Once again, I appreciate the opportunity to serve once again, and will work deliberately and more closely with you and the city family to help ensure that, both, we maintain the integrity of open government and deliver it to the people of the City and County of San Francisco.

Yours Truly,

Pursuant to Charter, Section 4.101(a)(1), please state how your qualifications represent the communities of interest, neighborhoods, and the diversity in ethnicity, race, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, types of disabilities, and any other relevant demographic qualities of the City and County of San Francisco:

I have been living in San Francisco for the past 4 years, after having a successful career as a university professor for over 20 years. My teaching, research and writing dealt with issues of access to communication and information, particularly for underserved communities and those advocating for social change. I have worked with and written about activist and advocacy groups addressing issues of the environment, poverty, human rights, LGBTQ+, and gun violence, among others. My immediate family is multi-ethnic (Caucasian and South Asian). For many years, I taught at a large university with a diverse student population, and I understand the value of listening to diverse voices and perspectives to democratic governance. I am currently a part time student at City College of San Francisco, where I appreciate and have learned from a diverse student cohort.

Business and/or professional experience:

I have been a teacher, researcher and educational administrator for most of my professional career. I was a tenured professor in the College of Communication at the University of Texas at Austin, an assistant professor at the University of San Francisco in the Media Studies Department, a visiting scholar in the Journalism Department at UC Berkeley, and a US-India Fulbright Scholar at Jamia Millia Islamia University in New Delhi. My academic work revolved around issues of access to the media. I taught courses in communication law and policy, communications technology and society and documentary studies, among others. I have authored a book titled, "Speech Rights in America," co-wrote an extended entry on "Freedom of Information" for the Oxford Research Encyclopedia of Communication, and produced numerous other writings on the necessity of access to media and information in democratic societies.

Civic Activities:

In addition to being a San Francisco voter, I am a founding member of the Northern California Leadership Council for the Brady Campaign to Prevent Gun Violence. As such, I have participated in educational activities and events designed to raise awareness of gun violence in California and the nation. My husband and I have donated money to several San Francisco schools, including to the association that helps support the Ruth Asawa School of the Arts, which my son currently attends. I have volunteered in various capacities at SOTA, and participated in the Inclusive Practices Parents Advisory Council. My husband and I are also part of Indiaspora, an international network of members of the Indian diaspora, based here in San Francisco, who work for positive collective action in the US and abroad.

Dear Supervisor Ronen,

I have submitted an application to be a Sunshine Ordinance Task Force member, and I wanted to reach out to you as a member of the Rules Committee with some additional information about myself. I have written about, taught, and publicly presented on freedom of information and information policy for nearly 20 years as a former communications professor. I have a deep understanding of the purpose, scope, mechanics and competing interests surrounding freedom of information laws. I also have a longstanding passion for democratic participation in governance and the institutional mechanisms that enable it. I have read San Francisco’s Sunshine Ordinance, giving me a clear understanding of the letter and spirit of the law and the role of the Task Force in reviewing the public records index and reports, advising the Board of Supervisors on implementation, and evaluating compliance with the law. My qualifications for this position include:

- Approximately 20 years as a scholar and researcher who specialized in issues of access to information and media
- Lead authorship of the Oxford Research Encyclopedia of Communication’s entry on “Freedom of Information” (Available on Request)
- A Fulbright research fellowship to study issues of right to information law and policy in India
- Teaching numerous courses on communication law and ethics, including units on access to information laws, at the University of Texas and University of San Francisco
- Former editorial board member of the Journal of Information Policy
- Invited participant to the Indian government’s “National Conference on Open Data and Open API”
- A history of service as a founding member of the Northern California Leadership Council for the Brady Campaign to end gun violence, President of the University of Texas Student

Publications Board (overseeing the university's student media), and member of the UT College of Communication Diversity Committee

-Current San Francisco-based service as phone bank volunteer for the SF Democrats, elected Chair of the School Site Council for the Ruth Asawa School for the Arts, and 10th Grade Parent Representative for International High School

I would be honored to contribute my experience and expertise on access to information and public meetings to the city of San Francisco. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions about my qualifications or interest.

Sincerely, Laura Stein (c [REDACTED])

Executive Summary

In 2008, San Francisco voters overwhelmingly approved a City Charter Amendment (section 4.101) establishing as City policy for the membership of Commissions and Boards to reflect the diversity of San Francisco’s population, and that appointing officials be urged to support the nomination, appointment, and confirmation of these candidates. Additionally, it requires the San Francisco Department on the Status of Women to conduct and publish a gender analysis of Commissions and Boards every two years.

The 2019 Gender Analysis of Commissions and Boards includes more policy bodies such as task forces, committees, and advisory bodies, than previous analyses, which were limited to Commissions and Boards. Data was collected from 84 policy bodies and from a total of 741 members mostly appointed by the Mayor and Board of Supervisors. These policy bodies fall under two categories designated by the San Francisco Office of the City Attorney.¹ The first category, referred to as “Commissions and Boards,” are policy bodies with decision-making authority and whose members are required to submit financial disclosures to the Ethics Commission. The second category, referred to as “Advisory Bodies,” are policy bodies with advisory function whose members do not submit financial disclosures to the Ethics Commission. This report examines policy bodies and appointees both comprehensively as a whole and separately by the two categories.

The 2019 Gender Analysis evaluates the representation of women; people of color; lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, and questioning (LGBTQ) individuals; people with disabilities; and veterans on San Francisco policy bodies.

Key Findings

Gender

- Women’s representation on policy bodies is 51%, slightly above parity with the San Francisco female population of 49%.
- Since 2009, there has been a small but steady increase in the representation of women on San Francisco policy bodies.

Race and Ethnicity

- People of color are underrepresented on policy bodies compared to the population. Although people of color comprise 62% of San Francisco’s population, just 50% of appointees identify as a race other than white.
- While the overall representation of people of color has increased between 2009 and 2019, as the Department collected data on more appointees, the representation of people of color has decreased over the last few years. The percentage of appointees of color decreased from 53% in 2017 to 49% in 2019.
- As found in previous reports, Latinx and Asian groups are underrepresented on San Francisco policy bodies compared to the population. Latinx individuals are 14% of the population but make up only 8% of appointees. Asian individuals are 31% of the population but make up only 18% of appointees.

Source: SF DOSW Data Collection & Analysis.

Race and Ethnicity by Gender

- On the whole, women of color are 32% of the San Francisco population, and 28% of appointees. Although still below parity, 28% is a slight increase compared to 2017, which showed 27% women of color appointees.
- Meanwhile, men of color are underrepresented at 21% of appointees compared to 31% of the San Francisco population.
- Both White women and men are overrepresented on San Francisco policy bodies. White women are 23% of appointees compared to 17% of the San Francisco population. White men are 26% of appointees compared to 20% of the population.
- Black and African American women and men are well-represented on San Francisco policy bodies. Black women are 9% of appointees compared to 2.4% of the population, and Black men are 5% of appointees compared to 2.5% of the population.
- Latinx women are 7% of the San Francisco population but 3% of appointees, and Latinx men are 7% of the population but 5% of appointees.
- Asian women are 17% of the San Francisco population but 11% of appointees, and Asian men are 15% of the population but just 7% of appointees.

Additional Demographics

- Out of the 74% of appointees who responded to the survey question on LGBTQ identity, 19% identify as lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, nonbinary, queer, or questioning, and 81% of appointees identify as straight/heterosexual.
- Out of the 70% of appointees who responded to the question on disability, 11% identify as having one or more disabilities, which is just below the 12% of the adult population with a disability in San Francisco.
- Out of the 67% of appointees who responded to the question on veteran status, 7% have served in the military compared to 3% of the San Francisco population.

Proxies for Influence: Budget & Authority

- Although women are half of all appointees, those Commissions and Boards with the largest budgets have fewer women and especially fewer women of color. Meanwhile, women exceed representation on Boards and Commissions with the smallest budgets and women of color reach parity with the population on the smallest budgeted Commissions and Boards.
- Although still underrepresented relative to the San Francisco population, there is a larger percentage of people of color on Commissions and Boards with both the largest and smallest budgets compared to overall appointees.
- The percentage of total women is greater on Advisory Bodies than Commissions and Boards. Women are 54% of appointees on Advisory Bodies and 48% of appointees on Commissions and Boards. However, the percentages of people of color and women of color on Commissions and Boards exceed the percentages of people of color and women of color on Advisory Bodies.

Appointing Authorities

- Mayoral appointments include 55% women, 52% people of color, and 30% women of color, which is more diverse by gender and race compared to both Supervisorial appointments and total appointments.

I. Introduction

Inspired by the 4th UN World Conference on Women in Beijing, San Francisco became the first city in the world to adopt a local ordinance reflecting the principles of the U.N. Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination (CEDAW), an international bill of rights for women. The CEDAW Ordinance was passed unanimously by the San Francisco Board of Supervisors and signed into law by Mayor Willie L. Brown, Jr. on April 13, 1998.² In 2002, the CEDAW Ordinance was revised to address the intersection of race and gender and incorporate reference to the UN Convention on the Elimination of all Forms of Race Discrimination. The Ordinance requires City Government to take proactive steps to ensure gender equity and specifies “gender analysis” as a preventive tool to identify and address discrimination. Since 1998, the Department on the Status of Women has employed this tool to analyze the operations of 10 City Departments using a gender lens.

In 2007, the Department on the Status of Women conducted the first gender analysis to evaluate the number of women appointed to City Commissions and Boards. The findings of this analysis informed a City Charter Amendment developed by the Board of Supervisors for the June 2008 Election. This City Charter Amendment (Section 4.101) was overwhelmingly approved by voters and made it city policy that:

- The membership of Commissions and Boards are to reflect the diversity of San Francisco’s population,
- Appointing officials are to be urged to support the nomination, appointment, and confirmation of these candidates, and
- The Department on the Status of Women is required to conduct and publish a gender analysis of Commissions and Boards every 2 years.

The 2019 Gender Analysis examines the representation of women; people of color; lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, and questioning (LGBTQ) individuals; people with disabilities; and veterans on San Francisco policy bodies primarily appointed by the Mayor and the Board of Supervisors. This year’s analysis included more outreach to policy bodies as compared to previous analyses that were limited to Commissions and Boards. As a result, more appointees were included in the data collection and analysis than even before. These policy bodies fall under two categories designated by the San Francisco Office of the City Attorney. The first category, referred to as “Commissions and Boards,” are policy bodies with decision-making authority and whose members are required to submit financial disclosures to the Ethics Commission, and the second category, referred to as “Advisory Bodies,” are policy bodies with advisory function whose members do not submit financial disclosures to the Ethics Commission. A detailed description of methodology and limitations can be found at the end of this report on page 23.

II. Gender Analysis Findings

Many aspects of San Francisco’s diversity are reflected in the overall population of appointees on San Francisco policy bodies. The analysis includes 84 policy bodies, of which 823 of the 887 seats are filled leaving 7% vacant. As outlined below in the summary chart, slightly more than half of appointees are women, half of appointees are people of color, 28% are women of color, 19% are LGBTQ, 11% have a disability, and 7% are veterans.

Appointee Demographics	Percentage of Appointees
Women (n=741)	51%
People of Color (n=706)	50%
Women of Color (n=706)	28%
LGBTQ Identified (n=548)	19%
People with Disabilities (n=516)	11%
Veteran Status (n=494)	7%

However, further analysis reveals underrepresentation of particular groups. Subsequent sections present comprehensive data analysis providing comparison to previous years, detailing the variables of gender, race/ethnicity, LGBTQ identity, disability, veteran status, and policy body characteristics of budget size, decision-making authority, and appointment authority.

A. Gender

On San Francisco policy bodies, 51% of appointees identify as women, which is slightly above parity compared to the San Francisco female population of 49%. The representation of women remained stable at 49% from 2013 until 2017. This year, the representation of women increased by 2 percentage points, which could be partly due to the larger sample size used in this year’s analysis compared to previous years. A 10-year comparison shows that the representation of women appointees has gradually increased since 2009 by a total of six percentage points.

Figure 2: 10-Year Comparison of Representation of Women on Policy Bodies

Figures 3 and 4 analyze Commissions and Boards. Figure 3 showcases the five Commissions and Boards with the highest representation of women appointees as compared to 2015 and 2013. The Children and Families (First Five) Commission and the Commission on the Status of Women are currently comprised of all women appointees. This finding has been consistent for the Commission on the Status of Women in 2015 and 2017. While the Ethics Commission has 100% women appointees, much more than 2015 and 2017, its small size of five appointees means that minimal changes in its demographic composition greatly impacts percentages. This is also the case for other policy bodies with a small number of members. The Library Commission and the Commission on the Environment are fourth and fifth on the list at 71% and 67% women, respectively, with long standing female majorities on each.

Source: SF DOSW Data Collection & Analysis.

Out of the Commissions and Boards in this section, 23 have 40% or less women. The five Commissions and Boards with the lowest representation of women are displayed in Figure 4. The lowest percentage is found on the Board of Examiners where currently none of the 13 appointees are women. Unfortunately, demographic data is unavailable for the Board of Examiners for 2017 and 2015. Next is the Building Inspection Commission at 14%, which is a decrease of female representation compared to 2017 and 2015. The Oversight Board of Community Investment and Infrastructure, Fire Commission, and Sunshine Ordinance Task Force also have some of the lowest percentages of women at 17%, 20%, and 27%, respectively. Unfortunately, the Sunshine Ordinance Task Force did not participate in previous analyses and therefore demographics data is unavailable for 2017 and 2015.

In addition to Commissions and Boards, Advisory Bodies were examined for the highest and lowest percentages of women. This is the first year such bodies have been included, thus comparison to previous years is unavailable. Figure 9 below displays the five Advisory Bodies with the highest and the five with the lowest representations of women. The Workforce Community Advisory Committees has the greatest representation of women at 100%, followed by the Office of Early Care and Education Citizen’s Advisory Committee at 89%. The Advisory Bodies with the lowest percentage of women are the Urban Forestry Council at 8% of the 13-member body and the Abatement Appeals Board at 14% of the 7-member body.

B. Race and Ethnicity

Data on racial and ethnic identity was collected for 706, or 95%, of the 741 surveyed appointees. Although half of appointees identify as a race or ethnicity other than white or Caucasian, people of color are still underrepresented compared to the San Francisco population of 62%. The representation of people of color has increased since 2009 but has decreased following 2015. The number of appointees analyzed increased substantially in 2017 and 2019 compared to 2015, and these larger data samples have coincided with smaller percentages of people of color. The percentage decrease following 2017 could be partially due to the inclusion of more policy and advisory bodies, as the representation of people of color on Commissions and Boards dropped only slightly from 53% in 2017 to 52% in 2019.

The racial and ethnic breakdown of policy body members compared to the San Francisco population is shown in Figure 7. This analysis reveals underrepresentation and overrepresentation in San Francisco policy bodies for certain racial and ethnic groups. Half of all appointees are white, an overrepresentation by more than 10 percentage points. The Black and African American community is well represented on appointed policy bodies at 14% compared to 5% of the population of San Francisco. Characterizing this as an overrepresentation is inaccurate given the representation of Black or African American people on policy bodies has been consistent over the years while the San Francisco population has declined over the same period.³ Furthermore, the most recent nationwide estimate for the Black or African American population is 13%, which is nearly equal to the 14% of Black or African American appointees present on San Francisco policy bodies.⁴

Considerably underrepresented racial and ethnic groups on San Francisco policy bodies compared to the San Francisco population are individuals who identify as Asian or Latinx. While Asians are 31% of the San Francisco population, they only make up 18% of appointees. While the Latinx population of San Francisco is 14%, only 8% of appointees are Latinx. Although there is a small population of Native Americans and Alaska Natives in San Francisco of 0.4%, none of the surveyed appointees identified themselves as such.

The next two graphs illustrate Commissions and Boards, and Advisory Bodies with the highest and lowest percentages of people of color. As shown in Figure 8, the Commission on Community Investment and Infrastructure remained at 100% from 2017, while the Juvenile Probation Commission has returned to 100% this year after a dip in 2017. Next is the Health Commission, Immigrant Rights Commission, and Housing Authority Commission at 86%, 85%, and 83%, respectively. Percentages of people of color on both the Health Commission and the Housing Authority Commission increased following 2015, and have remained consistent since 2017.

There are 23 policy bodies that have 40% or less appointees who identified a racial and ethnic category other than white. Although the Public Utilities Commission has two vacancies, none of the current appointees identify as people of color. The Historic Preservation Commission and Building Inspection Commission are both at 14% representation for people of color. The Building Inspection Commission had a large drop from 43% in 2015, with the percentage of people of color decreasing to 14% in 2017 and remaining at this percent for 2019. Lastly, the War Memorial Board of Trustees and City Hall Preservation Advisory Commission have 18% and 20%, respectively.

In addition to Commissions and Boards, Advisory Bodies were examined for the highest and lowest percentages of people of color. This is the first year such bodies have been included, thus comparison to previous years is unavailable. All members of the Workforce Community Advisory Committee are people of color. People of color comprise 80% of the Sugary Drinks Distributor Tax Advisory Committee, and 75% of appointees on the Children, Youth and Their Families Oversight and Advisory Committee, the Golden Gate Park Concourse Authority, and the Local Homeless Coordinating Board. Out of the five Advisory Bodies with the lowest representation of people of color, the Ballot Simplification Committee and the Mayor’s Disability Council have 25% appointees of color, and the Abatement Appeals Board has 14% appointees of color. The Urban Forestry and the Pedestrian Safety Advisory Committee have no people of color currently serving.

C. Race and Ethnicity by Gender

White men and women are overrepresented on San Francisco policy bodies, while Asian and Latinx men and women are underrepresented. While women of color continue to be underrepresented at 28% compared to the San Francisco population of 32%, this is a slight increase from 2017 which showed 27% women of color. Meanwhile, men of color are 21% of appointees compared to 31% of the San Francisco population.

Source: SF DOSW Data Collection & Analysis.

The following figures present the breakdown for appointees and the San Francisco population by race and ethnicity and gender. White men and women are overrepresented, holding 27% and 23% of appointments, respectively, compared to 20% and 17% of the population, respectively. Asian men and women are both greatly underrepresented with Asian women making up 11% of appointees compared to 17% of the population while Asian men comprise 7% of appointees and 15% of the population. Latinx men and women are also underrepresented, particularly Latinx women, who are 3% of appointees and 7% of the population, while Latinx men are 5% of appointees and 7% of the population. Black or African American men and women are well-represented with Black women comprising 9% of appointees and Black men comprising 5% of appointees. Pacific Islander men and women, and multiethnic women also exceed parity with the population. Although Native American men and women make up only 0.4% of San Francisco’s population, none of the surveyed appointees identified themselves as such.

D. LGBTQ Identity

Lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, and questioning (LGBTQ) identity data was collected from 548, or 75%, of the 741 surveyed appointees, which is much more data on LGBTQ identity compared to previous reports. Due to limited and outdated information on the population of the LGBTQ community in San Francisco, it is difficult to adequately assess the representation of the LGBTQ community. However, compared to available San Francisco, larger Bay Area, and national data, the LGBTQ community is well represented on San Francisco policy bodies. Recent research estimates the national LGBT population is 4.5%.⁵ The LGBT population of the San Francisco and greater Bay Area is estimated to rank the highest of U.S. cities at 6.2%,⁶ while a 2006 survey found that 15.4% of adults in San Francisco identify as LGBT.⁷

Of the appointees who responded to this question, 19% identify as LGBTQ and 81% identify as straight or heterosexual. Of the LGBTQ appointees, 48% identify as gay, 23% as lesbian, 17% as bisexual, 7% as queer, 5% as transgender, and 1% as questioning. Data on LGBTQ identity by race was not captured. Efforts to capture data on LGBTQ identity by race for future reports would enable more intersectional analysis.

E. Disability Status

Overall, 12% of adults in San Francisco have one or more disabilities, and when broken down by gender, 6.2% are women and 5.7% are men. Disability data for transgender and gender non-conforming individuals in San Francisco is currently unavailable. Data on disability was obtained from 516, or 70%, of the 741 appointees who participated in the survey. Of the 516 appointees, 11.2% reported to have one or more disabilities, which is near parity with the San Francisco population. Of the 11.2% appointees with one or more disabilities, 6.8% are women, 3.9% are men, 0.4% are trans women, and 0.2% are trans men.

F. Veteran Status

Overall, 3.2% of the adult population in San Francisco has served in the military. There is a considerable difference by gender, as male veterans are 3% and female veterans are 0.2% of the population. Data on veteran status was obtained from 494, or 67%, of appointees who participated in the survey. Of the 494 appointees who responded to this question, 7.1% have served in the military. Like the San Francisco population, there is a large difference by gender, as men comprise 5.7% and women make up only 1.2% of the total number of veteran appointees. Of participating appointees, 0.2% of veterans are trans women. Veteran status data on transgender and gender non-conforming individuals in San Francisco is currently unavailable.

G. Policy Bodies by Budget

This report also examines whether policy bodies with the largest and smallest budget sizes and other characteristics are demographically representative of the San Francisco population. In this section, budget size is used as a proxy for influence. Although this report has expanded the scope of analysis to include more policy bodies compared to previous reports, this section of analysis was limited to Commissions and Boards with decision-making authority and whose members file financial disclosures with the Ethics Commission. The purpose of this analysis is to evaluate the demographics for the spectrum of budgetary influence of policy bodies with decision-making authority in San Francisco.

Overall, appointees from the 10 largest budgeted Commissions and Boards are 55% people of color, 41% women, and 23% women of color. Appointees from the 10 smallest budgeted Commissions and Boards are 54% people of color, 52% women, and 32% women of color. Although still below parity with the San Francisco population, the representation of people of color on both the largest and smallest budgeted policy bodies is greater than the percentage of people of color for all appointees combined (50%). For women and women of color, their representation meets or exceeds parity with the population on the 10 smallest budgeted bodies. However, it falls far below parity for the 10 largest budgeted bodies. The representation of total women and women of color is greater on smaller budgeted policy bodies by 27%, and 39%, respectively.

H. Comparison of Advisory Body and Commission and Board Demographics

The comparison of the two policy body categories in this section provides another proxy for influence, as Commissions and Boards whose members file disclosures of economic interest have greater decision-making authority in San Francisco than Advisory Bodies whose members do not file economic interest disclosures. The percentages of total women, LGBTQ people, people with disabilities, and veterans are larger for total appointees on Advisory Bodies. However, the percentages of women of color and people of color on Commissions and Boards slightly exceeds the percentages of women of color and people of color on Advisory Bodies.

I. Demographics of Mayoral, Supervisorial, and Total Appointees

Figure 24 compares the representation of women, women of color, and people of color for appointments made by the Mayor, Board of Supervisors, and by the total of all approving authorities combined. Mayoral appointments are more diverse, and consist of more women, women of color, and people of color compared to Supervisorial appointments. Mayoral appointments include 55% women, 30% women of color, and 52% people of color, while Supervisorial appointments are 48% women, 24% women of color, and 48% people of color. The total of all approving authorities combined average out at 51% women, 28% women of color, and 50% people of color. This disparity in diversity between Mayoral and Supervisorial appointments may be due in part to the appointment section process for each authority. The 11-member Board of Supervisors only sees applicants for specific bodies through the 3-member Rules Committee or by designees, stipulated in legislation (e.g. “renter,” “landlord,” “consumer advocate”), whereas the Mayor typically has the ability to take total appointments into account during selections, and can therefore better address gaps in diversity.

III. Conclusion

Since the first gender analysis of Commissions and Boards in 2007, the representation of women appointees on San Francisco policy bodies has gradually increased. The 2019 Gender Analysis finds the percentage of women appointees is 51%, which slightly exceeds the population of women in San Francisco.

When appointee demographics are analyzed by gender and race, women of color continue to be underrepresented on San Francisco policy bodies compared to the San Francisco population. Most notably underrepresented are Asian women who make up 17% of the population but only 11% of appointees, and Latinx women who make up 7% of the population but only 3% of appointees. Additionally, men of color are underrepresented relative to their San Francisco population, primarily Asian and Latinx men.

Furthermore, when analyzing the demographic composition of larger and smaller budgeted Commissions and Boards, women are underrepresented on those with the largest budgets, and overrepresented or reach parity with the population on smaller budgeted Commissions and Boards. These two trends are amplified for women of color appointees. Women comprise 41% of total appointees on the largest budgeted policy bodies, which is 8 percentage points below the population, and women of color comprise 23% of total appointees on the largest budgeted policy bodies, 9 percentage points below their San Francisco population. Comparatively, women are 52% of total appointees on the smallest budgeted policy bodies, and women of color are 32% of appointees, which is equal to the San Francisco population. However, the issue of largest and smallest budgeted policy bodies does not seem to impact the representation of people of color. People of color make up 55% of appointees on the largest budgeted policy bodies and 54% of appointees on the smallest budgeted policy bodies compared to 50% of total appointees. Nonetheless, these percentages still fall below the San Francisco population of people of color at 62%.

In addition to using budget size as a proxy for influence, this report analyzed demographic characteristics of appointees on Commissions and Boards who file disclosures of economic interest and have decision-making authority, and appointees on Advisory Bodies who do not file economic interest disclosures. Over half (54%) of appointees on Advisory Bodies are women, while 48% of appointees on Commissions and Boards are women. Although 48% is only slightly below the San Francisco population of women, women comprise a decently higher percentage of appointees on Advisory Bodies compared to Commissions and Boards.

This year's report features more data on LGBTQ identity, veteran status, and disability than previous gender analyses. The 2019 Gender Analysis found a relatively high representation of LGBTQ individuals on San Francisco policy bodies. For the appointees that provided LGBTQ identity information, 19% identify as LGBTQ with the largest subset being gay men at 48%. It is recommended for future gender analyses to collect LGBTQ data by race and gender to provide additional intersectional analysis. The representation of appointees with disabilities is 11%, just below the 12% population. Veterans are highly represented on San Francisco policy bodies at 7% compared to the veteran population of 3%.

Additionally, this report evaluates and compares the representation of women, women of color, and people of color appointees by the Mayor, Board of Supervisors, and by the total of all approving authorities combined. Mayoral appointees include 55% women, 30% women of color, and 52% people of color, which overall is more diverse by gender and race compared to both Supervisorial appointees and total appointees.

This report is intended to advise the Mayor, Board of Supervisors, and other appointing authorities, as they select appointments for policy bodies of the City and County of San Francisco. In spirit of the 2008 City Charter Amendment that establishes this biennial Gender Analysis report requirement and the importance of diversity on San Francisco policy bodies, efforts to address gaps in diversity and inclusion should remain at the forefront when making appointments in order to accurately reflect the population of San Francisco.

IV. Methodology and Limitations

This report focuses on City and County of San Francisco Commissions, Boards, Task Forces, Councils, and Committees that have the majority of members appointed by the Mayor and Board of Supervisors and that have jurisdiction limited to the City. The gender analysis reflects data from the policy bodies that provided information to the Department on the Status of Women through digital and paper survey.

Data was requested from 90 policy bodies and acquired from 84 different policy bodies and a total of 741 appointees. A Commissioner or Board member's gender identity, race/ethnicity, sexual orientation, disability status, and veteran status were among data elements collected on a voluntary basis. Data on lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, or questioning (LGBTQ) identity, disability, and veteran status of appointees were incomplete or unavailable for some appointees but are included to the extent possible. As the fundamental objective of this report is to surface patterns of underrepresentation, every attempt has been made to reflect accurate and complete information in this report. Data for some policy bodies was incomplete, and all appointees who responded were included in the total demographic categories. Only policy bodies with full data on gender and race for all appointees were included in sections comparing demographics of individual bodies. It should be noted that for policy bodies with a small number of members, the change of a single individual greatly impacts the percentages of demographic categories. As such, these percentages should be interpreted with this in mind.

The surveyed policy bodies fall under two categories designated by the San Francisco Office of the City Attorney document entitled List of City Boards, Commissions, and Advisory Bodies Created by Charter, Ordinance, or Statute.⁸ This document separates San Francisco policy bodies into two different categories. The first category includes Commissions and Boards with decision-making authority and whose members are required to submit financial disclosures with the Ethics Commission, and the second category encompasses Advisory Bodies whose members do not submit financial disclosures with the Ethics Commission. Depending on the analysis criteria in each section of this report, the surveyed policy bodies and appointees are either examined comprehensively as a whole or examined separately in the two categories designated by the Office of the City Attorney.

Data from the U.S. Census 2013-2017 American Community Survey 5-Year Estimates provides a comparison to the San Francisco population. Figures 26 and 27 in the Appendix display these population estimates by race/ethnicity and gender.
