Subject:

Legal representation for tenants facing eviction

The text is listed below or attached:

San Francisco is facing an affordability and housing crisis. The median home price in San Francisco is $1 million and citywide median rental costs for all size units top $3000/month. Hundreds of tenants are evicted each year, and thousands of rent-controlled apartments have been lost in the last decade while luxury condos spring up in every neighborhood. Because there is no vacancy rent control in San Francisco, when a San Franciscan is evicted from his or her home, the City loses one of the most significant sources of price controlled housing that is not vulnerable to the market. Furthermore, because of the enormous cost of housing, when tenants are evicted today, many if not most are forced to leave the city. Finally, studies show that tenants in eviction proceedings are far more likely to remain in their homes if they have legal representation throughout the process. For all these reasons, legal representation for tenants facing eviction is more important than ever.

I request a hearing on the availability of legal assistance and representation for tenants facing eviction in San Francisco. Specifically, I want to know how many housing attorneys are supported by City funding and how many attorneys would be needed so that every tenant facing eviction in San Francisco will have access to legal representation.

Please refer this hearing request to the Budget & Finance Subcommittee. I also request that the clerk of the board forward this request to Jeff Buckley in the Mayor's Office and Brian Cheu in the Mayor's Office of Housing.
