7 WHEREAS, In honor of Latin@ Heritage Month, 2025, the Board of Supervisors
8 recognizes the historical significance of the Mission Cultural Center for Latino Arts (MCCLA)
9 for the Mission District in San Francisco, and for its City-wide importance; and 10

11 WHEREAS, MCCLA has been a beloved institution since 1977, celebrating and 12 representing the vital contributions of the Latine community to culture, art, music, dance, 13 poetry, printmaking, graphic arts, mural arts, theater, and more; and

14 WHEREAS, MCCLA has always stood firm in the belief that culture is not something 15 static, but rather linked to an every-changing future that is reflected by contemporary actions 16 and activities, and as such has been at the cutting edge of artistic expression in San 17 Francisco, since its inception; and

18 WHEREAS, MCCLA continues to host, organize, and participate in the most iconic and 19 world-renowned annual celebrations in San Francisco, including Latine Heritage Community
20 Celebration, el Día de los Muertos/The Day of the Dead Community Celebration in the fall, 21 "Solo Mujeres" annual art exhibition and Carnaval in the Spring, along with daily programming 22 and expositions featuring local legends and Latine artists from the community; and

23 WHEREAS, The building where MCCLA is located, at 2868 Mission Street, is owned 24 by the San Francisco Arts Commission (SFAC) with the express intent of providing an 25 adequate space for this cultural arts institution to safely operate and offer its broad array of

1 classes and workshops for adults and kids, art exhibits, events, podcast and recording studio,
2 Mission Gráfica print studio, where graphic arts are printed using beautifully preserved, 3 antique print machines, and below market rate studio rentals that the community of artists rely 4 on to practice and share their craft with the public; and

5 WHEREAS, The SFAC has long supported MCCLA, one of the vital community-based 6 cultural centers in San Francisco that provide accessible arts opportunities to all San 7 Franciscans and visitors, alongside three other site-based cultural centers on city-owned 8 properties, and two virtual cultural centers, all operated by non-profit arts organizations; and

9 WHEREAS, On March 2, 2022 the Board of Supervisors passed an Ordinance
10 amending the San Francisco Planning Code to designate 2868 Mission Street ("Mission 11 Cultural Center for Latino Arts"), Assessor's Parcel Block No. 6516, Lot No.007, as a San 12 Francisco Landmark under Article 10 of the Planning Code, precisely because of the historical 13 significance, "special character and special historical, architectural, and aesthetic interest and 14 value," and need for future protection of the cultural center; and

15 WHEREAS, The 2868 Mission Street building is in dire need of earthquake retrofit and 16 other identified renovations within the scope of the retrofit project, for which the San Francisco 17 Arts Commission has procured funding to conduct extensive construction, that is expected to 18 begin in 2026; and

19 WHEREAS, Due to this major construction project, MCCLA must move out of the 20 building for the duration, anticipated to take as much as three years to complete; and

21 WHEREAS, MCCLA has continued to demonstrate its artistic creativity by finding ways 22 to operate during their temporary move out to ensure they are able to offer a continuation of 23 robust programming and signature events, with adaptations to meet the circumstances, while 24 maintaining a commitment to providing the public with access to quality arts celebrations, 25 education and expositions; and

1 WHEREAS, MCCLA is painstakingly preserving the historical archives to protect the 2 treasure trove of artistic works for future generations; and

3 WHEREAS, Not only is the historical legacy of this organization a central thread in the 4 cultural fabric of San Francisco, but the guarantee of its future is also equally important to the 5 identify and artistic expression of the City; now therefore be it

6 RESOLVED, The Board of Supervisors recognizes and celebrates MCCLA during 7 Latin@ Heritage Month, and assures the organization of our intent to continue supporting the 8 future of this beloved institution; and be it further

9 RESOLVED, The Board of Supervisors urges the San Francisco Arts Commission to 10 protect the legacy of this legacy cultural institution and provide MCCLA a right to return upon 11 completion of the retrofit construction project.
