8 Be it ordained by the People of the City and County of San Francisco:

9
10 Section 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of the annual salary ordinance or other local law, no
11 new or vacant position may be filled while this ordinance is in effect, except for those positions where 12 the Mayor determines that:

- 13 (i) The position is required for public safety or emergency operations, including public health
- 14 emergencies; or,
- 15 (ii) The position is required by law; or,
- 16 (iii) Filling the position would result in a net increase in revenues, or would be more cost-
- 17 effective than performing the work involved in another manner or foregoing performance
- 18 of the work.

19 The Controller shall report to the Board of Supervisors each month on the fiscal impact of the 20 Mayor's decision to fill any such positions. The Controller shall address the fiscal impact of the 21 positions filled in the current budget year and the anticipated fiscal impact in the upcoming budget
22 year.

23
24 Section 2. The provisions of Section 1 shall not apply to enterprise or non-General Fund
25 departments.
