12 Be it ordained by the People of the City and County of San Francisco:

13 Section 1. Findings.

14 (a) Since 2009, San Francisco has averaged approximately 50 homicides per year.

15 (b) Although the City has a general reward process that applies, in part, to cases of 16 willful misconduct resulting in someone's death, and periodically offers rewards in homicide
17 cases, it does not have a reward fund specifically for unsolved homicides.

18 Section 2. The Administrative Code is hereby amended by adding Section 10.100-306
19 to read as follows:

20 SEC. 10.100-306. SAN FRANCISCO HOMICIDE REWARD FUND.

21 (a) Establishment of Fund. The San Francisco Homicide Reward Fund (the "Fund") is 22 established as a category six fund to receive any monies appropriated or donated for the purpose of 23 providing rewards as set forth in this Section 10.100-306. Donations to the Fund are deemed approved
24 for acceptance and expenditure.

1 (b) Use of Fund. Monies in the fund shall be used exclusively by the Chief of Police in the 2 following manner:

3 (1) The Chief of Police may pay a reward to any person or persons providing 4 information that leads, in the judgment of the Chief after consultation with the District Attorney, to the 5 arrest and conviction of a person for the crimes of murder (Cal. Penal Code Sec. 187, as amended, or 6 any successor legislation) or manslaughter (Cal. Penal Code Sec. 192, as amended, or any successor
7 legislation) committed within the City. If more than one claimant is eligible for a reward under this
8 Section, the Chief of Police may divide the reward in a manner the Chief deems appropriate, but the 9 total reward in connection with a single incident, whether made to one person or divided among 10 several persons, may not exceed $250,000.

11 (2) A person claiming a reward from the Fund may not have participated in the 12 planning, commission, or concealment of the crime, and the information provided by the person must 13 have been unknown to the Police Department or the District Attorney at the time it was provided.

14 (3) The Chief of Police shall pay a reward from the Fund only where the Chief
15 determines, in his or her judgment, that: (A) no one has been charged with the crime for more than one
16 year from the date of the incident; (B) the Police Department has exhausted all investigative leads; and 17 (C) assistance from the public and a reward are necessary to achieve an arrest and conviction for the 18 crime.

19 (4) Rewards are entirely in the Chief of Police's discretion and there is in no
20 circumstance a right to an award. The amount of the reward rests in the discretion of the Chief and 21 shall be based on, among other considerations, the nature of the crime, the length and difficulty of the 22 investigation and prosecution, and the usefulness of the information furnished by the person claiming 23 the reward.

24 (5) For the purposes of this Section 10.100-306, "conviction" shall mean a finding of 25 guilty following a trial, a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, or a plea of guilty or nolo contendere by

1 plea bargaining whether or not the guilty plea or nolo contendere plea is entered for violation of Penal
2 Code Sections 187 or 192.

3 (c) Administration of Fund.

4 (1) Any reference to the Chief of Police in this Section 10.100-306 shall include the 5 Chief's designee.

6 (2) Any individual reward of $100,000 or more shall require Board of Supervisors
7 approval by resolution.

8 (3) The Chief of Police shall submit an annual written report to the Board of 9 Supervisors and the Controller within the first two weeks of July showing donations received, the 10 nature and amount of such donations, and the disposition thereof, together with a description of the 11 individual rewards paid from the Fund.

12 (4) To the extent permitted by law, the Chief of Police may keep confidential
13 information identifying individual reward recipients. This provision shall not be construed to require 14 the Chief to disclose other information that by law may be kept confidential.

15
16 Section 3. Undertaking for the General Welfare. In enacting and implementing this 17 ordinance, the City is assuming an undertaking only to promote the general welfare. It is not 18 assuming, nor is it imposing on its officers and employees, an obligation for breach of which it
19 is liable in money damages to any person who claims that such breach proximately caused 20 injury.
