5 to protect Resident Physicians during COVID-19.

6
7 WHEREAS, Nationwide, Resident Physicians are on the frontline of our hospital

10 WHEREAS, Resident Physicians are medical school graduates who are participating in 11 training in a specialized area of medicine; and

12 WHEREAS, Hospital systems were widely unprepared with sufficient Personal 13 Protective Equipment (PPE) or proper safety procedures and protocols to keep Resident 14 Physicians safe during this global pandemic; and

15 WHEREAS, The Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME), 16 according to its website, “sets standards for US graduate medical education (residency and 17 fellowship) programs and the institutions that sponsor them,” and that “[t]hrough accreditation, 18 innovations, and initiatives, the ACGME strives to ensure that residents and fellows train in 19 educational environments that support patient safety, resident and fellow education, and 20 physician well-being;” and

21 WHEREAS, The ACGME, through its accreditation authority, holds the leverage to 22 ensure hospitals and employers are taking appropriate precautions to keep Resident 23 Physicians safe while they are treating COVID-19 patients; and

24

1 WHEREAS, The Committee of Interns and Residents/SEIU (CIR/SEIU) the union that 2 represents 17,000 Resident Physicians nationally, strives to improve the working conditions of 3 Resident Physicians who are both unionized and nonunionized; and

4 WHEREAS, In the absence of clear directives to protect the health and safety of 5 Resident Physicians at the onset of the COVID-19 crisis, CIR/SEIU released an “Open Letter 6 to the ACGME;” and

11 and/or illness and for anyone who is the caretaker of a person with COVID-19 12 illness, and
- 13 2) Ensuring that resident physicians are appropriately working within their scope of 14 practice and at the top of their licenses; by ensuring residents are not doing triage 15 or nursing work we can maximize physician capacity in this time of crisis, and
- 16 3) Guaranteeing that any changes in rotation or missed time due to COVID-19 will not 17 result in the extension of residency training; and

18 WHEREAS, From the 10 points in the letter, it is also important to highlight the need for

20 that get sick, as well as, disability insurance and protections for especially vulnerable Resident

5 standards that address the 10 points in the CIR/SEIU "Open Letter" and work with CIR/SEIU
