[Commendation of the CCSF football Rams.]

Resolution commending the City College of San Francisco football Rams for winning their third consecutive national Junior College football championship.

WHEREAS, On December 8, 2001, City College of San Francisco defeated Palomar College 61-12 in the California Community College Football Championship; and,

WHEREAS, City College's victory, its third consecutive state championship and its thirty-sixth consecutive victory resulted in City College being named Junior College National Champion for the third consecutive season; and,

WHEREAS, After their convincing victory over Southern California's best team, some commentators have suggested that the 2001 Rams may be the best Junior College football team in history; and,

WHEREAS, During the 25 year tenure of Mr. George Rush, head coach of the Rams, City College has won 4 national championships, 4 state championships, 5 Northern California championships, and 12 conference championships; and,

WHEREAS, In addition to developing the nation's foremost junior college football program, Coach Rush also strongly encourages all his athletes to succeed in the classroom, as demonstrated by the large percentage of his team that attends four year universities after completing the junior college program at City College; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco commends the City College of San Francisco football Rams for winning their third consecutive national Junior College football championship.
