San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

The public is turning against those supervisors who are not ensuring police force is staffed and will be holding all you accountable and voting out those who are against this measure. I'm also voting against any superior court justices who are letting people arrested for committing crimes and not holding them in jail until trial.

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Dear Victor Young,

I am writing to you to express my support of Supervisor Dorsey's San Francisco Police Full Staffing Act and to urge you to vote in support of it.

As San Francisco continues to grapple with severe public safety challenges including rampant car break-ins, shoplifting, and unprecedented open air drug markets, we as a City must do everything we can to increase public safety, including addressing the ongoing officer shortage in the San Francisco Police Department.

Reduced police staffing inhibits SFPD's ability to provide the level of community policing and foot patrols that are needed to help deter crime and enforce our city's laws. This charter amendment will make sure SFPD has the resources needed to attract and hire potential officers, reduce the need for costly overtime, and more effectively address crime.

I hope you will vote in support of this legislation and prioritize the safety of your constituents, as well as residents of and visitors to San Francisco.

Sincerely,
Edward Sullivan

Dear Victor Young,

I am writing to you to express my support of Supervisor Dorsey's San Francisco Police Full Staffing Act and to urge you to vote in support of it.

As San Francisco continues to grapple with severe public safety challenges including rampant car break-ins, shoplifting, and unprecedented open air drug markets, we as a City must do everything we can to increase public safety, including addressing the ongoing officer shortage in the San Francisco Police Department.

Reduced police staffing inhibits SFPD's ability to provide the level of community policing and foot patrols that are needed to help deter crime and enforce our city's laws. This charter amendment will make sure SFPD has the resources needed to attract and hire potential officers, reduce the need for costly overtime, and more effectively address crime.

I hope you will vote in support of this legislation and prioritize the safety of your constituents, as well as residents of and visitors to San Francisco.

Sincerely,
Greg Tolson

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Dear Victor Young,

I am writing to you to express my support of Supervisor Dorsey's San Francisco Police Full Staffing Act and to urge you to vote in support of it.

As San Francisco continues to grapple with severe public safety challenges including rampant car break-ins, shoplifting, and unprecedented open air drug markets, we as a City must do everything we can to increase public safety, including addressing the ongoing officer shortage in the San Francisco Police Department.

Reduced police staffing inhibits SFPD's ability to provide the level of community policing and foot patrols that are needed to help deter crime and enforce our city's laws. This charter amendment will make sure SFPD has the resources needed to attract and hire potential officers, reduce the need for costly overtime, and more effectively address crime.

I hope you will vote in support of this legislation and prioritize the safety of your constituents, as well as residents of and visitors to San Francisco.

Sincerely,
Christopher Stark

We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I have lived in San Francisco for almost 40 years and have watched its level of safety decline. Yet when the police came to protect the attendees at a women's rights conference I attended in September, I was impressed (but not surprised) at their level of competence and professionalism when they dealt with a large number of immature and violent protesters who came to harass us. The event could have resulted in far more harm had the police not been there. We need to support our police department here in San Francisco. Their job is a difficult one.

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. Dear Victor Young,

I am writing to you to express my support of Supervisor Dorsey's San Francisco Police Full Staffing Act and to urge you to vote in support of it.

As San Francisco continues to grapple with severe public safety challenges including rampant car break-ins, shoplifting, and unprecedented open air drug markets, we as a City must do everything we can to increase public safety, including addressing the ongoing officer shortage in the San Francisco Police Department.

Reduced police staffing inhibits SFPD's ability to provide the level of community policing and foot patrols that are needed to help deter crime and enforce our city's laws. This charter amendment will make sure SFPD has the resources needed to attract and hire potential officers, reduce the need for costly overtime, and more effectively address crime.

I hope you will vote in support of this legislation and prioritize the safety of your constituents, as well as residents of and visitors to San Francisco.

Sincerely,

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Dear Victor Young,

I am writing to you to express my support of Supervisor Dorsey's San Francisco Police Full Staffing Act and to urge you to vote in support of it.

As San Francisco continues to grapple with severe public safety challenges including rampant car break-ins, shoplifting, and unprecedented open air drug markets, we as a City must do everything we can to increase public safety, including addressing the ongoing officer shortage in the San Francisco Police Department.

Reduced police staffing inhibits SFPD's ability to provide the level of community policing and foot patrols that are needed to help deter crime and enforce our city's laws. This charter amendment will make sure SFPD has the resources needed to attract and hire potential officers, reduce the need for costly overtime, and more effectively address crime.

I hope you will vote in support of this legislation and prioritize the safety of your constituents, as well as residents of and visitors to San Francisco.

Sincerely,
Bob Britt

Dear Supervisors,

Yes we need more police but where are the SFPD we already have on staff? No where to be seen. They are MIA. Fire the current Police Commissioner while you are at it. The taxpayers of SF are not idiots and you will all be fired if we don't see action.

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Dear Victor Young,

I am writing to you to express my support of Supervisor Dorsey's San Francisco Police Full Staffing Act and to urge you to vote in support of it.

As San Francisco continues to grapple with severe public safety challenges including rampant car break-ins, shoplifting, and unprecedented open air drug markets, we as a City must do everything we can to increase public safety, including addressing the ongoing officer shortage in the San Francisco Police Department.

Reduced police staffing inhibits SFPD's ability to provide the level of community policing and foot patrols that are needed to help deter crime and enforce our city's laws. This charter amendment will make sure SFPD has the resources needed to attract and hire potential officers, reduce the need for costly overtime, and more effectively address crime.

I hope you will vote in support of this legislation and prioritize the safety of your constituents, as well as residents of and visitors to San Francisco.

Sincerely,
Allen Nikka

Dear Supervisors,

Below is a message that I'm guessing you'll get from many folks. I've been living in SF for over 10 years and we need real change, now. We need more focus on public safety - I know a number of my clients (private equity/investment bankers) that don't want to come here and are flocking to New York because of public safety.

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

This message is from outside the City email system. Do not open links or attachments from untrusted sources.

Dear Victor Young,

I am writing to you to express my support of Supervisor Dorsey's San Francisco Police Full Staffing Act and to urge you to vote in support of it.

As San Francisco continues to grapple with severe public safety challenges including rampant car break-ins, shoplifting, and unprecedented open air drug markets, we as a City must do everything we can to increase public safety, including addressing the ongoing officer shortage in the San Francisco Police Department.

Reduced police staffing inhibits SFPD's ability to provide the level of community policing and foot patrols that are needed to help deter crime and enforce our city's laws. This charter amendment will make sure SFPD has the resources needed to attract and hire potential officers, reduce the need for costly overtime, and more effectively address crime.

I hope you will vote in support of this legislation and prioritize the safety of your constituents, as well as residents of and visitors to San Francisco.

Sincerely,
Tague Griffith

Message to the Rules Committee and the Board of Supervisors

From your constituent: Nikki Yoshikawa, nikkiyoshikawa@gmail.com

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Dear Victor Young,

I am writing to you to express my support of Supervisor Dorsey's San Francisco Police Full Staffing Act and to urge you to vote in support of it.

As San Francisco continues to grapple with severe public safety challenges including rampant car break-ins, shoplifting, and unprecedented open air drug markets, we as a City must do everything we can to increase public safety, including addressing the ongoing officer shortage in the San Francisco Police Department.

Reduced police staffing inhibits SFPD's ability to provide the level of community policing and foot patrols that are needed to help deter crime and enforce our city's laws. This charter amendment will make sure SFPD has the resources needed to attract and hire potential officers, reduce the need for costly overtime, and more effectively address crime.

I hope you will vote in support of this legislation and prioritize the safety of your constituents, as well as residents of and visitors to San Francisco.

Sincerely,
Kathryn Duryea

Dear Supervisors,

Just last night our dear neighbor, a mailman serving the city, explained how he had been accosted for the second time and his keys stolen. And that wasn't the worst part of his day. Someone had stolen the catalytic converter from his old Toyota while he was at work. Last night (the same night), multiple business' windows on Irving St. near 9th Ave were smashed, including our hardware store and a few food businesses. These are small, locally owned, neighborhood stores. It has to stop.

Dear Victor Young,

I am writing to you to express my support of Supervisor Dorsey's San Francisco Police Full Staffing Act and to urge you to vote in support of it.

As San Francisco continues to grapple with severe public safety challenges including rampant car break-ins, shoplifting, and unprecedented open air drug markets, we as a City must do everything we can to increase public safety, including addressing the ongoing officer shortage in the San Francisco Police Department.

Reduced police staffing inhibits SFPD's ability to provide the level of community policing and foot patrols that are needed to help deter crime and enforce our city's laws. This charter amendment will make sure SFPD has the resources needed to attract and hire potential officers, reduce the need for costly overtime, and more effectively address crime.

I hope you will vote in support of this legislation and prioritize the safety of your constituents, as well as residents of and visitors to San Francisco.

Sincerely,
Allen Lee

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Dear Victor Young,

I am writing to you to express my support of Supervisor Dorsey's San Francisco Police Full Staffing Act and to urge you to vote in support of it.

As San Francisco continues to grapple with severe public safety challenges including rampant car break-ins, shoplifting, and unprecedented open air drug markets, we as a City must do everything we can to increase public safety, including addressing the ongoing officer shortage in the San Francisco Police Department.

Reduced police staffing inhibits SFPD's ability to provide the level of community policing and foot patrols that are needed to help deter crime and enforce our city's laws. This charter amendment will make sure SFPD has the resources needed to attract and hire potential officers, reduce the need for costly overtime, and more effectively address crime.

I hope you will vote in support of this legislation and prioritize the safety of your constituents, as well as residents of and visitors to San Francisco.

Sincerely,
Steven Solomon

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Dear Victor Young,

I am writing to you to express my support of Supervisor Dorsey's San Francisco Police Full Staffing Act and to urge you to vote in support of it.

As San Francisco continues to grapple with severe public safety challenges including rampant car break-ins, shoplifting, and unprecedented open air drug markets, we as a City must do everything we can to increase public safety, including addressing the ongoing officer shortage in the San Francisco Police Department.

Reduced police staffing inhibits SFPD's ability to provide the level of community policing and foot patrols that are needed to help deter crime and enforce our city's laws. This charter amendment will make sure SFPD has the resources needed to attract and hire potential officers, reduce the need for costly overtime, and more effectively address crime.

I hope you will vote in support of this legislation and prioritize the safety of your constituents, as well as residents of and visitors to San Francisco.

Sincerely,
Susan Fisch

Do this for the residents for whom you work. We don't work for you, you work for us the residents of San Francisco! This city is getting more untenable, unlivable and unaffordable for many of us and you do little to nothing to solve these critical issues. I oppose the Marina Improvement and Remediation Project.

Message

Dear Mayor London Breed, Rec and Park Commissioners, David Chiu-City Attorney, Board of Supervisors, PG&E, PROSAC, and RPD Project Staff,

My family and I oppose the Marina Improvement and Remediation Project. We join nearly 2,700 people who signed a petition opposing this plan.

What we want:

- Abandon plans for a new yacht harbor in front of the Marina Green!
- Clean up toxins in Gas House Cove!
- Renegotiate settlement with PG&E to use funding for restoring and maintaining existing East Harbor facilities!

We attended the August RDP meetings and are concerned we are not being heard!

- The current plan provides a nominal amount of dredging and leaves 85% of the toxic waste in place.
- Residents from the entire Bay Area and all over the world come to the Marina to enjoy the view. Detrimental changes to the area are not isolated to Marina residents.
- Iconic views that attract millions in revenue-generating tourism will be forever eliminated by building a big yacht harbor across the entire Marina Greens. Think America's Cup, Alcatraz Triathlon, and Fleet Week.
- Already horrendous flooding in the Marina during storms may be exacerbated since the project design has not been coordinated with the PUC at this stage.

The diversity of the city is not represented due to bad communication!

- The city is not being transparent; we had to find out from neighbors and other residents about the toxins in the water and full details of the plan
- The diversity of users of the Marina Green is not being represented. Communications by RPD were limited to residents within 1000 feet of the project, yet residents citywide use the Marina Green for recreation.
- The necessary reviews and approvals haven't been completed, yet RPD has publicly referred to it as a "done deal," discouraging feedback.

Please STOP the Marina Improvement and Remediation Project in its current form before it's too late!

We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

This message is from outside the City email system. Do not open links or attachments from untrusted sources.

Dear Victor Young,

I am writing to you to express my support of Supervisor Stefani's Nonprofit Auditing Ordinance and urge you to vote in support of it.

The City currently spends $1.7 billion on contracts with over 600 nonprofits. While many of these organizations provide valuable services to our communities, the City's lack of guidelines for these contracts has resulted in waste and redundancy.

By requiring the Controller to develop guidelines on metrics that must be included in City contracts, it will ensure consistency across the variety of contracts that nonprofits have with the city, thereby enabling that nonprofits to best deliver against clear metrics. Not only is this good governance to hold nonprofits accountable for results, it is needed to enable the City to measure progress towards addressing its most pressing problems, including homelessness and the drug and mental health crisis.

Finally, the high profile collapse of Baker Places and corruption discovered at United Council of Human Services highlights the need for increased oversight of service providers to ensure money is accounted for and is being used effectively to provide our most vulnerable the help they need.

Ultimately, this legislation will help improve oversight of taxpayer money, address the issues faced by nonprofits contracting with the City, and increase public access to information around nonprofit contracts.

I hope you will vote in support of this legislation.

Sincerely,
Rose Jakubaszek

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

Let's be honest.

In the age of citizen reporting and cell phone cameras capturing the police violence that has ALWAYS plagued our country paired with a united and growing call for police accountability and a national protest against police corruption in the wake of George Floyd (among the hundreds of other men and women murdered by police), I ask you this:

Who wants to be a cop? Why are people NOT going to the academy? Think about it.

Locally, let's talk about what SFPD has done to create terrible public perception and turn our young people against them because of the incompetent and brutal abuse of young San Franciscans at the Dolores Park skate event.

No one will forget the massive turn out of officers in RIOT GEAR, getting paid loads of overtime to zip tie kids, let them pee on themselves, and not allow them to even call their parents? Besides being straight up abuse, what horrid PR this was!!

I can't believe I agree with something the original author of this petition mentioned, but the actual work of community safety IS safer when the peace officers LIVE where they work.

However, even with their bloated budget, enormous signing bonuses and pay incentives, can officers ever afford to live here at all anymore?

The housing crisis is real. And when you create an environment with no middle working class, the bottom drops out.

And here we are, a city with a lightening fast wealth gap between our ever-increasing numbers of our poorest, most vulnerable and unhoused folks alongside the ultra-wealthy who wish to criminalize poverty, treat humans like garbage they can throw away, and don't want to see the humanitarian crisis in front of their eyes.

Please work to build more AFFORDABLE and BELOW "market rate" homes, for police, for educators and for all of our hard working class folks who make this city what it is.

Please repair the damage done to kids of SF.

Dorsey, weren't you a public relations guy for SFPD?
How does SFPD repair its relationship to our most vital SF resource? Im not talking about AI here, I'm talking about our kids.

Muriel Huribell should be ashamed of being so dumb that she cannot see the real issues at hand.

I pray you all are smarter, more creative and especially more compassionate than that.

Dear Victor Young,

I am writing to you to express my support of Supervisor Dorsey's San Francisco Police Full Staffing Act and to urge you to vote in support of it.

As San Francisco continues to grapple with severe public safety challenges including rampant car break-ins, shoplifting, and unprecedented open air drug markets, we as a City must do everything we can to increase public safety, including addressing the ongoing officer shortage in the San Francisco Police Department.

Reduced police staffing inhibits SFPD's ability to provide the level of community policing and foot patrols that are needed to help deter crime and enforce our city's laws. This charter amendment will make sure SFPD has the resources needed to attract and hire potential officers, reduce the need for costly overtime, and more effectively address crime.

I hope you will vote in support of this legislation and prioritize the safety of your constituents, as well as residents of and visitors to San Francisco.

350 cops are currently eligible to retire. If they retire tomorrow then the city is 50% under staffed in the police department. It will make the criminals even more emboldened to reign terror on the community.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Dear Victor Young,

I am writing to you to express my support of Supervisor Dorsey's San Francisco Police Full Staffing Act and to urge you to vote in support of it.

As San Francisco continues to grapple with severe public safety challenges including rampant car break-ins, shoplifting, and unprecedented open air drug markets, we as a City must do everything we can to increase public safety, including addressing the ongoing officer shortage in the San Francisco Police Department.

Reduced police staffing inhibits SFPD's ability to provide the level of community policing and foot patrols that are needed to help deter crime and enforce our city's laws. This charter amendment will make sure SFPD has the resources needed to attract and hire potential officers, reduce the need for costly overtime, and more effectively address crime.

I hope you will vote in support of this legislation and prioritize the safety of your constituents, as well as residents of and visitors to San Francisco.

Sincerely,
Spencer Camp

As a homeowner, business owner, landlord, and long term resident and voter of this city the crime and generally lack of respect for any type of law and order in this city has grown to crisis levels. While it's not violent crime, it dramatically affects quality of life. From CONSTANT sideshows on Caesar Chavez to open fentanyl dealing everywhere it's out of hand.

Thanks for your attention to this pressing matter.

Dear Victor Young,

I am writing to you to express my support of Supervisor Dorsey's San Francisco Police Full Staffing Act and to urge you to vote in support of it.

As San Francisco continues to grapple with severe public safety challenges including rampant car break-ins, shoplifting, and unprecedented open air drug markets, we as a City must do everything we can to increase public safety, including addressing the ongoing officer shortage in the San Francisco Police Department.

Reduced police staffing inhibits SFPD's ability to provide the level of community policing and foot patrols that are needed to help deter crime and enforce our city's laws. This charter amendment will make sure SFPD has the resources needed to attract and hire potential officers, reduce the need for costly overtime, and more effectively address crime.

I hope you will vote in support of this legislation and prioritize the safety of your constituents, as well as residents of and visitors to San Francisco.

Sincerely,
Stephanie Hill

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

Property crime is out of control and I'm sick of watching business owners suffer and fail because of it. Drug crimes are another big problem. And of course violence and dangerous behaviors like speeding must also be addressed.

The point is we need a full police presence of our city is to thrive. But we don't have it.

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Dear San Francisco Board of Supervisors:

My name is Ana Canillas. My partner and I are active voters who have invested our lives in San Francisco. We love the City!

Sadly, my neighbors and I are living the seeming destruction of our beautiful City.

We believe the lack of sufficient trained law enforcement staffing greatly contributes to the crime and lawlessness on our streets.

We believe providing sufficient police staffing will go a long way in ensuring public safety.

The data and analysis reported by Supervisor Dorsey, just makes sense by offering solutions to addressing the rampant lawlessness and crimes that common San Franciscans face seemingly without recourse.

We need Police Full Force Staffing.

We agree with Supervisor Dorsey's analysis that current chronic understaffing

- creates needlessly expensive and wasteful inefficiencies as vacant police officer positions more than offset mounting needs for overtime pay to address operational staffing shortages and myriad unforeseen public safety.

We are encouraged by the study presented conclusively demonstrating in measurable benefit-cost ratios that medium-to-large U.S. cities over a 50-year period from 1960 to 2010 concluded that every $1.00 spent on policing generates social benefits and reduced victim costs of approximately $1.63, with the authors of the study adding, "this conclusion is conservative.

Police Full Force Staffing just makes sense

Please join my neighbors and me in supporting File #230985 (Police Full Staffing Charter Amendment).

Thank you for your leadership, consideration and time!

Sincerely,
Ana Canillas

Dear Supervisors,

I would have rewritten the pre Moab text below but it pretty accurately expresses my position and reasoning. We need to clean up the streets if we want that convention and tourist money that is a huge chunk of the city's economy - not to mention attracting businesses to fill the vacant offices - and we need enough cops to do it.

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,
I IMPLORÉ you to take accountability for the current unsafe conditions and overall decline of the city. The first and CRITICAL step to turning the city around is to fully staff the SFPD. Under Peskin's leadership, the supervisors have been ineffective at making meaningful improvements expediently to avoid further exodus from SF downtown/SOMA, the SF tax revenue driver. This is your chance to show the voters that the supervisors can make common sense decisions and care about the future of the city. Policies that are lenient on crime have failed us ALL so stop going down this path and vote to put Supervisors Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD on the ballot in March 2024.

Dear Board of Supervisors,

I am writing in strong support for the Police Full Staffing Charter Amendment (file #230985). I have been a resident of San Francisco since 2015, living first in SOMA and now in Hayes Valley. Since 2020, I have witnessed an increase in crime in my neighborhood and the effects of an understaffed and under-resourced police department. My neighbors and I have witnessed and reported to police open air drug consumption, drug dealing and trafficking, vandalism, theft, residential break-ins, and bike chopping operations. We have also called the non-emergency line multiple times to ask for checks on persons who seemed in distress due to drug consumption or health crises. The police response has been constrained by their limited resources. This is reflected in the time it takes to arrive at the scene (sometimes it can take an hour to get a police drive-by after reporting illegal activity), in their ability to investigate illegal activity (they simply don't have the people and resources to investigate issues), and in their ability to be present and visible in the community in order to deter crime. We urgently need more police officers in our neighborhoods to address crime and safety concerns. I strongly believe this charter amendment will help San Francisco's recovery and the adaptation of this vibrant city to the post-pandemic reality. Thank you for your consideration of this support statement.

Best regards,
Dana Foarta

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Dear Supervisors,

Property crime is out of control and I'm sick of watching business owners suffer and fail because of it. Drug crimes are another big problem. And of course violence and dangerous behaviors like speeding must also be addressed.

The point is we need a full police presence of our city is to thrive. But we don't have it.

If I was in town I would be at the meeting on Monday to personally support this amendment, I hope this message will carry the same importance. As a homeowner, business owner, landlord, and long term resident and voter of this city the crime and generally lack of respect for any type of law and order in this city has grown to crisis levels. While it's not violent crime, it dramatically affects quality of life. From CONSTANT sideshows on Caesar Chavez to open fentanyl dealing everywhere it's out of hand.

Thanks for your attention to this pressing matter.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

A bunch of hiring managers should be fired in the city for not planning for this situation a decade ago.

350 cops are currently eligible to retire. If they retire tomorrow then the city is 50% under staffed in the police department. It will make the criminals even more emboldened to reign terror on the community.

Good morning, Madam/Sir—

I am a resident in the 6th District of San Francisco. Prior to the pandemic, I considered the Tenderloin home for a decade.

I have always appreciated my neighborhoods' gritty history and the long-time institutions that have lent life to this part of San Francisco. In the last two years alone, some of these have closed (thinking of Frena's Bakery around the corner, especially). I suspect that a good reason for this has to do with maintaining a business in an area intensified by pervasive homelessness, petty theft, and open-air drug use.

Among all City agencies, SFPD has been most responsive to my requests to keep sidewalks passable and safe. To the extent that other agencies have not been as accessible to public inquiry (e.g., Public Health, DPW, and Homeless Outreach), local residents have relied on SFPD non-emergency and our local CBDs to address immediate concerns around safety and public hygiene. By default therefore, SFPD and CBDs are forced to stand right in the front lines of day-to-day life. The police have consistently undertaken their work in ways that respect both the needs of pedestrians and the rights of those unhoused. Captain Luke Martin of the Southern Station has proven especially attentive to resident concerns and has met with us several times to explore practical steps to keep our streets passable.

Of late, however, response time has significantly lagged due to shortage in staffing.

Supervisor Dorsey's proposal seeks to return SFPD staffing levels to a workable number in a city the size of San Francisco. This is worth our consideration.

At a time when many of us are interrogating the role of the police in the public square, I am mindful that increased policing is not always the solution to the stability of quotidian life. In light of our City's failure to implement policies to address homelessness, illegal drug use, and public hygiene, however, the SFPD has stepped up to make our streets accessible and livable.

For this reason, I support the inclusion of the Full Staffing Act for voter consideration in the March elections.

Many thanks,
MS Campos

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

Let's be honest.

In the age of citizen reporting and cell phone cameras capturing the police violence that has ALWAYS plagued our country paired with a united and growing call for police accountability and a national protest against police corruption in the wake of George Floyd (among the hundreds of other men and women murdered by police), I ask you this:

Who wants to be a cop? Why are people NOT going to the academy? Think about it.

Locally, let's talk about what SFPD has done to create terrible public perception and turn our young people against them because of the incompetent and brutal abuse of young San Franciscans at the Dolores Park skate event.

No one will forget the massive turn out of officers in RIOT GEAR, getting paid loads of overtime to zip tie kids, let them pee on themselves, and not allow them to even call their parents? Besides being straight up abuse, what horrid PR this was!!

I can't believe I agree with something the original author of this petition mentioned, but the actual work of community safety IS safer when the peace officers LIVE where they work.

However, even with their bloated budget, enormous signing bonuses and pay incentives, can officers ever afford to live here at all anymore?

The housing crisis is real. And when you create an environment with no middle working class, the bottom drops out.

And here we are, a city with a lightening fast wealth gap between our ever-increasing numbers of our poorest, most vulnerable and unhoused folks alongside the ultra-wealthy who wish to criminalize poverty, treat humans like garbage they can throw away, and don't want to see the humanitarian crisis in front of their eyes.

Please work to build more AFFORDABLE and BELOW "market rate" homes, for police, for educators and for all of our hard working class folks who make this city what it is.

Please repair the damage done to kids of SF.

Dorsey, weren't you a public relations guy for SFPD? How does SFPD repair its relationship to our most vital SF resource? Im not talking about AI here, I'm talking about our kids.

Muriel Huribell should be ashamed of being so dumb that she cannot see the real issues at hand.

I pray you all are smarter, more creative and especially more compassionate than that.

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

I fear for my family daily - no one wishes to leave the house day or night.

Please act immediately.

Our lives and property are at stake.

Do this for the residents for whom you work. We don't work for you, you work for us the residents of San Francisco! This city is getting more untenable, unlivable and unaffordable for many of us and you do little to nothing to solve these critical issues. Why should we reelect you when you've done little for us other than give lip service, crickets or the finger behind our backs?

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

I am a longtime San Francisco resident and voter and I DO NOT SUPPORT the police full staffing act.

- 1) SFPD is NOT understaffed. We have the highest number of police officers per capita of any city in California over 100k residents. The city's problems would be better tackled with more (and wiser) social service spending.
- 2) Our "crime epidemic" is not a real thing borne out by data. Our tax money would be better spent on PR to claw back some of the tourism we lose due to this crime epidemic myth.
- 3) Most importantly, our police have difficulty recruiting because of their bad behavior and poor reputation. We need real reforms to make SFPD a corps of better trained, more accountable, and more representative public servants. If people in this city looked up to the police as opposed to viewing them as an adversary or an occupying force, much of our supposed staffing problem would be solved free of charge.

Sincerely,
Chrissy Shively

Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

Just last night our dear neighbor, a mailman serving the city, explained how he had been accosted for the second time and his keys stolen. And that wasn't the worst part of his day. Someone had stolen the catalytic converter from his old Toyota while he was at work. Last night (the same night), multiple business' windows on Irving St. near 9th Ave were smashed, including our hardware store and a few food businesses. These are small, locally owned, neighborhood stores. It has to stop.

It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

Below is a message that I'm guessing you'll get from many folks. I've been living in SF for over 10 years and we need real change, now. We need more focus on public safety - I know a number of my clients (private equity/investment bankers) that don't want to come here and are flocking to New York because of public safety.

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

Dear Supervisors,

Yes we need more police but where are the SFPD we already have on staff? No where to be seen. They are MIA.

Fire the current Police Commissioner while you are at it.

The taxpayers of SF are not idiots and you will all be fired if we don't see action.

Supervisor Rafael Mandelman
District 8.
San Francisco Board of Supervisors

Dear Rafael:

Corbett Heights Neighbors organization, (CHN) supports this proposed amendment, in concept, and urges your positive action on it.

While recognizing it does not resolve all aspects and issues of the complex policing question, it is an important step forward in an effort to halt and then begin to reverse the serious decline of public safety and related conditions in San Francisco.

As you know, CHN has represented the NW Eureka Valley for nearly 20 years. The CHN Board of Directors, members of which are elected annually by the membership, read the proposed Amendment text, the Legislative Digest and related materials and held and in-person discussion attended by all members of our Board before taking this position. The vote was unanimous.

Thank you.

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Supervisors Dorsey, Safai and Walton
Rules Committee
San Francisco Board of Supervisors

Corbett Heights Neighbors organization, (CHN) supports this proposed amendment, in concept, and urges your positive action on it.

While recognizing it does not resolve all aspects and issues of the complex policing question, it is an important step forward in an effort to halt and then begin to reverse the serious decline of public safety and related conditions in San Francisco.

CHN has represented the NW Eureka Valley for nearly 20 years. The CHN Board of Directors, member of which are elected annually by the membership, read the proposed Amendment text, the Legislative Digest and related materials and held an in-person discussion attended by all members of our Board before taking this position. The vote was unanimous.

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I have lived in San Francisco for almost 40 years and have watched its level of safety decline. Yet when the police came to protect the attendees at a women's rights conference I attended in September, I was impressed (but not surprised) at their level of competence and professionalism when they dealt with a large number of immature and violent protesters who came to harass us. The event could have resulted in far more harm had the police not been there. We need to support our police department here in San Francisco. Their job is a difficult one.

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

The public is turning against those supervisors who are not ensuring police force is staffed and will be holding all you accountable and voting out those who are against this measure. I'm also voting against any superior court justices who are letting people arrested for committing crimes and not holding them in jail until trial.

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We are in a public safety crisis and cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force.

Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

Solving the police shortage will simply not happen without this Charter Amendment.

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Dear Supervisors,

While we all know policing is a fraught issue, I do support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. Please unite as a BOS on this issue to show us you care about our safety and to show the world we are not a broken liberal city.

We all know where the most dangerous areas are—I was attacked in my car at the intersection of Geary and Divisadero by a man who repeatedly tried to kick in my driver's side window, at 9am on a weekday—and there should be regular patrols who have ties to the neighborhoods they are in.

Long-term residents are finding it increasingly difficult to balance the risks of living here with the rewards. And downtown has made us a national punchline. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. And for everyone's safety, additional funds should be set aside for increased training of these officers. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

ACTUALLY READ THIS

I'm tired of hearing about incidents of police misconduct as justification for not hiring more police officers. These are two separate issues and it is insulting to hear some of you try to conflate them. I support the full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. Re: Vote No on Agenda Item 1 (Charter Amendment No. 230985) on the Board of Supervisors Rules Committee for Monday October 23, 2023

Dear Supervisors Dorsey, Walton, and Safai:

On Monday during the Rules Committee meeting, you will vote on whether to approve the proposed amendment to the City Charter, titled “Minimum Police Department Staffing and Five-Year Annual Funding Requirement,” that would restore minimum police staffing levels, create a five-year funding requirement, and establish a “Police Full Staffing Fund.” The legislation is regressive and is an attempt, along with other efforts, to give SFPD free reign to police as it sees fit, plainly ignoring the fact that SFPD was directed by the United States Department of Justice and then the California Department of Justice to implement significant changes to its practices. I therefore strongly recommend you reconsider this measure, vote “no,” and do not place it on the ballot.

A Solution in Search of a Problem

To start, the legislation is inflexible, lacks clear metrics and accountability, and effectively gives SFPD unprecedented access to the City’s coffers at a time when the City is projecting a $780MM budget deficit¹ while the Mayor has directed city departments to cut their budgets mid-year.² The legislation locks the City into specific staffing increases—i.e., 100 additional officers annually for the next five years—without explaining why those proposed increases are justified beyond the broad, previously challenged³ claim that SFPD is understaffed.

Moreover, this legislation, without new evidence, directly undermines the express will of voters who just three years ago passed Prop E to remove the minimum staffing levels with more than 70% support.⁴ Voters then knew what we still know: having a fixed number of officers is “detached from financial or social reality”⁵ and a “hard-and-fast number [of officers] shouldn’t be the rule.”⁶ Dropping the set minimum number of officers was an “obvious change that the city should have made years ago.”⁷ Board President Norman Yee was right to say that the city should use “a thoughtful process for determining police staffing levels” and should “remove the handcuffs that this mandatory minimum staffing requirement” places on San Franciscans.⁸

The ballot initiative also fails to explain why SFPD response times have gotten worse long before the supposed staffing crisis: “The police department has consistently missed its goals for response times on all manner of calls, and is missing them by more every year. And that was the case even before money and personnel issues grew dire.”⁹ That mirrors other anecdotal evidence where civilians have noted¹⁰ and complained¹¹ that officers simply are not doing their jobs,¹² which has [at best] little to do with how many officers SFPD employs. The data also suggests that SFPD is ineffective at solving property crimes as the “general pattern over the past 10 years is a steady, gradual decline in property crime clearance rates, irrespective of police [staffing levels].”¹³ Why should a department with this track record continue to be the beneficiary of the public’s money? This legislation is a solution to a different problem while ignoring the issues currently plaguing this department.

Little Meaningful Oversight or Accountability

How should SFPD manage this windfall should the legislation be adopted by City voters? The legislation is entirely silent. Instead, the legislation orders the Police Commission—the entity tasked under the City Charter to set the policy and direction for SFPD—to blindly accept SFPD’s budgetary requests and to limit any reductions to SFPD’s budget to no more than 5% absent a two-thirds vote. This legislation should be seen in the context of other efforts to weaken the Commission, paint it as a driving force behind the serious issues impacting San Francisco, and remove key oversight and accountability for a department that has long required it.

Similarly, the proposed “Fund” provides SFPD with open-ended discretion to spend precious public resources on “recruitment and hiring efforts, advertising, development and administration of hiring strategies, and funding hiring incentive for new police officers.” Conspicuously, the legislation is silent on metrics to measure effectiveness, whether SFPD is required to explain how it used the funds, or what it used the funds on. It is also fair to wonder if this fund will be used for other purposes such as creating a reality show about SFPD officers for “advertising” purposes.¹⁴

These efforts are aimed at allowing the police to, in effect, police themselves. They have done nothing to earn that privilege.

Throwing Good Money After Bad

The Board should be skeptical of allowing SFPD to govern its own affairs and of continuing to invest huge sums of public funds into a department with a track record of misconduct. Just recently, several officers were accused of falsifying traffic stop data,¹⁵ which may show that SFPD’s already inexcusable racial disparities in stops, searches, and seizures are underreported. During the pandemic, dozens of officers were fired because they refused to receive the COVID-19 vaccine,¹⁶ raising serious questions about whether SFPD’s staffing crisis is, in part, self-made. Since 2016, SFPD has stashed dozens of problem officers away who cannot perform their Charter duty to “preserve the public peace, prevent and detect crime, and protect the rights of persons and property” in so-called “rubber rooms” while the City has paid upwards of $16MM in salary for those officers.¹⁷ Similarly, the City has paid $70MM to settle claims against SFPD officers. None of this money comes from SFPD’s budget. Perhaps it should.

Adding more officers with a weakened oversight and accountability systems is a recipe to waste more public funds. A retired SFPD veteran put it this way:

“Forty years ago, when I became a cop, the job had a better rep, cops had more autonomy and less accountability. That’s not a good thing, but there was an attraction there. When I was a rookie cop, we knew we could get away with whatever we wanted. And we did.”¹⁸

We cannot return to that San Francisco.

Falling into Old, Bad Habits

Instead of inflating an already large department—and particularly in the current economic climate—the City should reinvigorate its search for more effective and cost-efficient alternatives to policing.¹⁹ With a claimed officer shortfall and small academy classes, an immediate way to reduce officer workload while preserving transparency and accountability is enacting policies such as the limitation on pretext stops. According to detailed analysis conducted by SPUR, SFPD conducts tens of thousands of stops for minor infractions such as broken tail lights but rarely recovers contraband.²⁰ To further reduce burdens on officer time, instead of creating more time through increased staffing, invest in evidence-based alternatives to policing via a “Community Violence Intervention” model.²¹ Importantly, such models are overwhelmingly popular with the public as an alternative to police-only interventions.²² Or consider Denver’s approach to mental health calls for service: sending mental health specialists instead of police to address substance use and nonviolent emergencies reduced some crimes by as much as 34%.²³ San Francisco can follow their lead and expand our Street Crisis Response Teams so that we can provide care 24/7.

The City should remain focused on addressing the root causes of crime—housing, job, education, and healthcare insecurity—and not on solutions that worsen public safety. Study after study shows that creating supportive housing reduces arrests for offenses associated with experiencing homelessness.²⁴ The same is true of investing in underserved communities by providing job opportunities and access to healthcare. Given the challenging environment to hire officers nationwide as noted criminologist Jeff Asher has observed,²⁵ investing in alternatives is altogether more important.

Our community thrives when we put people first, not economic interests enforced by an armed-to-the-teeth police department. While the legislation speaks to lofty goals, it is woefully short on details explaining why an increase in SFPD is justified, why this level of increase is justified, and why alternatives should be eschewed in favor of continued investment in a scandal-plagued department. Consequently, I urge you to vote NO on this legislation today.

Respectfully Submitted,

Dear Victor Young,

I am writing to you to express my support of Supervisor Dorsey's San Francisco Police Full Staffing Act and to urge you to vote in support of it.

As San Francisco continues to grapple with severe public safety challenges including rampant car break-ins, shoplifting, and unprecedented open air drug markets, we as a City must do everything we can to increase public safety, including addressing the ongoing officer shortage in the San Francisco Police Department.

Reduced police staffing inhibits SFPD's ability to provide the level of community policing and foot patrols that are needed to help deter crime and enforce our city's laws. This charter amendment will make sure SFPD has the resources needed to attract and hire potential officers, reduce the need for costly overtime, and more effectively address crime.

I hope you will vote in support of this legislation and prioritize the safety of your constituents, as well as residents of and visitors to San Francisco.

Sincerely,
Emma Stewart

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I IMPLORE you to take accountability for the current unsafe conditions and overall decline of the city. The first and CRITICAL step to turning the city around is to fully staff the SFPD. Under Peskin's leadership, the supervisors have been ineffective at making meaningful improvements expediently to avoid further exodus from SF downtown/SOMA, the SF tax revenue driver. This is your chance to show the voters that the supervisors can make common sense decisions and care about the future of the city. Policies that are lenient on crime have failed us ALL so stop going down this path and vote to put Supervisors Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD on the ballot in March 2024.

We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Dear Victor Young,

I am writing to you to express my support of Supervisor Dorsey's San Francisco Police Full Staffing Act and to urge you to vote in support of it.

As San Francisco continues to grapple with severe public safety challenges including rampant car break-ins, shoplifting, and unprecedented open air drug markets, we as a City must do everything we can to increase public safety, including addressing the ongoing officer shortage in the San Francisco Police Department.

Reduced police staffing inhibits SFPD's ability to provide the level of community policing and foot patrols that are needed to help deter crime and enforce our city's laws. This charter amendment will make sure SFPD has the resources needed to attract and hire potential officers, reduce the need for costly overtime, and more effectively address crime.

I hope you will vote in support of this legislation and prioritize the safety of your constituents, as well as residents of and visitors to San Francisco.

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Dear Supervisors,

I would have rewritten the pre Moab text below but it pretty accurately expresses my position and reasoning. We need to clean up the streets if we want that convention and tourist money that is a huge chunk of the city's economy - not to mention attracting businesses to fill the vacant offices - and we need enough cops to do it.

Dear Victor Young,

I am writing to you to express my support of Supervisor Dorsey's San Francisco Police Full Staffing Act and to urge you to vote in support of it.

As San Francisco continues to grapple with severe public safety challenges including rampant car break-ins, shoplifting, and unprecedented open air drug markets, we as a City must do everything we can to increase public safety, including addressing the ongoing officer shortage in the San Francisco Police Department.

Reduced police staffing inhibits SFPD's ability to provide the level of community policing and foot patrols that are needed to help deter crime and enforce our city's laws. This charter amendment will make sure SFPD has the resources needed to attract and hire potential officers, reduce the need for costly overtime, and more effectively address crime.

I hope you will vote in support of this legislation and prioritize the safety of your constituents, as well as residents of and visitors to San Francisco.

Sincerely,
JConr Ortega

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

This message is from outside the City email system. Do not open links or attachments from untrusted sources.

Dear Victor Young,

I am writing to you to express my support of Supervisor Dorsey's San Francisco Police Full Staffing Act and to urge you to vote in support of it.

As San Francisco continues to grapple with severe public safety challenges including rampant car break-ins, shoplifting, and unprecedented open air drug markets, we as a City must do everything we can to increase public safety, including addressing the ongoing officer shortage in the San Francisco Police Department.

Reduced police staffing inhibits SFPD's ability to provide the level of community policing and foot patrols that are needed to help deter crime and enforce our city's laws. This charter amendment will make sure SFPD has the resources needed to attract and hire potential officers, reduce the need for costly overtime, and more effectively address crime.

I hope you will vote in support of this legislation and prioritize the safety of your constituents, as well as residents of and visitors to San Francisco.

Sincerely,
Herbert Stackhouse

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Hello,

I am a San Francisco resident that works in civic center. I used to teach in our public schools. We do not need more bonuses for police, but we absolutely need funds for educating our children. It is absolutely absurd that we spend over a billion dollars a year on criminalization when so many educators make tens of thousands of dollars below a living wage, and thousands of students leave school hungry and homeless daily. If we want to change this city we need to change our priorities back to supporting students and families.

I am asking you to please vote no on Dorsey's charter amendment. Put community over criminalization.

- Amelia Tehrani

Best wishes,
Golzar Tehrani

Dear Supervisors,

I FO NOT support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. San Francisco has too many poorly trained police officers who think that they are immune from consequences. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop while they continue to poorly perform their duties since they do not have any consequences to poor performance. When and if they will agree that they exist to serve the people of San Francisco without qualified immunity or criminal indemnification, then we can move forward and reform the current institution.

San Franciscans prioritize public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

More funding leads to more military grade hardware, which we do not need. And more staffing will happen with better educated, and trained officers who seek to serve the residents of San Francisco.

Dear Victor Young,

I am writing to you to express my support of Supervisor Dorsey's San Francisco Police Full Staffing Act and to urge you to vote in support of it.

As San Francisco continues to grapple with severe public safety challenges including rampant car break-ins, shoplifting, and unprecedented open air drug markets, we as a City must do everything we can to increase public safety, including addressing the ongoing officer shortage in the San Francisco Police Department.

Reduced police staffing inhibits SFPD's ability to provide the level of community policing and foot patrols that are needed to help deter crime and enforce our city's laws. This charter amendment will make sure SFPD has the resources needed to attract and hire potential officers, reduce the need for costly overtime, and more effectively address crime.

I hope you will vote in support of this legislation and prioritize the safety of your constituents, as well as residents of and visitors to San Francisco.

Sincerely,
Herbert Stackhouse

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Dear Victor Young,

I am writing to you to express my support of Supervisor Dorsey's San Francisco Police Full Staffing Act and to urge you to vote in support of it.

As San Francisco continues to grapple with severe public safety challenges including rampant car break-ins, shoplifting, and unprecedented open air drug markets, we as a City must do everything we can to increase public safety, including addressing the ongoing officer shortage in the San Francisco Police Department.

Reduced police staffing inhibits SFPD's ability to provide the level of community policing and foot patrols that are needed to help deter crime and enforce our city's laws. This charter amendment will make sure SFPD has the resources needed to attract and hire potential officers, reduce the need for costly overtime, and more effectively address crime.

I hope you will vote in support of this legislation and prioritize the safety of your constituents, as well as residents of and visitors to San Francisco.

Sincerely,
Hazel Mayorga

Hello,

I am a San Francisco resident that works in civic center. I used to teach in our public schools. We do not need more bonuses for police, but we absolutely need funds for educating our children. It is absolutely absurd that we spend over a billion dollars a year on criminalization when so many educators make tens of thousands of dollars below a living wage, and thousands of students leave school hungry and homeless daily. If we want to change this city we need to change our priorities back to supporting students and families.

I am asking you to please vote no on Dorsey's charter amendment. Put community over criminalization.

- Amelia Tehrani

Best wishes,
Golzar Tehrani

Dear Supervisors,

I FO NOT support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. San Francisco has too many poorly trained police officers who think that they are immune from consequences. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop while they continue to poorly perform their duties since they do not have any consequences to poor performance. When and if they will agree that they exist to serve the people of San Francisco without qualified immunity or criminal indemnification, then we can move forward and reform the current institution.

San Franciscans prioritize public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

More funding leads to more military grade hardware, which we do not need. And more staffing will happen with better educated, and trained officers who seek to serve the residents of San Francisco.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Dear Victor Young,

I am writing to you to express my support of Supervisor Dorsey's San Francisco Police Full Staffing Act and to urge you to vote in support of it.

As San Francisco continues to grapple with severe public safety challenges including rampant car break-ins, shoplifting, and unprecedented open air drug markets, we as a City must do everything we can to increase public safety, including addressing the ongoing officer shortage in the San Francisco Police Department.

Reduced police staffing inhibits SFPD's ability to provide the level of community policing and foot patrols that are needed to help deter crime and enforce our city's laws. This charter amendment will make sure SFPD has the resources needed to attract and hire potential officers, reduce the need for costly overtime, and more effectively address crime.

I hope you will vote in support of this legislation and prioritize the safety of your constituents, as well as residents of and visitors to San Francisco.

Sincerely,
Mercedes Ho

Message: I support Supervisor Safai's Charter Amendment that would give Mayoral approval over parking meter and other transportation fees and fares.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Safai's Charter Amendment for the March 5, 2024 election that would require the Mayor of San Francisco to approve any proposed increases to SFMTA fares, parking meter maximum rates, and hours or days of operation.

No single unelected city department head should have the sole authority to increase our parking or fare rates. To correct this, the proposed Charter Amendment requires the Mayor to approve any fare, parking, or MUNI rate increases put into the SFMTA budget, placing the authority back on elected leaders. Transportation fees significantly impact the lives of residents, and businesses, particularly those in lower-income areas, and when fees need to be changed, this decision should be made by our mayor, who can take all factors and constituents into consideration.

Please vote to support this Charter Amendment.

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Dear Supervisor Safai,

I am writing to vehemently OPPOSE your amendment to Supervisor Dorsey's SFPD staffing plan. Increasing our taxes to solve the SFPD staffing crisis is irresponsible and demonstrates a disregard for residents who struggle to afford to live in San Francisco, and who expect public safety and a fully staffed police department to be part of the basic city services we already pay for.

We need the restoration of public safety now so that residents and business owners can feel reasonably safe again. This is a top priority for the majority of San Franciscans, and a fully staffed police force is needed to do the work that is necessary.

The net amount needed to fund the ORIGINAL Dorsey Charter amendment is estimated to be $20M annually (after accounting for overtime savings).

We are hard-pressed to believe that the money couldn't be found in the city budget. Perhaps you should consider ending the funding of just one ineffective non-profit annually to cover that cost.

You have recently overseen a city budget that has DOUBLED since 2017, and you are telling the working residents of San Francisco that taxes must be raised for the city to provide basic law enforcement services and address a public safety crisis that city leaders should have handled long ago.

This is unacceptable and outrageous.

I do not support your amendment that guts Supervisor Dorsey's charter amendment for SFPD staffing and request that you withdraw it immediately or kill the bill

entirely.

Dear Supervisor Safai,

Really? This is unbelievable. You want to increase our taxes because we want a fully staffed police force? We have a budget larger than entire states. You want to run for mayor and are asking to increase our taxes when we are asking for the BASIC services that a city should provide each and everyone on of their constituents? There is plenty of money in the budget. Please use it wisely and increasing taxes so the taxpayers can be provided with a fully staffed police force is unreasonable when we have a budget of 14.6 billion. I am 100 percent sure the money is there. We will remember this when it's time to vote.

We need the restoration of public safety now so that residents and business owners can feel reasonably safe again. This is a top priority for the majority of San Franciscans, and a fully staffed police force is needed to do the work that is necessary.

The net amount needed to fund the ORIGINAL Dorsey Charter amendment is estimated to be $20M annually (after accounting for overtime savings).

We are hard-pressed to believe that the money couldn't be found in the city budget. Perhaps you should consider ending the funding of just one ineffective non-profit annually to cover that cost.

You have recently overseen a city budget that has DOUBLED since 2017, and you are telling the working residents of San Francisco that taxes must be raised for the city to provide basic law enforcement services and address a public safety crisis that city leaders should have handled long ago.

This is unacceptable and outrageous.

I do not support your amendment that guts Supervisor Dorsey's charter amendment for SFPD staffing and request that you withdraw it immediately or kill the bill

entirely.

Dear Supervisor Safai,

I am writing to vehemently OPPOSE your amendment to Supervisor Dorsey's SFPD staffing plan. Increasing our taxes to solve the SFPD staffing crisis is irresponsible and demonstrates a disregard for residents who struggle to afford to live in San Francisco, and who expect public safety and a fully staffed police department to be part of the basic city services we already pay for.

The net amount needed to fund the ORIGINAL Dorsey Charter amendment is estimated to be $20M annually (after accounting for overtime savings).

We are hard-pressed to believe that the money couldn't be found in the city budget. Perhaps you should consider ending the funding of just one ineffective non-profit annually to cover that cost.

You have recently overseen a city budget that has DOUBLED since 2017, and you are telling the working residents of San Francisco that taxes must be raised for the city to provide basic law enforcement services and address a public safety crisis that city leaders should have handled long ago.

This is unacceptable and outrageous.

I do not support your amendment that guts Supervisor Dorsey's charter amendment for SFPD staffing and request that you withdraw it immediately or kill the bill

entirely.

Message: I OPPOSE Safai's charter amendment to increase taxes to solve the SFPD staffing crisis.

Dear Supervisor Safai,

I am writing to vehemently OPPOSE your amendment to Supervisor Dorsey's SFPD staffing plan. Increasing our taxes to solve the SFPD staffing crisis is irresponsible and demonstrates a disregard for residents who struggle to afford to live in San Francisco, and who expect public safety and a fully staffed police department to be part of the basic city services we already pay for.

We need the restoration of public safety now so that residents and business owners can feel reasonably safe again. This is a top priority for the majority of San Franciscans, and a fully staffed police force is needed to do the work that is necessary.

The net amount needed to fund the ORIGINAL Dorsey Charter amendment is estimated to be $20M annually (after accounting for overtime savings).

Message: I OPPOSE Safai's charter amendment to increase taxes to solve the SFPD staffing crisis.

Dear Supervisor Safai,

I am writing to vehemently OPPOSE your amendment to Supervisor Dorsey's SFPD staffing plan. Increasing our taxes to solve the SFPD staffing crisis is irresponsible and demonstrates a disregard for residents who struggle to afford to live in San Francisco, and who expect public safety and a fully staffed police department to be part of the basic city services we already pay for.

We need the restoration of public safety now so that residents and business owners can feel reasonably safe again. This is a top priority for the majority of San Franciscans, and a fully staffed police force is needed to do the work that is necessary.

The net amount needed to fund the ORIGINAL Dorsey Charter amendment is estimated to be $20M annually (after accounting for overtime savings).

We are hard-pressed to believe that the money couldn't be found in the city budget. Perhaps you should consider ending the funding of just one ineffective non-profit annually to cover that cost.

You have recently overseen a city budget that has DOUBLED since 2017, and you are telling the working residents of San Francisco that taxes must be raised for the city to provide basic law enforcement services and address a public safety crisis that city leaders should have handled long ago.

This is unacceptable and outrageous.

I do not support your amendment that guts Supervisor Dorsey's charter amendment for SFPD staffing and request that you withdraw it immediately or kill the bill

entirely.

Message to the Rules Committee and the Board of Supervisors

From your constituent: Christina Pappas, scoutca66@gmail.com

I am a resident of District 1

Message: I OPPOSE Safai's charter amendment to increase taxes to solve the SFPD staffing crisis.

Dear Supervisor Safai,

I am writing to vehemently OPPOSE your amendment to Supervisor Dorsey's SFPD staffing plan. Increasing our taxes to solve the SFPD staffing crisis is irresponsible and demonstrates a disregard for residents who struggle to afford to live in San Francisco, and who expect public safety and a fully staffed police department to be part of the basic city services we already pay for.

We need the restoration of public safety now so that residents and business owners can feel reasonably safe again. This is a top priority for the majority of San Franciscans, and a fully staffed police force is needed to do the work that is necessary.

The net amount needed to fund the ORIGINAL Dorsey Charter amendment is estimated to be $20M annually (after accounting for overtime savings).

We are hard-pressed to believe that the money couldn't be found in the city budget. Perhaps you should consider ending the funding of just one ineffective non-profit annually to cover that cost.

You have recently overseen a city budget that has DOUBLED since 2017, and you are telling the working residents of San Francisco that taxes must be raised for the city to provide basic law enforcement services and address a public safety crisis that city leaders should have handled long ago.

This is unacceptable and outrageous.

I do not support your amendment that guts Supervisor Dorsey's charter amendment for SFPD staffing and request that you withdraw it immediately or kill the bill

entirely.

Dear Supervisor Safai,

I am writing to vehemently OPPOSE your amendment to Supervisor Dorsey's SFPD staffing plan. Increasing our taxes to solve the SFPD staffing crisis is irresponsible and demonstrates a disregard for residents who struggle to afford to live in San Francisco, and who expect public safety and a fully staffed police department to be part of the basic city services we already pay for.

We need the restoration of public safety now so that residents and business owners can feel reasonably safe again. This is a top priority for the majority of San Franciscans, and a fully staffed police force is needed to do the work that is necessary.

The net amount needed to fund the ORIGINAL Dorsey Charter amendment is estimated to be $20M annually (after accounting for overtime savings).

We are hard-pressed to believe that the money couldn't be found in the city budget. Perhaps you should consider ending the funding of just one ineffective non-profit annually to cover that cost.

You have recently overseen a city budget that has DOUBLED since 2017, and you are telling the working residents of San Francisco that taxes must be raised for the city to provide basic law enforcement services and address a public safety crisis that city leaders should have handled long ago.

This is unacceptable and outrageous.

I do not support your amendment that guts Supervisor Dorsey's charter amendment for SFPD staffing and request that you withdraw it immediately or kill the bill

entirely.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

The net amount needed to fund the ORIGINAL Dorsey Charter amendment is estimated to be $20M annually (after accounting for overtime savings).

We are hard-pressed to believe that the money couldn't be found in the city budget. Perhaps you should consider ending the funding of just one ineffective non-profit annually to cover that cost.

You have recently overseen a city budget that has DOUBLED since 2017, and you are telling the working residents of San Francisco that taxes must be raised for the city to provide basic law enforcement services and address a public safety crisis that city leaders should have handled long ago.

This is unacceptable and outrageous.

I do not support your amendment that guts Supervisor Dorsey's charter amendment for SFPD staffing and request that you withdraw it immediately or kill the bill

entirely.

Message: I OPPOSE Safai's charter amendment to increase taxes to solve the SFPD staffing crisis.

Dear Supervisor Safai,

I am writing to vehemently OPPOSE your amendment to Supervisor Dorsey's SFPD staffing plan. Increasing our taxes to solve the SFPD staffing crisis is irresponsible and demonstrates a disregard for residents who struggle to afford to live in San Francisco, and who expect public safety and a fully staffed police department to be part of the basic city services we already pay for.

We need the restoration of public safety now so that residents and business owners can feel reasonably safe again. This is a top priority for the majority of San Franciscans, and a fully staffed police force is needed to do the work that is necessary.

The net amount needed to fund the ORIGINAL Dorsey Charter amendment is estimated to be $20M annually (after accounting for overtime savings).

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Dear Supervisors,

I FO NOT support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. San Francisco has too many poorly trained police officers who think that they are immune from consequences. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop while they continue to poorly perform their duties since they do not have any consequences to poor performance. When and if they will agree that they exist to serve the people of San Francisco without qualified immunity or criminal indemnification, then we can move forward and reform the current institution.

San Franciscans prioritize public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

More funding leads to more military grade hardware, which we do not need. And more staffing will happen with better educated, and trained officers who seek to serve the residents of San Francisco.

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Message: I Support Supervisor Dorsey's Full Staffing Amendment, and You Should Too.

Dear Supervisors,

I support Supervisor Dorsey's full staffing amendment for SFPD and hope you will vote to put it on the ballot in March 2024. We cannot regain the city's reputation as a safe destination to live, work, visit, and shop if we do not have a fully staffed police force. Supervisor Dorsey's plan has short-, medium-, and long-range solutions to quickly fill the current gaps in personnel while making retention and recruitment possible and probable.

San Franciscans have prioritized public safety because we understand how vital it is to the success and achievement of every other industry and quality of life metric. Having our officers live in the neighborhoods they serve strengthens each community and the entire city. It is time to show our SFPD we value each and every officer, and it is long overdue that we take steps to help our officers live in the city they patrol each day. Please listen to your constituents who have repeatedly requested more funding for the police and more staffing of SFPD.

Message: I OPPOSE Safai's charter amendment to increase taxes to solve the SFPD staffing crisis.

Dear Supervisor Safai,

I am writing to vehemently OPPOSE your amendment to Supervisor Dorsey's SFPD staffing plan. Increasing our taxes to solve the SFPD staffing crisis is irresponsible and demonstrates a disregard for residents who struggle to afford to live in San Francisco, and who expect public safety and a fully staffed police department to be part of the basic city services we already pay for.

We need the restoration of public safety now so that residents and business owners can feel reasonably safe again. This is a top priority for the majority of San Franciscans, and a fully staffed police force is needed to do the work that is necessary.

The net amount needed to fund the ORIGINAL Dorsey Charter amendment is estimated to be $20M annually (after accounting for overtime savings).

We are hard-pressed to believe that the money couldn't be found in the city budget. Perhaps you should consider ending the funding of just one ineffective non-profit annually to cover that cost.

You have recently overseen a city budget that has DOUBLED since 2017, and you are telling the working residents of San Francisco that taxes must be raised for the city to provide basic law enforcement services and address a public safety crisis that city leaders should have handled long ago.

This is unacceptable and outrageous.

I do not support your amendment that guts Supervisor Dorsey's charter amendment for SFPD staffing and request that you withdraw it immediately or kill the bill

entirely.

Dear Victor Young,

I am writing to you to express my opposition to the San Francisco Police Full Staffing Act as amended by Supervisor Safai and to urge you to vote against it.

Safai's amendment ties increased public safety to an unknown future tax that voters must approve and leaves the legislation without an actual funding source. Asking voters to raise taxes in order to get a fully staffed police department, a basic city service that should be included in a $14 billion budget, is both bad budgetary policy and bad governance.

As San Francisco continues to grapple with severe public safety challenges including rampant car break-ins, shoplifting, and unprecedented open air drug markets, we as a City must do everything we can to increase public safety, including addressing the ongoing officer shortage in the San Francisco Police Department.

Unfortunately due to Supervisor Safai's amendment, this legislation will not help us address these issues, but instead prevent SFPD from recruiting and hiring the officers needed to keep residents and small business owners safe.

I hope you will vote in opposition to this legislation and work with Supervisor Dorsey to draft legislation that will actually prioritize the safety of your constituents, as well as residents of and visitors to San Francisco.

Sincerely,
George Cavage

The net amount needed to fund the ORIGINAL Dorsey Charter amendment is estimated to be $20M annually (after accounting for overtime savings).

We are hard-pressed to believe that the money couldn't be found in the city budget. Perhaps you should consider ending the funding of just one ineffective non-profit annually to cover that cost.

You have recently overseen a city budget that has DOUBLED since 2017, and you are telling the working residents of San Francisco that taxes must be raised for the city to provide basic law enforcement services and address a public safety crisis that city leaders should have handled long ago.

This is unacceptable and outrageous.

I do not support your amendment that guts Supervisor Dorsey's charter amendment for SFPD staffing and request that you withdraw it immediately or kill the bill

entirely.

Message: I OPPOSE Safai's charter amendment to increase taxes to solve the SFPD staffing crisis.

Dear Supervisor Safai,

I am writing to vehemently OPPOSE your amendment to Supervisor Dorsey's SFPD staffing plan. Increasing our taxes to solve the SFPD staffing crisis is irresponsible and demonstrates a disregard for residents who struggle to afford to live in San Francisco, and who expect public safety and a fully staffed police department to be part of the basic city services we already pay for.

We need the restoration of public safety now so that residents and business owners can feel reasonably safe again. This is a top priority for the majority of San Franciscans, and a fully staffed police force is needed to do the work that is necessary.

The net amount needed to fund the ORIGINAL Dorsey Charter amendment is estimated to be $20M annually (after accounting for overtime savings).

Dear Victor Young,

I am writing to you to express my opposition to the San Francisco Police Full Staffing Act as amended by Supervisor Safai and to urge you to vote against it.

Safai's amendment ties increased public safety to an unknown future tax that voters must approve and leaves the legislation without an actual funding source. Asking voters to raise taxes in order to get a fully staffed police department, a basic city service that should be included in a $14 billion budget, is both bad budgetary policy and bad governance.

As San Francisco continues to grapple with severe public safety challenges including rampant car break-ins, shoplifting, and unprecedented open air drug markets, we as a City must do everything we can to increase public safety, including addressing the ongoing officer shortage in the San Francisco Police Department.

Unfortunately due to Supervisor Safai's amendment, this legislation will not help us address these issues, but instead prevent SFPD from recruiting and hiring the officers needed to keep residents and small business owners safe.

I hope you will vote in opposition to this legislation and work with Supervisor Dorsey to draft legislation that will actually prioritize the safety of your constituents, as well as residents of and visitors to San Francisco.

Sincerely,
Karen Breslin

We need the restoration of public safety now so that residents and business owners can feel reasonably safe again. This is a top priority for the majority of San Franciscans, and a fully staffed police force is needed to do the work that is necessary.

The net amount needed to fund the ORIGINAL Dorsey Charter amendment is estimated to be $20M annually (after accounting for overtime savings).

We are hard-pressed to believe that the money couldn't be found in the city budget. Perhaps you should consider ending the funding of just one ineffective non-profit annually to cover that cost.

You have recently overseen a city budget that has DOUBLED since 2017, and you are telling the working residents of San Francisco that taxes must be raised for the city to provide basic law enforcement services and address a public safety crisis that city leaders should have handled long ago.

This is unacceptable and outrageous.

I do not support your amendment that guts Supervisor Dorsey's charter amendment for SFPD staffing and request that you withdraw it immediately or kill the bill

entirely.

Message: I OPPOSE Safai's charter amendment to increase taxes to solve the SFPD staffing crisis.

Dear Supervisor Safai,

I am writing to vehemently OPPOSE your amendment to Supervisor Dorsey's SFPD staffing plan. Increasing our taxes to solve the SFPD staffing crisis is irresponsible and demonstrates a disregard for residents who struggle to afford to live in San Francisco, and who expect public safety and a fully staffed police department to be part of the basic city services we already pay for.

Dear Victor Young,

I am writing to you to express my opposition to the San Francisco Police Full Staffing Act as amended by Supervisor Safai and to urge you to vote against it.

Safai's amendment ties increased public safety to an unknown future tax that voters must approve and leaves the legislation without an actual funding source. Asking voters to raise taxes in order to get a fully staffed police department, a basic city service that should be included in a $14 billion budget, is both bad budgetary policy and bad governance.

As San Francisco continues to grapple with severe public safety challenges including rampant car break-ins, shoplifting, and unprecedented open air drug markets, we as a City must do everything we can to increase public safety, including addressing the ongoing officer shortage in the San Francisco Police Department.

Unfortunately due to Supervisor Safai's amendment, this legislation will not help us address these issues, but instead prevent SFPD from recruiting and hiring the officers needed to keep residents and small business owners safe.

I hope you will vote in opposition to this legislation and work with Supervisor Dorsey to draft legislation that will actually prioritize the safety of your constituents, as well as residents of and visitors to San Francisco.

Sincerely,
Luke Perkocha
