City Hall, Room 244

January 21, 2010

Dear Richard:

I am a lawyer and former newspaper reporter, and am writing to apply for the opening in seat #8 of the San Francisco Sunshine Ordinance Task Force.

Advocating for open meetings and open records have been a large part of my life's work, first as a journalist and now as an attorney specializing in media law. Since passing the California bar exam and beginning work for the firm of Sheppard, Mullin Richter & Hampton, I have litigated cases advocating for open records under the California Constitution and the state Public Records Act, and am right now in the midst of litigating a case arguing for open meetings under the state's Brown Act.

I worked as a newspaper writer for eight years before enrolling in law school, most recently as a criminal justice reporter for The Washington Post. During my career at three newspapers, I researched and wrote many hundreds of articles on subjects as varied as anthrax and presidential campaigns, floods and droughts. Perhaps more importantly for the purposes of the Sunshine Ordinance Task Force, I covered more school board meetings, city council meetings, county council meetings and planning board meetings than I could ever possibly count.

I am a graduate of the Columbia University Graduate School of Journalism, and had my first paid newspaper job when I was 15 years old, for the sports pages of The Albuquerque Tribune.

As a working journalist, I came into daily, ground-level contact with the importance of sunshine laws -- and well understand their fragility.

While in law school, I competed in the National First Amendment Moot Court Competition, and have worked on free-speech issues as part of an internship with the Electronic Frontier Foundation, as well as a summer associateship with Sheppard Mullin, where I worked on litigation relating to open records issues for the San Jose Mercury-News.

Upon graduating from law school, I have made First Amendment and communications law my practice area. I believe I would be an asset to the Task Force and hope you will seriously consider my application.

I have attached my resume.

Thank you for your time and for your consideration. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call or email.

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen:

Section 67.30 of the San Francisco Sunshine Ordinance instructs that the Society of Professional Journalists, Northern California Professional Chapter (SPJ NorCal) shall nominate an attorney and a journalist each to fill one seat on the Sunshine Ordinance Task Force.

In accordance therewith, SPJ NorCal is pleased to submit the names of attorney David Snyder and journalist Richard Knee for your consideration for appointment to Task Force Seats 1 and 2, respectively, for the 2010-12 term.

Mr. Snyder is a former newspaper reporter who passed the California bar exam in 2008 and now focuses his law practice on media and First Amendment law. As an associate with Sheppard, Mullin Richter & Hampton in San Francisco, he has helped litigate cases under the California Public Records Act and the Ralph M. Brown Act, and has argued for the unsealing of records in federal court in San Jose.

While in law school, Mr. Snyder worked on free-speech and civil liberties issues as a legal intern for the Electronic Frontier Foundation. He also assisted on an appeal seeking public access to grand jury transcripts as part of a summer job with Sheppard Mullin. He competed in the National First Amendment Moot Court Competition in 2007.

Mr. Snyder is a graduate of the University of California, Berkeley School of Law (Boalt Hall) and the Columbia University Graduate School of Journalism. He worked as a staff writer for Albuquerque Tribune, the Dallas Morning News and most recently the Washington Post, and has had freelance articles published in the New York Times and the Sacramento Bee.

We understand that serving on the Task Force requires San Francisco residency unless the City grants a waiver. This will be necessary for Mr. Snyder, as he resides in Oakland, and SPJ NorCal strongly recommends according the waiver to him.

Mr. Knee has been a journalist for most of the past 40 years, having covered local government, politics, education, business, labor issues and numerous other topics for the Daily News of Los Angeles and a number of trade publications focusing on the international and domestic freight sectors.

He is long active with SPJ NorCal and other organizations that champion sunshine. And as a four-term member of the Task Force, which he currently chairs, he has been helping to draft a series of amendments aimed at making the Sunshine Ordinance easier for citizens and City personnel to understand, and increasing the Task Force's own effectiveness in keeping City meetings and records accessible to members of the public; the Task Force hopes the amendments package will be on the local ballot this November.

SPJ NorCal believes that Mr. Snyder's and Mr. Knee's knowledge, experience, diligence, integrity and temperament make them well suited to serve on the Task Force. We strongly recommend favorable consideration to their appointments. Thank you for your kind attention.

Sincerely,

Liz Enochs, President

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen:

Section 67.30 of the San Francisco Sunshine Ordinance instructs that the Society of Professional Journalists, Northern California Professional Chapter (SPJ NorCal) shall nominate an attorney and a journalist each to fill one seat on the Sunshine Ordinance Task Force.

In accordance therewith, SPJ NorCal is pleased to submit the names of attorney David Snyder and journalist Richard Knee for your consideration for appointment to Task Force Seats 1 and 2, respectively, for the 2010-12 term.

Mr. Snyder is a former newspaper reporter who passed the California bar exam in 2008 and now focuses his law practice on media and First Amendment law. As an associate with Sheppard, Mullin Richter & Hampton in San Francisco, he has helped litigate cases under the California Public Records Act and the Ralph M. Brown Act, and has argued for the unsealing of records in federal court in San Jose.

While in law school, Mr. Snyder worked on free-speech and civil liberties issues as a legal intern for the Electronic Frontier Foundation. He also assisted on an appeal seeking public access to grand jury transcripts as part of a summer job with Sheppard Mullin. He competed in the National First Amendment Moot Court Competition in 2007.

Mr. Snyder is a graduate of the University of California, Berkeley School of Law (Boalt Hall) and the Columbia University Graduate School of Journalism. He worked as a staff writer for Albuquerque Tribune, the Dallas Morning News and most recently the Washington Post, and has had freelance articles published in the New York Times and the Sacramento Bee.

We understand that serving on the Task Force requires San Francisco residency unless the City grants a waiver. This will be necessary for Mr. Snyder, as he resides in Oakland, and SPJ NorCal strongly recommends according the waiver to him.

Mr. Knee has been a journalist for most of the past 40 years, having covered local government, politics, education, business, labor issues and numerous other topics for the Daily News of Los Angeles and a number of trade publications focusing on the international and domestic freight sectors.

He is long active with SPJ NorCal and other organizations that champion sunshine. And as a four-term member of the Task Force, which he currently chairs, he has been helping to draft a series of amendments aimed at making the Sunshine Ordinance easier for citizens and City personnel to understand, and increasing the Task Force's own effectiveness in keeping City meetings and records accessible to members of the public; the Task Force hopes the amendments package will be on the local ballot this November.

SPJ NorCal believes that Mr. Snyder's and Mr. Knee's knowledge, experience, diligence, integrity and temperament make them well suited to serve on the Task Force. We strongly recommend favorable consideration to their appointments. Thank you for your kind attention.

Re: Re-appointment of Sue Cauthen to Sunshine Task Force

Dear Supervisor Campos & Committee Members:

San Francisco Tomorrow is pleased to recommend Sue Cauthen for reappointment to the Sunshine Task Force. Sue is a 20-year member of the Board of San Francisco Tomorrow, and has consistently advocated for open government.

Sue Cauthen was a strong supporter of the original legislation creating the Sunshine Task Force. Her long journalistic career and background in neighborhood advocacy have given her a breadth of experience in the workings of government, as well as insight into needed improvements. Her expertise ranges from knowledge of open government legislation and understanding of ethics law to first-hand experience as an investigative journalist.

The Sunshine Task Force and the public benefit from Sue Cauthen's background and experience. Please allow her to continue to serve the City in this capacity.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Clary

Supplemental Application for Sunshine Ordinance Task Force

Applicant: Hope Johnson
Seat: 8 (currently vacant), and 9 and 10 (term expires April 27, 2010)
Date: February 9, 2010

Qualifications:

Employment in the legal field over the last 15 years has afforded me the opportunity to sharpen skills essential to effectively serve on the Sunshine Ordinance Task Force. I am highly proficient at interpreting and applying state, federal, and local rules, case law, and tariffs; conducting investigations; locating and interviewing witnesses and experts; reviewing documents for relevant information and proper format; maintaining confidentiality; and analyzing issues related to privilege. This knowledge would be valuable in the assessment of complaints brought before the task force, advising the Board of Supervisors on implementing the Sunshine ordinance in a manner useful to the residents of the City and County of San Francisco, and immediately filling the void left by the task force's vacant seat.

I am very familiar with and active in San Francisco politics. I regularly attend and report on local government boards and meetings such as the San Francisco Democratic County Central Committee and the Animal Control and Welfare Commission that do not receive attention from mainstream media. My writing has appeared in Fog City Journal and my Stay Tuned blog. My interest is non-economic. I am not paid to attend or write but feel residents continue to receive too little information on many issues affecting daily life and demonstrating the substantive reasoning behind policy decisions. I am well-known in local politics for being unafraid to report governmental abuse. In addition, I have recently assisted a local animal rights groups in filing a sunshine complaint to assert the right to public comment at the Animal Welfare Commission, recommended implementation of Sunshine laws on reporting of outcomes San Francisco's homeless animals, and discussed improvement of access to commission meeting archives currently only taped on audiocassette.

RE: Sunshine Ordinance Task Force Seat Vacancy

January 15, 2009

To whom it may concern:

Please consider me for appointment to the open seat on the Sunshine Ordinance Task Force. I believe I would be a valuable asset to the task force as I have demonstrated interest and experience in the issues of citizen access and participation in local government. In May 2009, I graduated with my Master of Public Administration from San Francisco State University studying and writing about citizen participation and the importance of citizen engagement, and I have spent a little more than two years at City Hall working on public outreach and communications issues.

With me you are getting a passionate, organized professional who studied public policy; someone who is in tune with San Francisco and its politics and legal issues; and a public servant with a solid background with nonprofit organizations and city government, public information and innovative communications technologies.

While in grad school, I volunteered at Supervisor Ross Mirkarimi's office two days a week in 2007/2008, working with constituents and assisting the Legislative Aides. This experience gave me my first taste of the fast-paced, demanding conditions that elected officials and their staff work under, and an appreciation for the inner workings of public service in City Hall

In August 2008, I moved upstairs, where I have been working for DPW in the Public Affairs Office. I contribute to communications plans and public outreach activities. Most notably, I am responsible for setting up a process and strategy for DPW to embrace social media tools and increase opportunities for citizen participation. I also write press releases, create content for the website and electronic newsletters, and reach out to residents and merchants, and the press.

I spent the bulk of my career before grad school in the nonprofit sector, working with the homeless in Seattle and San Francisco; and I have firsthand knowledge of how poverty and injustices affect the human condition. Education and citizen access to information is paramount in today's world, and though the ways people disseminate and acquire information is rapidly evolving, the core values of accountability and transparency must remain as the foundation of good governance. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Greg Crump
