Safety Initiatives

School Crisis Support Initiative (SCSI)

- Brings together city, school, and systems partners and community-based organizations to identify, track, and monitor violent incidents, including incidents of gun violence, on school campuses.
- Utilizes a multidisciplinary team to provide de-escalation and violence interruption services
- Includes DCYF, SFUSD, Juvenile Probation Department (JPD), UCSF Wraparound Project, National Institute for Criminal Justice Reform (NICJR)

Say Something Anonymous Reporting System (SS-ARS):

- Available for use for SFUSD 6th-12th grade students
- Students can report any serious concerns about students who may be struggling or potentially violent
- Submit a tip online or call the hotline number at 1-844-5-SayNow.

SCSI Multidisciplinary Team

SFUSD Administrators and Site Staff

- Determines high-risk students needing targeted interventions
- Documents/tracks incidents
- Shares SFUSD practices and protocols

NICJR

- Technical assistance on violence prevention, guides coordination, training, coaching

DCYF

- Organizes city funded supports
- Facilitates connection with schools, community, city services

CBO Partners

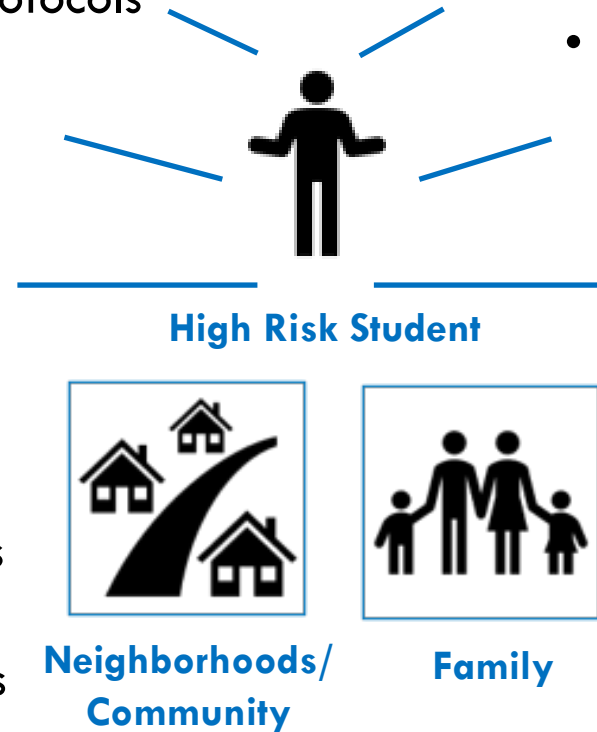

- Fosters safety on campus, builds relationships in neighborhoods, works with community
- Alternative de-escalation to law enforcement
- Knowledgeable of best practices for T-10s
- Youth programming, support services, resources to high-risk students/families

JPD

- Provides info on detained youth
- Regularly supports coordination around release, relocation, service connections

UCSF Wraparound Project

- Works with victims at hospital bedside
- Provides programming, support services, resources to high-risk students and mirrors VI services/support

Citywide Coordination Implementation Strategies

1. School Violence Interrupter Hiring & SFUSD Infrastructure

- Increased school violence interrupters staff and school site coverage
- Hiring school-based manager and coordinator staff to support intervention and coordination, data tracking, and monitoring

2. City coordination and policy development

- Quarterly department citywide youth violence briefings to share data/trends and inform policies/protocols
- Coordinating services with several city departments

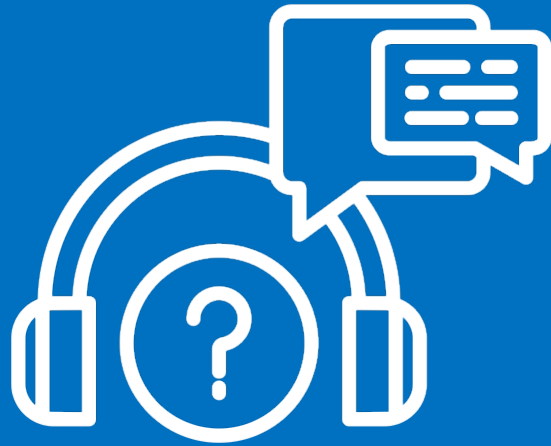

3. Training and capacity building

- Joint trainings with SFUSD, CBOs, and City staff (DPH, JPD, REC, MTA, NICJR, ROCA, E4E)

4. Public awareness and social media

- Spring 2024 SFUSD Unity Semester campus wide events
- Launching CBO/youth-led activities that promote positive use social media
- Studying SCSJ for quality improvement with UCSF WAP researchers – interviews with youth, parents, staff to share views on conflicts and system responses
