RE: Release of Budget and Finance Committee Reserve--Resubmission

In accordance with the provisions of the Adopted Annual Appropriation Ordinance 165-20 for Fiscal Year ending June 30, 2021 and Fiscal Year ending June 30, 2022, I am hereby requesting the release of the Budget and Finance Committee Reserve for $42.0 million appropriated for Early Care and Education for All.

As you know, the Board of Supervisors approved the SF OECE 5-year spending plan for Early Education for All on December 1, 2020. We engaged in a multi-faceted outreach effort to develop the spending plan for Baby Prop C. The outreach response helped us identify spending priorities. These priorities are still very relevant and valid. This year has required us to consider the current challenges facing the ECE community. Programs are facing additional costs and reduced income related to COVID-19 mitigation. We understand the urgent need for economic recovery.

We have been working with the Mayor's Budget Office on a preliminary spending plan for the coming months including:

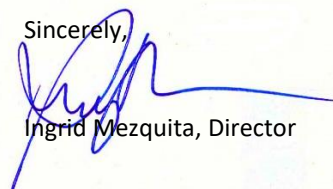

- Early Education Economic Recovery Grant and Loan Program ($25.0 million)
- Subsidy Outlays to provide additional access to child care ($10.0 million)
- Workforce Compensation: Supplement the CARES 2.0 Teacher Stipend ($1.3 million)
- Support for Family Resource Centers ($1.5 million)
- OECE Staffing and Capacity to be able to support the work of implementing the 5-year spending plan ($0.5 million)
- Discretionary Funding Rebalancing ($0.9 million)

The requested $42.0 million includes $2.8 million as a contingency to provide the flexibility needed for OECE to be responsive to community need, while we continue to engage our stakeholders to effectively implement the above initiatives.

If you need any additional information to allow for the release of these reserves, please contact Carlo Manaois, Sr. Organization Development and Contract/Budget Policy Analyst at carlo.manaois@sfgov.org and Denise Corvino, Deputy Director at denise.corvino@sfgov.org.

I thank you in advance for your review and release of this reserve.

Sincerely,

Ingrid Mezquita, Director

MANDATE STATEMENT

City Administrative Code Section 3.3(j) states that the Budget and Finance Committee of the Board of Supervisors has jurisdiction over the City's budget and may reserve proposed expenditures to be released at a later date subject to Budget and Finance Committee approval. The practice of the Board of Supervisors is for the Budget and Finance Committee to approve release of funds placed on reserve by the Committee, without further Board of Supervisors approval.

BACKGROUNDProposition C (June 2018)

The California Constitution requires two-third voter approval for taxes imposed by a local jurisdiction for special purposes. The California Supreme Court in 2017 (California Cannabis Coalition v. City of Upland) ruled that the Constitution provision did not apply to citizen initiatives for the holding of special elections but did not specifically address voter approval requirements.

Proposition C, the Commercial Rent Tax for Childcare and Early Education, was a citizen initiative imposing taxes on commercial rents for the purpose of funding childcare and early education programs. The proposition was approved by 50.87 percent of the votes in the June 2018 election.

In June 2019, the San Francisco Superior Court ruled that Proposition C (June 2018) was correctly certified by City officials with 50 percent rather than two-third voter approval.¹ This decision was upheld by the California First District Court of Appeals, which could be appealed to the California Supreme Court.

Businesses have been required to pay the tax pending the outcome of litigation, but tax revenues have been placed on Controller's Reserve. The Budget & Finance Committee placed its own reserve on these funds as well, pending outcome of the litigation and a spending plan from the Office of Early Care and Education regarding the use of the reserved funds.

Proposition F (November 2020)

San Francisco voters approved Proposition F, revising the gross receipts tax structure, in November 2020 with 67.48 percent of the vote. Proposition F also created a new general tax, equal to the Commercial Rent Tax for Childcare and Early Education approved by Proposition C in June 2018, which would go into effect if the original Proposition C were to be overturned on appeal to the California Supreme Court. Revenues from the new general tax would be used to pay back businesses that had paid the Commercial Rent Tax for Childcare and Early Education and provide a revenue stream going forward.

Judgment Obligation Bonds

File 20-1333 is a resolution pending before the Board the Supervisors that would authorize the issuance of up to $955,000,000 in Judgment Obligation Bonds that would pay the costs of a potential adverse judgment associated with litigation the Proposition C (June 2018), such as an adverse ruling from the California Supreme Court. The bond proceeds could be used to reimburse businesses who have paid the tax imposed by Proposition C (June 2018) as well as bond issuance and reserve costs.

Office of Early Care and Education Spending Plan

In December 2020, the Board of Supervisors approved the Early Care and Education for All Initiative's Five-Year Spending Plan, as required by Administrative Code Section 20.17. That plan recommended three priorities if Proposition C (June 2018) funding became available: (1) increasing workforce compensation (2) expanding access to services for low- and moderate-income families and (3) expand services to support the well-being of children under six years old.

DETAILS OF PROPOSED LEGISLATION

File 20-1361 is hearing to consider releasing $42,000,000 from Budget & Finance Committee Reserve for the Office of Early Care and Education (OECE) FY 2020-21 budget. The programs to be funded are summarized below.

Economy Recovery Grants/Loans ($25 million): to be allocated for the OECE Economic Recovery Program, which would fund $5,000 - $50,000 grants (based on facility size) for up to 503 child care sites serving 10,060 children. According to OECE, funding will be provided citywide but prioritized to the Mission, Bayview, Visitacion Valley, the Excelsior, and Oceanview-Merced-Ingleside neighborhoods.

Related legislation, File 20-1327, is an ordinance passed on first reading by the Board of Supervisors on December 8, 2020 that would amend Section 20.17 of the Administrative Code to require OECE establish a grant and loan program to provide child care facilities, day care centers, and licensed child care providers with grants or zero-interest loans to pay for services and operational costs related to COVID-19.

Short-Term Subsidies ($10 million): to be allocated to subsidize childcare for 700 children for eight months (November 2020—June 2021) at existing and new sites, which includes administration costs for the subsidies.

Early Care & Education Workforce ($1.3 million): to be allocated to expand stipends, in the amount of $6,000 annually, for an additional 220 teachers at child care centers and family child care homes to reach over 2,500 educators.

Family Resource Center ($3.0 million): to be allocated to Family Resource Centers to support operations. As of this writing, the number and locations of the Family Resources to be funded have yet to be determined.

New Staff ($0.5 million): to be allocated to fill existing vacancies and hire temporary staff pending the authorization of new positions, which may include four 1823 Senior Administrative Analysts, one 1824 Principal Administrative Analyst, and one 0923 Manager II. According to OECE, the office currently has three vacancies, one in each of these classifications: 1842, 1822, and 2917. OECE staff are working with HSA Human Resources to finalize appropriate classifications and determine next steps.

Reduce General Fund Support ($0.9 million): to be allocated to back-fill a $900,000 General Fund add-back authorized by the Board of Supervisors. Part of OECE’s budget rebalancing plan, the General Fund monies will be deleted from the OECE budget to reduce General Fund support of that budget.

Contingency ($1.3 million): OECE requests release of $1.3 million, or approximately 3.1 percent of the total $42 million release of reserve request to allow for flexibility as stakeholder needs are further identified through community outreach. According to OECE, possible spending could include additional funding for Family Resource Centers, additional subsidy costs, provide grants for the purchase of personal protective equipment, and/or additional Economic Recovery Loans for early care and education sites.

FISCAL IMPACT

Table 1 below shows the budgets for the existing programs at OECE and the proposed augmentation amounts. All spending is planned to occur in FY 2020-21.

Table 1: Proposed Allocations

Program	FY 2020-21 Spending Plan	Requested Increase
Economic Recovery Grant/Loan	New Program	$25,000,000
Short-Term Subsidies (via Voucher Program)	$30,674,091	10,000,000
ECE Workforce Compensation	15,000,000	1,300,000
Support for Family Resource Centers	450,000	3,000,000
New Permanent Staff	n/a	500,000
Reduce General Fund Support	n/a	900,000
Contingency	n/a	1,300,000
Total	$46,124,091	$42,000,000

Source: OECE

As shown above, the release of reserve request totals $42 million. According to the FY 2020-21 and FY 2021-22 Annual Appropriation Ordinance, Proposition C (June 2018) funds on Budget & Finance Committee Reserve total $273 million in FY 2020-21 and $160.1 million in FY 2021-22. If the proposed release of reserves is approved, $241 million would remain on Budget & Finance Committee Reserve in FY 2020-21 and available for future appropriation for authorized uses. The Controller projects that Proposition C (June 2018) collections will be $196.8 million in FY 2020-21 and $188.4 million in FY 2021-22 and FY 2022-23.

RECOMMENDATION

Approve the release of reserve request.

Re: Release of Reserved Funds - Office of Early Care and Education - Economic Recovery (Ordinance No. 165-20)

Dear Budget & Finance Committee Members:

We are writing on behalf of the San Francisco Family Resource Center Alliance, a network of 26 Family Resource Centers (FRCs), which collectively support approximately 15,000 children and families each year. We urge the Board of Supervisors to release $42,000,000 of reserved funds to the Office of Early Care and Education for All, placed on the Budget and Finance Committee reserve by Ordinance No. 165-20. Specifically, we request that in order to support community response to early care and education, the Board of Supervisors allocate $3,000,000 to San Francisco's 26 FRCs. This funding to FRCs would support case management, resource and referral connection, and basic needs assistance.

San Francisco's FRCs are a vital part of the city's early childhood system, working alongside educators to support child and family well-being at home and in communities. Now more than ever, family support is a key ingredient in a successful early care and education system, and investing a relatively small portion of the reserved dollars in child and family well-being will ensure families get connected to programs and will greatly enhance the effectiveness of any early learning experience. FRCs have been on the front-lines of this crisis, serving every neighborhood in the city, as well as six populations which need specialized services, including homeless families, LGBTQ families, families with children with disabilities, young parents, and families with children exposed to violence. Food pantries have doubled and tripled; case management services have wait-lists; and demand for basic safety net supports have skyrocketed. FRCs are working hard, but struggling to meet the high demand and acute need, while still providing all core services virtually.

We greatly appreciate your partnership in helping families to recover and to rebuild our city.

Respectfully yours,

Katie Albright

Hello,

My name is Brenda Quintero, I am the family services program director at Instituto Familiar de la Raza, Inc.

We primarily provide services in the Mission and Excelsior districts. An allocation of these funds will not provide vital childcare funds for our children, but will enable 26 FRCs to provide information & referral, basic needs assistance, and case management services ensuring they have sufficient capacity to receive referrals from child care centers and other community partners.

Our Food pantries have doubled and tripled, and we currently have waitlists for case management services and continue to struggle to provide adequate supports. FRCs are working hard, but struggling to meet the high demand and acute need, while still providing all core services virtually.

These funds will also help families reconnect to child care, benefits, employment opportunities, and other systems of care that lay the foundation for their own recovery and the economic recovery of the whole city. As FRC's have become the first point of contact for many families to have access to child care centers.

Thank you for your time.

Subject: Release of Reserved Funds - Office of Early Care and Education - Economic Recovery (Ordinance No. 165-20)

Dear Supervisor Fewer:

We are writing to urge the Board of Supervisors to release $42,000,000 of reserved funds to the Office of Early Care and Education for All, placed on the Budget and Finance Committee reserve by Ordinance No. 165-20. Specifically, we request that in order to support community response to early care and education, the Board of Supervisors allocate $3,000,000 to San Francisco's 26 Family Resource Centers (FRCs). This funding to FRCs would support case management, resource and referral connection, and basic needs assistance.

San Francisco's FRCs are a vital part of the city's early childhood system, working alongside educators to support child and family well-being at home and in communities. Now more than ever, family support is a key ingredient in a successful early care and education system, and investing a relatively small portion of the reserved dollars in child and family well-being will ensure families get connected to programs and will greatly enhance the effectiveness of any early learning experience. FRCs, like the Joy Lok Family Resource Center have been on the front-lines of this crisis. We have all stepped up to the plate to address the surge of needs during this time while pivoting ourselves to ensure that all families are able to access our services virtually and at a limited in-person capacity. Families facing financial instability have rocked our community. While systems have been flooded with calls for Unemployment Insurance, CalFresh benefits and Medi-Cal enrollment, FRCs like ours have become a huge source of relief that families can contact to provide warm one-on-one support during this chaotic time. We do what we do, every day, because we care about and are invested in our community. We need the city to be invested in us too if we are to continue to provide high quality, culturally sensitive and linguistically appropriate services to the community.

During this time, FRCs have become a lifeline for many of our immigrant limited English-speaking communities. Food pantries have doubled and tripled; case management services have wait-lists; and demand for basic safety net supports have sky-rocketed. FRCs are working hard, but struggling to meet the high demand and acute need, while still providing all core services virtually. We have not stopped working for our children and families and business is not as usual. We desperately need your help to ensure that our community and our FRCs will recover from this by ensuring our longevity in the future.

We greatly appreciate your partnership in helping families to recover and to rebuild our city.

Gratefully,

Joy Lok Family Resource Center

San Francisco's FRCs are a vital part of the city's early childhood system, working alongside educators to support child and family well-being at home and in communities. Now more than ever, family support is a key ingredient in a successful early care and education system, and investing a relatively small portion of the reserved dollars in child and family well-being will ensure families get connected to programs and will greatly enhance the effectiveness of any early learning experience. FRCs, like the Joy Lok Family Resource Center have been on the front-lines of this crisis. We have all stepped up to the plate to address the surge of needs during this time while pivoting ourselves to ensure that all families are able to access our services virtually and at a limited in-person capacity. Families facing financial instability have rocked our community. While systems have been flooded with calls for Unemployment Insurance, CalFresh benefits and Medi-Cal enrollment, FRCs like ours have become a huge source of relief that families can contact to provide warm one-on-one support during this chaotic time. We do what we do, every day, because we care about and are invested in our community. We need the city to be invested in us too if we are to continue to provide high quality, culturally sensitive and linguistically appropriate services to the community.

During this time, FRCs have become a lifeline for many of our immigrant limited English-speaking communities. Food pantries have doubled and tripled; case management services have wait-lists; and demand for basic safety net supports have sky-rocketed. FRCs are working hard, but struggling to meet the high demand and acute need, while still providing all core services virtually. We have not stopped working for our children and families and business is not as usual. We desperately need your help to ensure that our community and our FRCs will recover from this by ensuring our longevity in the future.

We greatly appreciate your partnership in helping families to recover and to rebuild our city.

Gratefully,

Subject: Release of Reserved Funds - Office of Early Care and Education - Economic Recovery (Ordinance No. 165-20)

Dear Supervisor Mandelman:

We are writing to urge the Board of Supervisors to release $42,000,000 of reserved funds to the Office of Early Care and Education for All, placed on the Budget and Finance Committee reserve by Ordinance No. 165-20. Specifically, we request that in order to support community response to early care and education, the Board of Supervisors allocate $3,000,000 to San Francisco's 26 Family Resource Centers (FRCs). This funding to FRCs would support case management, resource and referral connection, and basic needs assistance.

Re: Family Resource Center Funding Allocation

Dear Supervisors Fewer, Walton & Mandelman:

I am writing to urge the Board of Supervisors to release $42,000,000 of reserved funds to the Office of Early Care and Education for All, placed on the Budget and Finance Committee reserve by Ordinance No. 165-20. Specifically, I request that in order to support community response to early care and education, the Board of Supervisors allocate $3,000,000 to San Francisco's 26 Family Resource Centers (FRCs). Now more than ever, family support is a key ingredient in a successful early care and education system. Investing a relatively small portion of the reserved dollars in child and family well-being will ensure families get connected to programs and will greatly enhance the effectiveness of any early learning experience. As such, with proper support, I believe that FRCs may indeed be able to play a key role in realizing positive longitudinal impacts as we prepare to close SF Juvenile Hall. Early intervention and education can, and should, play a significant role in the disruption of the cradle to prison pipeline in San Francisco County.

FRCs, like Edgewood Center for Children and Families, have been on the front-lines of this crisis. The Edgewood Food pantry service has continued in person delivery while doubling and at times tripling, during the pandemic; case management services have wait-lists; and demand for basic safety net supports have sky-rocketed. FRCs are working hard, and struggling to meet the high demand and acute need, while still providing all core services virtually.

We greatly appreciate your partnership in helping families to recover and to rebuild our city.

Dear Members of the Board of Supervisors, This letter is to support the Economic Recovery Grant and Loan program for Early Childhood Education Providers which is being supported by Mayor Breed, President Yee, and Supervisors Ronan, Safai, Mar and Fewer. The program should include those programs that are not part of the OECE system because we are all suffering the effects of the pandemic.

I live in District 5 and work in a California Dept. of Education center in District 8.

I worked for most of my life as Director of Centers in District 6.

In spite of the serious consequences of exposure to covid-19 to staff, many programs reopened early on and some never closed (we reopened in June with very brave dedicated staff returning).

We had to make many costly changes to the structure, program and staffing. We had to install a floor to ceiling divider in order to create two classrooms and then equip both classrooms. Whereas in the past we met required staffing (CDE) of two teaching staff to 16 children, we now have to staff at 3 adults to 13 preschoolers to meet requirements and to have an extra staff available for cleaning and sanitation required on an ongoing basis, to cover for staff who need to stay home with mild symptoms that could possibly be covid related (to date no one has been exposed in the program due to all our precautions). Extra teachers are needed too to give extra attention to the children and to be good listeners to children who may be going through added emotional stress and trauma at this time. We also need extra staff to meet parents outside in the morning and do temperature checks and a health screening of all children and staff to help children leave when Parents/Guardians arrive outside at departure.

I could go on and on with all the changes to keep everyone safe and the center operating and still paying staff with the low pay that they receive for doing such critical and essential and educational work.

Please help us and other centers and homes keep our doors open so we can aid in San Francisco's recovery, support families, and give children quality care and education during this difficult time.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Dear Board Of Supervisors,

I am writing in support of the Early Care and Education Economic Recovery Program introduced by Mayor Breed, President Yee, and Supervisors Ronen, Safai, Mar, and Fewer.

Early childcare providers are essential to San Francisco's economic recovery; however, we are struggling to survive.

C5 Children's School has been providing high quality early care and education for Infants, Toddlers, and Preschoolers for thirty-five years. At the beginning of the Pandemic in March, we had 147 children enrolled in two facilities. Currently we only have 60 children enrolled and are operating at a substantial loss each month. We were fortunate to have a reserve fund, however, it is fast eroding and by March we will require additional funds to stay afloat.

Please vote in favor of this Program that is so desperately required.

Cordially,

Hello,

My name is Brenda Quintero, I am the family services program director at Instituto Familiar de la Raza, Inc.

We primarily provide services in the Mission and Excelsior districts. An allocation of these funds will not provide vital childcare funds for our children, but will enable 26 FRCs to provide information & referral, basic needs assistance, and case management services ensuring they have sufficient capacity to receive referrals from child care centers and other community partners.

Our Food pantries have doubled and tripled, and we currently have waitlists for case management services and continue to struggle to provide adequate supports. FRCs are working hard, but struggling to meet the high demand and acute need, while still providing all core services virtually.

These funds will also help families reconnect to child care, benefits, employment opportunities, and other systems of care that lay the foundation for their own recovery and the economic recovery of the whole city. As FRC's have become the first point of contact for many families to have access to child care centers.

Thank you for your time.

Subject: Release of Reserved Funds - Office of Early Care and Education - Economic Recovery (Ordinance No. 165-20)

Dear Supervisor Fewer:

We are writing to urge the Board of Supervisors to release $42,000,000 of reserved funds to the Office of Early Care and Education for All, placed on the Budget and Finance Committee reserve by Ordinance No. 165-20. Specifically, we request that in order to support community response to early care and education, the Board of Supervisors allocate $3,000,000 to San Francisco's 26 Family Resource Centers (FRCs). FRCs, like the Joy Lok Family Resource Center have been on the front-lines of this crisis. We have all stepped up to the plate to address the surge of needs during this time while pivoting ourselves to ensure that all families are able to access our services virtually and at a limited in-person capacity. Families facing financial instability have rocked our community. While systems have been flooded with calls for Unemployment Insurance, CalFresh benefits and Medi-Cal enrollment, FRCs like ours have become a huge source of relief that families can contact to provide warm one-on-one support during this chaotic time. We do what we do, every day, because we care about and are invested in our community. We need the city to be invested in us too if we are to continue to provide high quality, culturally sensitive and linguistically appropriate services to the community.

During this time, FRCs have become a lifeline for many of our immigrant limited English-speaking communities. FRCs are working hard, but struggling to meet the high demand and acute need, while still providing all core services virtually. We have not stopped working for our children and families and business is not as usual. We desperately need your help to ensure that our community and our FRCs will recover from this by ensuring our longevity in the future.

This funding to FRCs would support case management, resource and referral connection, and basic needs assistance.

San Francisco's FRCs are a vital part of the city's early childhood system, working alongside educators to support child and family well-being at home and in communities. Now more than ever, family support is a key ingredient in a successful early care and education system, and investing a relatively small portion of the reserved dollars in child and family well-being will ensure families get connected to programs and will greatly enhance the effectiveness of any early learning experience. FRCs, like the Joy Lok Family Resource Center have been on the front-lines of this crisis. We have all stepped up to the plate to address the surge of needs during this time while pivoting ourselves to ensure that all families are able to access our services virtually and at a limited in-person capacity. Families facing financial instability have rocked our community. While systems have been flooded with calls for Unemployment Insurance, CalFresh benefits and Medi-Cal enrollment, FRCs like ours have become a huge source of relief that families can contact to provide warm one-on-one support during this chaotic time. We do what we do, every day, because we care about and are invested in our community. We need the city to be invested in us too if we are to continue to provide high quality, culturally sensitive and linguistically appropriate services to the community.

During this time, FRCs have become a lifeline for many of our immigrant limited English-speaking communities. Food pantries have doubled and tripled; case management services have wait-lists; and demand for basic safety net supports have sky-rocketed. FRCs are working hard, but struggling to meet the high demand and acute need, while still providing all core services virtually. We have not stopped working for our children and families and business is not as usual. We desperately need your help to ensure that our community and our FRCs will recover from this by ensuring our longevity in the future.

We greatly appreciate your partnership in helping families to recover and to rebuild our city.

Gratefully,

Joy Lok Family Resource Center

Re: Family Resource Center Funding Allocation

Dear Supervisors Fewer, Walton & Mandelman:

I am writing to urge the Board of Supervisors to release $42,000,000 of reserved funds to the Office of Early Care and Education for All, placed on the Budget and Finance Committee reserve by Ordinance No. 165-20. Specifically, I request that in order to support community response to early care and education, the Board of Supervisors allocate $3,000,000 to San Francisco's 26 Family Resource Centers (FRCs). This funding to FRCs would support case management, resource and referral connection, and basic needs assistance.

San Francisco's FRCs are a vital part of the city's early childhood system, working alongside educators to support child and family well-being at home and in communities. Now more than ever, family support is a key ingredient in a successful early care and education system. Investing a relatively small portion of the reserved dollars in child and family well-being will ensure families get connected to programs and will greatly enhance the effectiveness of any early learning experience. As such, with proper support, I believe that FRCs may indeed be able to play a key role in realizing positive longitudinal impacts as we prepare to close SF Juvenile Hall. Early intervention and education can, and should, play a significant role in the disruption of the cradle to prison pipeline in San Francisco County.

FRCs, like Edgewood Center for Children and Families, have been on the front-lines of this crisis. The Edgewood Food pantry service has continued in person delivery while doubling and at times tripling, during the pandemic; case management services have wait-lists; and demand for basic safety net supports have sky-rocketed. FRCs are working hard, and struggling to meet the high demand and acute need, while still providing all core services virtually.

We greatly appreciate your partnership in helping families to recover and to rebuild our city.

Dear Ms. Linda Wong,

I hope this email finds you well. Please see below (and attached) for a letter from Co-Chairs of the SF Family Resource Centers (FRCs) Alliance regarding the Release of Reserved Funds - Office of Early Care and Education - Economic Recovery (Ordinance No. 165-20). This item was heard on Wednesday Dec. 15 by the Budget & Finance Committee, and I believe will be heard again by the full Board on Tuesday, Dec. 22. We'd like to submit this for public comment to the Budget & Finance Committee.

Thank you for your time and consideration. We wish you and yours Happy Holidays!

Re: Release of Reserved Funds - Office of Early Care and Education - Economic Recovery (Ordinance No. 165-20)

Dear Budget & Finance Committee Members:

We are writing on behalf of the San Francisco Family Resource Center Alliance, a network of 26 Family Resource Centers (FRCs), which collectively support approximately 15,000 children and families each year. We urge the Board of Supervisors to release $42,000,000 of reserved funds to the Office of Early Care and Education for All, placed on the Budget and Finance Committee reserve by Ordinance No. 165-20. FRCs have been on the front-lines of this crisis, serving every neighborhood in the city, as well as six populations which need specialized services, including homeless families, LGBTQ families, families with children with disabilities, young parents, and families with children exposed to violence. Food pantries have doubled and tripled; case management services have wait-lists; and demand for basic safety net supports have sky-rocketed. FRCs are working hard, but struggling to meet the high demand and acute need, while still providing all core services virtually.
