URBAN GREEN

27 May 2010

To Members of the Rules Committee, Board of Supervisors:

This letter is written as support to my request for consideration of appointment to the Treasure Island Development Authority Citizens Advisory Board.

I am a resident of San Francisco's South Beach Neighborhood where I have lived with my family since 1996. I am also a CLARB registered Landscape Architect, and founder of UrbanGreen, a nationally recognized consultancy focused on Sustainable Community Development.

As a resident of South Beach during its evolution from nascent neighborhood to real community, I have witnessed first-hand the success of thoughtful planning, urban design strategies and public policies that have made the area one of the most exciting places to live in San Francisco. We continue to raise our daughter at the Oriental Warehouse and can speak with authority on the value, opportunities and challenges of families living in high density urban environments.

My work as a landscape architect has evolved from traditional urban design, to large scale community planner to sustainability strategist. I have been recognized regularly by the Urban Land Institute for my contributions to their understanding and approach to sustainable real estate, helping to author Developing Sustainable Communities (Urban Land Institute, 2007) and serving as the primary instructor for their Developing Sustainable Communities national workshops since 1996.

Recently I was commissioned by the Government of Abu Dhabi to write the emirate's sustainable community rating method, drawing on best practices from around the globe. I have also played a role consulting on Green Code development for new urban development for Lend Lease Communities on their Horizon Uptown project, a 500 acre new urban center outside of Denver, CO.

My academic background includes an undergraduate degree in Landscape Architecture and a MS in Real Estate Development from MIT. The latter was pursued due to my desire to better understand how high quality design and the challenges of the real estate development could be more effectively aligned.

I view Treasure Island as a significant opportunity to provide an informed public voice to an ambitious and ground breaking public/ private development. I hope that my combination of professional and personal experience with sustainable urban environments, that I could make valuable contributions to Treasure Island's ongoing review and approvals.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely

Jim Heid, Founder
UrbanGreen

Profile

Jim Heid is a sustainable development advisor, land planner and real estate advisor, whose focus is creating developments that provide a positive contribution to their environment, region, and residents. In 2000, he founded UrbanGreen to advise established real estate developers, government agencies and legacy families seeking a better approach to developing land.

With over thirty years experience in the design and development of new community, urban infill, and resort projects, Jim is known to effectively resolve the complex layers of community design and real estate development using a variety of proven tools and best practices. He is motivated by the need to deliver high quality developments to a broader market – in an increasingly complex world of entitlements and financing – without compromising environmental, economic or placemaking objectives.

Jim brings rigor to the rapidly evolving discussion of urban sustainability through a dedication to research and practical hands-on experience. Over the past decade he has pioneered many of the Urban Land Institute's contributions to sustainable land development, climate change and responsible property investing. For ULI he serves on the Climate, Land Use, and Energy (CLUE) Committee and is a founding member of the Responsible Property Investment Council. He is the primary instructor for ULI's Sustainable Communities Development Workshops. He is also a member of the USGBC and CNU, and served as a corresponding member of the LEED-ND drafting committee. He is nationally recognized as an articulate advocate for responsible land development.

Prior to founding UrbanGreen, Jim worked as an urban designer/ land planner and real estate strategist with two of the country's leading firms, Design Workshop (1987-1993) and EDAW (1994-2000), where he served as Director of Development, Managing Principal for their San Francisco office, and ultimately COO.

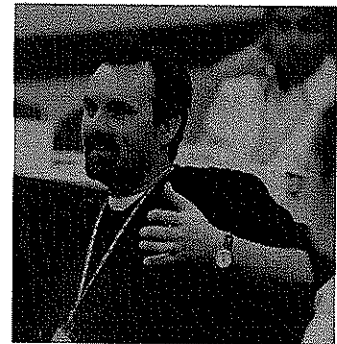

Relevant Experience

Brentwood Downtown Visioning • City of Brentwood California, facilitator and advisor to the City's economic development and planning departments to define urban design principles for a revitalized downtown core, as the basis for designing a new City Hall.

Horizon Uptown • Lend Lease Communities, sustainability advisor and team facilitator for development of Urban Sustainability Design Standards for a new 500 acre urban town center in Aurora, Colorado.

Galisteo Basin Preserve • Commonweal Conservancy, Santa Fe, New Mexico – sustainable development advisor and charrette facilitator for 300 acre, mixed use, mixed income sustainable conservation development outside of Santa Fe, NM.

Sustainable Development: Tools and Techniques • The Urban Land Institute; development and instruction of two-day national workshop series on sustainable land development.

Supervisors,

I am submitting this letter to indicate my interest in obtaining a seat on the Treasure Island / Yerba Buena Island Citizen Advisory Board.

As a former Treasure Island resident, I am incredibly excited to see the spotlight light once again beginning to shine on this under utilized portion of the City. For it's potential is vast and uniqueness self evident. I have spent many a wind swept evening on the rocky shores of Treasure Island gazing at the twinkling lights of San Francisco wondering when residents and tourists of the main land would have the opportunity to snap postcard photos of my neighborhood. It seems that opportunity is on the horizon as I have had the pleasure of reviewing the TI/TB DD Draft document.

Currently I find myself a small business owner committed to growing into an architectural practice focused on sustainable design and intelligent community development. The background and experience I would like to share with the board involves much success in medium to high density mixed-use development in both the market and below market rate sectors.

I have a strong desire in establishing new and more economically viable relationships between people, space and technology and would immensely enjoy participating in the process of reshaping this once World-renowned landmark into an icon of tomorrow.

Thank you,

Scott Vedro

The San Francisco Board of Supervisors
City Hall, Room 244
1 Dr. Carlton B. Goodlett Place
San Francisco, CA 94102

Dear Members of the Rules Committee, Board of Supervisors:

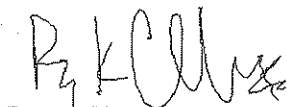

As you know, I've long held a desire to be involved in our City and find ways to make a contribution – not the least of which was the year spent on your 2003 campaign staff. I recently discovered a need for representatives on the Treasure Island / Yerba Buena Island Redevelopment's Citizens Advisory Board, and would be privileged to serve on that board.

I followed the progress of Treasure Island closely during my time with SFSOS, and became even more intimately educated on the project through my affiliation with Claudine Cheng's 2008 campaign for supervisor. I'm fascinated with the plan there and am very eager to contribute to its advancement.

The bulk of my professional work has been in high-level communications, coupled with grassroots community organizing. These are the skills I'd hope to contribute to the board – the ability to reach affected citizens where applicable and to rely on very close relationships with multiple neighborhoods to anticipate resident wants and needs as decisions are made. My work has touched on myriad public policy issues -- including land use, transit and parking, education, housing, greening and sustainability, and more – experience I would lean on heavily while serving this board.

I was born here by pure circumstance, as my father was a naval officer based out of the Bay during the Vietnam War. To return to this naval land and play a part in this next step for our City would be a great honor. Please consider my candidacy for the TI/YBI CAB.

Respectfully submitted,

Ryan Chamberlain

- Office infrastructure management

CHRONOLOGY OF ACHIEVEMENTS

Seed Field Outreach (San Francisco)

(2007-Present)

Principal

After working as an independent campaign consultant and/or staffer for many years, I formally incorporated my own consultancy in 2007. Clients have included:

- United States Airline Pilots Association (Nationwide, 2009-present) (www.usairlinepilots.org). Installed a major re-branding, reorganization and member outreach program for the union representing 5200 US Airways pilots; composed new enterprise mission statement and subsequent key messaging; redesigned and launched new brand including logo, tagline and website; initiated email program and grassroots membership outreach activities; organized union actions and publicity events.
- Barbary Coast Consulting (San Francisco, 2009-present, project subcontractor) (www.barcoast.com). Assisted larger colleague firm on various projects including: Capt. Chesley Sullenberger book promotion; Bentley School (Oakland) CUP application; Recurrent Energy Sunset Reservoir Solar Project; City Fields/SF RPD partnership, and a Wal-Mart (Ukiah) expansion.
- Project Sport, LLC (2007-present)(www.projectsport.com) – Serving as the public affairs and communications director for the sports production company responsible for the San Francisco and San Rafael Twilight Criteriums and the Sacramento Grand Prix professional cycling races, the American Lung Association of California cycling team and the San Francisco Half-Marathon Series. outreach to residents, merchants, City departments and other stakeholders involved in the race, as well as all PR activities.

- Emily Murase for School Board (San Francisco, General Election, 2008) (www.emilymurase.com). Endorsed by Mayor Newsom, Congresswoman Speier, Assemblymember Leno, State Senator Yee, District Attorney Harris, The San Francisco Chronicle, The San Francisco Examiner, and more.
- Claudine Cheng for District 3 Supervisor (San Francisco, General Election, 2008). (www.claudinecheng.com). Endorsed by Mayor Newsom, Senator Feinstein, Assemblymember Ma, The San Francisco Examiner, and more.
- Caserta for Assembly (22nd Assembly District, June Primary, 2008) – Dominic Caserta is a teacher and Santa Clara City Council member who sought to represent the State Assembly District spanning the bulk of Silicon Valley. Our field program spanned five cities throughout Santa Clara County.
- Yes on A&B (City of Santa Clara, February Primary, 2008) – A land use measure seeking voter approval in the City of Santa Clara to clean up 11 acres of dormant, former test agriculture land tainted with toxic pesticide residue, and develop it into single family housing, affordable senior housing, open space and parks.
- Vizu Corporation (San Francisco, 2007) (www.vizuanswers.org) Vizu is a start-up online polling company serving polls over a wide network of Internet publishers for market and consumer research purposes. Consulted with the company on projects involving communications and polling, providing press releases, press outreach, and PR agency liaison; design, implementation, analysis, and reporting of all polling projects, both internal and for clients; outreach and relations with clients, users, publishers, and similar stakeholders; web site copy and design.

SFSOS (San Francisco)

(2004 –2007)

Field Director

SFSOS was a non-profit issue advocacy organization striving for quality-of-life improvements in San Francisco. Key issues arising under my watch included:

- Leading independent expenditure committee campaign in support of Rob Black for District 6 Supervisor.
- Leading neighborhood groups in a successful opposition to a planned medicinal cannabis dispensary relocation in the Russian Hill, North Beach, Fisherman's Wharf neighborhoods.
- Implementation of Prop C, the voter-mandated authority given to the City Controller to act as auditor of City departments.
- Advocating for neighborhood schools, and the restructuring of the Diversity Index.
- Defending the use of Prop H funding for as-promised school enrichment programs.
- Advocating for property rights and pro-homeownership measures, particularly with regard to TIC owners seeking condominium conversion.
- Resisting efforts to limit parking in downtown (C-3 zoned) neighborhoods.
- Resisting tax, fee, cost, etc., increases of any kind, and pressuring for responsible use of current budget allowances (including: a tax on grocery bags, a downtown driving fee, increased gross receipts taxes, wage enforcement fees, mandatory health care).

RYAN CHAMBERLAIN

Vallejo St.
San Francisco, CA 94109
415-
ryan@seedoutreach.net

- Advocating for supportive business policy and incentives (including: approving Bayshore Home Depot, biotech tax credits, film industry tax rebates).

My role at SFSOS was to be fully in charge of recruitment, outreach, organization, and communications with all organization supporters. SFSOS had an overall audience in excess of 50,000 residents, with an active audience of 17,500 weekly email newsletter subscribers. An average of 3,000 regularly volunteered to write letters, testify at City hearings, engage in precinct activism or attend campaign events. I was responsible for all those programs. In addition, I managed SFSOS public policy items, acted as spokesperson for the organization, was liaison to most City offices and departments, and engaged in virtually all other grassroots activity that was necessary in our quality-of-life mission.

Board Qualifications:

On September 26, 2008, the Governor approved Assembly Bill No. 1496, which designated two of the Board of Supervisors vacancies to be filled with one resident of Treasure Island or Yerba Buena Island and one resident of low or moderate income of Treasure Island or Yerba Buena Island. Both seats were determined by a resident election conducted by the Department of Elections on December 16, 2008, as restructured by AB 1496. In the event of any future vacancy of these seats the Board of Supervisors will appoint a replacement.

March 12, 2008 and October 22, 2008, the Treasure Island Development Authority Board amended its bylaws to reflect the new resident positions and their term of office.

The Treasure Island Development Authority Citizen's Advisory Board is comprised of 25 persons, 11 of whom shall be appointed by the Board of Supervisors and 14 of whom shall be appointed by the Mayor.

The Advisory Board is to be comprised of citizens chosen from among the following categories:

- * land use and urban planning and architecture;
- * transportation planning and alternative and mass transit;
- * historic conservation and preservation, including expertise and/or interest in cultural resources;
- * engineering and construction, including expertise and/or interest in geotechnical and structural engineering, public infrastructure and large-scale project management;
- * real estate development and financing;
- * economic development and job generation and organized labor; first-source hiring, welfare to
