

1 [Supporting California Assembly Bill No. 1125: Household Battery Recycling Act.]

2
3 Resolution urging the California legislature to pass AB 1125: Household Battery
4 Recycling Act.

5
6 WHEREAS, The Environmental Protection Agency estimates that three billion batteries 7 are sold in the United States annually; and

8 WHEREAS, Virtually all household batteries contain hazardous materials, mainly heavy 9 metals which, if not disposed of properly, leak into the ground contaminating our water and 10 food supply; and,

11 WHEREAS, Currently less than five percent of rechargeable batteries and less than 12 one percent of one-time use batteries are recycled; and,

13 WHEREAS, The California Department of Toxic Substances Control has recently 14 determined that all discarded batteries are toxic and must be disposed of as hazardous waste; 15 and,

16 WHEREAS, California's Universal Waste Rule prohibits the disposal of all household 17 batteries in landfill and granted a temporary exemption from this landfill ban which expires on 18 February 8, 2006; and,

19 WHEREAS, The Department of the Environment and local businesses in San 20 Francisco have been able to successfully to put in a place a system which offers residents 60 21 different locations to drop off used batteries for recycling; and,

22 WHEREAS, AB 1125 would require every retailer of household batteries sold in 23 California to have in place a system convenient to the public for the acceptance and collection 24 of used household batteries for reuse, recycling, or proper disposal by February 1, 2006; and,
25

1 WHEREAS, AB 1125 would also require every retailer of household batteries to make 2 information available to consumers about household battery recycling opportunities by posting
3 signage, providing written materials, or communicating directly with the consumer at the time 4 of purchase; and,

5 WHEREAS, AB 1125 would require the cost of this program to be internalized by 6 battery producers and consumers at or before the point of purchase and that the costs of the 7 program shall not be borne by the local government or taxpayers; now, therefore, be it

8 RESOLVED, That Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco
9 hereby urges the California legislature to pass AB 1125; and, be it

10 FURTHER RESOLVED, That Clerk of the Board send a copy of the final signed 11 resolution to Assembly Member Fran Pavley, PO Box 942849, Sacramento, CA 94249-0041.
