5 May 15, 2026, as Yau Kung Moon Day in the City and County of San Francisco.

7 WHEREAS, Yau Kung Moon (YKM) is a traditional Shaolin martial arts system that 8 uniquely emphasizes both physical and mental well-being, and is widely recognized as a 9 leading organization in martial arts, lion dance, and dragon dance worldwide; and

10 WHEREAS, YKM is regarded as a pioneer and gold standard in both Northern and 11 Southern lion dance styles due to its strong foundation in martial arts principles; and

12 WHEREAS, the YKM system is based on the movements of ten characteristic animals; 13 Dragon, Snake, Tiger, Leopard, Crane, Lion, Elephant, Horse, Monkey, and Eagle, integrating 14 their varied strength, agility, grace, and speed into a unified and distinctive martial system; 15 and

16 WHEREAS, Originating in the Tang Dynasty, the YKM system was founded by Shaolin 17 monk Ding Yang and for centuries remained a closely guarded tradition, passed down from 18 Grandmasters to select disciples within the Shaolin Temple; and

19 WHEREAS, During the Qing Dynasty, the destruction of temples forced monks to flee; 20 however, Doe Sung, a principal disciple of Yau Kung Moon, survived and preserved the 21 system, continuing the tradition of passing it to one disciple per generation; and

22 WHEREAS, In 1924, YKM was first introduced to the public by Great Grandmaster Ha 23 Hon Hung, who expanded the system throughout China, established numerous schools in the 24 Guangdong Province and Hong Kong, and passed the art on to his son, Grandmaster Ha 25 Kwok Cheung; and

1           WHEREAS, In the 1960's, Wong Cheung and Van Tak Kei, two top disciples of 2 Grandmaster Ha Kwok Cheung, immigrated to the United States from Hong Kong, with 3 Master Wong settling in San Francisco and Master Van in Los Angeles; and

4           WHEREAS, In 1975, the Yau Kung Moon Kung Fu Sport Association was established
5 in the United States to promote and preserve the YKM system, becoming one of the most 6 respected martial arts, lion dance, and dragon dance organizations in the country; and

7           WHEREAS, Following tradition, Master Wong and Master Van passed their knowledge
8 to their top disciples, including Bill Lee, Loi Lok Fu, Lok Sang Lee, Michael Lau, David Louie, 9 and Bob Gin; and

10           WHEREAS, Yau Kung Moon San Francisco has operated for over 50 years and has 11 participated in more than 43 Lunar New Year Parades, bringing positivity, cultural pride, and 12 hope to the community; and

13           WHEREAS, In 1990 Yau Kung Moon San Francisco competed at the International 14 Golden Lion Championship held in Malaysia and won second place; and

15           WHEREAS, For the past 25 years, the masters and disciples have grown the YKM
16 Association to over 1,000 members strong, strengthening community ties through culturally 17 significant practices; and

18           WHEREAS, The Grandmasters Wong Cheung, Van Tak Kei, Lok Sang Lee, and 19 Michael Lau have played vital roles in the growth and preservation of YKM; and

20           WHEREAS, Grandmaster Bill Lee has been an integral leader in both the San 21 Francisco YKM and Chinatown communities, tirelessly supporting the preservation and 22 advancement of the art; and

23           WHEREAS, He established the YKM studio on Waverly Place in Chinatown and helped 24 cultivate a new generation of masters, setting a high standard for lion dance locally and 25 nationally; and

1           WHEREAS, The current generation of YKM leadership in San Francisco includes 2 Master Susan Yee, Master Richard Ow, and Master Norman Lau, who continue to guide and 3 mentor future generations of students; and

4           WHEREAS, Master Susan Yee, the only female YKM master, founded the first 5 successful all-female lion dance team in the United States in 1993, earning third place at the 6 International Chinese Martial Arts Championship and National Lion Dance Competition; and

7           WHEREAS, Master Richard Ow has dedicated over 25 years to preserving and 8 teaching YKM in Chinatown and the Sunset District, actively contributing to community events 9 and cultural education;

10          WHEREAS, Master Norman Lau, founder of Lion Dance Me, has advanced modern 11 lion dance while preserving traditional YKM foundations, achieving success in competitions 12 locally and internationally, empowering youth through leadership programs, and contributing 13 numerous volunteer performances to the community; and

14          WHEREAS, In 2023, Lion Dance Me competed at the Genting World Lion Dance 15 Championship in Malaysia and won the Western Lion King Title, and made history with the 16 first-ever female champion in a heavily male-dominated industry; and

17          WHEREAS, YKM provides youth with opportunities to learn Chinese heritage, cultivate 18 self-confidence, develop leadership skills, and actively serve their communities; and

19          WHEREAS, YKM lion dances are an essential part of Lunar New Year celebrations, 20 grand openings, and cultural events throughout San Francisco, enriching the city's vibrant 21 cultural landscape; now, therefore, be it

22          RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors recognizes Yau Kung Moon's vital role in 23 preserving cultural heritage, fostering cross-cultural understanding, empowering youth 24 leadership, and strengthening community bonds; and be it

1            FURTHER RESOLVED, That the San Francisco Board of Supervisors recognizes May 2 15, 2026, as Yau Kung Moon Day in the City and County of San Francisco.
