15 Be it ordained by the People of the City and County of San Francisco:

16 Section 1. The San Francisco Police Code is hereby amended by repealing Section 17 162, to read as follows:

18 ~~SEC. 162. FORTUNE TELLING, ETC., ADVERTISING AND CARRYING ON~~ 19 ~~BUSINESS OF, PROHIBITED.~~

20 ~~It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to advertise (by sign, circular, handbill or~~ 21 ~~in any newspaper, periodical or magazine, or other publication or publications, or by any other~~ 22 ~~means) to tell fortunes, to practice phrenology, to find or restore lost or stolen property, to~~
23 ~~locate oil wells, gold or silver or other ore or metal or natural product, to restore lost love or~~ 24 ~~friendship or affection, to unite or procure lovers, husbands, wives, lost relatives or friends, for~~ 25 ~~or without pay; by means of occult or psychic powers, faculties or forces, clairvoyance,~~
~~psychology, psychometry, spirits mediumship, seership, prophecy, astrology, palmistry,~~

1 necromancy, or other crafty science, cards, talismans, charms, potions, magnetism or 2 magnetized articles or substances, Oriental mysteries or magic of any kind or nature; or to 3 engage in or carry on any business the advertisement of which is prohibited by this Section;
4 provided that nothing in this Section shall apply to any ordained or duly accredited minister of 5 any form of religious belief, or to the faith, practice or teaching of any religious body; provided 6 that fees, gratuities, emoluments or profits therefor shall be paid solely to or for the benefit of 7 said religious body.

8 Section 2. The San Francisco Police Code is hereby amended by adding Section 9 1300 to 1321, as follows:

10 Sec. 1300. Purpose. The purpose of this legislation is to regulate fortunetellers, psychics, and 11 other similar businesses so that the City and County of San Francisco can efficiently and thoroughly 12 investigate fraud and deception; protect the public by preventing people who have been charged 13 with with a history of deceptive practices from having easy access to persons who may be vulnerable 14 to fraud or confidence games; and to ensure that consumers are provided with information regarding 15 services, rates, and complaint procedures, and to foster a positive business environment for 16 legitimate practitioners within this industry.

17 Sec. 1301. Permit Required for Fortunetelling. It shall be unlawful for any person to advertise 18 or offer or engage in the activity, enterprise, profession, trade, or undertaking of fortunetelling with the 19 object of gain, benefit or advantage, whether direct or indirect, without a valid permit issued by the San 20 Francisco Police Department. Gain, benefit or advantage includes but is not limited to economic 21 remuneration of any kind, including authorization to use credit issued to another, use of another's 22 property or assets, loans, or the provision of tangible items.

23 Sec. 1302. Definitions.

24 (a) Fortunetelling shall mean the telling of fortunes, forecasting of futures, or reading the 25 past, or furnishing of any information not otherwise obtainable by the ordinary process of

1 knowledge, by means of any occult, psychic power, faculty, force, clairvoyance, cartomancy,
2 psychometry, phrenology, spirits, tea leaves, tarot cards, scrying, coins, sticks, dice, sand, coffee
3 grounds, crystal gazing or other such reading, or through mediumship, seership, prophecy, augury,
4 astrology, palmistry, necromancy, mindreading, telepathy or other craft, art, science, talisman, charm,
5 potion, magnetism, magnetized article or substance, or by any such similar thing or act. It shall also 6 include effecting spells, charms, or incantations, or placing, or removing curses or advising the taking 7 or administering of what are commonly called love powders or potions in order, for example, to get or 8 recover property, stop bad luck, give good luck, put bad luck on a person or animal, stop or injure the 9 business or health of a person or shorten a person's life, obtain success in business, enterprise,
10 speculation and games of chance, win the affection of a person, make one person marry or divorce
11 another, induce a person to make or alter a will, tell where money or other property is hidden, make a 12 person to dispose of property in favor of another, or other such similar activity.

13 (b) Fortunetelling shall also include pretending to perform these actions.

14 (c) Person as used in Sections 1300 to 1321 shall mean an individual. Corporations and 15 other legal entities shall not be entitled to a fortuneteller permit.

16 Sec. 1303. Exception. Sections 1300 through 1321 shall not apply:

17 (a) To persons solely by reason that the person is engaged in the business of entertaining 18 the public by demonstrations of mindreading, mental telepathy, thought conveyance, magic, giving of 19 horoscopic readings or other fortunetelling at public places and in the presence of and within the 20 hearing of other persons, and where any questions answered as part of such entertainment may be 21 heard by all persons present at such public place.

22 (b) To persons conducting or participating in any religious ceremony as a minister, 23 missionary, medium, healer, or clairvoyant, hereinafter collectively referred to as minister, from any 24 bona fide church or religious association ~~maintaining a church and holding that conducts regular~~ 25

1 services and has a creed or set of religious principles that is recognized by all churches groups of 2 like faith, provided that:

3 (1) The benefit, gain or advantage shall be regularly accounted for and paid solely to or for 4 the benefit of the bona fide church or religious association except that the bona fide church or religious 5 association may pay to its ministers a salary or compensation based upon a percentage only, pursuant 6 to an agreement between the church and the ministers that is embodied in a resolution and transcribed
7 in the minutes of such church or religious association.

8 (2) The minister holds a certificate of ordination from such bona fide church or 9 religious association.

11 chapter or has provided false or misleading information required by this chapter to the Police
12 Department or other City agency.

13 (e 4.) The applicant has failed to pay the required fees.

14 Sec. 1306. Suspension, Revocation, or Reinstatement of Fortunetelling Permit.

15 When the Chief of Police determines that the permittee is violating or is attempting to violate 16 (as defined in Penal Code Section 664) any law of the State of California relating to fraud, theft, 17 burglary, use of violence, deceit, false impersonation, or is violating or attempting to violate (as 18 defined in Penal Code Section 664) any ordinance of the City and County of San Francisco or 19 the rules and regulations of the Police Department, permit restrictions or ordinances that are 20 applicable to the business, or has made material misrepresentations on the permit application or 21 other required reports, the Chief of Police, after written notice to the permittee, shall have the power to 22 suspend and, after due and proper hearing, shall have the power to revoke, any permit issued under the 23 provisions of Sections 1300 - 1321 inclusive. When suspended or revoked, the permittee shall 24 immediately surrender the permit to the Police Department's Permit Bureau.

1 The Chief of Police shall cause to be forwarded to the Tax Collector written notice of any 2 revocation, suspension or reinstatement of any permit herein provided for.

3 The permittee shall be prohibited from applying for a fortunetelling permit for one year
4 following denial or revocation of a fortunetelling permit.

5 The permittee may appeal the revocation to the Board of Appeal.

6 Sec. 1307. Permit Forwarded to Tax Collector; Payment of License Fees.

7 When the Chief of Police issues a permit under the provisions of this Article, the Chief of Police
8 shall cause such permit to be forwarded to the office of the Tax Collector for delivery to the permittee 9 upon the payment of the license fees.

10 Sec. 1308. Renewal of Permit.

11 A permit for fortunetelling shall be renewed as set forth in Sections 2.8 and 2.10 of this Code.

12 Sec. 1309. License Fees. Every holder of a fortuneteller's permit shall pay at the office of the 13 Tax Collector an annual license fee, payable in advance. The permit is not valid unless the license fee 14 has been paid.

15 Sec. 1310. Removal or Transfer of Permit or License Prohibited.

16 Nothing in Sections 1300 – 1321, inclusive, shall permit the removing or transferring of the 17 permit or license to any other location or person other than those for which or for whom the permit 18 or license was originally issued.

19 Sec. 1311. Deceptive Acts. Fortunetellers shall not engage in unfair or deceptive practices 20 within the meaning of California Business and Professions Code § 17200, during the conduct of 21 any fortunetelling activities.

22 Sec. 1312. Receipts.

23 (a) The fortuneteller shall issue a written receipt that shall include the name of the permittee 24 who provided the services, the permittee's permit number, the services rendered, the amount charged for 25

1 each service provided, and the amount paid or expected. If payment is made in a method other than 2 cash, check, or credit card, the receipt shall so indicate.

3 (b) The permittee must keep copies of receipts for five years from date of issuance.

4 Sec. 1313. Identification Cards. The Chief of Police shall provide each fortuneteller granted a 5 permit with an identification nameplate that shall contain a photograph, right thumbprint, name, and 6 permit number of the permittee. The permittee must post the identification nameplate in a location
7 clearly visible from the place where the fortuneteller tells fortunes or otherwise engages in the activity
8 regulated by this article. The Department shall charge a fee for each identification nameplate issued 9 as set annually by the San Francisco Police Commission.

10 Sec. 1314. Rate Schedule and Complaint Procedure.

11 (a) When a fortuneteller operates at a roving or unfixd location, the fortuneteller shall 12 provide a written copy of rate information to the customer that shall be printed in plain, legible letters.
13 The rate document shall include a statement that if the customer has complaints, the customer may 14 phone the City and County of San Francisco at 551-9595 San Francisco Police Department
15 Permit Bureau at 553-1115.

16 (b) When a fortuneteller operates out of a fixed location, the fortuneteller shall post rate
17 information in a conspicuous place accessible by the patrons at the fixed location on a sign at least 8 x
18 10 inches in 14 pt. type. The signage shall also include a statement that if the customer has complaints,
19 the customer may phone the San Francisco Police Department Permit Bureau at 552-1115. the City
20 and County of San Francisco at 551-9595.

21 (c) If the fortuneteller operates by donation or an indirect method of payment, including 22 remuneration that is at the discretion of the customer, the schedule of rates shall so indicate.

23 (d) The rates published shall be the only rates charged.

24 Sec. 1315. Advertising. All persons who advertise fortunetelling shall include in the 25 advertising the number of the permit issued by the San Francisco Police Department.

1 Sec. 1316. Updated Information. When any of the information required by this Article or 2 provided by the applicant changes, the permit holder shall within 15 days of the change provide to the 3 Police Department's Permit Bureau in writing the updated information.

4 Sec. 1317. Effective Date. Any person operating as a fortuneteller within the City and County
5 of San Francisco when ordinance enacted, shall have three months from the effective date of the Article 6 to obtain a permit.

7 Sec. 1318. Rules and Regulations to be Adopted. The Chief of Police may, after a public 8 hearing, make and enforce reasonable rules and regulations not in conflict with, but to carry out, the 9 intent of Sections 1300 to 1321. If the Chief adopts such rules and regulations, the Chief shall 10 mail copies of the rules and regulations to all holders of permits under this Chapter.

11 Sec. 1319. Ascertainment of Compliance With All Law; Inspections Therefore

12 The permittee shall upon request provide to the Police Department for inspection copies 13 of all documents that the permittee is required by Sections 1300 to 1321 and by other laws to 14 keep upon request. It shall be the duty of the Chief of Police to ascertain that all laws of the 15 State of California, the provisions of Sections 1300 to 1321, inclusive, all ordinances of the 16 City and County of San Francisco, and the rules and regulations of the Police Department are 17 strictly complied with, and for that purpose the representatives of the Police Department shall 18 have access to any fortunetelling business at all hours the business is in operation. If the 19 location is also a residence, the Police Department's right to inspect shall be limited to the 20 areas where the officer reasonably believes that the fortunetelling business is conducted. The 21 Police may also and may request that a permittee provide copies of documents required to be 22 kept. The Police Department shall inspect as often as it deems necessary.

23 Sec. 1320. Penalty. Any person violating any provision of this section shall be guilty of a 24 misdemeanor or an infraction. The complaint charging such violation shall specify whether the 25 violation is a misdemeanor or infraction, which decision shall be that of the District Attorney.

1 If charged as an infraction, upon conviction, the violator shall be punished by a fine of not less 2 than $100 or more than $500, and/or community service, for each provision violated.

3 If charged as a misdemeanor, upon conviction, the violator shall be punished by a fine of not 4 less than $200 or more than $800, and/or community service, for each provision violated, or by 5 imprisonment in the County Jail for a period of not more than six months, or by both such fine and 6 imprisonment.

7 In any accusatory pleading charging a violation of this section, if the defendant has been 8 previously convicted of a violation of this section, each such previous violation and conviction may be 9 charged in the accusatory pleading. Any person violating any provision of this section a second time 10 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not less than $300 and not more
11 than $900, and/or community service, for each provision violated, or by imprisonment in the County
12 Jail for a period of not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Any person 13 violating any provision of this section a third time, and each subsequent time shall be guilty of a 14 misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not less than $400 and not more than $1,000, and/or 15 community service, for each provision violated, or by imprisonment in the County Jail for a period of 16 not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

17 Sec. 1321. Severability Clause. If any provision or clause of this ordinance or the application 18 thereof to any person or circumstance is held to be unconstitutional or to be otherwise invalid by any 19 court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect other article provisions or clauses or 20 applications, and to this end the provisions and clauses of this ordinance are declared to be severable.
