3 Resolution supporting California State Assembly Bill No. 12, Security Deposits,
4 authored by Assembly Member Matt Haney, to limit the maximum amount of rental
5 security deposits at one month's rent.
6

7 WHEREAS, Rental costs in California continue to rise and the average rent in San 8 Francisco ranges from $3550 for a one-bedroom apartment to $5000 for a two-bedroom 9 apartment; and

10 WHEREAS, The current California Law allows landlords to charge two times the rent 11 and in some cases three times the monthly rent for a security deposit; and

12 WHEREAS, That means in San Francisco, renters may need to pay as much as 13 $12,000 or $15,000 for their security deposit in order to move in; and

14 WHEREAS, This high amount for security deposits creates a huge barrier for renters 15 by causing some renters to borrow from predatory lenders or go in debt in order to access 16 housing; and

17 WHEREAS, When renters cannot afford a security deposit, they may be forced to stay 18 in crowded, insufficient, or even unsafe living situations and some may remain unhoused as a 19 result; and

20 WHEREAS, While inflation has increased the cost of repairs for wear and tear on 21 apartments, it remains far below the increase in the costs of security deposits due to 22 skyrocketing rents; and

23 WHEREAS, For example, the rent in the City of Los Angeles has increased by over 24 65% in the last decade, however, the cost of repairs has risen by far less; and 25

1           WHEREAS, Assembly Bill No. 12 (AB 12), introduced by Assembly Member Matt
2 Haney, will limit the maximum amount for rental security deposits at one month's rent; and

3           WHEREAS, AB 12 will have no effect on potential-liability as landlords will still be able 4 to seek damages from tenants who are responsible for harm to the property that exceeds the 5 amount of the security deposit; and

6           WHEREAS, California passed a law with bipartisan support to set the maximum 7 amount for security deposits for military service members at one month's rent; and

8           WHEREAS, If AB 12 passes, California will be the twelfth state in the country, joining 9 states such as New York, Kansas, Hawaii, and Alabama, to limit security deposits to only one 10 month's rent; and

11           WHEREAS, the City and County of San Francisco recognizes the housing affordability 12 challenges that have been rising over the last decade and the barriers to accessing housing;
13 now, therefore, be it

14           RESOLVED, That the San Francisco Board of Supervisors hereby supports California 15 Assembly Bill No. 12 and urges the California State Legislature to pass this bill in order to 16 remove barriers to housing for all California renters; and, be it

17           FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors hereby directs the Clerk of the 18 Board to transmit a copy of this Resolution to the California Senate President pro Tempore 19 Toni Atkins, California Assembly Speaker Anthony Rendon, Governor Gavin Newsom, and 20 the Bill's primary sponsor, Assembly Member Matt Haney.
