3 Resolution recognizing August 7-13, 2005 as "National Health Center Week" in the City
4 and County of San Francisco.
5

6 WHEREAS, this year America's health centers celebrate 40 years since the creation of 7 the Health Center program; and,

8 WHEREAS, the Health Center program brings service to 15 millions Americans, 9 specifically, low income and medically underserved communities; and,

10 WHEREAS, these centers provide invaluable service to the community by providing 11 access to preventive care, such as immunizations, as well as helping prevent illnesses like 12 anemia and lead poisoning; and,

13 WHEREAS, health centers are among the best managers of chronic illnesses, 14 exceeding national standards, ultimately improving the health care of chronic patients and 15 lowering costs of treatments; and,

16 WHEREAS, health centers provide our nation with 78,000 full time jobs which 17 stimulates both economic and community growth; and,

18 WHEREAS, health centers play a key role in ensuring that all Americans can get 19 affordable healthcare regardless of racial or ethnic background; and,

20 WHEREAS, the National Health Center Week theme for 2005 – The Proud Legacy of 21 America's Health Centers "A Model for Today – A Solution for Tomorrow"– seeks to highlight 22 the achievements of the health centers over the past 40 years and the role they can play in 23 providing American's health care; now, therefore, be it
