Most of the members the unions I have worked with (UNITE, UNITE HERE, and SEIU USWW) are women, immigrants and people of color. In San Francisco USWW members live mostly in Mid-market, Tenderloin, Bayview and Western Addition. Many members have been forced to move to the East Bay and elsewhere due to the rising rents. Dear Supervisors Avalos, Cohen and Tang,

I am writing to express my enthusiastic support for the appointment of Yuval Miller to the San Francisco Sweatfree Procurement Advisory Group. I have known Yuval since 2004 when we were classmates together at Yale Law School. I know from this experience and from his professional track record since then that Yuval has both a strong commitment to, and a deep understanding of, civil, human and labor rights issues.

I am also very familiar with the work of the city's Sweatfree Procurement Advisory Group, as the organization to which I am general counsel, the Worker Rights Consortium, has served as the city's independent monitor for compliance with the city's Sweat-Free Procurement Ordinance. I am certain that, if appointed to the Advisory Group, Yuval will bring the same commitment, insight and principled approach to its work that he has to his other personal and professional pursuits, and that he will contribute greatly to its mission, efficiency and effectiveness.

I recommend Yuval Miller's appointment wholeheartedly. Thank you for your attention.

Respectfully,

Ben Hensler

Supervisors Avalos, Tang, and Cohen,

I'm a San Francisco resident (in D-6) and work in San Francisco as an attorney. I write to enthusiastically express my support for Yuval Miller's appointment to the San Francisco Sweatfree Procurement Advisory Group.

I have known Yuval for over five years, since we served together as Co-Chairs of the San Francisco Bay Area Minority Bar Coalition. I've seen firsthand Yuval's experience as a diverse leader coordinating and advocating on behalf of diverse community groups. In addition, he's a perfect fit for the available seat as he has served as an international human rights advocate and currently serves as a labor rights advocate. I can't imagine someone more qualified to serve in this position for the City.

I hope you will give him your vote to serve the City as a member of the Sweatfree Procurement Advisory Group.

Thanks very much.
