12 Be it ordained by the People of the City and County of San Francisco:

13

14 Section 1. Findings.

15 Pretrial services involving alternatives to incarceration are a core element of San 16 Francisco's criminal justice system, annually impacting thousands of people who are booked 17 into and released from the San Francisco County Jail. Currently, pretrial services involving 18 alternatives to incarceration are administered by a private entity under an agreement with the 19 San Francisco Sheriff's Department. To enhance that coordination and collaboration and 20 promote public safety and the success of justice-impacted individuals and our communities, 21 the entity primarily responsible for administering pretrial services in San Francisco, 22 customarily funded through the San Francisco Sheriff Office's Pretrial Incarceration
23 Alternatives contract, should be represented on the Reentry Council.
