Resolution recognizing the importance of children’s earliest years and the need to support early child-care programs and services, and declaring April 17, 2004 through April 24, 2004 as “Week of the Young Child” in the City and County of San Francisco.

WHEREAS, The sixth annual San Francisco Week of the Young Child is held in conjunction with the nationwide celebration sponsored by the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC); and,

WHEREAS, The Week of the Young Child is designed to build broader support for early childhood programs; and,

WHEREAS, The Week of the Young Child is a time to plan how we—as citizens of a community, a state, and a nation—can improve the well-being and happiness of all young children and their families; and,

WHEREAS, The Week of the Young Child will provide information regarding achievements in childcare, as well as address persisting child-care related problems; and,

WHEREAS, The Week of the Young Child will honor individuals who have made outstanding contributions to the child-care profession and who improve the quality of life for children and families in San Francisco; and,

WHEREAS, One in ten children in San Francisco has asthma and are undiagnosed, and the Week of the Young Child will provide professionals to address this persisting problem in our community; and,

WHEREAS, The Week of the Young Child will provide information for anyone interested in a career in child development, early care, and education; and,

1 WHEREAS, The Week of the Young Child offers an opportunity to learn more about 2 current child care and child welfare policy issues; now, therefore be it
